

Society News

Mrs. and Mrs. Edward Shields, 2128 West McCarty street, announce the wedding of their daughter Hazel to Van Haddard of Hartford, Mich., which took place Wednesday in Hartford. Mr. and Mrs. Stoddard are at home there.

The Writers' club will meet tonight in the public library auditorium. Gertrude Shields will read a story and original poems will be given by Mrs. Edith Gates and other members.

Mrs. Jean McCormick, 3130 North Capitol avenue, will go to Chicago for the week.

The Smith College club of Indianapolis will hold its spring luncheon tomorrow in Ayres' tearoom at noon. Mrs. Ernest DeWolf Wales, chairman of the fund committee, and Miss Mary Elizabeth Gardner, treasurer, will make their reports. Following the reports election of officers will be held. Mrs. Stanley Lindley, formerly Ruth Hellockson, president of the chapter, will preside.

The marriage of Anna Horan, 2059 Central avenue, and Norbert J. Fox, 1618 Bellefontaine street, took place at St. Peter and Paul cathedral at 7 o'clock this morning. Rev. E. J. Ritter officiated. Best man, Miss Anna Malloy, maid of honor, was the only attendant to the bride. A wedding breakfast in the dining room of the Hotel Severin followed the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Fox left this morning for a short trip and will be at home after May 15 at 218 North Jefferson avenue.

Mrs. Phil Epsilon will hold a business meeting tomorrow afternoon at the home of Mrs. Marie Allison Elliott, 3202 North Pennsylvania street. Election of the delegate to the national convention, which will be held in Eugene, Ore., June 8 to 11, will follow the regular business.

Mrs. W. C. Zaring, 2304 College avenue, was hostess for the Present Day club party yesterday afternoon. The members of the Meridian Heights Inter-School club were guests. Mrs. W. H. Adams talked of the "Romantic Period in French Literature." Mrs. T. E. Greeninger read a paper on "The Realist," French literature being the general subject for the afternoon. Musical numbers were given by Mrs. C. E. Testera, pianist; Miss Aletha and Miss Martha Pettijohn, reader and monologist. Mrs. Charles Cook presided.

Federation Plans Centennial Affair

Elaborate preparations are being made for the Centennial luncheon to be given Friday noon by the Federation of Clubs of the Seventh district in the Rainbow room of the Severin hotel. This will be the only social feature of the Seventh district convention, which will be held that day in the Severin.

A business session will occupy the morning. Toasts will be given by members of the pioneer clubs of the city. There will be musical monologues by Mrs. Hugh McGibney, and a pageant adapted from "Miss Indiana," a George Ade production, will be another interesting feature of the luncheon program. Mrs. Ira Holmes and Mrs. O. C. Lusk are in charge of the tickets. The subject for the talk will be the "History and Principles of the Republican Party."

Citizenship Schools Plan 3 Meetings

The Tenth Ward Citizenship school will meet in the Prospect School of Music Friday night. Eliza G. Browning will talk on "Political Parties and the Party System."

A meeting of the Eleventh ward school will be held in the Greer street community house Friday at 7:30. Rev. Charles Winders will talk on "Good Citizenship." This will be the first meeting of the citizenship school in this ward and will be under the direction of Mrs. E. E. Kuhns. Clinton H. Glavin will be the speaker for the Third ward citizenship school meeting, which will be held Friday at 3 o'clock with Mrs. Willis C. McMahon, 1726 North Illinois street. The subject for the talk will be the "History and Principles of the Republican Party."

Tech' Class Play Excellently Done

Students of Technical High school today declared the presentation of "Prunella" the senior class play, at the Murat theater last night, was the most interesting performance given by high school players in many years.

Practically every seat in the theater was filled. Many curtain calls were given the cast.

Miss Betty Nunlist, as Prunella, and Lawrence Neidlinger, as Pierrot, were the leading characters in the play. They were given liberal applause. Important roles were played by Trent McMath, Otto Mabrd and Albert Zimmerman.

The play, which is an enjoyable little fantasy in three acts, was written by Lawrence Houseman and Granville Barker, and was directed by Florence Farman.

Don't Spoil a Good Meal With a Bad Stomach

It is really a pitiful sight to see so many thousands of people worrying about what they can eat and what they can't eat.

Dyspeptics, they call themselves, but they stretch the imagination when they do it.

All these people need to make them healthy, cheerful and of sound appetite is a box of M-I-O-Na Tablets.

It is a stomach of a dyspeptic is overworked and run down. It needs help to digest the food, but more than that it needs a prescription that will cleanse, renovate, strengthen and put elasticity into the stomach walls.

M-I-O-Na is the prescription that will do this and do it so promptly that you'll wonder why you didn't try it before. It stops belching of gas and distress after eating in five minutes. It is undoubtedly the greatest stomach tonic ever given to the public by a specialist in stomach diseases.

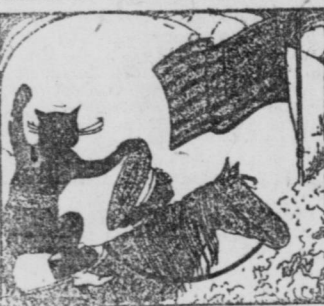

Leading druggists everywhere and the M-I-O-Na drug stores sell M-I-O-Na for 90 cents a large box on the money-back plan.

Ends Catarrh or money back. Just breathe it in. Outfit including inhaler $1.15. Extra bottles 60c. All Druggists.

PUSS IN BOOTS JR.

By DAVID CORY.

CHAPTER XX.
"Billy, Billy, come and play. Let us rake the new-mown hay."
"Yes, my Polly, so I will in the meadow by the mill."
"Billy, Billy, have you seen Sam and Betty on the green?"
"No, my Polly. I saw them fly in their airship thro' the sky."
"Billy, Billy, I feel blue 'Cause I have no airship, too."
"Never mind, my Polly-O. We'll be happy here below. You a little song can say While I work and rake the hay."
"Aren't you pretty warm?" asked Puss Junior, pulling up his pony, Dapple Gray. The little boy and girl were too astonished at first to reply, for they had never seen a cat on horseback before. Presently they came over to the fence and looked curiously at Puss small hero. You know I often call Puss

Puss Salutes the American Flag.

"Our little hero," for I think he is one. He has done so many brave and kind things that he deserves the name, don't you think so?"
"Who are you?" asked Polly-O, for this was the pet name of the little girl.
"Billy's my name," said the little boy. "What's yours?"

"What's yours?"

WHEN A GIRL MARRIES
A New Serial of Young Married Life

By ANN LISLE.

CHAPTER XX.
"Do you think that you will take the little apartment Cousin Tom just showed you?" asked Evelyn Mason with an eagerness I couldn't understand.

She was guiding her roadster through the heavy afternoon traffic of the avenue and her wistful, little face had a look of competence and assurance that I'd never before seen it wear. She appeared suddenly to be one of those people who know what they want—and to get it. I wondered what she wanted of me!

Then, as if in answer to my unspoken question, Evelyn turned to me. In a second the dimples faded out about her soft red lips and her eyes widened in that childish smile of hers.
"You think it is an intrusion on my part—this interest in your future abode. Anne, dear, let me explain. Jim Harrison and I were next-door neighbors when we were kiddies. That was before the Harrisons lost their money—and we plied our wits. Jim is trained to luxury. After he gets over this solidifying craze of his he's going to be a success. Cousin Tom likes you; he's offered you a bargain—those two stunningly furnished big rooms with bath and kitchenette—two. It will be easier to keep Jimmie at his own fireside if you have a beautiful apartment like the one you just saw."

An ugly little shiver ran down my spine—why should I need luxurious surroundings to keep my husband at home—wouldn't our love do that?

A moment later Evelyn was guiding her car up to the entrance of the Walgrave. "Won't you come to tea?" was just forming on my lips, when I saw two figures swinging into the broad doorway of the Walgrave—Jim and Betty Bryce.

Only a week ago I had been on the verge of liking Betty Bryce, but now suspicion took possession of me again. Jim was too busy to go house hunting with me, why had he time for Betty Bryce? Perhaps he had lunched with her, had spent the afternoon with her. Shame galled my anger to greater fury. Suppose Evelyn had seen him! I glanced at her, but she was absorbed in the problem of bringing the wheels of her car in line with the curb. I thanked her for all she'd done for me, murmured his plittitudes about hoping she would lunch with me soon, and fairly rushed into the hotel after Jim and Betty. Two or three minutes of hysterical dashing up and down corridors brought me face to face with them in the door of the room. They greeted me with delight.

Too Much Appetite

may be as dangerous as too little

When the skin is sallow or yellow, the eyes dull, the head aches or sleep broken and unrefreshing, the back aches, or there is a pain under the right shoulder blade—it is an indication that the body is being poisoned by poorly digested and imperfectly eliminated food-waste. which—though I hated myself for it—I felt was clever racting. Betty and my husband ordered orange pekoe with lemon and toast mela. I chose ginger ale—but the mere fact that they were ordering in unison and that I had struck a discordant note gave me an added feeling of being the outsider.—Copyright, 1920. (To be continued.)

Society En Masse to Greet 'Bubbles'

Indianapolis society will gather en masse at the Murat tonight, when "Bubbles" is presented for the benefit of the Boys' Club association.

Nearly seventy-five talented Indianapolis people will take part in the cast. One of the leading features of the play will be the ballet by Mile. Thea, Hewes and twenty-five girls. Mile. Hewes will present an oriental and a Grecian ballet, and in addition will do several solo dances. She will be assisted in the special dances by Jack Broderick, Louise Hunt and Leone Myers.

Mrs. George O. Rockwood is the author of the play and Mrs. R. Felix Geddes and Mrs. Rockwood have been in charge of arrangements. Capacity audiences are expected on both nights.

Exclusive Dance at Athletic Club

A formal spring dance will be given by the Independent Athletic club tonight in the club ballroom. George Waldley is chairman of the entertainment committee and will be assisted by George K. Jones, Nat F. Wolfe, Bert Kelly, Robert Dietz, R. A. Miller and C. A. McLaughlin.

"TIZ" FOR ACHING, SORE, TIRED FEET

Use "Tiz" for tender, puffed-up, burning, calloused feet and corns.

People who are forced to stand on their feet all day know what sore, tender, aching, burning feet mean. They use "Tiz," and "Tiz" cures their feet right up. It keeps feet in perfect condition. "Tiz" is the only remedy in the world that draws out all the poisonous exudations which puff up the feet and cause tender, sore, tired, aching feet. It instantly stops the pain in corns, callouses and bunions. It's simply glorious. Ah! how comfortable your feet feel after using "Tiz." You'll never limp or draw up your face in pain. Your shoes won't tighten and hurt your feet.

Get a box of "Tiz" now from any druggist. Just think! a whole year's foot comfort for only a few cents.—Advertisement.

Entirely New Way to Banish Superfluous Hair

(Really Removes Roots and All)

Why should any woman continue to wear an ugly, humiliating growth of hair on her face now that it is known this can be completely and quickly removed, and all, by the new electrolytic process? The process is not to be compared at all with the depilatory, electrical or other methods. Electrolysis is non-odorous, non-irritating, non-painful—so harmless it could be eaten, without any bad effect. Best of all, the hairs come out entire, even the roots, before one's very eyes! The skin is left as smooth and soft as a child's. Anyone who purchases a stick of electrolytic from the druggist and follows the simple directions, bound to be pleased, and delighted.—Advertisement.

BASEMENT

Dresses You'd Never Suspect $29.50 Could Be Sold for

There are ninety of them, but among the ninety are fully two dozen different models and a color assortment which makes almost every dress different from every other.

Thus, exclusiveness is assured, desirable always. Moreover, the styles are charming, the materials rich and varied.

Notable are sports frocks of mignonette, tricolette and crepe de chine in both straight and tuxedo models.

To Particularize:

There are dressy dresses of beaded taffeta in taupe, blue, black and brown.

There are draped dresses, combination frocks of Georgette and foulard, foulard frocks and three-piece dresses of embossed tricolette.

Truly charming are the few dresses with embroidered Georgette yokes in harmonizing shades, complimenting the body fabric of the gown.

These dresses are quite the handsomest we have seen at the price here or elsewhere, and our best advice to you is to see them the first thing in the morning. They'll move rapidly.
