

BARRYMORE COMES AS MILT SHANKS

Renault Due at Keith's—'Blind Youth' Is Booked

Isabel Barrymore, who created the role of Milt Shanks in the stage version of "The Copperhead," has put the same character and play in the movies. As a stage production this play was somewhat of a sensation several seasons ago.

The play actually established this member of the Barrymore family as an actor of deep roles.

"The Copperhead" comes in movie form at English's next week, opening Sunday afternoon.

RENAULT.
Another "woman" impersonator comes to B. P. Keith's next week.

His name is Francis Renault and is said to have a wardrobe costing close on to 5,000 bucks.

He has made himself famous in his chosen work.

"BLIND YOUTH."
A movie version of "Blind Youth," which was used for some time by Lou Tellegen on the stage, has been made with Walter McGrail in the title role. Comes to the Alhambra, opening Sunday.

CLOSING SATURDAY.
The following attractions close with the Saturday night show:

Constance Talmadge in "The Love Expert," at the Circle.

Nazimova in "The Heart of a Child," at the Colonial.

Mae Murray in "On With the Dance," at English's.

Norma Talmadge in "The Woman Gives," at Mister Smith's.

William Farnum in "Les Miserables," at the Ohio.

Texas Guinan in "Not Guilty," at the Regent.

Enid Bennett in "The False Road," at the Isis.

Monte Carlo Girls, with Rags Murphy, at the Park.

Jack Dempsey in the ninth chapter of the serial, "Dare Devil Jack," at the Broadway.

George Walsh in "The Dead Line," at the

ANITA AGAIN

Movie fans will soon see Anita Stewart in her latest movie, "The Fighting Shepherdess."

From all reports, especially those from New York City, this is the best picture that Anita has had for many moons.

Fox movie, at the Rialto.

"The Destruction of Rheims" and other acts, at the Lyric.

Amelia Stone and Armand Kalls in "A Song Romance," and other acts, at B. P. Keith's.

ALHAMBRA.

Fends.

That is the topic of "The Valley of Tomorrow," which is at the Alhambra the last days of this week.

The real atmosphere of the mountain feuds is maintained throughout the play with highland characters and remarkable scenery.

William Russell is the star of the production.

He appears as Dabney Morgan, a product of many generations of chronic haters.

The girl of the story is portrayed by Mary Thurman, who has appeared in many photoplays.

Russell and Miss Thurman are well adapted to the type of acting called for in "The Valley of Tomorrow," and therefore all the scenes are realistic.

The plot of the story is woven among the feuds of the mountaineers and the efforts of the backwoodsmen to avenge their wrongs.

Opinion—Excellent scenery, good acting and a well-finished story.

MURAT.
"The Smarter Set" opened a three-day engagement at the Murat last night.

It is a company composed of colored singers, with Salem Tutt Whitney and J. Homer Tutt carrying most of the burden, and it is a pretty big burden.

What the company lacks mostly are voices; there are numerous scenic changes and the comedy is poor.

The Secret of Keeping The Skin Wrinkle-Free

The great secret of keeping the face smooth, wrinkle-free and refined in texture is to use an effective astringent when the skin shows a tendency to become loose or the pores to enlarge. The best thing of the kind is a simple solution made by dissolving an ounce of pure powdered salicylic acid in a half pint of witch hazel. Used as a wash lotion, this promptly tightens the skin, which, of course, smooths out the lines and wrinkles and reduces too large pores.

Large pores, by the way, encourage blackheads, being so easily clogged with dirt and grime. The lotion referred to, therefore, serves as a blackhead preventive. It is also valuable in cases of sagging cheeks and chin, the astringent action, of course, serving to "draw in" the folds and obliterate the creases. Powdered salicylic acid now being sold by druggists generally in this country, any woman can make this lotion herself.—Advertisement.
