

4 DEMOCRATS MAKING FIGHT FOR SHERIFF

Race Enlivened by Exposures
Under Republican's Administration.

REFORM NEEDS SHOWN

WILLIAM F. SINDLINGER.

Conditions at the Marion county jail recently revealed in an investigation by the federal court have served to attract unusual attention to the race for the nomination for sheriff in both parties. Misuse of fees for the feeding of prisoners, the mistreatment of some prisoners and the granting of unusual liberties to others have been frequent under the present "good government" administration. The investigation showed and for this reason candidates for the democratic nomination for sheriff are making active campaigns in the hope of being able to improve the situation.

FOUR DEMOCRATIC CANDIDATES IN RACE.

There are four candidates in the field for the democratic nomination—William F. Sindlinger, William P. Stuck, Edward E. McBride and Willett Alexander Judson.

Mr. Sindlinger is making an especially active campaign. He has been speaking at various meetings and has declared that if elected he will clean up the jail and put the office of sheriff on a respectable basis.

Mr. Sindlinger is believed to be especially qualified for the office. He is one of the many former service men who are seeking democratic nominations this year, having served eleven months overseas.

He has been active in democratic politics, especially in the Fourth ward, for many years.

Mr. Sindlinger is a son of Peter Sindlinger, who was prominent in Marion county politics having been a candidate for county treasurer in 1898 and 1900.

OTHER CANDIDATES PROMISE CLEAN-UP.

Other candidates for the nomination also are promising to clean up the jail and to improve conditions in the office generally.

The democrats believe they have an especially good chance to elect a sheriff, as the various republican factions seem to be up in the air over their candidates.

"Honest Bob" Miller, the present sheriff, whose administration of the office was exposed in federal court, started his race as the candidate of the Jewett Lemcke faction.

He withdrew after the exposure and the "regular" faction centered on George Snider, who started as an anti-Jewett candidate.

The anti now seem to be favoring either Clarence J. Wiley or Morris D. Moss, the other two republican candidates.

"Forty-seven fifty!"

We have put an exclamation mark after the headline because we are sure you will say it that way, when you see the special lot of suits marked in our fair way at this price. The more you know about clothes the more you will enthuse when we show them to you, and if you are not a judge you can buy them on our assurance that they offer startling values.

PRICE alone does not determine value—it never has, and never will. What you get for what you pay is vastly more important, than merely what you pay. BUT a special group of Suits for men and young men priced at offers quality clothes well below actual worth—a real opportunity to get wonderful value for your money.

There are double-breasted models, trim fitting and correct; single-breasted effects which superior tailoring stamps as exclusive. Dark colors, neat patterns, all-wool fabrics, and proportions for every figure. Forty-seven fifty!—that's the very low price.
