

TRIBESMEN HIT LAST PLACE AS EARLY SEASON DEFEATS CONTINUE

INDIANS STOP NEXT AT HOME OF DUKE ROGER

ose at Columbus Today and Move to the Toledo Camp Tomorrow.

DROP FIFTH STRAIGHT

COLUMBUS, O., April 30.—After the series windup game with the Senators today the Indians will pack up and move to Toledo, where Roger Bresnahan's team are performing like a blaring horn.

It's a big task facing the Indians over in Toledo. The Maumee city is wild over its rejuvenated team and it is needless to say that the Hens are giving the home fans plenty to shout about.

The Tribesmen are still unsettled and the chances are that they will hardly come out of the early season slump for a few days.

Manager Hendricks is unable to be on the field because of the suspension hanging over him, and to make matters worse his lieutenant, Tex Covington, got into out of yesterday's game for protesting a decision.

Bad luck certainly is hitting the Indians in bunches and the athletes are more or less "up in the air."

The Hoosiers dropped into last place as a result of the 5-0 defeat handed them yesterday by the Clymers. It was the fifth straight drop for the Indians.

Kansas City also lost yesterday, but the difference in games played by the trailing clubs switched the figures to the detriment of the Tribesmen and today they were in undisputed possession of the cellar position.

The Indians staged a ninth-inning rally yesterday, scoring three runs, but the Senators already had chalked up five.

Pug Cavit started on the mound and again received poor support, though the locals really solved the tall southpaw's slants and hit with men on.

Veteran George McQuillan kept the Indians guessing until the ninth, when the Hoosiers' fighting spirit cropped out and they staged a threatening rally.

Jess Petty, obtained from Cleveland, relieved Cavit on the mound after the fifth, and he was charged with losing the game because of the fact that Indianapolis counted three times while he was in there.

Failure to hit until too late was the direct cause of the Tribes' downfall. Until the last frame the Indians obtained only one safety of McQuillan.

Clint Rogge was expected to hurl for the Hoosiers today, with Mulrennan opposing him.

ROONEY DOESN'T FEAR ACCIDENT

Smashup in Previous Race Not Worrying Local Pilot.

Tom Rooney, local speed merchant, who will be seen at the wheel of a Revere car in the 500-mile race at the Speedway, May 31, competed in the big event once previous, but an accident put him out of the race.

Tom drove a Premier car forty-eight laps in the 1916 event when a smashup eliminated him.

He misjudged his speed while running high on the south turn, his car skidded in the path of oil and bumped the outer rail with such force that Rooney's mechanical was thrown over the wall and on to the dirt level below.

Rooney was caught under the wheel and remained with the car as it rolled down the bricks to the lower track. He was not badly injured.

Rooney is a protégé of the veteran Gil Anderson, who became famous while campaigning for Stutz and got his first chance in a race when he rode with Anderson in 1913, after Egan, Gil's mechanic, had been fatally injured while riding with Martin in a practice trial. Their car overturned and Martin was killed, while Egan was seriously injured.

After the 1913 race Rooney rode continuously with Anderson until 1915, when he was given a mount all to himself.

His role in the race with Anderson, at Sheepshead Bay, the cars being separated by a "hair" at the finish.

Big League Stuff

Claude Williams, White Sox southpaw, pitched a two-hit game against the hard-hitting Cleveland Indians yesterday, and won for Chicago.

The Red Sox took the lead in the American league race when Joe Bush subdued the Athletics, while his mates scored seven runs on four hits and five athletic errors.

Riding on the wings of a gust of wind that toted "with it and tossed it about, Zack Wheat's Texas leaguer over Fletcher's head led to three Brooklyn runs and victory over the Giants.

George O'Neil, young catcher of the Braves, dropped a throw from Maranzetti to the plate just in time to allow J. Miller to score and win for the natives.

Walter Johnson is NOT going back. The Yanks will testify that the incomparable Walter is just as unshakable as ever.

The Tigers ought to feel "natural," having lost eleven straight games. Al Sotheron of the Browns blanked Detroit with five hits.

The hitting of Grob, Duncan, Neill and Daubert and the fine pitching of Jimmy Ring featured Cincinnati's victory over the Pirates.

Home runs by Pascker and Robertson contributed to Jim Vaughn's nice victory over the Cardinals.

Lynch After Wilde

ST. LOUIS, April 30.—Joe Lynch, New York bantamweight, today was dickered for a fight with Jimmy Wilde, English flyweight.

Lynch fought fifteen rounds with Wilde in London a year ago.

Lynch knocked out Kid Regan in the fifth round here last night.

Final Olympic Tryouts

NEW YORK, April 30.—The junior and senior outdoor A. U. track and field championships, recognized as the final tryouts for Olympic candidates, will be held at the Harvard stadium, July 16 and 17. It was definitely announced today.

EASY FOR STECHER

NEW YORK, April 30.—Joe Stecher, wrestling champion, has added Ole Jakobson of Boston to his long list of victims today.

Stecher threw Jakobson with the body scissors and a double wrist lock here last night.

Around the A. A.

—WITH EDDIE ASH—

The Indians have had a habit of being in the race since Jack Hendricks came to Indianapolis, and it is not likely that they will be kept out of the first division throughout the season.

From the amount of that fine-placed on Hendricks it is evident that President Tom Hickey hopes to force Jack into the overall club.

Roger Bresnahan has been duly recognized the duke of Toledo.

Bill Clymer's flock of old-timers threaten to make things uneasy for other A. A. clubs.

If the two McCarthy's, Joe and Alex, managers of the Louisville and Kansas City clubs, respectively, get into a dispute there'll be a lot of Irish confetti flying.

Mike Kelly, Indianapolis printer-ball player, again was in the limelight for Toledo yesterday. He singled in the twelfth inning, driving in the run that beat out Cleveland.

The Saints grabbed a pitchers' battle from the Blues, Steamboat Williams shading Woodward.

Pitcher Herb Hall is not yet an Indian and it appears that he may be a hitch in the proposed deal whereby outfielder Zwilling was to have been traded to Kansas City for the tall right-hander.

Hall refused to accept terms last Monday, but yesterday stated that he was ready to report and had wired Hendricks a statement to that effect. But following the incidents of Monday night and Tuesday Hendricks has since obtained Pitchers Petty of Cleveland and Lynch of the Red Sox, and now the team is not so hard up for hurling talent.

There is only a possibility that Hall will become a member of the Hoosiers. The Tribe demand for pitchers now is not as great as it was the first of the week. In the meantime negotiations may continue, both between the Indians and Hall and the Indians and a right-hander with one of the eastern major league clubs.

The Colonels have bought Joe M. Schepner, third baseman, from the St. Louis Browns. Schepner played with the Mobile club last season. His addition will enable Manager McCarthy to direct play from the bench. Betzel will be moved from third to second.

The Kansas City club today sold Pitcher Jake Reade to the St. Joseph team of the Western league.

COLLEGE BASEBALL.

Buy What?

Merito Acosta, the Cuban with Louisville, who won $10,000 prize in a Havana lottery the past winter.

He never let his fellow players know about it and the news came indirectly in a letter one of them received from Cuba.

Now the Colonels are all asking Acosta to "buy."

Manual Drubbed Again

The Manual baseball nine suffered the second setback of the season yesterday, when the Blue and White athletes from Shortridge handed them a 15-to-2 beating.

Adkins showed wonderful form on the mound for the winners, allowing only one safety, while Escot proved their heavy stick man.

The Manual pitchers, Leo Wiseman, Miller and Wertz, were touched for eleven bingles.

Local Squads Will Bid Strong for Top Honors at Franklin

FRANKLIN, Ind., April 30.—The entry list to the Franklin invitational track and field meet, carded for Saturday, closed yesterday afternoon with twelve schools entered.

Manual, Shortridge and Technical of Indianapolis; Martinsville, Franklin, Lebanon, Shelbyville, Muncie, Columbus, Mt. Auburn, Greenwood and Fairmount Academy are the schools that have signed to not athletes in the meet.

The usual events will be held and there are from twenty to thirty men entered in each.

The eliminations will start at 9 o'clock Saturday morning at Goodell field.

Manual will send seventeen men to the Franklin meet, Technical sixteen and Shortridge fifteen.

The local coaches have been drilling their men hard for the past two weeks and there is a good chance for an Indianapolis victory.

Manual followers are planning their hopes on Harmon in the pole-vault, Whitney in the 100 and 200-yard dashes and the low hurdles. Whitely in the 40-yard dash and Summers in the broad jump.

The east side school seems to have sure point winners in Hawkins, 440-yard dash man; Maxwell and Wendenborn, millers; Lewis, half-mile runner, and Gross, their star high-jumper.

Shortridge is not endowed with a wealth of track talent this year, but Coach Reuther has two good dash men in Lotik and Kilgore.

Butler and Marmons Tie

Coach Feeze's Butler college baseballers battled the Noidyke & Marmon club of the Motor league to a 4 to 4 tie in ten innings on Irwin field yesterday afternoon.

The game was called on account of darkness.

The Marmons chased two men around the sacks for a one-run lead in the first half of the ninth frame, but the Christians knotted the score in their half and the tenth inning was scoreless.

Shackley twirled the entire distance for the collegians, while Harrison and Ziegler worked for the auto builders.

Wrestlers Here May 6

M. Charleson has arranged for a wrestling bout at Tomlinson hall on May 6.

William Dementral, one of the best-known wrestlers in the game, will meet Joseph Callorino, the Italian heavy-weight. Dementral has been seen in Indianapolis before and has a number of followers in the city.

The match will go to a finish, two best out of three falls, meaning there will be no time limit to the exhibition.

Dementral has wrestled more than 900 matches in various parts of the country and has very few losses to his record.

Like Gold Mine

NEW YORK, April 30.—Mike O'Dowd, the middleweight champion, will make over $20,000 next month, as he is slated to engage in four contests.

For his twelve round bout with Champion Jack Britton he is to get a guarantee of $10,000.

Manual Drubbed Again

The Manual baseball nine suffered the second setback of the season yesterday, when the Blue and White athletes from Shortridge handed them a 15-to-2 beating.

Adkins showed wonderful form on the mound for the winners, allowing only one safety, while Escot proved their heavy stick man.

The Manual pitchers, Leo Wiseman, Miller and Wertz, were touched for eleven bingles.

ANNUAL RELAYS GET UNDER WAY

Track Stars of Two Continents Strive for Honors.

PHILADELPHIA, April 30.—With his torle Franklin field bathed in friendly sunshine and indications that attendance figures will be smashed, the twenty-sixth annual Penn relay carnival got under way here today.

Athletic stars of two continents are gathered here for the classic events of today and tomorrow under the auspices of the University of Pennsylvania, and the games are expected to bring many prospective candidates for the American Olympic team to light, though they are not official tryouts.

Two events stood out prominently on today's program—the pentathlon and the international intercollegiate three-mile run.

In addition an invitational quarter-mile hurdle race, two American collegiate relay championships and a host of prep school relays were included in the list of events.

The games were scheduled to start at 2 o'clock.

BOWLING

FT. WAYNE, Ind., April 30.—Two men shot into the leading ten of the singles of the state bowling tournament last night.

Alvay of Ft. Wayne, with 625 pins, took fifth place and Fred Reynolds, with 611, went into ninth place.

Coach Reuther has two good dash men in Lotik and Kilgore.

The O'Donnell Transfers wound up their work in the Capitol No. 1 circuit by trouncing the Claman Bros. a couple of times.

Kimmell's last league score was an even 200.

Deschler's Monograms looked hot in the middle game, but the Block Opticians thumped 'em in the first and third.

Gantner's poor start didn't take any of his pep. He followed with a brace of humdiggers.

Soltan led the Capitol Five to a pair of wins over the Taggart Bakers and a whirlwind finish.

The Capitals crashed out a 1,000 total in their opener. Hucker missed out on the big counts in this frame but finished with 215.

Bill Taggart got the only double hundred score allotted the Bakers.

Schoen's crew wound up by dropping two to the Strauss Says.

Ferners' Tigers put the skids under the Federal Patrons.
