

CALIFORNIANS PUT $100,000 ON JOHNSON RACE

Alexander McCabe, One of Senator's Managers, Gives Figures at Hearing.

$5,000 DONATION LEADS

WASHINGTON, May 29.—Between $100,000 and $125,000 was raised for Hiram Johnson's primary campaign in California, Alexander McCabe, San Francisco, one of Johnson's managers, told the senate campaign expenditures investigating committee today.

The contributions totaled this amount two days before the close of the campaign, McCabe said.

"The largest individual contribution was $5,000, by Henry Wielschke," McCabe said.

McCabe charged that expenditures of Herbert Hoover's campaign managers in California amounted to at least $300,000 or three times the amount raised for Johnson.

McCabe testified that the complete amount raised for the Johnson campaign throughout the country was about $300,000.

DENIES RAIL HEAD DONATED TO FUND.

McCabe denied rumors that Vice President Hoover's Southern Pacific has contributed to the Johnson campaign.

He said he couldn't discover the "nine millionaires" who, Hoover, men said, were on the Johnson primary ticket.

He named five as the only millionaires among the twenty-six California delegates.

"Any millionaires on the Hoover delegation," Kenyon asked.

"Oh, I never counted them, but there were a considerable number," McCabe said.

McCabe said $25,000 was sent from California to Johnson's New York headquarters, $4,000 to Michigan, $3,500 to Nebraska, $2,000 to Indiana, $3,000 to Montana, nothing to New Jersey and North Carolina, $3,500 to South Dakota, $2,000 to North Dakota, $5,500 to Oregon, $2,000 to Nevada, $2,000 to Arizona, $300 to Washington and $1,500 to Minnesota.

GUARDS SOURCE OF "SLUSH FUND" REPORT.

Frederick Williams, Wis. newspaper correspondent, the next witness, refused to divulge the source of his recently published dispatches which said a "slush fund of $250,000 or upwards" was raised for the Hiram Johnson primary campaign in California.

Williams said the Johnson fund, as he has been informed, was not so large as that of Wood or Lowden, "but it was considerably bigger than that spent in behalf of Mr. Hoover," Williams added.

Further inquiry into the "invisible" McAdoo boom, was next began with Evans H. Harris, Albany, formerly chairmen of the New York democratic committee, testifying.

He denied knowledge of McAdoo headquarters in New York.

"The Big Three" reporting the republican national convention for the Indiana Times will have a great many other news and feature writers at the convention but the stories of Bryan, Borah and Bly will be read with the closest interest.

Mr. Bryan's political acumen goes without saying and his articles will be authoritative; Borah has been a powerful republican factor in the senate for years, and Nellie Bly has just as vigorous a pen as she had thirty years ago when she first became famous after accomplishing tremendous municipal national reforms.

LLOYD GEORGE PLANS TO MEET SOVIET ENVOY

Audience Will Be Granted Next Week, London Dispatch Says.

EMISSARY SECRETIVE

LONDON, May 29.—The first meeting between Premier Lloyd George and Gregory Krassin, the Russian bolshevik trade envoy, will take place next week, it was learned today from an authoritative source.

M. Krassin was silent on reports that he came to England empowered by the Moscow soviet to negotiate peace.

"I hope the British and the Russians can come to an understanding," was the only statement the bolshevik emissary would make.

According to the Daily Herald, the left organ of the labor party, the Russians will not bring any gold to London unless its safety is guaranteed.

The promise that it will be used only for commercial payments.

The Herald says their bankers want payments made at the pre-war price of gold, which would mean considerable loss to the soviets.

A fare of 25 cents for each additional passenger is provided with no charge for children under 6 years of age. A light traveling bag can be carried free.

These rates are to be observed throughout the city with the exception of the section bounded by South street, Delaware street, Ohio street and Senate avenue, in which zone the fare shall not exceed 50 cents per passenger and 25 cents for each additional passenger.

A rate of $3 and $1.50 for each additional half hour is also specified for special engagements.

J. 'HAM' LEWIS RAISES WAR CRY

Europe and Asia Against U. S., He Says.

CHICAGO, May 29.—Warning that in the not far distant future there will be another world war, with the principal countries of Europe and Asia combined against the United States, was sounded in an address given before the Illinois Bar association by former United States Senator James Hamilton Lewis.

"Even before the second election following the forthcoming presidential choice England and Germany will be in a commercial league," he declared.

"The United States will find itself completely isolated."

"After this some grievance will be found whereby these nations will unite either to humiliate or to attempt to destroy the United States."

Judge Solon J. Carter of superior court, room 3, stated today that he has decided to ask the Marion County Bar association to investigate the accusation of Mrs. Kaye Kasrich that Charles W. Rollinson, an attorney, offered to guarantee a satisfactory ruling from Judge Carter for a consideration of $100.

The judge said the bar association will be asked to determine if Rollinson made the proposition as claimed by Mrs. Kasrich on the witness stand yesterday.

Before deciding what action he would take, Judge Carter stated in open court that it was only fair to Mr. Rollinson, as well as the court, to have a "complete investigation."

Judge Carter admitted the testimony "might be framed" and said it is Mr. Rollinson should be vindicated, but if true, the public should know it.

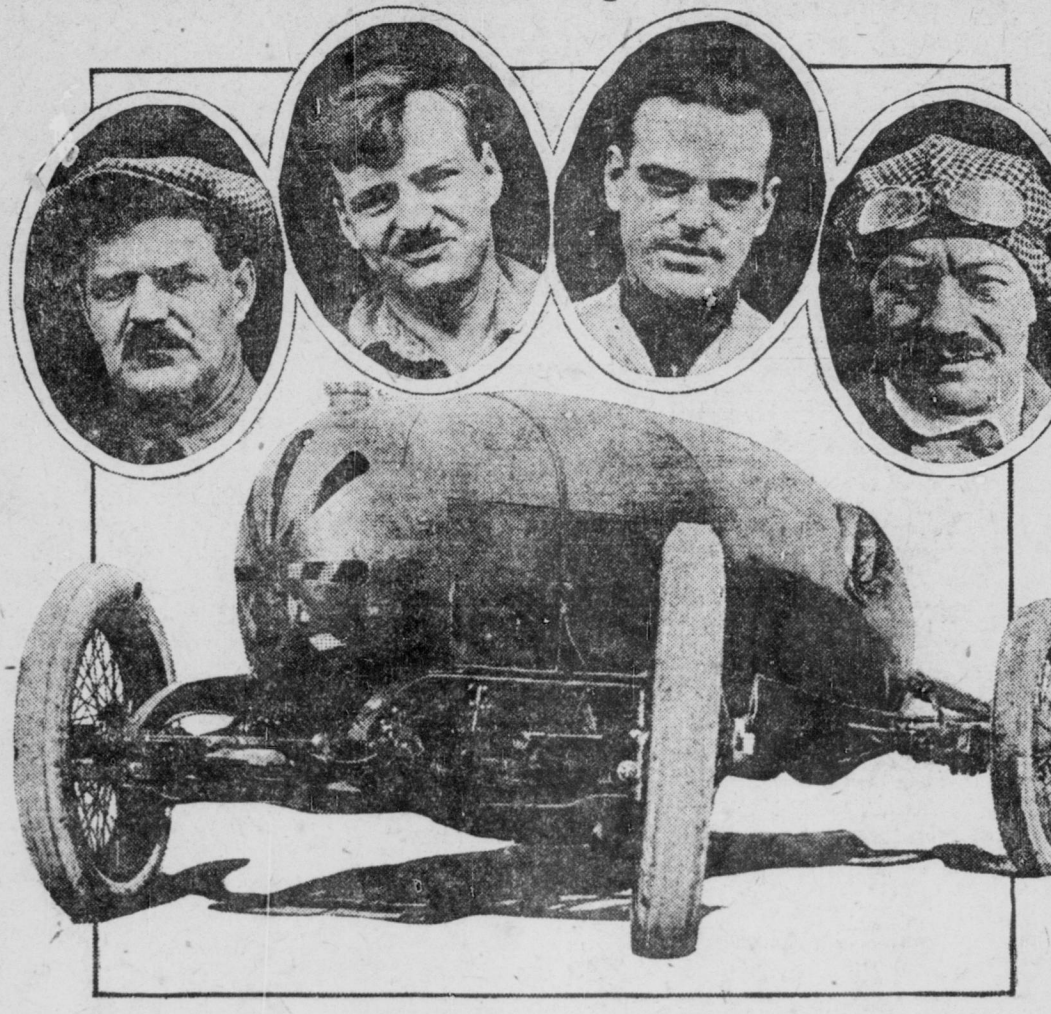

Rollinson said he agreed with the court that there should be an investigation.

The judge determined if Rollinson was enough apparent truth to Mrs. Kasrich's accusation to warrant a thorough inquiry.

Rollinson emphatically denied that he ever told Mrs. Kasrich that he wanted $100 from her to bribe the court.

Mrs. Kasrich stated on oath that the reason she did not give Rollinson the money was because she could not raise the money.

Attorneys generally today were heard to comment favorably on the court's action of ordering an inquiry.

TWO QUIT, ONE PUT ON IN J. P. ROW

Probably Result in Dismissal of Prosecutor's Suit.

Two sudden resignations and an appointment today were the latest steps in a controversy concerning the office of the justice of the peace held for the past four years by Charles H. Mueller.

Mueller sent his resignation as justice to the county commissioners before noon today and a few minutes after this was accepted by the commissioners, Frank Glass, who has been attempting a justice pending a supreme court decision, resigned.

Carlin Shank, county commissioner, stated that the commissioners accepted the resignation of Glass and then appointed Glass to succeed Mueller.

This sudden action of the commissioners probably will result in the dismissal of a suit pending by the state attorney, in the circuit court to compel Mueller to resign and for the commissioners to appoint a successor.

William E. Henderson, a colored attorney, has for some time attempted, without success, to get the appointment to succeed Mueller, but the commissioners failed to appoint Henderson.
