Get Name on BallotThe name of James A. Bryant, a negro attorney, will not be on the primary ballot Tuesday as a candidate for the democratic nomination for judge of superior court, room 3, according to a decision of Judge T. J. Moll of superior court, room 3.Bryant filed a suit asking that Ed Jackson, secretary of state, be mandated to put the name on the ballot.Judge Moll held that there is no vacancy in the judgeship, as Judge Solon Carter, who succeeded the late Judge Ernest R. Keith on an appointment by the governor, fills out the entire four years to which the late judge was elected.7 Hurt When Insane
