

MISSION COLLEGE
EXERCISES JUNE 9Five Students Will Receive Master Degrees.

The decennial commencement of the College of Missions, Irvington, will take place Wednesday at 10:30 a. m. in the Downey Avenue Christian church.

Rev. G. Campbell Morgan, late of London, now a resident of Winona Lake, will give the commencement address.

Mission students to receive masters' degrees include Arthur E. Elliott, Esther Gale, Ina Elizabeth Smith and Lyzel Grace Teagarden.

Those receiving certificates for work completed are Goldie Pearl Alumbaugh, Anna Katherine Bender, Elmer George Boyer, Mrs. Beatrice Alexander Boyer, Mary Campbell, Carey Cleo Dobson, Mrs. Clara Arbuckle Dobson, Bertha Douglas, Mrs. Ivy Furman Elliott, Frederick Julius Huegel, Fred Walsley Hughes, Mrs. Mary Esther Hughes, Annie Vile Mullin, Blanche Adelle Parker, Helen Leonore Richey, Charles Amel Vannoy, Mrs. Mary Adelaide Vannoy, Mrs. Mabel Anna Vierling, Edna May Whipple, Harriet Elizabeth Young.

Wednesday afternoon public appointments of the missionary graduates will take place.

President F. W. Burnham of the United Christian Missionary society, President Archibald McLean of the Foreign Christian Missionary society and Mrs. Anna B. Atwater, president of the Christian Woman's Board of Missions, will be in charge of the ceremony.

Preceding the graduating exercises a pageant will be presented on the campus which will be a series of episodes of life and mission work in India, China and Japan.

Health Officers'
School Closed

With expressions of surprise at the failure of both of the leading political parties of the state to include public health planks in their platforms, the twenty-sixth annual health officers' school came to a close yesterday.

The prediction was made by Dr. J. N. Hurty, secretary of the state board of health, that in future years, powdered milk will be used exclusively because of the sanitary possibilities in its use.

Railroad Men 'Pull' for McAdoo;
Like Johnson, But Not so Much

MONTREAL, Que., June 4.—This city, under the British flag, has taken on some of the Chicago political atmosphere.

With the arrival of delegates for the fortieth annual convention of the American Federation of Labor, the question of who will be the next president of the United States has become one of the chief topics of conversation in hotel lobbies here.

It is accepted as a foregone conclusion that the railroad workers are almost solidly for William G. McAdoo for the democratic nomination. While there is quite a sentiment for Hiram Johnson for the republican nomination, Lowden, however, is not without his friends.

Labor men recalled today that in the Kansas City convention, representing 800,000 members of the railway employees' Department of the American Federation of Labor, a resolution endorsing Mr. McAdoo was received with such enthusiasm that the leaders had difficulty in tabling it, partisan politics being barred.

Johnson's labor record is described as

"100 per cent good," although he is criticized by railroad men because of his absence from the senate when the Cummins-Each bill was up.

SOUTH BEND.—Last year Calvert street could have been paved for $27,340, but the petition of the residents in that section of the city was ignored by the board of public works. Yesterday a contract was awarded for the work sought last year at an increase of $10,824, or nearly 70 per cent.

SEIZE DETECTIVE
AS A BIGAMIST

Jack McEwen, 30, of Greensburg, Ind., today is facing a charge of bigamy and child neglect.

McEwen is a railroad detective and was arrested at the Union station yesterday afternoon by Motor Policemen Schlangen and Dalton.

The police allege he married Mabel Cochran at Lebanon, Ind., eighteen months ago and that he lived with her at 330 North Illinois street, this city, until about eight months ago.

Four months ago he went to Kalamazoo, Mich., where he met Miss Laura Gardner, 20, and it is alleged on May 21 they were married at Greensburg, Ind.

Miss Gardner at the time she met McEwen had been living at the home of her parents at Sturgis, Mich.

After his arrest McEwen told the police he thought his first wife had obtained a divorce from him.

The first Mrs. McEwen is now living at 1806 Koehne street.
