FIGHT ON IN GEORGIA

ATLANTA, Ga., April 23.—A bitter fight in the Georgia democratic primary for control of the delegates to the national convention was in prospect today.

Supporters of Thomas E. Watson planned to protest against allowing the delegation to go to the convention instructed to vote for Attorney General Palmer.

While Palmer will have 146 votes at the state convention as a result of Tuesday's primary election, fourteen more than Watson, the latter received the large popular vote.

WOOD GETS ONLY TWO OF NEB. DELEGATES

OMAHA, Neb., April 23. — Senator Hiram Johnson failed to get all sixteen of the republican delegates in this state, returns today showed.

Gen. Wood carried the Second district, which includes Omaha, and the two delegates from that district will be instructed for Wood.

W. J. Bryan is running fourth as a candidate for delegate at large for the national convention.

MISSOURIANS UPHOLD WILSON

JOPLIN, Mo., April 23.—Senator James Reed was further humiliated today by the Missouri democratic convention when it refused to accept him, even as a district delegate to the national convention.

President Wilson's fight for a league of nations stands approved by Missouri democrats as a result of a midnight vote at the democratic state convention here. The endorsement of Wilson's peace efforts are considered as censuring the fight made by Reed against the league in the senate.

STATE DEMOCRATS TO HEAR BOWERS

Claude G. Bowers of St. Wayne will make one of the principal addresses at the democratic state convention in Tomlinson hall, May 19 and 20, according to an announcement at democratic state headquarters today.

Mr. Bowers will discuss the political situation in Indiana.

The national situation will be discussed by Vice President Thomas R. Marshall, as temporary chairman.

Samuel M. Ralston, the permanent chairman, will make only a short speech. Mr. Bowers will be secretary of the convention.

CALLS MICHIGAN JOHNSON GUAGE

The result of the Michigan primaries is a fair indication of the standing of Senator Hiram Johnson in the republican presidential campaign, according to Congressman Louis C. Crampton, who arrived at Johnson headquarters today to speak with Patrick H. O'Donnell of Chicago at a meeting at Tomlinson hall tonight.

Mr. Crampton said each of the candidates had an equal opportunity to appeal to Michigan voters, and that Johnson's appeal won support fairly.

He ridiculed any idea that the Johnson vote was brought about by radicalism.

FESLER MAKES BID FOR COLORED VOTE

A desperate last-minute effort to swing the negro voters of Indianapolis to J. W. Fesler, whose nomination for governor by the republicans is declared to be essential to the carrying of Marion county, is being made by the Fesler managers.

Just at present it is taking the form of telling how "strong" Fesler is for the negro, and in the exuberance of their statements the Fesler managers have created an argument over the question of who has done the most for the negro in Indianapolis politics.

Fesler managers who have been working along "the avenue" are pointing with pride to the alleged employment of negro women in the Fesler headquarters, where it is said white and black girls use the same desks in getting out the volume of campaign matter on which Charles Adams, county manager, and Charles O. Roemer, district chairman, are relying to win for Fesler.

Recently a number of negro politicians, including W. H. Jackson of "Calumet club" fame, put out a letter attempting to show that when Fesler was clerk of Marion county "the first colored man to hold a clerical position in our county courthouse was appointed by him as one of his deputies."

The Indianapolis World, a paper for colored people, calls attention to the statement, and says it is incorrect for the reason that Fesler was clerk in 1894 and "Frank D. Welch had been appointed by Jesse Adams, who was county auditor. Charles H. Baughman, now weighmaster in the Indianapolis post-office, was a deputy under the late Thomas Quill, township assessor. William W. Walden was a deputy under John W. Bowles, who is still here and in the active practice of law, he was then city clerk, and the late Moses G. McClain was also county clerk, and he had under him the brother of Robert Bruce Bagby, namely Ben D. Bagby, who served as one of his deputies until his term ended in December, 1898."

PURE CASCARA IS SPLENDID LAXATIVE; EFFICIENCY IS IMPROVED BY SENNA LEAVES

Pure cascara is one of the best laxatives known, but it is not always sufficient to overcome a severe case of constipation. Senna leaves are another popular home remedy for constipation, but like cascara, they will not answer the problem where the ailment is of long standing.

To secure best results, senna and cascara should be used in combination. Two small doses traveling in the same direction will always outpull one dose that weighs as much as both of them.

To mix cascara and senna in exactly the proper proportion to have a uniform dose requires a chemist's skill, but you can purchase them already mixed under the name of "Peppin Laxative Tablets," at Henry J. Huder's Drug stores, corner

Washington and Pennsylvania streets, or Illinois and Michigan streets, or from any other first class drug store anywhere.

Peppin Laxative Tablets are especially suitable for nursing mothers, for people with delicate stomachs and for children where great care must be exercised in selecting a laxative. They are pleasant to take. Eat them like candy.

One tablet should be taken night and morning, gradually discontinuing their use as the action of the bowels becomes normal.

When constipated, it is a good idea to take Peppin Laxative Tablets at the same time you take Peppin Tonic. The Laxative Tablets keep the bowels open, while the tonic acts as a strength builder.—Advertisement.
