

ARIED MOVIE BILLS ON TAP FOR NEXT WEEK

A MYSTERY movie, a drama of the frozen lands of Canada, William Farnum in a drama of sacrifice, Charles Ray in a rube characterization and Constance Talmadge in a massive movie of the ancient days will bid for favor next week on the movie screen.

Margery Daw will be at the Circle in the warning, "Don't Ever Marry," which is one of the comedy features of the menu.

The mystery end of the movie menu will be found at the Ohio in the form of "The Mystery of the Yellow Room."

After a long absence the shadow of Bill Farnum will be seen at the Alhambra and Constance Talmadge will appear at the Colonial.

Another comedy contribution will be Charles Ray in "The Hick" at the Isis.

THE CIRCLE. When three women claim one man for a husband, it is bound to create trouble. When he really loves one of them his explanations in regard to the other two are bound to be funny to anyone not involved.

Also when it develops that the other two wouldn't have him for a husband on a bet, their reasons for claiming him are interesting.

Of such complication is the humorous, interesting Marshall Neilan production, "Don't Ever Marry," which will be the attraction at the Circle theater all next week.

Marshall Neilan has chosen for his characters such types as Matt Moore for the besieged bridegroom, Margery Daw, Betty Bouton and Christine Mayo, the three brides, all married to the same man, little freckle-faced Wesley Barry as the "world's famous keyhole peeper" in the hotel where the honeymooners have their difficulties.

The Circle's program will contain other features including travel and novelty subjects, the Circle of News and Yvonne Leroux, the accomplished young violinist.

"MYSTERY OF THE YELLOW ROOM." The movies are now following on the heels of the stage in presenting mystery plays.

The latest movie mystery is called "The Mystery of the Yellow Room." The daughter of Prof. Stangerson shrieks for help at midnight.

When the door to her room is opened, murder and robbery is discovered, but the criminal can not be found.

There is no possible chance for the culprit to escape unless through the door, which was locked from the inside.

The mystery is not solved until a newspaper reporter gets on the job. William S. Walcott plays the role of the professor, Ethel Gray Terry is the daughter, Edmund Elton as her fiancé, George Cowl as the detective and Loria Baker as the newspaper man.

Opens at the Ohio Sunday for all week.

WILLIAM FARNUM. Bill Farnum sacrifices his career for his sister in "Heart Strings."

The scenes are laid in a small village near Quebec and in New York.

"Big Bill" Farnum appears as Pierre Fournel, a French-Canadian musical genius, who loves his violin first and cherishes his sister.

The sister falls in love with a criminal and Bill passes up his big opportunity on the musical stage to save her from a life of shame.

In the cast will be Henry Albert Phillips, Gladys Coburn, Paul Cazenueve and Robert Cain.

The bill includes a Christy farce, "Perfect Husbands."

Opening at the Alhambra Sunday for four days.

"THE HICK." Charles Ray plays the role of a greenhorn in "The Hick."

Charles falls in love with Bessie Barriscale, a village miss, who wins first prize in a beauty contest.

Charles had easy sailing until Bessie won the beauty prize and then the other boys in the town fell for Bessie.

How Charles wins the village beauty is unfolded in this comedy.

The story was written by C. Gardner Sullivan.

--- --

"THE FALL OF BABYLON." D. W. Griffith will present next week at the Colonial a movie called "The Fall of Babylon."

It is a big production and Constance Talmadge appears as a maiden in the days of Cyrus, King of the Persians.

Constance, even in those days, and although a mountain girl, goes to Babylon to buy a dress.

She trades apples and other fruit for the garment and on her way home is captured by a merchant of the Marriage Market.

She is taken to the market to be sold, but the appearance of Prince Belshazzar saves her from a terrible fate.

Then follows some very exciting times for Constance.

As usual, Griffith stages some of his famous battle scenes in which horses, chariots, ancient implements of war all take a prominent part.

The cast includes Mildred Harris, Chaplin, Seena Owen, Tully Marshall, Eric Strheim, Elmo Lincoln, George Fawcett, Alma Rubens and others.

THE REGENT. E. K. Lincoln will play the chief role in "Desert Gold," which opens Sunday at the Regent.

Lincoln plays the role of Dick Gale, a young soldier of fortune, and the story concerns his adventures in a western country.

Lincoln's chief duty is the rescue of his sweetheart from a band of outlaws. Frank Lansing, Margery Wilson, Elleen Percy, William H. Baldwin and others are in the cast.

Bill includes Snub Pollard in "Speed to Spare."

"THE RIVER'S END." The photoplay attraction at Mr. Smith's next week will be James Oliver Curwood's story, "The River's End," produced by Marshall Neilan.

"The River's End" is a new story of God's country, of the snow wastes of the frozen north, of the edge of civilization.

The scenes were taken far up in Canada.

In this setting is laid a story of tremendous action and of deep heart interest, the story of a man driven into exile because charged with murder, and who, when he realizes he is about to die, asks another man, who bears a striking resemblance to him, to change places with him and carry on his life.

Around this situation is written the story of "The River's End."
