The club will meet each Monday.

Protests Erection of Gasoline Station

Dr. C. S. Woods, superintendent of the Methodist hospital, has made a protest to the board of public works against the erection of a gasoline filling station, proposed by an oil company, on the northeast corner of Capitol avenue and Sixteenth street.

Dr. Woods said that the building of a filling station at that location would be decidedly prejudicial to the interest of the hospital and that it would be highly objectionable to many of the patients.

The protest, he said, was authorized by the board of trustees of the hospital, which adopted rules to that effect June 10.

No action was taken on the matter by the board of public works.

14-YEAR-OLD BOY MISSING.

Eugene J. Roesch, Seminole hotel, today requested the police to search for his son, Douglas Roesch, 14. The boy disappeared yesterday.

PUSS IN BOOTS JR.

By DAVID CORY.

CHAPTER LVI.

It seemed to Puss in Boots Junior that he had hardly gotten to sleep when he heard the strains of a pretty song outside, and this is what he heard:

"Boys and girls come out to play. The moon doth shine as bright as day. Come with a whoop, and come with a call."

"Come with a good will or come not at all."

"Lose your supper and lose your sleep. Come to your playfellows in the street."

"I won't lose my supper," said Puss Junior, hastily pulling on his boots.

"For I've already had it."

At that moment the Gander began quacking. And the Man in Brown poked his head out of the window and soon Puss Junior heard him coming down the stairs. And after that the good wife of the Man in Brown tiptoed into the kitchen, leaving the baby still in the land of dreams. At last Mother Goose appeared just as Puss Junior was opening the door.

"Where are you going, my dear?" she asked, while the Gander stood up and flapped his wings, as much as to say, "I'm ready for a lark."

Perhaps he thought some bird was in the frolic. "I'm sure I don't know, but at all events he undoubtedly felt there was something exciting about it."

"As long as we are all up and awake," said Mother Goose, "suppose we show the children what a wonderful sky-horse I have."

And with these words she seated herself upon the Gander and called to Puss to get up behind her.

The moon was shining with all its might. In fact, it was almost as light as day. The children stood quietly around, looking with wide open eyes at the Gander.

"You don't think he can carry us both, I suppose?" said Mother Goose, with a smile. "Well, you just wait and see" and giving her feathered steed a gentle tap, he rose majestically from the earth. In a short time he was far above the housetops. Looking down, Puss Junior could barely see the children as they stood gazing upward.

"Well, well," exclaimed Puss. "I never thought we would start again on our journey until morning, but those children woke up—and here we are."

"Yes, we are certainly here," replied Mother Goose, with a laugh. "And as long as we had a nice supper and a comfortable nap, I see no reason for not resuming our journey. We have many miles to go ere we cross Mother Goose Land."

"Have we?" asked Puss Junior, rather sleepily, for we must admit to be suddenly awakened from a sound slumber to take an aeroplane ride, as it were, on a Gander, is far different from lying on a soft bed. Of course, the Gander's feathers were soft, but Puss was awake, and when one is awake, no matter how soft the bed, it is not the same as being asleep.

Away went the Gander. Over the trees

The children were delighted when Puss came out to play.

tops, higher and higher, until he came quite close to the clouds. Puss held on tight, nor was he at all afraid. Oh, my no. He had been through so many experiences that nothing worried him any more.—Copyright, 1920.

LAST NIGHT'S DREAMS

—And What They Mean—

Did you dream of fingernails?

All the mystics seem to agree that to dream of having long fingernails foretells great profit coming to the dreamer. But to dream that your fingernails are cut very short is regarded as an unfavorable omen denoting danger of loss.

Some say that a dream of very short fingernails means that you are going to quarrel with some one.

Neither is it considered a very favorable omen to dream of cutting your nails as it is significant of a disagreement with some of your relatives.

And if you dream your nails are torn off there is likely to be an unhappiness in the family circle.

But to dream of seeing other people with nails cut to the quick, or to dream of seeing others with their nails torn off, is a favorable sign for you, as it denotes that you will overcome your rivals in business if you are a tradesman, or if you are a politician that you will confound your political enemies. It is likewise good luck to dream of seeing others with very long nails, though it is better to dream of having them yourself.

A dream of fingernails of the ordinary length is significant of moderate success and of a quiet life, according to some of the practices, though there are a few pessimists who do not approve of fingernails in dreams unless they are very long.—Copyright, 1920.

His Little Boy A Mass of Sores

So writes W. C. Warren of Millboro, Virginia, and he adds:

"We tried two good doctors, one a specialist on skin disease and they did him no good. We used 7 bottles of D. D. D. and his face, which was simply a mass of sores, is now smooth as paper."

Thousands of grateful users of D. D. D. have written to tell of the wonderful relief it gave them—even one application completely stopping all itching and burning. Why not try D. D. D. at once and be convinced? Your money back if the first bottle does not bring relief. 60c, 90c and $1.00. Try D. D. D. Soap, too.

She was Fat

The shadow on this picture gives you an idea how she looked and felt. By using Oil of Kereol and following easy directions of Kereol System she reduced 34 lbs. in three months. Now she is active, attractive, mentally alert and in better health. Reliable anti-fat self-treatment. Many women have reduced easily, instantly, 10 to 60 pounds. Become exquisitely slender and remain so. Safe, pleasant method, endorsed by physicians. $100 GUARANTEE. Buy Oil of Kereol at any drugstore; or write for free brochure (comes to you in its own wrapper) to Kereol Co., MD-301, Station P, New York City.

The American Central Life Insurance Company owns approved securities held in trust December 31, 1920, by the Auditor of State of Indiana for the benefit of its policy holders to the amount of $6,192,023. This is $151,807 in excess of that required by the law.

Telephone Rate-Making

The day of guessing is gone!

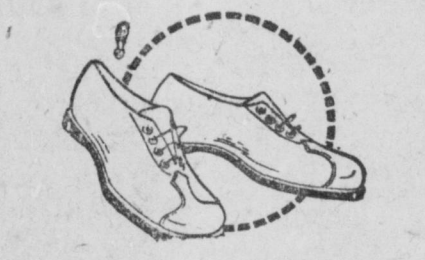

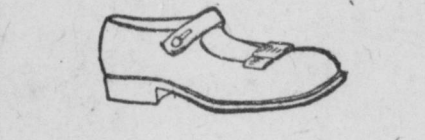

Forty years' experience has clearly shown that telephone rates must be sufficient to afford a revenue that will pay all expenses as well as return a reasonable profit to the owners.

The cost of a telephone plant is now accurately known, and so is the life of its various parts. Their replacement is a constant expense.

The present rates do not measure up to the present day conditions. They were inadequate before the war. Today they do not keep "the wheels" of the industry moving.

Inadequate rates will not give satisfactory telephone service to the people of Indiana in these times. They must be made adequate to furnish a high standard of service.
