

CHURCHES TO PAY HONOR TO SOLDIER DEAD

Special Services Will Be Conducted in Many Pulpits Tomorrow.

PLAN PATRIOTIC MUSIC

Services in memory of the men who died in defense of the nation will be held in most of the churches of Indianapolis tomorrow.

In many places patriotic organizations will attend the services.

The Bruce W. Robinson post, American legion, will attend patriotic song service at the Central Christian church in the evening.

The subject of the morning service by Rev. Allan B. Huggins, pastor of the church, will be "The Nation's Memory."

Special Memorial day services will be held at the Meridian Street Methodist church, where Dr. Philip Fric will speak on "The Soul of the Nation."

ARRANGE PROGRAM FOR CHILDREN.

Children's day program will be at the Tabernacle Presbyterian church in the morning.

In the evening Rev. J. Ambrose Dunkel will speak on "The God that is Enough."

At the Third Christian church, Rev. T. W. Grafton, pastor, will speak on "The Power of Pentecostal Preaching" and "The Message and Mission of the Disciples."

Rev. O. D. Odell will speak in the morning at the Second Presbyterian church on "The Broken Cross." There will be no evening services.

At the First Presbyterian church Rev. M. L. Haines will speak on "Heroes and Cowards."

The subjects of the sermons by Rev. John L. Prentice at the Sutherland Presbyterian church will be "Dead Yet Speaking" and "Shall We Look for Another?"

Joe Justice will speak at the Wheeler Rescue Mission, in the old Empire theater, on "Voices From Christown."

"Honoring Our Dead Heroes" will be the subject of a Memorial day sermon by Dr. Frederick E. Taylor at the First Baptist church.

WICKS TO SPEAK ON "THE SECESSIONIST."

Rev. Frank S. C. Wicks will preach at the All Saints Unitarian church on "The Secessionist of Today."

Evangelistic meetings will continue all next week at Tomlinson hall.

The meetings are being conducted by the Williams-Shaffer Evangelistic party.

Services will be held every afternoon and evening, except Monday and Saturday.

A memorial service for veterans will be held at the Frodoe Park United Brethren church in the morning.

The subject of a sermon by Rev. J. B. Parsons will be "The Door at the Place of Devotions."

Memorial services will be held at the Mansur Park Methodist Protestant church.

The subject of the morning sermon by Rev. J. C. McCaslin will be "A Good Soldier."

In the evening he will speak on "The Most Important Fact in the Spiritual History of Christian People."

Rev. C. N. Williger, pastor of the Trinity M. E. church, will speak in the morning on "Immortality." In the evening he will speak on "Another Day—What Is It?"

THEY ARE HERE FROM ALL U. S.

(Continued From Page One.)

to the citizens of Indianapolis to cooperate with the police department in preventing robberies and accidents.

Three "Don'ts" were announced by the chief:

"Don't leave your home unprotected during the time when the large crowds are in the city."

"Don't get into crowds if you can avoid it."

"Don't fail to obey the traffic rules as the visiting automobile drivers will soon learn our traffic rules by the way the citizens of Indianapolis obey them."

The local police department will do everything possible to protect the citizens of Indianapolis and the visitors during the time the race crowds are in the city, but the chief urged that the people cooperate with the department.

Detectives from many of the large cities have arrived in Indianapolis to assist the local department and will remain until after the race.

Detectives from St. Louis, Detroit, Chicago, Cincinnati, Columbus, Louisville and other cities are here and crooks known to the police will be arrested if found in this city during the race days.

Suspects will be placed under high bond and detained until after the visitors have left the city.

Y. W. C. A. Notes

What is expected to be one of the most amusing entertainments the Young Women's Christian association has had for some time will be the "Tom Thumb Wedding" to be given in Hollenbeck hall on Wednesday night at 8:15 under the auspices of the Federation of Industrial Clubs.

An interesting program of readings and music will precede the event. All the participants in the "Tom Thumb Wedding" will be children. When the guests are assembled Anna Wesner will sing "I Love You Truly" and Zelma Mathews will play the wedding march and recessional.

The cast are: Bride, Cecil Ramsey; groom, Junior Carter; minister, Gregg Ramsburg; usher, Edwin Ramsburg; maid of honor, Janet Vogel; bridesmaid, Helen Guile; flower girls, Marjorie Everett and Catherine Elizabeth Billett; best man, Floyd Max Talmadge. The remainder of the program is as follows: Solo, piano solo, Helen Emert; reading, Russell Arbet; harp and violin duet, Helen and Margaret Harrison; reading, Thelma Pulker; solo, Maria DeVie; playlet entitled "Feminine Bravery," pupils of Miss Dorothy Fulkerson; solo, Mary Ennis; reading, Dorothy Fulkerson; Maypole dance.

On Wednesday night the students' council of the educational department will entertain the entire department and friends at a party in the association building. The educational committee, instructors, all students who have been in classes this year and any interested in the department are invited. The program of the evening will begin in the blue triangle room, where games that will make every one acquainted will be enjoyed. The crowd will then proceed to the green parlors, where the Y. W. C. A. dramatic art class under the direction of Miss Alberta Yagerline, will present the following program: "Hullo," Mrs. Della Bent; "Ole Olsen," Wilma Smith; "Spring Fever" and "The Canoe," Lenore Lowry; "Do Mexican Girls," Genevieve Zitz; "Lochinvar," Leora Yelmar; "Monday," Margaret Culbertson; "When We Haven't," Said Our Traverser, Bonnie Gerkin; a movie pantomime entitled "Uncle Tom's Cabin," by the entire class.

The educational committee will hold its regular meeting on Tuesday afternoon at 3:30. This will be the last meeting until fall, and will be largely devoted to making plans for next year's work.

Miss Bonnie Gerkin was hostess to the members of this year's gymnasium classes at her home, Thirty-ninth and Illinois streets, on Friday. A picnic supper was served on the lawn at 6 o'clock, after which the girls liked to Fairview.

In Music Festival

MRS. HELEN WARRUM CHAPPELL

Among the local artists who will appear on the program for American Composers' convention in Greenwood next week is the new folk community house, is Mrs. Helen Warrum Chappell, dramatic soprano, who will give a group of numbers Wednesday night.

Gov. Goodrich will open the convention with an address Tuesday night.

The convention, which is under the direction of Mrs. Ralph Polk, will continue throughout Thursday.

On Wednesday afternoon the Orloff Trio, composed of Miss Jean Orloff, violinist and director; Miss Genevieve Hugel, cellist; and Mrs. Clarence Coffin, pianist, will also appear.

Mrs. Friemond will sing two of Mr. Friemond's compositions, "How Long, Dear One" and "A Dream Ship," accompanied by Mrs. Chappell on Wednesday night.

On Thursday afternoon Mrs. Everett Johnson will sing.

Thursday night the Lincoln Trio, composed of Mrs. S. K. Ruick, pianist; Mrs. Jackson, pianist and director; Miss Yuba Whitte, cellist, assisted by Florence Ann Fritze, Krull will also be among the musicians present, presenting a group of his own compositions.

Evangelistic meetings will continue all next week at Tomlinson hall.

The meetings are being conducted by the Williams-Shaffer Evangelistic party.

Services will be held every afternoon and evening, except Monday and Saturday.

A memorial service for veterans will be held at the Frodoe Park United Brethren church in the morning.

The subject of a sermon by Rev. J. B. Parsons will be "The Door at the Place of Devotions."

Memorial services will be held at the Mansur Park Methodist Protestant church.

The subject of the morning sermon by Rev. J. C. McCaslin will be "A Good Soldier."

In the evening he will speak on "The Most Important Fact in the Spiritual History of Christian People."

Rev. C. N. Williger, pastor of the Trinity M. E. church, will speak in the morning on "Immortality." In the evening he will speak on "Another Day—What Is It?"

THEY ARE HERE FROM ALL U. S.

(Continued From Page One.)

to the citizens of Indianapolis to cooperate with the police department in preventing robberies and accidents.

Three "Don'ts" were announced by the chief:

"Don't leave your home unprotected during the time when the large crowds are in the city."

"Don't get into crowds if you can avoid it."

"Don't fail to obey the traffic rules as the visiting automobile drivers will soon learn our traffic rules by the way the citizens of Indianapolis obey them."

The local police department will do everything possible to protect the citizens of Indianapolis and the visitors during the time the race crowds are in the city, but the chief urged that the people cooperate with the department.

Detectives from many of the large cities have arrived in Indianapolis to assist the local department and will remain until after the race.

Detectives from St. Louis, Detroit, Chicago, Cincinnati, Columbus, Louisville and other cities are here and crooks known to the police will be arrested if found in this city during the race days.

Suspects will be placed under high bond and detained until after the visitors have left the city.

Y. W. C. A. Notes

What is expected to be one of the most amusing entertainments the Young Women's Christian association has had for some time will be the "Tom Thumb Wedding" to be given in Hollenbeck hall on Wednesday night at 8:15 under the auspices of the Federation of Industrial Clubs.

An interesting program of readings and music will precede the event. All the participants in the "Tom Thumb Wedding" will be children. When the guests are assembled Anna Wesner will sing "I Love You Truly" and Zelma Mathews will play the wedding march and recessional.

The cast are: Bride, Cecil Ramsey; groom, Junior Carter; minister, Gregg Ramsburg; usher, Edwin Ramsburg; maid of honor, Janet Vogel; bridesmaid, Helen Guile; flower girls, Marjorie Everett and Catherine Elizabeth Billett; best man, Floyd Max Talmadge. The remainder of the program is as follows: Solo, piano solo, Helen Emert; reading, Russell Arbet; harp and violin duet, Helen and Margaret Harrison; reading, Thelma Pulker; solo, Maria DeVie; playlet entitled "Feminine Bravery," pupils of Miss Dorothy Fulkerson; solo, Mary Ennis; reading, Dorothy Fulkerson; Maypole dance.

On Wednesday night the students' council of the educational department will entertain the entire department and friends at a party in the association building. The educational committee, instructors, all students who have been in classes this year and any interested in the department are invited. The program of the evening will begin in the blue triangle room, where games that will make every one acquainted will be enjoyed. The crowd will then proceed to the green parlors, where the Y. W. C. A. dramatic art class under the direction of Miss Alberta Yagerline, will present the following program: "Hullo," Mrs. Della Bent; "Ole Olsen," Wilma Smith; "Spring Fever" and "The Canoe," Lenore Lowry; "Do Mexican Girls," Genevieve Zitz; "Lochinvar," Leora Yelmar; "Monday," Margaret Culbertson; "When We Haven't," Said Our Traverser, Bonnie Gerkin; a movie pantomime entitled "Uncle Tom's Cabin," by the entire class.

The educational committee will hold its regular meeting on Tuesday afternoon at 3:30. This will be the last meeting until fall, and will be largely devoted to making plans for next year's work.

Miss Bonnie Gerkin was hostess to the members of this year's gymnasium classes at her home, Thirty-ninth and Illinois streets, on Friday. A picnic supper was served on the lawn at 6 o'clock, after which the girls liked to Fairview.

PLAN TRIBUTE TO DEAD IN FRANCE

(Continued From Page One.)

war heroes we send to our great sister republic the assurances of our everlasting sympathy.

Mayor Huot of St. Michel: "We join in celebrating Memorial day, consecrated to the memory of brave American soldiers who fell on the field of honor."

"The people of St. Michel are grateful to the American army, which delivered them from the German yoke."

"The memory renews that profound sympathy which will be one in the hearts of all Frenchmen and Americans on this anniversary."

"Let us commemorate the glorious death of those soldiers who willingly gave up their lives for the safety of France and the triumph of right and civilization which the Germans sought to destroy throughout the entire world."

Acting Mayor Schleiter of Verdun: "A mighty host of the soldiers of France are sleeping beneath our walls, whereof they formed the rampart."

"Verdun feels the same gratitude for the valiant Americans who died in battle near by that she does for her own sons."

"The city remembers the American dead with the same veneration that she remembers the dead of her own bosom."

"The people of Verdun deck with flowers the tombs of the American dead with the same thrill of pride that they feel when they honor the graves of the French."

"To the families in the United States who are mourning for their martyrs to liberty the people of Verdun send hearty expressions of fraternal sympathy."

On Wednesday night the students' council of the educational department will entertain the entire department and friends at a party in the association building. The educational committee, instructors, all students who have been in classes this year and any interested in the department are invited. The program of the evening will begin in the blue triangle room, where games that will make every one acquainted will be enjoyed. The crowd will then proceed to the green parlors, where the Y. W. C. A. dramatic art class under the direction of Miss Alberta Yagerline, will present the following program: "Hullo," Mrs. Della Bent; "Ole Olsen," Wilma Smith; "Spring Fever" and "The Canoe," Lenore Lowry; "Do Mexican Girls," Genevieve Zitz; "Lochinvar," Leora Yelmar; "Monday," Margaret Culbertson; "When We Haven't," Said Our Traverser, Bonnie Gerkin; a movie pantomime entitled "Uncle Tom's Cabin," by the entire class.

The educational committee will hold its regular meeting on Tuesday afternoon at 3:30. This will be the last meeting until fall, and will be largely devoted to making plans for next year's work.

Miss Bonnie Gerkin was hostess to the members of this year's gymnasium classes at her home, Thirty-ninth and Illinois streets, on Friday. A picnic supper was served on the lawn at 6 o'clock, after which the girls liked to Fairview.

Society

Miss Helen Decker and Herschel Long of Hopkinsville, Ky., whose marriage will take place in June, will be guests of honor at a dinner dance to be given by the Theta Sigma sorority tonight at the Page country place. Miss Mary Laycock, president of the organization, and Mrs. E. S. Hoelscher, compose the committee on arrangements. Members who will attend will include Rebecca Nicolson, Dorothea Krull, Mrs. Helen Wade, Louise Lee, Louise Welkel, Louise Loomis and Gladys Alves.

Mr. Ralph M. Potts and Miss Beatrice Wilson of Chicago are house guests of Mrs. W. W. McCrea, 2932 North Illinois street.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Matson, of Lincoln, Neb., will come tomorrow to be guests of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Turner, 2022 Park avenue, for the week.

A dinner dance at the home of Mrs. Samuel M. Ralston, June 19, will close the season for the Mu Phi Epsilon sorority. Mrs. Marie Allison Elliott, president of the organization, will be in charge.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward M. Hurley, Jr., of Chicago, will be guests of Mrs. Woodbury of Chicago, Marcus Munsell and Miss Frances Mullins of New York will be the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. James Murdock for the week-end.

For the race Monday, Mrs. Samuel Murdock will give a dance in the ballroom of her home Monday night in honor of Mrs. Murdock's guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Trux, of Monrovia, will spend the week-end with Mrs. Scott Denny, 4801 Broadway.

A luncheon and meeting to celebrate the anniversary of the Independent Social club will be given by the members, at the home of Mrs. W. H. Perkins, 923 West Thirtieth street, Tuesday.

A delightful spring luncheon was given by members of the Culture club yesterday, at the home of Mrs. Henrietta Trux, 3213 North Meridian street. Garden flowers in pastel shades combined with feathery greenery, were used through the parlors and on the tables.

Special guests of the party were Mrs. Arthur Taylor, who will leave soon for Dallas, Texas, for residence, and Mrs. Alta Pugh, who will go to Anderson to live. An informal social meeting was held following the luncheon.

Mrs. Ralph S. Decker and Mrs. Albert M. McIlvaine entertain this afternoon with "1920" party in honor of Miss Helen Decker, whose marriage will take place next week.

The marriage of Miss Ethel Mae Tynes of Cumberland and William Boswell of Indianapolis will take place at the home of the bride at 8:30 o'clock Tuesday night. Attendants for the wedding will include Miss Sarah E. Tynes, maid of honor, and Herbert Mears, best man.

Delta Lambda chapter, Delta Delta Delta, will hold the reunion at the home of Miss Helen Jackson, 5830 East Washington street, June 14.

Mrs. Arthur Robinson, 5833 East Washington street, was the hostess for the great party of the Irvington Forty-ninth club yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Elmer A. Williams, Mrs. F. W. Hogle and Mrs. Howard Passet assisted the hostess.

A program of music and readings was arranged by Mrs. C. L. Stubbs. Those taking part included Mrs. R. C. McGrew, Mrs. C. L. Hogle, pianist; Mrs. Wayne Reddick, reader; Mrs. Charles Dawson Winters, "Winters' Ruby Winters" contrast; Miss Martha Zoercher, pianist.

Lavender and gold iris were used throughout the parlors and a basket of panicles, the club flower, was used on the serving table.

Mrs. John C. Wallace presided over the tea service, assisted by Miss Helen Aiken, Miss Helen Black and Miss Ruby Winters.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Shipman, 2450 West Tenth street, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Beatrice Ruth, to Alex Feist. The wedding will take place Wednesday night at 8:30.

Mrs. L. T. Gilden of Columbus, O., is visiting her mother, Mrs. O. J. Matlock of 310 Eastern avenue.

Lodges and Meetings

The Only Enchir club will play cards tomorrow night in Musicians hall, 143 East Ohio street.

The Industrial Enchir club will give a card party tomorrow night in Red Men's hall, corner Capitol and St. Clair.

The Epworth league of the Capitol Avenue Methodist church will have a truck ride and marshmallow roast to night in the Warfield addition. Mr. and Mrs. John Thompson are in charge of arrangements for "tea" and Donald Milholland of transportation.

The "Lounge Lizards," a new organization of the members of the Heyward Barons post, American legion, will give a dance June 14. The hosts have engaged the Broad Ripple pavilion for the night. Charlie Jones, Orville Robinson, Roland Schmedel and Charlie Loucks are the committee in charge.

SEE ADMINISTRATION VICTORY.

Favorable results are forecast for the administration ticket, by returns from about 150 unions, according to an announcement made at the headquarters of the International Typographical union in this city. Official returns will not be available until after the meeting of the election board on June 7.

The Young Lady Across the Way

The young lady across the way says too many stock dividends are being declared, to pay dividends on in the future, and she's sorry to see that even some of the railroads are increasing their rolling stock instead of spending their war profits on improving the service.—Copyright, 1920.

League of Voters Makes Party Plans

Mrs. M. E. Foley will be in charge of the committee on arrangements for the benefit card party to be given by the local League of Women Voters June 23.

Other members of the committee are Mrs. John F. Barnhill, Mrs. Edward Harmon, Maria Hoagland, Mrs. Jacob P. Dunn, Miss Sara and Eldena Leuter, Mrs. Edward Hecker and Mrs. E. E. Kuhns.

Mrs. A. B. Graham was chosen as a member of the board of directors yesterday to take the place of Grace Julian Clarke, who resigned recently.

It was also decided to hold the meetings on the third Friday of each month from now on.

Meetings will be continued through the summer.

Women Asked to Aid in Sewing Campaign

Mrs. C. F. Nen, a leader in nursing activities of this city, has taken charge of the Public Health Nursing association supply room, 27 Baldwin block, and will conduct a summer sewing campaign there.

Women are asked to volunteer their services Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of each week from 9 until 1 to aid in making surgical supplies and sick-room articles. It is estimated that about 5,000 articles are being used a month by the association in carrying on its work, much of which is free service. Women who worked with Red Cross units during the war are asked to assist in the public health work.

Weekly Club Index

Culture Club—Friday. Mrs. Walter Carpenter, 928 West drive, Woodruff place. A miscellaneous program will be given.

Irvington Dramatic Club—Tonight. Charles Brosman, Layman avenue and St. Clair street, host. A picnic dinner will be served, after which an original farce will be presented by the members of the club under the direction of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Long, Mrs. Jay A. Craven and Robert Insley.

Irvington Tuesday Club—Meeting postponed from June 1 to June 8.

Indianapolis Woman's Club—Friday. Proprietary. Annual reports will be given. Anna Nicholas will read a story.

Inter-Nos Club—Tonight. Mrs. M. L. Vandorin, 2154 Broadway, hostess. Mrs. Chaplin Wagner will have charge of the surprise program, which will follow the dinner.

Meridian Heights Inter-See Club—Mrs. William Morgan, Bethany park, hostess. All-day picnic.

Thursday Lyceum Club—Thursday. Mrs. G. E. Strasser, 625 East Twenty-second street, hostess. Mrs. D. M. Baker will lead the current events.

Wednesday Afternoon Club—Wednesday, all-day meeting. Mrs. O. S. Wright, rural route C, Indianapolis, hostess. A picnic lunch will be served after which a "stunt" will be put on under the direction of Mrs. C. H. Trotter. Mrs. J. L. Dunn and Mrs. J. Morgan White will assist Mrs. Wright.

Writers Club—Tuesday, Columbia club dinner at 6:30. George Ade will be the speaker.

MOTION PICTURES.

MISTER SMITH'S THEATRE

A thriller with the sky as the limit!

Lieut. Locklear

"The Daredevil of the Skies"

—IN—

"THE GREAT AIR ROBBERY"

Carter DeHaven Comedy

"BEATING CHEATERS"

Entire Week, Starting Sunday

THEATRE

NOVEL STUNT FOR PIONEER MOTHERS

Three Old-Time Weddings to Feature Afternoon Party.

Three weddings with new versions of an old ceremony worked out by Mrs. Samuel Artman will be the features of the Pioneer Mothers' association party to be given at the home of Mrs. Samuel M. Ralston next Wednesday afternoon.

"Ye Old Time Quaker" ceremony which required no minister, will be solemnized as the opening number.

Members of the Magazine club will be in charge of this marriage under the direction of Mrs. T. C. Austin and Mrs. E. P. Brennan.

Mrs. W. H. Alford will take the part of the groom with Mrs. Laura Ratcliffe Bates as his blushing bride.

"A wedding of 1860" will follow the Quaker farce, presented by members of the Late Book club.

Mrs. O. C. Lukenbill, president of the club, in full bridal outfit, will play the role of the bride, with Mrs. Jesse Marshall in the gala-day regalia of a groom of Civil war times by her side.

Mrs. Arthur Willis and Mrs. William Clifford, as best man and maid of honor, respectively, will be the only attendants.

Mrs. Clarence Clark will play a group of bridal airs of long ago and the Lukenbill "Wedding March."

Mrs. Samuel Artman will act as the officiating minister, and will read the somewhat original marriage service.

Small children of the members will be the actors in the last ceremony, a Tom Thumb wedding, which will be directed by Mrs. J. H. Brill, assisted by members of the Afternoon club.

Little Virginia Cochrane will play the mirth.

Mary Jane Boxman, as the modern bride, will be given away by her mother, impersonated by Miss Solina Frances Litton.

Woodrow Hadway will be the groom. Attendants will include Marthanna Madeline Davis, Mary Frances Litton, Mary Eleanor Peggs, Hall Cochrane, David Sels, Rebecca Shideler and Robert Day.

A Virginia reel will be called by John Custer, who called dances in the old days, following the weddings.

Mrs. A. J. Clark is in charge of this feature.

Music Notes

A special program in keeping with Decoration day will be given by the Columbia Club instrumental trio Sunday night at the club under the direction of Miss Cyrella Humes. Miss Jessamine Barkley, soprano, will assist the trio.

Pupils of Miss Martha Jasper will be presented in recital Tuesday night at Miss Jasper's studio, 900 South East street. Those taking part will include Julia Schmitt, Thelma Hammer, Maxine Moore, Dolores Toll, Mary Stark, Robert Smith, Marie Wallman, Oola Higgins, Virginia DeVol, Marie Sienler and Mrs. Frank McCormick.

Mrs. Helen Warrum Chappell, accompanied by Mrs. Earl Hunt, will give a group of numbers for the Scottish Rite memorial services, June 29.

Mrs. Franc Wilhite Webber will go to Anderson Saturday to give a program of harp numbers.