

COX TO HELP DEMOCRATS IN INDIANA WIN

State Needs Change from G. O. P. Mismanagement, He Says at Marion.

By FELIX F. BRUNER, Times Staff Correspondent.
MARION, Ind., April 14.—Gov. James M. Cox of Ohio, in a speech here last night, declared that he expected to give considerable aid to the present campaign to help Indiana elect a democratic governor and send at least some democratic congressmen to Washington.

"It doesn't take five minutes to convince any citizen that you ought to have a change in your state government," he said.

Gov. Cox heartily approved the candidacy of "Thomson" Taggart for the United States senate.

The banquet at which Gov. Cox spoke was attended by more than 300 persons. It was given under auspices of the Marion Jefferson club.

Among other speakers were the four candidates for the democratic nomination for governor: Samuel Cook and George M. Ransel, candidates for the democratic nomination for congress from the Eleventh district; Charles Hughes of Peru, candidate for the democratic nomination for auditor of state; George M. Ransel, candidate for congress from the Eleventh district, and Mrs. Alice Foster McCulloch of Ft. Wayne, chairman of the state organization of democratic women.

On a motion by Bernard B. Shively, the meeting unanimously approved the candidacy of Mrs. McCulloch for delegate at large from Indiana to the democratic national convention.

James K. Rishwone of the candidates for the nomination for governor, was called on by declared the democratic organization has been crooked in the past.

He said he would name some of the leaders who had a part in this crookedness.

He started with Thomas Taggart, but he said he had no further to go.

There were cries of "sit down," and "your time is up" from all parts of the hall, and there was such a clapping of hands and such a general disturbance that the speaker was forced to sit down.

The Eleventh district has previously been considered anything but a Taggart stronghold.

Gov. Cox told his audience that the republican hope of victory at the polls this fall is rapidly waning.

"What the republicans held to be a 'win' has been changed in the last two or three weeks," he said.

"What seemed to be a certain republican victory has developed into a mirage."

Gov. Cox declared that the defeat of the peace treaty in the senate was the "most disastrous political episode in all the history of this country."

He charged that the dominating impulse behind the treaty cabal in the senate was to emasculate the peace pact so as to discredit the president," he said.

Gov. Cox said the treaty was defeated not even by one-third of the senate, but by two men, Senators Borah and Johnson.

He referred to their warning to Senator Lodge that if he accepted any compromise on the reservations they would bolt the republican party and form a party of their own.

Gov. Cox told of the treaty with Spain and how Senator Lodge, when that treaty was before the senate, demanded of the democratic senators that they vote for ratification to prevent the president from suffering the humiliation of returning to France with the treaty at the bidding of only a minority of the senate.

GIVES RULINGS ON STATE PRIMARIES

County committees of political parties in Indiana will appoint precinct committees in precincts created by division of other precincts, as a result of the announcement of election law interpretations by the state election commission.

There had been some question as to the right of a candidate who had filed in the old precinct to step into the vacancy in a new one, but Gov. Goodrich and his two election commissioners decided the appointive power should lie with the party organizations.

The commission followed the recent opinion of E. S. Stansbury, attorney general, in deciding that women can not be delegates to state conventions this year nor candidates for county offices prior to the approval of the suffrage amendment.

In determining the limit on campaign expenditures the 1916 vote should be the guide in the case of four-year candidates and the 1915 vote in the case of two-year candidates, the commission decided.

Under the law the legal amount for such expenditures is based on the number of votes cast for that office at the next preceding election.

Names of all candidates for president, vice president and state offices shall be placed on the ballot. It was decided, even though a candidate has no opposition.

Where there is only one candidate for precinct committeeman or any office of any subdivision of the state the name shall not be placed on the ballot.

The candidate shall be certified by the election commissioners just as though a primary election had been held.

Robert Tyler, publicity director for Gen. Wood, who originated the plan of paying $250 for the writing of testimonials for Wood, has been transferred to the Chicago headquarters of the Wood campaign.

Harry Hogan, state manager for Wood, announces the formation of two more "faith accumulating organizations." One is to be known as the State Traveling Men's Wood for President league and the other as the Mayors' Wood for President league.

Three members of Mayor Jewett's official family have taken the stump for James W. Fessler. They are Dixon H. Bynum and Harry Koeck of the legal department and Dr. Sumner Furness, colored conciliator.

E. C. Toner and J. W. Fessler, republican candidates for governor, are speaking in the north part of the state, where the sentiment has been found to be largely favorable to Warren T. McCray.

A subcommittee of the republican platform committee will meet tomorrow at the state republican headquarters in this city.

Driver Goes to Jail for Injury to Girl

A jail sentence of fifteen days was added to a fine of $1 and costs by Judge Walter Pritchard in city court for a taxi-driver whose car struck down a girl.

Clifford Douglas, 25, 625 South Warren avenue, is the driver, who was found guilty of assault and battery late yesterday.

He was arrested after his machine knocked down Miss Bessie Miller, 5442 University avenue, at Meridian and Washington streets.

Charges of driving past a street car and using and abusing passengers and not displaying lights on his machine were dismissed.

meeting a week ago in which Albert Baker, attorney for the school board, was said to have made a remark to the effect that the tax law should be killed by the legislature.

Mr. Zaercher countered over the statement and intimated that it was unbecoming in view of the fact that the school board wished favors in regard to finances from the tax board.

Mr. Baker, who was present at the meeting, arose and emphatically denied every having made such a statement.

STENOGRAPHIC REPORT
ANSWERS MR. BAKER.

However, a stenographic report of the meeting alluded to was taken by Walter Carpenter and the following statement made by Mr. Baker, and upon which the Times statement was based, is taken verbatim from the report:

"I think if the legislature ever gets into session one thing that you must do is to help kill the whole of the tax law, which allows the tax board to control your levy."

This statement was made by Mr. Baker at the board meeting referred to in addition to other comments on the education tax measure.

At the close of the session members of the tax board seized the opportunity of an audience to insist that the school tax law, despite the torrent of criticism being made against it, is the greatest tax measure on the Indiana statutes.

NEWSIE BANQUET SCORES BIG HIT

Yum, yum, yum.
The eats were great and the hospitality even better, for such a thing could be.

So thought 150 newshounds and carriers of The Indiana Daily Times who were guests at a dinner given last night by the Scottish Rite Masons at the Scottish Rite Temple.

The Masons also had as their guests the carriers of the Indianapolis Star and street newshounds for all papers, which increased the total number of banquetees to approximately 1,000.

The Times' newshounds, boys and girls, as well as the street boys, met at the Times building at 6 o'clock and marched to the temple, where the auditorium and balcony were transformed into a banquet hall.

The newshounds' band played several numbers while the banquet was in progress.

Because of the large number present a program arranged by the Hoosier Trio and Harry Porter was not given.

The banquet was the main thing and the Masons certainly entertained their young guests in a wonderful manner, it was said.

A dinner will be given Thursday night for the carriers of the Indianapolis News. This entertainment will conclude the plans of the Masons to entertain every newshound and carrier in Indianapolis.

Those in charge of the arrangements last night for the Masons were W. H. Eckstahler, D. T. Billingsley, Martin T. Orr and James W. Lilly.

The program committee consisted of C. E. Chapman, B. C. Downey, John E. Miller, Calvin W. Busch, Rev. Louie A. Richardson, Edson T. Folsom, H. L. Richardson, Charles Payne, Carl B. Julian, Ralph Fernstermacher and James H. Makin.

RELIEF SPEAKERS AT 28 MEETINGS

Eight speakers of the flying squadron of the near east relief committee invaded Indianapolis today to plead at twenty-eight meetings for Armenian orphans.

"If America only knew, if Indianapolis really understood the plight of Armenian babies, the money would come easily," said Mrs. Otis Floyd Lamson, Seattle society woman, pleading for the relief fund at a meeting of the Seventh District Federated clubs at the Odd Fellows building at noon.

Mrs. Lamson was born in Armenia and as a child carried messages to political prisoners in Turkish dungeons when no other means of communication was possible.

The campaign will close tonight when Paxton Hibben, former Indianapolis man, will speak at a mass meeting in Caleb Mills hall.

Among the speakers at various meetings were: Dr. W. E. Smith of Chicago, W. Va.; Dr. J. C. Clark of Harrisburg, Pa.; Dr. H. F. Pelligrini of Baltimore, and Dr. Isaac Yonan and Lieut. Frank Conner.

U. S. to Sell Beef During Strike Here

Frozen beefs in storage for the United States army will be offered for sale to the public at 10¢ cents a pound during the railroad strike, the war department has informed Gov. Goodrich.

The meat may be ordered through the zone supply office of the army, 1819 West Thirty-ninth street, Chicago.

No food shortage has been occasioned here because of the strike, Stanley Wyckoff, fair price commissioner, said today.

Dick Miller Calls Profits Tax Injury

The excess profits tax is branded "an enemy of thrift" by Dick Miller, president of the City Trust Company.

He told Rotarians at their weekly luncheon yesterday afternoon, that the excess profits tax was effective as a war measure, but is indefensible in peace times.

Mr. Miller suggested the substitution of a sales tax of approximately 1 per cent.

Sidney Storey of New Orleans told Rotarians that of sixty-seven ships in dock at New Orleans last week, fifty-three flew the American flag.

ask the county and township officials to permit trucks to pass over the roads during the present crisis.

He urged Goodrich to call a conference to see that this could be done, he claims.

The Deem license law was held unconstitutional in a ruling handed down last night by the city court of Indianapolis.

It is said the present increase of trucks on the roads has re-opened a breach between the foes of the law and those who are responsible for it.

A meeting of highway transport men will be held with the wholesale grocers of Indianapolis tomorrow noon at the Chamber of Commerce, when it is hoped a uniform scale of rates can be established for trucking service.

If satisfactory arrangements can be made the old C. I. & W. freighthouse will be taken over as a motor truck shipping center.

How Is Your Weight?

While it is true that too much weight is not to be desired yet the fact remains that many men and women are thin to the point of danger. This danger lies in their having no reserve force or nerve power to combat deadly diseases.

A little extra flesh is needed by all to feel well and to look well, and this calls up the question of how best to increase the weight. Food and chemicals by experimenters have solved the problem of increasing the white and red corpuscles in the blood by the administration of 3 grains hypos-nitric tablets, and this is usually followed by an increase of weight. Obtain in sealed packages, and take for a period of several months, according to directions with package. Advertisement.

decided what course to pursue individually.

Brotherhood officials have declared the strike "illegal" and an attempt to discredit the railroad unions which entered into an agreement with the president to leave wage disputes to the government commission.

S. S. Long, president of the Hoosier Lodge Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, issued a vigorous denial of the claim by strike leaders that all officials of the brotherhood with one exception had joined the newly organized Indianapolis yardmen's association.

Frank J. Peters, president of the Indianapolis yardmen's association, said the switchmen were still out solidly in this district and that there had been no indications of defection from the ranks.

Strikers and strike sympathizers who attended a meeting at Tomlinson hall last night were addressed by a number of speakers, including Harvey Simmons of MacIntosh' Local No. 511 and former socialist alderman of Schenectady, N. Y., and organizers of independent railroad unions.

Simmons praised the switchmen for their fight against the "old order of things" and other speakers urged them to stand firm until their demands are granted.
