

EVANGELISTIC MEETINGS OPEN HERE MAY 25

Williams-Shaffer Campaign at Tomlinson Hall to Last Two Weeks.

SUNDAY AT CHURCHES

The Williams-Shaffer evangelistic party will open an evangelistic campaign at Tomlinson hall May 25, continuing until June 6.

Dr. R. T. Williams of Nashville, Tenn., is the evangelist heading the party. Miss Virginia Shaffer will be the special soloist of the party.

The singing will be directed by C. C. Kineberger, who has had long experience in directing revival music.

Services will open at 7:30 o'clock every night and afternoon services will be held at 2:30 o'clock every day with the exception of Monday and Saturday.

Musical services will be given tomorrow evening at the Memorial Presbyterian church under direction of Miss Elizabeth McGregor, organist and director.

The soloists will be Miss Catherine Howard, soprano; Miss Goldie Williams, contralto; Raymond A. Eddie, tenor; Charles E. Alves, bass, assisted by the Memorial male quartet, and Robert S. McGregor, violinist.

Rev. John M. Eskin will conduct the scriptural reading and prayer.

A lecture by W. T. H. Schlouer, field lecturer for the School of the Holy Scriptures, is on the program of the Church of Silent Unity, in the Odd Fellows building, at 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

His subject will be "Practical Christianity."

The First German Baptist church will open a series of evangelistic meetings Tuesday night, continuing until May 28. "Firing Bible Bullets" will be the subject of the sermon by Rev. Clarence J. Kerlin, at the Unity Methodist Protestant church tomorrow morning.

Rev. E. T. Howe, president of the Indiana conference of the Methodist Protestant church, will preach at 7:30 p. m. Rev. James Hixon will preach at the Hall Place Methodist church tomorrow morning.

Rev. D. W. Nichols will speak in the evening on "The Sweet Singers of Israel." G. Majer Angel, a converted Buddhist from Mandalay, will speak at the Victory Memorial Methodist Protestant church tomorrow night.

Weekly Club Index

Aftermath Club—Thursday afternoon. Hostess, Mrs. H. E. Elston. Mrs. E. Hamilton will read a paper on "Colonial Possessions" and Mrs. H. A. Self will talk on "America's Possibilities."

Century Club—Tuesday night. Metropolitan School of Music. Charles W. Jewett will address the meeting.

Irvington Fortnightly Club—Thursday afternoon. Hostess, Mrs. Wayne Redick, 406 Drexel avenue. Mrs. L. L. Foster, Mrs. J. A. McDonald and Miss Mary Ingels will read papers on various phases of Italy.

Indianapolis Woman's Club—Friday afternoon. Propylaeum parlors, Genevieve Seville will talk on "Vanishing Thrills." Katherine Holliday Daniels will talk on "There Are Joys in the Open Road."

Meridian Heights Inter-School Club—Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Carl Dow, 400 North Illinois street. Mrs. Ada Meade Cole will read a paper on "The New Americans." Mrs. Lou Mitchell will lead the conversation on "Field Flowers."

New Era Club—Monday afternoon with Mrs. W. J. Temple, 524 North Dearborn street. Mrs. T. O'Brien will talk on "French Revolution" and Mrs. R. O. Wolf will give a group of readings.

Woman's Research Club—Monday, all day. Hostess, Mrs. T. P. Overman, Mooresville. Members will drive, going in the morning prepared to spend the day. Mrs. Alfred P. Conkle is chairman of the committee in charge of arrangements.

Wednesday Afternoon Club—Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. A. A. McCray. The meeting will be a guest party. Mrs. K. Ashjian will be the speaker for the afternoon. A musical program has been arranged by Mrs. C. H. Trotter.

Havens and Geddes Club Gives Dance

The Havens & Geddes Social club gave a dance and entertainment last night on the fifth floor of the Havens & Geddes building.

Mrs. John Erther, Miss Marie Walsh and the Zeller sisters provided the program and "entertainment."

Officers of the organization include C. H. Hayden, president; Miss Mary Long, vice president; Mrs. Hazel Warner, secretary; John Kennedy, treasurer; and Luther Schumacher, Helen Bowers, Charles Russell, Frank Uphouse, Henry Borgstrom, Harry Keister and Freda Hays, directors.

The club is composed of employees of the company and is planning a number of social functions for the purpose of promoting interest and good relations between employers and employees.

City Plan Expert to Hold Meetings Here

Present plans call for the appearance of Flavel Shurtliff, executive secretary of the National Conference on City Planning, at a series of meetings to be held here during the week of May 24, to consider city planning.

Meetings with the Rotary club, the Real Estate board, etc., Indianapolis Association of Architects and other organizations have been arranged.

FOOD DRAFTS

Issued on Warehouses of the AMERICAN RELIEF ADMINISTRATION

In GERMANY at Hamburg
In AUSTRIA at Vienna
In HUNGARY at Budapest
In CZECHO-SLOVAKIA at Prague
In POLAND at Warsaw and Bialystok

Administered for the profit of the European Children's Fund. Issued in denominations of $10 or $50.00. List of contents of food draft on request. Steamship Tickets—Foreign Exchange

Main 1576. Foreign Department. Auto. 26-386

UNION TRUST COMPANY
120 East Market Street

To Conduct Revival

DR. R. T. WILLIAMS.

Evangelistic services to be conducted by Dr. R. T. Williams are being planned for the last week in May and the first week in June.

Sigma Alpha Iota Will Give Program

Members of the Sigma Alpha Iota society will give the program for the May musical to be given at the home of Mrs. Christine Roush, 609 Middle drive, Woodruff Place, on Tuesday night.

The musicians will include Miss Elizabeth Arnett, Miss Helen Summers, Miss Florence Walden, Miss Hazel Carlton, Miss Ruth McClure, Miss Iva Nicholson, Miss Thomas Pollock and Mrs. George Reeder.

Miss Beatrice Luce is president of the organization.

Other officers, recently chosen, are: Mrs. Tull Brown, vice-president; Mrs. G. Majer Angel, a converted Buddhist from Mandalay, will speak at the Victory Memorial Methodist Protestant church tomorrow night.

Candy Jobbers Plan Lively Convention

There will be no dull moments during the convention of the Commercial Jobbing Confectioners' association in Indianapolis, August 2, 3 and 4, according to the plans of the local jobbing confectioners, who met at the Hotel Severn last night and outlined entertainment.

Mrs. J. R. Wingfield, as chairman of a large committee of women, announced extensive social plans.

E. E. Wood, Nichols is chairman of the men's entertainment committee.

The convention will be held at the Hotel Severn together with a national exhibit of high class confections.

Invite Community to Citizens' School

The Eighth ward citizenship class will meet Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Felix E. McWhirter, 1435 North Pennsylvania street.

Mrs. Albert Rabb, newly elected ward chairman, will speak.

All women living between Pratt and Fifteenth streets and Capital and Canal avenues are asked to be at the meeting.

Mrs. Wilmer Christian, 1624 North New Jersey street, will be hostess for the Third ward citizenship school.

A mock national democratic convention will be the feature of the afternoon.

Mrs. John Barabill will assume the role of temporary chairman, presiding over the election of the chairman.

Miss Julia Landers will make the keynote speech for the democratic party.

'Alice in Wonderland' Delights Children

Many children today were discussing the strange adventures of "Alice in Wonderland," a movie which was presented at the Murat yesterday afternoon for the benefit of the endowment fund of Bryn Mawr college.

A large number of children attended the theater and had a great time watching the wandering of Alice in the strange make-believe land.

Shortridge Debaters Lose to Dayton Team

After defeating the Shortridge High school negative debating team, members of the Steele High school debating team of Dayton were the guests today of the local school.

The visitors were taken to the Speedway and given a glimpse of the racing cars being tuned up.

The subject debated last night was, "Should Labor Be Represented on the Board of Directors of Large Industrial Concerns?"

A unanimous decision was rendered by Dr. George L. MacIntosh, president of Walsh college; Demarchus C. Brown, state librarian, and Oscar H. Williams, state supervisor of teachers' training.

LODGES AND MEETINGS.

Other branch degree staff will give a social dance at Webster's hall tonight.

The Industrial Exclusion club will give a card party tomorrow night in Rod Men's hall on Capitol avenue and North street.

The Only Euchre club will give a card party and dance tomorrow night in Musicians' hall.

WE HAVE WITH US TODAY

THE TIMES has prepared a questionnaire consisting of ten questions, which it submits each day to some well-known person.

Introducing Edward R. Green, Secretary Peoples Outfitting Company.

Q. What is your name in full?
A. Edward R. Green.
Q. Have you ever had a nickname?
A. Legs.
Q. What was your favorite sport when you were a boy?
A. Baseball.
Q. How did you happen to meet her?
A. In Cleveland.
Q. What is your hobby today?
A. Football.
Q. What was your ambition when you were a boy?
A. To be a physician.
Q. What event in your life caused you to choose your present profession?
A. Circumstances.
Q. If you had your life to live over what profession would you choose?
A. Hard question to answer.
Q. What would you do with a million dollars if you had it to give away?
A. Let me have the million first.

Society

Members of the Delta Psi Kappa society, which is a national organization of the North American Gymnasium college, gave a subscription dance in the Athenaeum ballroom last night for the benefit of national year book fund. Miss Mariana Rose of Lafayette was in charge.

Attendants for the wedding of Miss Mary Beatty Herod and Malcolm Montgomery Graves of Buffalo, which will take place next Saturday, will include Miss Elizabeth Harrison, maid of honor; Luther P. Graves of Buffalo, best man; Rogers Herod and Chester Graves of Buffalo, ushers. A number of pre-nuptial parties have been arranged for. Miss Herod, among which will be a given at the Woodstock club Friday night by a group of the younger set.

A May dance will be given in the Propylaeum ballroom Wednesday night by the members of the May-day club. Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Shaw, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Stiles, Mrs. Robert F. Oakes and Mrs. A. Leppert will chaperone the party. Rogers Herod and Chester Graves of Buffalo, ushers. A number of pre-nuptial parties have been arranged for. Miss Herod, among which will be a given at the Woodstock club Friday night by a group of the younger set.

Miss Edith Evans of Lafayette is the guest of Miss Marian Wheeler, 2406 North Illinois street, over the week-end, having come to attend the Y. W. C. A. convention at Butler college, today.

Miss Elsa Reyer was hostess for a "rainbow tea" in honor of Miss Hazel Whitten, a bride-elect. Decorations throughout the parlors and dining room appointments were carried out in the various pastel shades. The guests included Miss Ethel Gerrard, Mrs. Mildred Cauldwell Moorehead, Margaret Montgomery, Miss Jessamine Barkley, Miss Grace Turner, Miss Mary Turner, Mrs. J. M. Whitten. Miss Reyer was assisted by her mother, Mrs. Theodore Reyer, and Miss Julia Reyer.

Members of the British War Veterans' society, the Victoria society, the Caledonian club and the Daughters of the British Empire will unite in celebrating Empire day, May 24. Plans are being laid for a dinner to be held in the dining room of the Athenaeum on that night. Clifford L. Symons is in charge of arrangements.

Mrs. Marie Montleth, 320 East Nineteenth street, announces the engagement of her daughter, Helen Irene Montleth, to Byron D. Bowers. The wedding will take place June 14.

Mr. and Mrs. William T. Burke, 1622 South East street, announce the engagement of their son, William T. Burke, Jr., of Rock Island, Ill., to Miss Nellie Mae Burke of Gillespie, Ill. The marriage will take place June 23.

Miss Florence Ruby, educational director of H. P. Watson & Company, will talk to the members of the Woman's Rotary club at the Columbia club Monday noon. Her subject will be "My Work and Its Results."

St. Margaret's Hospital guild will meet Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. J. H. Aufderheide, 1709 North Meridian street, for all-day sewing.

Miss L. Pauline Davies of Utica, N. Y., is the guest of Mrs. J. A. Davies, 11 Audubon court.

Lieut. Harold L. Rice, of Norfolk, Va., is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Speed Rice, 405 East Twenty-second street. Lieut. Rice was an aviator on submarine chaser number one in the early part of the war and later received his promotion.

Arrange Literary and Music Program

Members of the literature section of the Department club will entertain next Friday night with musical and educational program.

Mrs. Demarchus Brown will give an illustrated talk on Alaska.

Mrs. James H. Lowry, accompanied by Miss Helen Smith, will sing a group of spring songs.

Former Supt. of Wheeler Mission Here

Carrie Crow Sloan.

Mrs. Carrie Sloan will be the speaker at the mass meeting at the First Nazarene church, corner of State and Washington streets, Sunday afternoon, in the interest of Williams-Shaffer party, who are to conduct Evangelistic Campaign in TOMLINSON HALL, May 23 to June 6. There will be booster meetings for the big meeting in all Nazarene churches.

SCHOOL KIDDIES IN Y. W. C. A. CASTS

Two Shows Will Be Staged Next Friday Night.

A particularly attractive program has been arranged for the final art institute night of the educational department of the Y. W. C. A. Friday night.

The Junior Drama League, under the direction of Miss L. Katherine Kelfer, will present two plays, "The Enchanted Garden" and "Better Self."

There will also be a vocal number by Mary Ennis and a group dance by Helen Elder, Alma Brown, Marian Cost and Ruth Amelina.

The program will be followed by a social hour, during which music will be furnished by Mrs. Edna Martin. This program is open to the public, including both men and women.

The cast for "The Enchanted Garden" will be made up of children from school No. 60, including Gladys Hooker, Margaret Harrison, Helen Harrison, Ruth Amelina, Helen Strawmyer, Margaret Irwin, Ruth Weyer, Frances Force, Virginia Jones, Bessie Tucker, Marian Cost and Dorothy Mull.

Children from school No. 9 and 31 will give "Better Self." The cast includes Mary Ennis, Allen Frow, Josephine Pettit, Jake Ferguson, Alma Brown, Helen Elder, Yelma Runyan, Mary Albrecht, Marie Stribley, Florence Berger, Olga Banks, Margaret Stribley and Robert Kennington. Miss Irene Janickie will be at the piano.

Y. W. C. A. Notes

The physical education department of the Young Women's Christian association will give its annual demonstration Tuesday night. As the various classes under Miss Kathleen Lowrie, physical director, and Miss Bertha Hofer, assistant, have been working on the features for the exhibition for several months, a particularly good program is expected.

The membership and social department will give its May membership entertainment on Friday night at 8 in Hollenbeck hall. Jert Servas, who is popularly known in Indianapolis as a sleight-of-hand artist, will provide the greater part of the evening's entertainment. The program will be opened with several musical numbers and at its close refreshments will be served in the green parlors. There will be no admission charge, but guests will be requested to present their membership cards.

The girls at the residence at 725 North Pennsylvania street, will have a May breakfast Sunday morning. Decorations and a special menu have been planned.

At a business meeting held at the plant Wednesday noon Miss Pearl Jones was elected delegate of the Indianapolis Glass Company club to the industrial conference at Dewey Lake, June 10 to 26.

Mrs. Effie Cunningham of the College of Music will sing and the social hour will be in charge.

MOTION PICTURES.

Students of the Metropolitan School of Music gave a recital this afternoon in the Green hall of the school. A dramatic sketch, "Pandora's Box," was to be given by the dramatic art students. On Wednesday night pupils of Adolph Schellachum, violin and cello instructor, assisted by Genevieve Hughes, will appear in concert.

OHIO THEATRE

WORLD'S GREATEST PICTURES MUSIC THAT PLEASES

NEXT WEEK STARTING SUNDAY

Two Premier Offerings

"Who's Your Servant?"

Sensational Picture Story Adapted from JULIAN JOHNSON'S Celebrated Play.

And "THE LOST CITY"

A Tremendous Spell-Binding Adventure of the American Jungle.

HUNDREDS of WILD ANIMALS

SPECIAL CHILDREN'S HOUR 11:30 to 2 O'clock

Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday

During this period all children are invited to be the guests of the management. Tear out coupon and come early.

FREE COUPON This coupon and the payment of war tax (2 cents) admits bearer during the hours 11:30 to 2:00—week of May 16th. Not Good Saturday and Sunday

MONDAY, TUESDAY, WEDNESDAY, THURSDAY AND FRIDAY

During this period all children are invited to be the guests of the management. Tear out coupon and come early.

FREE COUPON This coupon and the payment of war tax (2 cents) admits bearer during the hours 11:30 to 2:00—week of May 16th. Not Good Saturday and Sunday

MONDAY, TUESDAY, WEDNESDAY, THURSDAY AND FRIDAY

During this period all children are invited to be the guests of the management. Tear out coupon and come early.

FREE COUPON This coupon and the payment of war tax (2 cents) admits bearer during the hours 11:30 to 2:00—week of May 16th. Not Good Saturday and Sunday

MONDAY, TUESDAY, WEDNESDAY, THURSDAY AND FRIDAY

During this period all children are invited to be the guests of the management. Tear out coupon and come early.

FREE COUPON This coupon and the payment of war tax (2 cents) admits bearer during the hours 11:30 to 2:00—week of May 16th. Not Good Saturday and Sunday

MONDAY, TUESDAY, WEDNESDAY, THURSDAY AND FRIDAY

Here's Your Chance to Adopt Real Dog

Here's another chance to get a splendid dog at a very small cost.

The Indianapolis Humane society announces that the dog pound is rapidly becoming overstocked with some splendid animals, including shepherds, collies, bulls and spaniels. Some of these dogs are pure strain and splendid animals.

All are awaiting homes or final disposition.

The small fees required by law and the assurance of good homes are all that is required to obtain them.

Call the society or the dog pound.

In charge of the membership and social department.

A supper will be given Friday, May 21, at 6 o'clock in honor of the members of the Pettis Dry Goods Company club, who are having birthdays during May.

The dramatic art class has begun rehearsals for a parlor program which will be given at the students' council party on June 2.

Music Notes

Ferdinand Schaefer's orchestra class will be presented in recital, assisted by Miss Agnes Hodgins, soprano, tomorrow afternoon, by the College of Music and Fine Arts.

At the Lincoln hotel, Sunday night, the Lincoln trip will be assisted by Miss Florence Ann Parkin, soprano, and Thomas Nealis, baritone. The numbers will include "To the Evening Star," from Tannhauser, and a "Gavotte" from "Mignon" by the trio; "Joy of Spring" (Woodman), sung by Miss Parkin; Tosti's "Good-Bye," by Mr. Nealis; and a duet, "I Know a Bank Where the Wild Thyme Grows," by Miss Parkin and Mr. Nealis, accompanied by the trio.

Indiana College of Music and Fine Arts will give a miscellaneous recital for advanced pupils Friday night.

The program at the Columbia club Sunday evening will include "Love is the Wind" (MacFadden), "Will of the Wisp" (Spross), "The Old Refrain" (Kremler), and "Sweet and Low" (Barbary), with violin obligato, sung by Miss Jessamine Barkley, soprano. Miss Ella Schroeder, violinist, will play "Romance" (Svendson), "Gypsy Dance" (Weir), and "Torch Dance" (German). Paul Orr is the saxophonist, and Miss Cyrilla Humes director and pianist.

Students of the Metropolitan School of Music gave a recital this afternoon in the Green hall of the school. A dramatic sketch, "Pandora's Box," was to be given by the dramatic art students. On Wednesday night pupils of Adolph Schellachum, violin and cello instructor, assisted by Genevieve Hughes, will appear in concert.

MOTION PICTURES.

Students of the Metropolitan School of Music gave a recital this afternoon in the Green hall of the school. A dramatic sketch, "Pandora's Box," was to be given by the dramatic art students. On Wednesday night pupils of Adolph Schellachum, violin and cello instructor, assisted by Genevieve Hughes, will appear in concert.

OHIO THEATRE

WORLD'S GREATEST PICTURES MUSIC THAT PLEASES

NEXT WEEK STARTING SUNDAY

Two Premier Offerings

"Who's Your Servant?"

Sensational Picture Story Adapted from JULIAN JOHNSON'S Celebrated Play.

And "THE LOST CITY"

A Tremendous Spell-Binding Adventure of the American Jungle.

HUNDREDS of WILD ANIMALS

SPECIAL CHILDREN'S HOUR 11:30 to 2 O'clock

Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday

During this period all children are invited to be the guests of the management. Tear out coupon and come early.

FREE COUPON This coupon and the payment of war tax (2 cents) admits bearer during the hours 11:30 to 2:00—week of May 16th. Not Good Saturday and Sunday

MONDAY, TUESDAY, WEDNESDAY, THURSDAY AND FRIDAY

During this period all children are invited to be the guests of the management. Tear out coupon and come early.

FREE COUPON This coupon and the payment of war tax (2 cents) admits bearer during the hours 11:30 to 2:00—week of May 16th. Not Good Saturday and Sunday

MONDAY, TUESDAY, WEDNESDAY, THURSDAY AND FRIDAY

During this period all children are invited to be the guests of the management. Tear out coupon and come early.

FREE COUPON This coupon and the payment of war tax (2 cents) admits bearer during the hours 11:30 to 2:00—week of May 16th. Not Good Saturday and Sunday

MONDAY, TUESDAY, WEDNESDAY, THURSDAY AND FRIDAY

During this period all children are invited to be the guests of the management. Tear out coupon and come early.

FREE COUPON This coupon and the payment of war tax (2 cents) admits bearer during the hours 11:30 to 2:00—week of May 16th. Not Good Saturday and Sunday

MONDAY, TUESDAY, WEDNESDAY, THURSDAY AND FRIDAY

Arranges Fete

MRS. WM. RUSSELL STUART.

Members of the state organization of Phi Sigma have been holding a "May Fete" in Indianapolis yesterday and today.

The arrangements were under the direction of Mrs. William Russell Stuart, president of the local chapter.

Last night a dance was held in the ballroom of the Independent Athletic club, and decorations of apple blossoms, lilacs and dogwood gave the hall the atmosphere of a spring garden.

Seventy-five couples were present.

Today a luncheon was held in the ballroom of L. S. Ayres in honor of Miss Mary Flora of Frankfort, who is representing her chapter.

Plans were laid for next season's work and state extension among the larger towns of Indiana.

This afternoon various theater parties were to be given for the visiting members.

Other officers of the Indianapolis organization include Mrs. George Heldenreich, vice president; Mrs. Orval Hixon, secretary; Miss Thelma Smith, deputy secretary; Mrs. Douglas Bash, treasurer; Miss Pauline Baily, deputy treasurer. Chapter members include Mary Africa, Helen Baily, Jessie Bradshaw, Mrs. Frank Buschman, Mrs. George Bayard.

MOTION PICTURES.

Students of the Metropolitan School of Music gave a recital this afternoon in the Green hall of the school. A dramatic sketch, "Pandora's Box," was to be given by the dramatic art students. On Wednesday night pupils of Adolph Schellachum, violin and cello instructor, assisted by Genevieve Hughes, will appear in concert.

MOTION PICTURES.

Students of the Metropolitan School of Music gave a recital this afternoon in the Green hall of the school. A dramatic sketch, "Pandora's Box," was to be given by the dramatic art students. On Wednesday night pupils of Adolph Schellachum, violin and cello instructor, assisted by Genevieve Hughes, will appear in concert.

OHIO THEATRE

WORLD'S GREATEST PICTURES MUSIC THAT PLEASES

NEXT WEEK STARTING SUNDAY

Two Premier Offerings

"Who's Your Servant?"

Sensational Picture Story Adapted from JULIAN JOHNSON'S Celebrated Play.

And "THE LOST CITY"

A Tremendous Spell-Binding Adventure of the American Jungle.

HUNDREDS of WILD ANIMALS

SPECIAL CHILDREN'S HOUR 11:30 to 2 O'clock

Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday

During this period all children are invited to be the guests of the management. Tear out coupon and come early.

FREE COUPON This coupon and the payment of war tax (2 cents) admits bearer during the hours 11:30 to 2:00—week of May 16th. Not Good Saturday and Sunday

MONDAY, TUESDAY, WEDNESDAY, THURSDAY AND FRIDAY

During this period all children are invited to be the guests of the management. Tear out coupon and come early.

FREE COUPON This coupon and the payment of war tax (2 cents) admits bearer during the hours 11:30 to 2:00—week of May 16th. Not Good Saturday and Sunday

MONDAY, TUESDAY, WEDNESDAY, THURSDAY AND FRIDAY