

GER' CHARGES
HOLD FIVE MEN*Week-End Raids Include Arrests for Drunkenness.

Five men are under arrest on blind tiger charges today, as a result of police raids Saturday and Sunday.

Several are held on other charges as a result of alleged drunken fights.

Joseph Kukman, proprietor of a soft drink place at 733 Haugh street, was arrested by Sgt. Winkler, charged with operating a blind tiger and shooting with intent to kill.

Frank Besenic, who was arrested at the same time as Kukman, said there was a drunken party staged in the rear room of the place.

Lieuts. Ball and Schubert arrested Joseph Zore on a charge of operating a blind tiger, and Joseph Dell and Tony Severe on charges of assault and battery, in a raid at 764 Haugh street.

George Green, 25 South West street, found on a lonely road west of Eagle creek, told the police he had been given whisky and then beaten by Samuel Meko, a grocer, and Samuel Bahol, 530 West Washington street.

Meko is charged with operating a blind tiger and both he and Bahol are charged with assault and battery.

Jerry Beterlin, 763 Ketcham street, and Frank Garcus, 901 Ketcham street, were arrested on blind tiger charges by Lieut. Schubert and a police squad.

Frank Moore, 225 East Ohio street, is in the detention ward at City hospital, charged with drunkenness.

He was found in a serious condition, which physicians said resulted from drinking hair tonic.

Rush to Direct 'Books for Everybody' Move

Charles E. Rush, librarian of the Indianapolis public library, has been appointed state director for the "Books for Everybody" movement of the American Library association, and started today to enlist the support of the state in the project for extending public library service into every community.

A fund of $2,000,000 is being obtained without resort to an intensive drive, for the purpose of financing the movement, which has the endorsement of Commissioner P. P. Claxton of the United States bureau of education.

Tax $676,688 Reid Inheritance $12,864

The inheritance tax on the Samuel Reid estate has been fixed by the tax appraiser at $12,864.20.

The estate is estimated at $676,688.29 in value.

The estate, which has large holdings in Kingan & Co., was taxed at $9,377.78 by the British government.
