

GREGORY KELLY LEASES ENGLISH'S

With Ruth Gordon Will Play
Stock Summers of 1921-23.

Arrangements have been completed whereby Gregory Kelly acquires the lease of English's opera house from Leo M. Gordon and Ad Miller for the summer seasons of 1921-22-23.

He will operate a stock company headed by Ruth Gordon and myself, opening early in May of each year," Mr. Kelly said today.

"Having had so much pleasure playing before Indianapolis audiences in the past, we are desirous of playing here each year, and as we have not been given the opportunity of appearing here this summer we have decided to operate a stock company of our own.

"Comedies will predominate, as we think people want to laugh—especially in the summer—and our experience in Indianapolis has been that such plays as 'Fair and Warmer,' 'Nothing but the Truth' and 'Too Many Cooks,' provide ideal hot weather entertainment.

"Our company will be made up of players of standing in the theater.

"We had intended beginning the first of our annual seasons this year, but as our arrangement with George C. Tyler is that we will continue to play in Booth Tarkington's 'Clarence' until next fall, when we will appear in a new play under Mr. Tyler's management, our first season will begin at English's in May, 1921."

FOUR HELD AS BANDITS.

ELKTON, Md., April 28.—Four men were arrested yesterday as suspects in connection with the Sandy Springs bank robbery and the murder of its vice president.

PUSS IN BOOTS JR.

By DAVID CORY.

CHAPTER XXI.
Well the bird who said "Three cheers for the Red, White and Blue" in the last story was the big American Eagle, of course, little Puss Junior didn't like that; he only knew the Mother Goose people, you see. But pretty soon, when the eagle flew down from a high mountain, the little pussy cat saw it was his old friend.

"Why, I didn't know you could fly so far," said Puss Junior, and then he took from his pocket a red and white and blue lollipop and gave it to him, and wasn't that eagle pleased? Well, I should say he was. He flapped his wings and began to sing.

"Oh, I'm the bird, as you all have heard. Who fights for the U. S. A. I love the stars on our beautiful flag. As I watch it wave from my flagpole, and I give a screech that is heard afar. Three cheers for every silver star. And the bands of red and white and blue. And the soldier boys who are brave and true.

And the sailor lads on the deep wide sea—
Oh, the U. S. A. is the land for me!"

And when he finished he said to Puss Junior, "Climb on my back and we'll fly away, far away, across the water with spray, way, way off to the U. S. A."

Isn't it wonderful how an eagle could say things like this in rhyme? It must have been because he was in Mother Goose Land, where everybody talks in poetry.

"I'm afraid I can't," replied Puss Junior. "My father would worry if I left old Mother Goose Land for a foreign country."

So the big eagle said goodbye and flew away, but before he went he plucked a little red, white and blue flag on Puss Junior's coat.

And after that our little hero wished he had gone with him, and then he was glad he hadn't, because he knew he must have worried his dear father nearly to death, and no good little Pussy Cat ever worries his father.

ALL WRONG WAS HER LIVER

—Advertisement—

Before Taking Black-Draught Missouri Lady Was Troubled With

Constipation, Headache and Bad Taste in Mouth.

Grandin, Mo.—Mrs. Susa Brooks of this place writes: "Some time ago I was in a bad fix, with stomach and liver trouble. I did not feel good at any time. I was very constipated, and had headaches from this condition, and had a continual hurting in my stomach, and bad taste in the mouth. Could tell my liver was all wrong.

"I had known of Black-Draught, so decided to try it myself. I began with a large dose or doses, gradually getting to smaller doses. It regulated my bowels, relieved me of the hurting in my stomach, cleaned off my liver and made me feel like a new person."

If you get up in the morning feeling as tired as you did when you went to bed—achy, coated tongue, bad taste in mouth, sallow complexion—then your liver has not done its full duty, and your system has absorbed the poisons which your liver should have taken away.

An occasional dose of Thorford's Black-Draught will help this important organ to function properly.

Get a package of Thorford's Black-Draught liver medicine today. Druggists sell it, or can get it for you.—Advertisement.

Another Wolf Shot and Whelps Escape

Sanford Spangle of Castleton brings to Indianapolis the latest wolf story.

Sighting a wolf in the Fall creek bottoms yesterday afternoon, Mr. Spangle paddled up the creek and shot the animal at a distance of 200 yards.

Recently a wolf was killed on the P. L. Masters farm, just north of Castleton.

Spangle says he saw several whelps, which escaped.

Castleton's wolf hunt now will be continuous.

Mrs. Carlin says: "You know how much confusion three children can make. I used to go nearly crazy at the noise they made. I became so nervous and rundown that it was impossible for me to sleep soundly. I didn't have any appetite and kept right on losing flesh day by day. I grew so weak that when I sat down in a chair I could hardly get up. Finally I was attacked with severe pains in my shoulder and back. At times I felt like giving up. I grieved because I couldn't seem to give my children the care they needed."

"My husband, who is employed by the National Refining Company, suggested that I try Pepsin. I did so and now I am strong and well again. My nerves have become quiet. I don't fret fretted when the baby cries."

"To all women who feel nervous, have indigestion, headaches, backache who can't sleep soundly and who have not sufficient strength, I say by all means take Pepsin."

The After Effects of Pneumonia

This is No. 2 of a series of advertisements, prepared by a competent physician, explaining how certain diseases which attack the air passages—such as Pneumonia, Influenza, Whooping Cough, Measles or even a long continued Cold—often leave these organs in an inflamed, congested state, thus affording a favorable foothold for invading germs. And how Vick's Vapo-Rub may be of value in this condition.

Pneumonia attacks the air cells of the lungs. An inflammation is set up and matter is thrown off which causes the air cells to solidify, thus preventing the natural flow of blood thru the lungs. This "backing up" of the blood causes the heart to pump harder, just as stepping on a hose increases the water pressure, which is the reason why, during this disease, the physician watches the overburdened heart so carefully.

After recovery the lungs are filled with a mass of wreckage—the debris of the battle—which must be gotten rid of by a process known as resolution. Frequently, inflamed spots remain, congestion persists, cough hangs on, and the least exposure brings on a cold that is hard to get rid of. If neglected, such damaged air passages may easily develop serious disease of the lungs.

Such cases should always continue under a physician's care and frequent examinations should be made to see that nature is properly continuing the rebuilding process.

Nightly applications of Vick's Vapo-Rub will aid nature in this work. Because Vicks acts locally by stimulation thru the skin to draw out the inflammation, attract the blood away from the congested spots and relieve the cough. In addition, the medicinal ingredients of Vicks are vaporized by the body heat. These vapors are breathed in all night long, thus bringing the medication to bear directly upon the inflamed areas.

Vicks should be rubbed over the throat and chest until the skin is red—then spread on thickly and covered with hot flannel cloths. Leave the clothing loose around the neck and the bed clothes arranged in the form of a funnel so the vapors arising may be freely inhaled. If the cough is annoying, swallow a small bit of Vicks the size of a pea.

Samples to new users will be sent free on request to the Vick Chemical Company, 232 Broad Street, Greensboro, N. C.

WIFE PERSUADED HUSBAND TO ACT; TELLS RESULTS

Now Has Pleasure of Describing Case Which Proved Her Advice
Worthy.

Mrs. Charles Ax, wife of a well-known local plastering contractor, who lives at 661 Coffee street, after hearing of the good work Trutona is doing, finally persuaded her husband to try the Perfect Tonic. Mrs. Ax now has the pleasure of describing the remarkable relief Mr. Ax derived thru use of Trutona.

"My husband suffered from pains in his shoulder and neck," Mrs. Ax told the Trutona Representative. "He thought it was his work that caused that I had heard of the liver. I tried ever so many kinds of medicines, but none of them seemed to help me. My limbs often pained me and my feet were swollen. I was so bothered with a general swollen and bloated feeling all over my body."

"I can truthfully say that two weeks' treatment of Trutona has done more for me than all the other medicines combined. My bowels act as regularly as the days come around now, and that's something new for me. My bowels were so irregular, I could never sleep soundly. I was so bothered with a general swollen and bloated feeling all over my body."
