An attractive wedding of this morning took place at 9 o'clock in the St. Philip Neri oratory, when Miss Alice Anna O'Connor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick O'Connor, 232 North Temple avenue, became the wife of George Edwin Pfau.

Rev. George J. Smith, uncle of the groom, read the service before the altar, which was banked with masses of Dorothy Perkins roses, palms and tall cathedral candelabras.

Mrs. Thomas Haley sang the "Ave Maria" preceding the ceremony.

Mrs. Anna Mahoney played a group of bridal airs, using the Mendelssohn wedding march as the processional.

Roy Pfau, brother of the groom, acted as best man with John A. Godfrey and Victor Pfau as ushers.

Miss Mary Quinn Keln of Bloomington, maid of honor, wore turquoise blue georgette crepe over taffeta and a wide brimmed hat, with which she carried Killarney roses tied with smilax.

The bride wore a handsome gown of georgette crepe over ivory satin, heavily beaded. Her veil was arranged coronet fashion caught with lilies of the valley.

She carried a shower of bride roses and lilies of the valley.

Out-of-town guests for the wedding included Mrs. Edward Laudamar and daughters, Misses Clara and Edna; Mrs. Moore and Robert Moore of Louisville, and Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Moran of Lebanon.

Mr. and Mrs. Pfau will be at home after July 15 at 3200 East Michigan street.

Miss Olivia Schad, 5932 Bellefontaine street, has returned from Illinois university to spend the summer with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Schad.

Announcement of the marriage of Miss Lucy White and Wayne Dennison of Clayton, which was solemnized at St. Paul's church, Rev. Lewis Brown officiating.

Only the immediate families were present.

The bride wore a frock of French blue satin and carried a nosegay of rosebuds in pastel shades.

The at-home announcement is for 1421 Hiatt street.

Miss Katherine Jackson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Johnson, 2810 North Illinois street, who has been attending Syracuse university, has returned home.

Miss Margaret George of Evanston, Ill., is the house guest of Miss Ruth Fifer, 1315 North Alabama street.

Miss Fifer entertained a group of girls yesterday afternoon in honor of her guest, and Miss Dorcas Sherwood of Evanston, who has been with Mrs. J. F. Morrison, 3038 Ruckie street.

Miss Harriet Emily Powell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Perry Powell, 6070 College avenue, has returned from Greenacres, where she has been attending DePauw university.

Mrs. V. D. Corrigan entertained with a luncheon yesterday in honor of Mrs. Roland Brennan, whose marriage took place recently, and Miss Dora Glaska, whose wedding will take place June 30.

A pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mrs. Helen Sherwin Martin last night when Miss Louise Plaque and A. E. Davis, both of Evansville, were married.

Rev. William Carson read the service. Mrs. P. J. McReynolds gave a group of bridal numbers preceding the ceremony and harpists played for the entrance of the bride party.

Roses in soft rainbow shades combined with ferns and tall palms formed the altar. Little Jane Widdop and Betty Plaque, flower maids, were dressed in blue and pink ruffled swiss.

Miss Mary Ellen Widdop, who carried the ring in a lily, wore white swiss over pink. A. E. Nagle was best man.

Mrs. Ralph Widdop and Mrs. D. Nagle were matrons of honor. Mrs. Widdop's gown was of tulle and pink satin, and she carried blue larkspur tied with smilax.

Mrs. Nagle wore blue taffeta, and her bouquet was of sweetheart roses. Miss Mary Anne Sherwin, maid of honor, wore a white lace frock, with which she carried lilies and larkspur.

The bride's gown was of ivory taffeta, with a veil arranged coronet fashion, edged with orange blossoms. She carried a shower of bride roses and lilies of the valley.

Mr. and Mrs. Davis have gone to Chicago, and will be at home in Evansville after July 1.

Indianapolis Girls at Delta Sig Meeting

Delta Sigma sorority girls are holding their national convention in Buffalo, N. Y., this week.

Miss Florence Thi, grand vice president of the sorority, and national delegate of the Indiana Beta chapter, is attending the sessions.

Mrs. William Metheany Moore, grand secretary, and Miss Lucille Copeck of the active local chapter are with the visiting delegation.

Miss Florence Schwankhouse is president of the local organization, which is made up of thirty-seven active members, all of whom are working to have the convention meet in Indianapolis next season.

Dance of Roines Club to Hold New Features

The Associated Roines club's dance, to be held Friday night at the Canoe club, will have a number of new features.

Members of the club who have no machines will be taken to the dance in automobiles which have been chartered for the purpose.

Edward Gardner and M. E. Thornton have charge of the arrangements.

The Associated Roines club is composed of alumni of the last six classes graduated from the Emmert High school.

DELIGHTFUL HAIR WASH

You can enjoy a delightful shampoo with very little effort and for a very trifling cost, if you get from your druggist's a package of canthox and dissolve a teaspoonful in a cup of hot water. This makes a full cup of shampoo liquid, enough to use to apply it to all the hair instead of just the top of the head. Your shampoo is now ready. Just pour a little at a time on the scalp and hair until both are entirely covered by the daintily perfumed preparation that thoroughly dissolves and removes every bit of dandruff, excess oil and dirt. After rinsing the hair dries quickly with a fluffiness that makes it seem heavier than it is, and takes on a rich luster and a softness that makes arranging it a pleasure.—Advertisement.

Not All Round-Up Bargains Advertised Today

Naturally in preparing for inventory a thorough housecleaning is desired. All oddments must be rounded up and priced to sell quickly. We frequently find small lots of good, seasonable merchandise but in such limited quantities that we do not feel justified in advertising such lots. These are on the bargain booth day by day—frequently at prices far less than cost. You'll profit by shopping here Wednesday.

L.S. AYRES & Co.

You'll Profit by Attending the Round-Up
