

SWINDLED OUT OF $1,300 BY A MAN WITH 'ROLL'

West Washington Street Grocer Gives Real Money for Fake Greenbacks.

Joseph Miskowicz, 905 West Washington street, today asked the police to find a smooth-talking, well-dressed stranger whom he gave $1,300 for a $1 bill and a lot of fake greenbacks.

The stranger called at Miskowicz's place yesterday afternoon.

He said his name was "John"—never mind the last name, he said glibly—and that he wanted to buy the store and start right in selling groceries as he knew the business.

FLASHES QUITE SOME "BANKROLL"

The stranger's businesslike manner impressed Miskowicz.

He offered to buy the store and before paying for it started serving customers.
"John" had nothing but bills of large denominations and he was forced to pay $40 in change with which to conduct business.

"Then 'John' explained to Miskowicz that he would be pleased if Miskowicz would change the bills of large denominations into smaller bills.

JUST LIKE Miskowicz had only $1,300, all in twenty dollar bills, at the store, but "John" said that would "help some," and Miskowicz gave the new grocery keeper the money.

"John" counted out the same amount in large bills, wrapped them in a piece of paper and gave them to Miskowicz, who planned them inside of his vest.

Several hours later Miskowicz unplanned the paper and opened the roll, discovering that there was a one-dollar bill wrapped around a roll of blank paper cut the same size as the one-dollar bill.

Tells Police Bogus Solicitors at Work

Brig. L. M. Simonson of the Salvation Army today issued a warning that five persons were soliciting funds for "the army" who have no right to do so.

The police were asked to search for the solicitors who, Brig. Simonson declares, wear uniforms and who, he says, are taking advantage of the present drive for funds being made by the Salvation Army.

The solicitors do not say they are soliciting for the Salvation Army, but ask for money for "the army," he told the police.

TOO WEAK TO WALK CLIMBING STAIRS EXHAUSTED HIM

Terre Haute butcher contracted rheumatism, catarrh and a bad cough from getting his feet wet so often. Was unable to work regularly.

Although he tried many medicines, he claims he did not improve until he took Decco, the new herbal remedy.

Mr. John C. Markin, who lives on Flint street, North Terre Haute, Ind., relates the following experience:

"I am a butcher, and in following my trade it is often necessary to stand on the wet pens. In this manner I caught cold, which developed into catarrh of the head and throat; I became all crippled up with rheumatism; had soreness and pains all over my body; severe headaches, earache. I took a number of different medicines in the hope of overcoming these troubles, but it seemed like I was getting worse instead of better until I got so I could hardly hear at all.
My sense of taste and smell, my cough kept me from sleeping; my kidneys were weak and I could not walk far without getting out of breath.

"Climbing stairs or a hill was out of the question. I was so nervous I jumped at every little noise; was so sore and stiff in the morning I had to hold on to the bed in order to get up.

"About three weeks ago I started on Decco, as it had been strongly recommended to me and I feel so happy to think that I have at last found something to overcome my miseries. Way I feel like a cat, full of pep and vitality.
I wish everybody could know of the wonderful benefit I have received from this splendid medicine."

Mr. Williamson, the well-known Decco expert, has headquarters at Clapport Drug Co., to meet the local public and explain the merits of this great remedy.

Square Deal for All Our Visitors!

Indianapolis is not so foolish as the man who killed the goose that laid the golden eggs. This city is a favorite convention center because its business men have built up a reputation for square dealings with visitors.
We can not afford to have this reputation destroyed by a few overcharging the visitors who will come to the speedway races May 31 and the convention of the Associated Advertising Clubs of the World, June 6 to 10—G. F. Olwin, manager, Better Business bureau.

Yardmen Act to Protect Policies

The Indianapolis Yardmen's association, which is conducting an unauthorized strike here, is today preparing to take legal measures to protect the insurance policies of 170 members who were expelled from the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen for participating in the strike.
Clarence Darrow, a San Francisco labor attorney, will represent the yardmen's association.

E. H. Stewart, president of Local 261, preferred charges against the expelled members several days ago.

The members of the local include employes of all the lines except the Big Four, whose employees belong to Local No. 374.

The men expelled from the local have been paying monthly premiums on their insurance policies for several years in amounts from $1.50 to $3.

Nurses' Home Plans to Come Up Monday

Plans for the proposed new nurses' home will be laid before the meeting of representatives of civic and professional organizations with the heads of the city departments and the board of health at the City hall next Monday night.

According to the plans drawn up by H. L. Danford, an Indianapolis architect, and presented to the board of health last night, the building will cost approximately $337,000.

It would be a four-story brick structure to accommodate 153 nurses.

The proposed building would be modern in every way, containing lecture room, auditorium, library, reception room, dining room, laboratory, kitchen, baths and locker rooms.

Four applications for the position of supervisor of nurses at the City hospital have been received, but no action was taken.

Sunnyside Building Comes to Standstill

Because of the inability to receive matterial work on the new buildings now under construction at Sunnyside, the county tuberculosis hospital, is at a standstill, according to Dr. H. S. Hatch, superintendent of the institution.

The building is nearly completed and the power plant is ready for equipment, however.

'Big 4' Engineer to Be Buried Thursday

Funeral services for Thomas McDer-mont, veteran Big Four engineer, who died yesterday afternoon, will be held at the home of his niece, Mrs. J. T. Lincoln, 5370 East Washington street, Thursday morning.

Mr. McDermont entered the services of the old I. C. & L. railway, which later became a part of the Big Four, in 1875.
He became an engineer in 1884.

While en route to Kankakee, Ill., Sunday he became seriously ill and was removed to a hospital at Lafayette.

Speakers Aid Postal Men in Wage Fight

Four-minute speeches for the purpose of arousing public support for the postal employees who are asking increased pay are being given at Keith's theater each night this week.

Charles Fox, president of the state federation of labor, was the speaker last night.

Other speakers are A. M. Hall, tonight; Charles R. Benedict, Wednesday; Arthur R. Robinson, Thursday; Charles J.
Orlison, Friday.

The speaker for Saturday night has not been named.

NEW ORDER TO AIR PILOTS.

According to Capt. Jacob Rudolph, commanding officer of the aviation depot at the speedway, a new order issued by the war department makes it imperative for all former air pilots to undergo a physical examination within six months of the time when they wish to make flights.

Helen Moller Named in Divorce Action

NEW YORK, May 25.—Miss Helen Moller, the Grecian dancer, was today named in the divorce action of Mrs. Edna W. Poole.

An interlocutory decree in favor of Mrs. Poole was ordered by the court.
Mrs. Poole charged that Miss Moller often had been introduced as the wife of her husband, Robert Alfred Poole.

Says Application of Golden Rule Needed

"The Cure for National Unrest" was the subject of a sermon by Dr. R. T.
Williams, of the Williams-Shaffer evangelistic party, at Tomlinson hall, last night.

The recognition of the golden rule among all classes is the only sure means of bringing about harmony, he said.

The party is conducting an extended series of daily meetings at the hall.
