

LEGION TO JOIN G. A. R. MAY 30

Accepts Invitation for Part in Memorial Day Exercises.

An invitation of the G. A. R. to participate in Memorial day exercises was accepted by the Marion county executive committee of the American legion at a meeting last night in the Chamber of Commerce and a resolution thanking the Civil war veterans' organization for the invitation was passed.

A report of the Memorial day committee of the legion was read and accepted. The following committee has been appointed by the legion to make arrangements for its participation in the Centennial program: Russell Ryan, chairman; Robert L. Moorehead, Frank McCain, Joseph Minturn, Paul Ragsdale.

The legion will decorate the graves of any member of the A. E. F. on Memorial day for families wishing to contribute for the purpose, according to an announcement made by Lemuel Bolles, national adjutant.

Any families desiring this service are directed to supply the legion with information as to the location of the grave, with the soldier's name, rank, organization, serial number and date of death. All funds for the purpose of decorating the graves should be made payable to the "National Treasurer, the American Legion."

WHEN A GIRL MARRIES A New Serial of Young Married Life

By ANN LISLE.

CHAPTER XXI.
"Anne, Betty's been telling me about her splendid new plan," said Jim. "She's going to travel about the country for three months doing welfare work in the camps. Isn't that great? Wouldn't you love to be foot-loose, Mrs. Harrison, and do something big like that for your government?"

Perversely I began to wonder if Jim would like to be "foot-loose." Every time I met Betty Bryce I sensed in him a certain restlessness. I hated my words almost as they formed in reply to his question. They were witty, but they seemed fairly to say themselves:

"Oh, I'd feel so conspicuous traveling around camps—alone and unaccompanied. Of course you would, you dear young thing. But I'm an old stager. Two years of driving an ambulance in France make me feel like a big sister to every soldier in the world."

So that was where Betty and my boy had come to be such friends—on the battlefields of France. I wanted to tell Betty how wonderful I thought she was; I wanted to ask her about her work—but I couldn't find words. Instead I began talking about the great bargain Tom Mason had offered me.

Jim and Betty exchanged glances. My husband spoke questioningly: "Tom Mason? Where under the sun did you meet him? Why should he rent us two magnificently furnished rooms for only seventy-five a month? That's—what do you think, Betty?"

I felt humiliated. Evidently Jim didn't think me capable of a clever bargain. He doubted my judgment. I asked Betty's opinion. She leaned forward now, eager and delighted—"forcing her opinion on us again," as I told myself.

"I offer you a better bargain, my dears! Oh, it's providential! My work is going to keep me out of town until October. I haven't time to get my place into its summer clothes or to find a good caretaker. So here's where you can do me a real favor. Children, I appoint you 'caretakers' for Betty till she comes back in October—and helps you find a little nest of your own."

Jim's eyes lighted, as he cried: "Betty, you're a wonder! This is just what we want, isn't it, Anne?"

I held my voice to cold steadiness—but I could feel the blood burning in my cheeks.

"I hardly see how we can accept Mrs. Bryce's offer dear," I said. "If Mr. Mason's seventy-five a month looks like charity to you, what is an apartment rent free?"

There was a breathless moment—that ugly word "charity" fairly exhaled poison gas. Suddenly Betty Bryce rose and laid her hand on mine.

"I'm off children. I've an appointment with an army colonel and a Red Cross captain! So I must rush. Don't come, Jimmy Boy, my car's at the door. Here are the extra keys to my little place. I'm going to count on finding you there when I come back."

She tossed the keys on the table between us. They flashed up at me in cool violence—like hers. How dared Betty

THEY HIT THE SPOT

D. McMillen, Volunteer Fireman's Home, Hudson, N. Y., writes: "My back pained me so I could not sit down, read or write with comfort; I could not sleep at night for constant pain, and when I walked I was in great misery. I tried several remedies, but none did me any good. After taking 2 bottles Pol's Kidney Pills my back and side are completely cured. They are like a stream of water played on a fire by firemen. They hit the spot, put out the fire and drove the pain." They relieve kidney trouble and bladder ailments. Sold everywhere. —Advertisement.

SUFFERING OF YOUNG WOMEN

This Letter Tells How it May be Overcome—all Mothers Interested.

Fort Dodge, Ia.—"From the time my daughter was 13 years old until she was 16 she suffered so badly each month that sometimes I had to call in the doctor. She had headaches, backache and such pains and cramps that she would have to stay in bed two or three days. She became terribly run down in health and at last a friend who had used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound told her about it and she has used 16 bottles, and we always have it in the house. She feels fine now and she has no trouble at all each month. We always praise it and advise any friends who suffer to use your wonderful medicine."—Mrs. MINNIE MANDELRO, 1005 S. 18th St., & 10th Ave., Fort Dodge, Iowa.

Girls who are troubled as Miss Mandelro was, should immediately seek restoration to health by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Those who need special advice may write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. These letters will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

Family Arrives Here After 4-Year Delay

Leiser Glogos, his wife and two children have arrived in Indianapolis from Poland, after a trip delayed four years by the war.

They are the first family to arrive in Indianapolis from that country since the war started. They are at the home of a son, Philip Glogos, 1501 Madison avenue.

The family lived in Blaystock, Poland, where they say the utmost suffering was experienced during the war and is still being experienced. The Glogos family had bought their tickets to come to America when the war broke out, preventing the trip.

Rotarians Get Park for Ball Practice

Indianapolis Rotarians are going in for baseball. Jack Hendricks has agreed to allow the tired business men to practice at Washington ball park.

Two Rotarian teams will be organized. Rotarians at their weekly luncheon yesterday heard D. D. Pennell, director of industrial relations of the National Association of Unpolished Furniture Manufacturers, speak on ways of improving relations between employers and employees.

Vernon's Unlucky Day Brings Mass of Woe

Roy Vernon's "unluckiest day" today led to city court.

When Vernon's automobile is alleged to have plunged into a crowd at the intersection of Indiana avenue and Ohio street he was arrested.

A few hours later he was locked up with Clarence Winkles, 30, 1011 Lexington avenue, charged with grand larceny. Cyrus Seifert, a guest at the Colonial hotel, charge that Vernon and Winkles stole $150 from him.

Summed up, the charges against Vernon on his "unluckiest day" are, drunkenness, operating an automobile while under the influence of liquor, violating a traffic ordinance, assault and battery and grand larceny.

Telephone Toll Rates

Your attention is again invited to the advantages and economies which may be had under our present Toll Rate Schedule.

"STATION TO STATION" RATE

When a person makes a toll call without specifying that conversation is desired with a particular person, and the connection is established and conversation held, the "station to station" rate applies.

"Station to station" calls should be made by number wherever Telephone Directory information is available. Where this information is not available at the calling telephone, such calls may be made by giving the toll operator the name and address of the subscriber at the telephone called.

"PERSON TO PERSON" RATE

When a person makes a toll call, specifying that conversation is desired with a particular person and the connection is established and conversation held with that person, the "person to person" rate applies.

As this service requires a greater amount of operating effort and use of toll circuits, the rate for such calls is about one-fourth greater than the "station to station" rate.

The "person to person" rate is computed on the day rate between the points involved, whether the call is made during the day or during the night, and the minimum charge is 15c.

No "person to person" call is accepted where the "station to station" rate is less than 10c.

"REPORT CHARGE"

When a "person to person" call is made and the particular person desired is not in or will not talk, or when an exact telephone address of the particular person desired has not been given and he cannot be reached at a telephone within one hour, a "report charge" applies.

Such a charge also applies if the calling party is absent when the connection is completed within one hour, or if he refused to talk.

This charge is to cover compensation for the operating work performed and use of toll circuits, and is approximately one-fourth of the "station to station" rate.

In any case where a "report charge" applies, the minimum charge is 5c.

"APPOINTMENT" RATE

When the calling party is placing his call appoints a definite specified time at which he will talk on a "person to person" basis and the conversation is held at the specified time, the "appointment" rate applies.

The "appointment" rate is approximately one-half greater than the "station to station" rate.

The "appointment" rate is computed on the day rate between the points involved, whether the call is made during the day or during the night, and the minimum charge is 20c.

No appointment call is accepted where the "station to station" rate is less than 10c.

"Report charges" apply under the same general conditions as specified for "person to person" calls.

"MESSENGER" CALLS

When a call is made on a "person to person" basis and a messenger is required to secure attendance of the designated person at a public pay station at the distant point, the "messenger call" rate applies.

This rate is the same as the "appointment" rate for the same distance, plus any charge for messenger service.

The "messenger call" rate is computed on the day rate between the points involved, whether the call is made during the day or during the night, and the minimum charge is 20c.

Messenger charges incurred are to be paid even if desired conversation is not held.

No "messenger" call is accepted where the "station to station" rate is less than 10c.

"Report charges" apply under the same general conditions as specified for "person to person" calls.

STANDARD TOLL NIGHT RATES

The following reduced rates for night service on a "station to station" basis only are effective:

8:30 p. m. to 12 midnight—about one-half of the "station to station" day rate.

12:00 midnight to 4:30 a. m.—about one-fourth of the "station to station" day rate.

For the purpose of applying night rates, the time of day at the point at which a "station to station" message originates is used.

The minimum night rate is 25c. Day rates apply on calls made at night when the "station to station" charge is less than the minimum night rate.

"COLLECT" CALLS

"Collect" calls are calls for which the charges are reversed; that is, are to be collected from the subscriber at the distant station at which the call is completed.

Such "collect" calls, or reversed charges are allowed only in connection with "person to person" calls.

EXAMPLE SHOWING HOW METHOD IS APPLIED

Assuming the air line distance between toll points to be more than 144 miles, but not more than 152 miles, the following rates for service under the various classes offered would apply:

	Initial Period.
"Station to station" rate	$1.00
Completed "person to person" rate	1.25
Completed "appointment" rate	1.50
Completed "messenger call" rate	1.50
Plus messenger charges
Report charge	.25
Between 8:30 p. m. and 12 midnight, "station to station" service only.	.50
Between 12 midnight and 4:30 a. m. "station to station" service only.	.25
