

WILSON'S PLAN IN DALMATIAN DISPUTE WINS

Delegation Announces Premiers Have Agreed to Accept Compromise.

GREECE GETS BIG STRIP

SAN REMO, April 24.—Members of the Dalmatian delegation here today said they had learned the council of premiers would settle the Adriatic question on the basis of President Wilson's suggested compromise.

The sphere of Greek influence in the Smyrna district of Turkish Asia Minor, decided finally by the council of premiers today, gives Greece one of the most valuable concessions yet awarded any of the powers in the partition of Turkey.

The Greek concession extends more than fifty miles east and west of Smyrna and some sixty miles back into the hinterland.

CONCESSION VICTORY FOR VENIZELLOS

Boundaries of the Greek zone are: Starting from a point north of the Gulf of Adami, opposite the north coast of the island of Mytilene, running to the east, including Hatzefasar, then south, crossing the railway midway between Cassaba and Alesheria, near Saliki, which is excluded, then westward following the water shed of the Little Great Meander, the latter excluded with the city of Aidin, and finally reaching the sea near Scalanova, which is outside the Greek zone.

The concession was considered a victory for Premier Venizelos.

While nominal sovereignty remains in Turkey, with the right to raise her flag on one of the forts in the outer post, Greece will exercise effective control, it was understood.

Greek authorities will administer the city of Smyrna and occupy the country. She can not, however, impose military service as long as the present statute is in force.

GREECE TO SUBMIT ELECTIONAL LAW

Greece must submit an electoral law within six months after ratification of the Turkish peace treaty.

Elections will be held six months after the league of nations has approved the law.

Provisions for protecting Turkish minorities are included in the Smyrna statute.

The port is opened to subjects of all nations belonging to the league of nations.

The statute, however, can be changed at the request of the district parliament two years after convocation in the sense the parliament can ask annexation to Greece, but not to Turkey.

The supreme economic council will regulate economic relations between Turkey and the Greek zone.

Completion of the Smyrna decision was practically the only important work done by the council so far during the present session.

GERMANY DENIED INCREASE IN ARMY

BERLIN, April 23.—Allied military observers in Germany have decided that the German government should not be allowed a single man in its army more than the 100,000 allowed by the treaty of Versailles, it was learned today.

The decision became known shortly after the Berlin authorities had dispatched a note to the council of premiers, meeting in San Remo, Italy, asking permission to increase Germany's army to 200,000.

The military observers' decisions also include the following:

Reichswehr should be withdrawn completely from the Ruhr district.

The Ruhr workmen should be disarmed, delivering their weapons to the allies, who should destroy them in the presence of representatives of the workmen.

Dissolution of the German civil guards.

Industrial Chief to Talk to Rotary

D. D. Fennell, director of industrial relations of the National Association of Upholstered Furniture Manufacturers, will be the speaker before the regular weekly luncheon of the Rotary club Tuesday.

He will bring a message on cures for industrial unrest.

Walter E. Pittsford will preside in the absence from the city of President Matson and Vice President Floyd.

Indiana Fruit Crop Outlook Encouraging

"If Uncle Sam will see that the housewife gets sugar, Indiana will produce the fruit for the canning season," said Frank N. Wallace, state entomologist, today.

Mr. Wallace has been in Floyd, Clark, Jackson and other southern Indiana counties in the fruit belt, and reports conditions the most promising in years for a record yield of cherries, peaches and apples.

The late spring is a great benefit instead of a detriment for a bountiful fruit yield, he said.

Realtors Plan Series of Meetings in State

Three real estate organization meetings will be held next Thursday and Friday in Terre Haute, Vincennes and Evansville, according to officials of the Indiana Real Estate association.

Scott R. Brewer, secretary of the state organization, J. Edward Morris, former president; G. D. Gerhart of Kokomo, president; Earl Bullock, executive secretary of the state organization, and J. S. Cruise will attend the meetings.

Appeals for Soldier Aid Measures Lead

WASHINGTON, April 24.—Congress since April 1 has received more appeals for the passage of soldier aid legislation than for any other measure.

Running a close second, however, were demands that the bonus be refused and taxes be reduced and repealed.

Disapproval of universal military training ran third in the summary of petitions.

There were fourteen petitions for amnesty toward political prisoners and eleven for Irish freedom.

Tree Surgeons Called for Constitution Elm

The state conservation department will try to save the constitution elm at Corydon, which has been attacked by the elm leaf beetle, it was announced today.

Frank N. Wallace, state entomologist, has inspected the tree and recommended a spray as the first step in a campaign against the beetle.

GOULD DIVORCE WAR NOW IN U. S.

Paris Jurisdiction Challenged by Wife in Startling Plea.

NEW YORK, April 24.—The battle-ground for the marital wrangles of Frank J. Gould, millionaire, was shifted from Paris to New York today.

Mrs. Edith Kelly Gould, the actress second wife, from whom Gould was granted a divorce in French courts last spring, has filed a counter action for divorce here, claiming that the French courts had no jurisdiction.

Startling charges of Gould's intemperance and wild mode of living are contained in the complaint filed in New York.

Mrs. Gould charged that it was her husband's custom to drink a quart of whisky daily before 8 a. m., "after which he would sleep until afternoon and then resume drinking." From 1911 to 1918, she charged, Gould was in an habitual state of intoxication.

During these protracted drinking periods, Mrs. Gould charged, it was practically impossible to get her husband to bathe or dress more than once a month.

She also charged frequent unfaithfulness with various French women in Paris during the period of their marriage—from 1911 to 1918.

They were married in Scotland and separated in 1918 in Paris.

The company manufactures commercial gears by a patented multiple process.

SOFT DRINKS TO SOAR HERE MAY 1

The price of ice cream sodas, sundaes, milk shakes and other soft drinks will be advanced, beginning May 1.

Members of the Indianapolis Association of Retail Druggists at a meeting at the Chamber of Commerce formed a minimum schedule of soft drink prices for this summer.

The following minimum schedule, plus war tax, was adopted:

Ice cream sodas, 15c.

Sundaes, 15c.

Milk shakes, 15c.

Malted milk, 20c.

Ice cream cones, 6c.

Coco cola, phosphate drinks, root beer and similar drinks, 9c.

It is also announced that large fountain and confectionery stores, where there is extra service in serving the drinks, may exceed the minimum prices of the new schedule.

The druggists claim the high price of sugar is the underlying cause of the proposed increase in the prices of soft drinks.

The druggists also decided to retail ice cream in the bulk at 75 cents a quart for strawberry and 65 cents for vanilla.

An increase from $1.20 a gallon to $1.35 a gallon for ice cream, wholesale, was decided upon.

Stanley Wyckoff, fair price commissioner, said today that there was no justification for a charge of 9 cents for coca cola or other soft drinks, and that the manufacturers also would fight this increase.

Bottled coco cola will retail at 10 cents this summer because the druggists claim it costs more to handle bottled drinks because of the extra cost of icing.

College Men Plan Bettering Schools

Improvement of educational facilities of Indiana is favored by alumni of Purdue and Indiana universities who have adopted a resolution pledging themselves behind a movement to improve school conditions.

Letters will be sent out today to all candidates for the legislature asking their stand on the question.

William M. Taylor introduced the resolution at the meeting of the alumni in the Columbia club last night, which was endorsed by Dick Miller and Dr. Edmund D. Clark.

Signers of the resolution were: J. E. Hall, president of the Indianapolis Purdue Alumni association; H. G. Deupree, president of the Indianapolis Alumni Association; Indiana University; Guy Wainwright, Dr. Edmund D. Clark, Walter Shiel, Willis Coval, Walter Krull, Fay Chandler, William M. Taylor and C. J. Semberow.

'Courtesy' Electric Slogan for City

"The world's most courteous city."

This is a new slogan for Indianapolis, written in electric lights on the "silent orator" of the Merchants Heat and Light Company building, Washington and Meridian streets.

"Say 'thank you.' We want Indianapolis to be known as the world's most courteous city. Say 'thank you.' Remember this splendid slogan of the Advertising club, preparing for the world's advertising convention. Say 'thank you.' Saturate yourself—make Indianapolis courteous."

TALK OF THE TOWN

The whirl-wind success at North Plaza, where beautiful home sites are being snapped up at $1.00 per week.

The opening of North Plaza is the talk of the town.

It is the big success of the season.

Ninety-three of these beauty home sites were snapped up the first two Sundays, in spite of the bad weather.

The reason for this big success is the fact that this is the last north side property at popular prices, with 5-cent car service and transfer.

The prices are the sensation of the year, and these cut-rate bargain prices were made to close out an old estate quickly.

The prices are $105, $225, $245, $265, $295, none higher.

The terms are two dollars down, then only one dollar a week.

There are no taxes and no interest for two years, and then only 5 per cent on the small balance due.

It is almost impossible to find any other lots around the city of Indianapolis today for less than from $500 to $750, out on 10c, 15c and 20c car fares.

The property is located on 30th street, a short walk west of the Brightwood car line.

In the same direction, eight blocks farther north on 38th street, lots are selling for from $300 to $750, with 10c car fare.

The northeast is the fastest developing section of Indianapolis.

Stoughton A. Fletcher's million dollar estate is directly northeast of this property at 46th street.

Brendonwood Acres are directly northeast at 54th street and sell for $1,000 to $1,500 per acre.

The Brightwood line has large new cars with five minute service during business hours and no car line in the city has better service.

The owners intend North Plaza to be a desirable residence property, and welcome the building of bungalows or neat cottage homes of four rooms or over, but no shanties, stores, public garages or undesirable features will be allowed.

Lots are being sold to Americans only and the owners reserve the right to refuse any race or color, who would make undesirable neighbors.

If you are a rent payer, did you ever stop to figure that you are making your landlord a present of your property every ten years?

A rented house is not a home.

Do not miss this golden opportunity, where $1 a week will make you a landowner, will start you toward a home of your own, and make you independent in your old age.

Agents will be on the ground all day Sunday from 8 a. m. until dark, but no visitors will be urged to buy, unless they think this is the biggest bargain in the history of Indianapolis real estate.

This property is being offered by C. N. Lodge & Co., America's leading home makers.

This firm represents 15,000 home sites in fifty thriving cities and they confidently state that they never had a bigger bargain to offer the public than North Plaza.

Their Indianapolis office is with Span & Co., 23 E. Ohio St.

Do not fail to come out Sunday, rain or shine, as our big tent protects from sun or rain.

Round-trip car fares will be refunded all visitors at the grounds before they look at lots.

Come and bring your friends.

Take Brightwood car to 30th street, then a short walk west to the property.

Any lady cutting out this ad and bringing same to the ground will be presented with a fine box of chocolates, and there will be the best Havana cigars for the men.—Advertisement.
