

PROGRAM OUT FOR CENTENNIAL

Five Days' Festivities to Open June 5 With Mass Meeting.

The complete program for the Indianapolis centennial celebration was announced today by the centennial committee in charge of arrangements.

The celebration will open officially Saturday night, June 5, with a mass meeting of Indianapolis citizens at Tomlinson hall.

Mayor Jewett will make the principal address. A music program is being prepared.

On Sunday morning historical patriotic services will be held in all churches of the city.

On Sunday afternoon the centennial concert will be held in the coliseum at the state fair grounds.

A chorus of 500 voices will sing "Hymn Novissima" in joint recital with the Cincinnati Symphony orchestra.

Four operatic stars, Florence Hinkle, soprano; Marie Alcock, contralto; Arthur Kraft, tenor, and Arthur Middleton, bass-baritone, will sing the solo parts of "Hymn Novissima" with the chorus.

On Sunday afternoon at 6 o'clock a community "sing" will be held on the steps of the monument and several brief addresses will be made by Indianapolis men.

The program for this meeting is in charge of Rev. C. S. Winders, executive secretary of the Church Federation of Indianapolis.

On Sunday night, June 6, Orville Harold, regent, and the greatest American tenor, will sing in joint recital with the Cincinnati Symphony orchestra, in the coliseum at the state fair grounds.

An Indianapolis man will direct the orchestra.

On Monday, June 7, the date on which Indianapolis is 100 years old, services and exercises will be held in the various schools of the city.

At 3 o'clock in the afternoon the cornerstone for the school of liberal arts, the first unit of the Arsenal Technical school's building program, will be laid.

The Grand Lodge of Masons will be in charge of the ceremonies.

At 8 o'clock Monday night the centennial parade, depicting various episodes in the city's history, will be staged and more than 100 floats, it is believed, will be seen in the line of march.

Various important events in the city's history will be shown by symbolic floats.

On Tuesday night, June 8, a gorgeous pageant will be staged at the coliseum at the state fair grounds and more than 2,000 persons will participate.

The most important episode of the city's history will be depicted by the pageant, which will be carried out on a specially constructed stage.

The celebration will end on Wednesday night with a water pageant on White river at Riverside park.

More than 500 persons, it is believed, will participate in the water pageant and many different kinds of water craft beautifully illuminated and decorated will be seen.

Throughout the celebration arts and relics will be displayed at the state house and in the John Herron Art Institute.

Plans to Be Made for Showing Film

Club presidents of the Seventh District Affiliated Clubs of the state federation will meet on the twelfth floor of the Odd Fellow building, Friday morning, to complete arrangements for the presentation of the "Blue Bird," which will be shown at the Ohio theater, June 27, 28, 29.

Plans for the centennial float of the Indianapolis clubs will also be discussed.

Mrs. Ovid Butler Jameson heads the centennial committee, assisted by Mrs. Edward Ferger, Mrs. Grace Julian Clark, Dr. Amelia Keller, Mrs. David Ross and Mrs. Thomas Demmerly.

Mrs. O. M. Pittenger, state vice-president of the Indiana Federation of Clubs, will assist the committee in charge of tickets for the "Blue Bird."

Mrs. D. S. Monasco is chairman of the ticket committee.

Assisting members include: Mrs. Walter H. Geisel, Mrs. George M. Henderson, Mrs. John Shropshire Smith, Mrs. G. M. McWhirter, Mrs. E. F. Hodges, Mrs. Ellen Browning, Mrs. George C. Van Dorin compose the official board of the local federation.

Roberts Checks Up Convention Details

Final plans are rapidly being pushed for the convention of the Associated Advertising Clubs of the World, here June 6 to 10.

"Check up" meetings will be held every day from now until convention time to work out even the slightest detail for the convention.

O. T. Roberts, advertising manager of The Indiana Daily Times, met with the board in charge of arrangements for the convention today, and went over hotel reservations.

According to present indications there will be between 4,000 and 5,000 persons at the convention.

A "courtesy and information" school was held at the Chamber of Commerce last night in preparation for the convention.

Members of the Pan-Hellenic society, embodying all of the sororities of Indianapolis, were the "pupils."

The members of the society will be in charge of information booths during the convention.

Short talks were made last night by Mrs. Don Bridge, president of the society; G. F. Olvin, secretary of the Better Business Bureau, and chairman of the committee on information; George Stewart, Charles S. Murphy, Charles Birdson, Harry Meyers, George Gill and Fred Mills.
