Babes Enjoy Clinic Treatment

Two of the Children's Aid association babies, showing results of proper and improper feeding.

By KATHLEEN M'KEE.

Babies cry and laugh when they are brought in for their weekly visit to see the doctor at the clinic stations of the Children's Aid association.

There are happy mothers, too, because they can learn what is making their babies sick and how they can get well.

The Children's Aid association has eight clinic stations in the city where the congested conditions make them most needed, in addition to the central clinic station, which is connected with the offices of the association, in the Baldwin block.

About 300 babies are cared for at the different clinic stations every month.

Five trained graduate nurses are in charge of these clinics.

Supervising each is a competent physician.

Once a week the babies are brought in by their mothers for medical aid.

They are examined, weighed and prescribed for by the doctor.

The mothers are given advice individually and instructed how to care for the baby.

Where the mothers in securing medical, surgical and dental care for the children.

Fifteen hundred visits were made to the homes by the association nurses during the month of May.

Free milk is given to babies under the supervision of the baby health department.

Where the families are able to pay a nominal price, the milk is supplied at a reduced rate.

The Summer Mission is the one place in Indianapolis where children can find a cool, clean spot.

Here tired mothers and heat-stricken children can spend ten days of the scorching summer days without cost, enjoying the cool breezes and fresh air of White river.

Under the auspices of the association each child is given medical examination and such care as he may need.

A hospital containing twenty-five little beds for the sick ones is provided at the mission.

Trained nurses give the patients constant attention, and a physician makes daily visits.

All children are admitted to the mission unless their case is entirely without hope.

Beautiful shady playgrounds under the supervision of a playground instructor are provided for the sturdy little ones.

The association also conducts a home-finding department.

Homes, which are offered for children, are also a part of the mission.

Back Hurt
ALL THE TIME

Mrs. Hill Says Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Removed The Cause.

Knoxville Tenn.—"My back hurt me all the time, I was all run down, could not eat and my head bothered me, all caused by female trouble. I was three years with these troubles and doctors did me no good. Your medicine helped me to take it, I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and the Liver Pills and now I am well, can eat heartily and work. I give you my thanks for your great medicines. You may publish my letter and I will tell everyone what your medicines did for me."

Mrs. PEARL HILL, 418 Jackson St., Knoxville, Tennessee.

Hundreds of such letters expressing gratitude for the good Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has accomplished are constantly being received, proving the reliability of this grand old remedy.

If you are ill do not drag along and continue to suffer day in and day out, but at once take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a woman's remedy for women's ills.

PLEAS RENEWED FOR DANGER SIGNS

Seventh Drowning in 6 Weeks Shows Need of Action.

The coroner today renewed his efforts to have signs placed on the banks of Marion county streams warning swimmers of deep holes where undercurrents may pull them down.

Robert Green, 18, whose parents live on a farm eight miles south of Seymour, Ind., is the seventh swimmer to lose his life in the streams of Marion county during the last six weeks.

Green was drowned while swimming in Fall creek, near Eighteenth street, yesterday afternoon.

The body was recovered by Motor Police Drunkard and Bernauer after they had dragged the creek for two hours.

Green had roomed at 1710 Millburn street for three weeks, and in company with two other men rooming at that address went to Fall creek for a swim.

Milo Reedy and Harold O'Neal, who accompanied Green, made heroic efforts to save the drowning man and dragged him within fifteen feet of the bank when Green's struggles forced them to let go.

Green is survived by his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus Green; two brothers and a sister.

Deputy Coroner George Christian made an investigation.

Huntington Aviator Sues Aeronautic Co.

HUNTINGTON, Ind., July 1.—Ben F. Harrell, a local aviator, formerly employed by the Huntington Aeronautic Company, has filed suit against the company for $2,333.50, alleging that he has had no final settlement with the company since September and that $2,000 is due him in stock dividends issued in December and $1,233 for services.

Harrell and his mechanic were threatened with arrest in the northern part of the state several days ago, when they refused to return a plane, alleging wages were due them.

Marshall in Praise of Salvation Army

Thomas R. Marshall, vice president of the United States, is a warm friend of the Salvation Army, leaders of the Marion county home service appeal have learned.

An ardent endorsement from the vice president is being used in the local campaign with similar expressions from President Wilson, the late Theodore Roosevelt and William Howard Taft.

"I am for the Salvation Army," says Vice President Marshall.

The problem of this age is to believe that men are mutually helpful to each other and that men have mutual interests in each other.

"Toward the total solution of it all religious organizations in America will contribute, but I know of no organization which will stand back of men and humankind better than the Salvation Army."

Lloyd P. Hooper, provincial director in charge of the appeal for the home service fund in Michigan and Indiana, is here from Detroit and has approved the new Marion county plan of a personal letter campaign.

To BUILD ADDITION.

A building permit for the erection of a $10,000 addition to a beef killing house at 621 West Ray street has been obtained by the United Butchers, Inc.
