

LUERTA TAKEN SERIOUSLY ILL AT INAUGURAL

New Mexican President Unable to Make Speech After Accepting Oath.

RAY UNDERGO KNIFE

MEXICO CITY, June 2.—Provisional president Adolfo De La Huerta is more seriously ill than first reports indicated, it was generally believed here today.

Following his inauguration yesterday afternoon, the new president was scheduled to go to the presidential palace for reception, but was physically unable. An operation for appendicitis may be performed Thursday, it was said on good authority.

Beginning at 10 a. m. today, 20,000 troops were to march through the city streets as evidence of their support of the president.

Alvaro Obregon, now having resigned his status of citizen, will be an onlooker. The day will be observed as a day throughout the country.

De La Huerta became provisional president of Mexico in less than thirty seconds yesterday afternoon.

It took no longer than that for him to take the oath of office, promising to carry out the constitution.

Due to his illness De La Huerta did not make an inaugural speech.

On arriving at the house of congress the president greeted the thousands standing outside.

He entered the building through a line of soldiers of the presidential guard, wearing new uniforms made for the occasion.

APPS WANT U. S. PARTY TO PACT

It had to be ready to renew the league of nations.

Even without this country in the league Great Britain is said to be non-committal to the alliance.

WILL BE SUBMITTED TO BRITISH DOMINIONS.

Because of the growing importance of her dominions, Great Britain will submit the question of renewal of the pact to Australia, New Zealand and Canada, probably at a meeting of the dominions in London.

Diplomats who have been watching the fate of the alliance with interest, see two possibilities in the situation which now surrounds it:

1. An invitation by Great Britain and Japan to the United States to become a third party to the alliance.

2. Supplanting of the concert of powers in the league of nations by a series of defensive alliances among the principal nations of the world as a result of renewal of the Anglo-Japanese pact.

Manual Tomorrow to Keep 'Open Day'

"Open day" at Eumorphic Manual Training High school will be celebrated tomorrow.

Plans have been made for an elaborate program, extending throughout the day, the student body to be host to all visitors.

Alumni and relatives of the students have been asked to gather at the south side high school in a fraternal celebration of the twenty-fifth annual event.

A fashion show, starting at 9:30 in the auditorium, will be a novel feature of the program, students participating in a sketch, the costumes of the actors having been designed and made by the girls of the school.

The student body of the R. O. T. C. will give a competitive drill in the morning.

Special band music and exhibition of the work of the students are included in the program.

Tots Enact Tom Thumb Wedding

Left to right—Catherine Boxman, Mary Jane Boxman and Woodrow du Hadley.

Arrayed in conventional bridal attire, little Mary Jane Boxman and Master Woodrow du Hadley, as bride and groom, in a "Tom Thumb" wedding, scored a "hit" at the centennial party given by the Pioneer Mothers this afternoon at the home of Mrs. Samuel M. Halston.

Little Catherine Boxman carried the court train of the tiny "bride."

Rebecca Shideler played the part of the maid of honor. Other attendants included Martha Madeline Davis, Mary Frances Litton and Mary Eleanor Peggs, bridesmaids; Mary Jane Stegg and Jean Miles, flower girls, and Eleanor Wagstaff, ringbearer.

Soloma Jane Wilson, as the "mother of the bride," gave her away.

Wee Charles Droege Corwin, in ministerial garb, read the children's revised edition of the service edited by Mrs. Samuel Artman.

Regular wedding music was played by Virginia Cochran, pianist.

Mrs. J. H. Brill of the Aftermath club was in charge of the ceremony.

Two other weddings were enacted during the afternoon by the older folk.

The "old-time" Quaker wedding was in charge of the Magazine club, with Mrs. T. C. Brennan, president, directing, assisted by Mrs. E. P. Brennan.

Mrs. W. H. Alford, as groom, and Mrs. Laura Ratcliffe Bates as bride, exchanged vows in the mock "ministerial" style of the early days of the Friends church.

"A marriage in 1800" completed the bridal trio of ceremonies which was in charge of the Late Book club.

Mrs. C. C. Lukenbill, in Civil war period frocks and furbelows, with Mrs. Jessie Marshall, as her stalwart groom, were the principals.

Mrs. Arthur Willis was best man and Mrs. Williams Clifford played the part of the maid of honor.

Old-fashioned bridal numbers were given under the direction of Mrs. J. H. Lowrie.

Mrs. W. E. McClure, pianist, and Miss Ruth McClure, violinist, played the march, and Mrs. Lowrie sang an old ballad.

Probably the most novel event of the afternoon was the Virginia reel, owing to the fact that a "Real old Reel" caller, John Custer, called it.

Mrs. A. J. Clarke was chairman of the dance committee.

Miss Mary Nicholson gave an interesting talk on "Pioneer Days."

A gorgeous collection of old quilts and shawls was exhibited.

One of particular interest was made by the Pioneer Memorial Guild.

The Guild's first quilt was among those displayed today and it was bought by Mrs. Booth Tarkington.

Assisting Mrs. Halston were Miss Charity Dye, Mrs. Julian Hogate of Danville and Mrs. Samuel Artman.

2 Held to Grand Jury in Automobile Case

Albert Roy Carpenter and Otto Keller were bound over to the grand jury from city court today on a charge of grand larceny as the result of the theft of an automobile belonging to Harry (Doc) Lee, negro politician and poolroom owner.

According to the story told the police, Lee loaned his car to two other negroes, who in turn, picked up two others and a load of bootleg whisky.

The men are said to have been pursued by another automobile in which two men, who were taken to be police officers, were riding.

The negroes abandoned the car and the booze and one of the men in the pursuing car is said to have stolen it.

LOWDEN OR KNOX, SAY WISE ONES

morning, and Rt. Rev. Charles Woodcock will offer prayer.

Senator Lodge, temporary chairman, will deliver the keynote address.

Wednesday will be devoted to committee reports, formation of a permanent organization and adoption of rules and order of business.

Nominating speeches will be made Thursday, and will be followed Friday with balloting.

The adoption of a platform will follow the selection of a candidate.

Chairman Hays has announced the appointment of a committee to work on special organization matters.

HI WARNS HE WANTS 'NO PUSSYFOOTING'

CLEVELAND, O., June 2.—Senator Hiram Johnson's principle reason for going to the republican national convention in Chicago is to see that the "convention does not pussyfoot or skulk on the league of nations," he said on his arrival here today for two addresses.

"I shall insist that the convention take a manly, courageous stand in opposition to any league," he said.

"I am entirely satisfied with my chances at Chicago, but I won't prognosticate."

"Early in my career I learned that the man who boasts what he will do tomorrow generally has to apologize on the day after."

"I don't assume to say that the delegates will follow the expression of the republican voters in the states that had direct primaries, but if they do the result is not uncertain."

"I polled 1,250,000 republican votes in the primaries, far more than my nearest opponent."

"That is no inconsiderable amount of the total republican vote in the country and is an expression of who the people want."

AGAINST INTERVENTION IN MEXICAN AFFAIRS

WASHINGTON, June 2.—A plank demanding a non-intervention policy in Mexico may be included in the labor platform presented the republican and democratic national conventions by a committee from the American Federation of Labor, headed by Samuel Gompers, it was learned today.

Arkansas delegation to the democratic national convention at San Francisco will be uninstructed.

The state central committee here yesterday elected eighteen delegates with alternates to represent Arkansas.

The state central committee has no power to instruct delegates.

ARKANSAS DELEGATION GOES UNINSTRUCTED

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., June 2.—The Arkansas delegation to the democratic national convention at San Francisco will be uninstructed.

CONVENTIONALITIES

The Hawaiian delegation was accompanied by two Honolulu maids. They left their straw skirts at home though, so there was no riot call.

G. S. Hazlett of Cordova, Alaska, came to the convention incidentally. His chief purpose was to get inside of a new Palm Beach suit and under a straw hat. The temperature in Cordova seldom goes more than 75 degrees below, he said.

If they'd only sent this convention to Cheyenne 500,000 people could have tickets to the dotty, signed Committee-man Pat Sullivan of Wyoming, fanning himself with his sombrero. "We'd held the meeting outdoors and Wyoming climate never would have interfered," he said.

The Congress hotel lobby gave the appearance of a fur auction with salesmen from stores in the building dashing about with scarfs and neck pieces in hot pursuit of delegates' wives.

Senator Miles Polindexter was an addition to "presidential row" in the Congress hotel yesterday. He opened temporary headquarters and will move into a permanent location Saturday.

Penrose, Lodge, Smoot, Wadsworth and Sutherland are anxiously awaited by many delegates. The senatorial quintet is due here Friday.

United States Senator Moses of New Hampshire, sporting a fedora and stick, says he is going to stay in Chicago until Wood is nominated and "I haven't a house and lot either," he said.

Ralph Arnold of Los Angeles, vice chairman of the Hoover campaign, is a regular political manager. He was ready with the customary statement within a few minutes after he landed.

National Committeeman Fred Stanley of Kansas, is the most blasé of all the politicians. Stanley doesn't bat an eye when a flashlight picture is taken. He stands puffing on a long cigar talking with a moving stream of delegates.

William Hale Thompson, Chicago's cowboy mayor and national committeeman from Illinois, was constantly on the job as host. Vest pockets, crammed full of cigars were handed out liberally. Thompson is a figure which can't be overlooked as he waddles down Peacock alley.
