

SOLONS WON'T TAKE 'SUGAR PILL' EASILY

May Do Own Thinking at Goodrich's Special Session of Assembly.

The sugar-coated cure-all pill of Gov. Goodrich, calling for the legalizing of the equalization orders of the state tax board, after these orders have been declared invalid by the supreme court, today began taking on a bitter taste to many senators and representatives.

Senators and representatives alike have indicated that they are going to do their own thinking this time and bills are being presented which do not have the official O. K. of the Goodrich administration.

Many are questioning the validity of passing a legalizing act after the state supreme court's action, and others are contending that the passing of the administration legalizing bill would only invite additional contests in the state courts with the possibility that the state courts would declare the act unconstitutional.

The feeling appears to be well defined that whatever steps are taken to correct the defects of the taxing system, the bill must be legally as well as actually cured.

ENGLISH PRESENTS PROTECTIVE BILL.

A measure safeguarding the rights of the taxpayers of the state by giving them the right to carry their fight for the correction of assessment valuation for taxation, resulting from actions of the state board of tax commissioners or any board of equalization, to the circuit or superior courts, instead of to the county commissioners, is contained in a bill introduced by Senator William E. English of Indianapolis.

The bill was presented for the purpose of providing relief "from and for the correction of assessment valuation for taxation in a case where any board of equalization or state board of tax commissioners shall have increased any county or township assessment or valuation for purposes of equalization."

Senator English's bill provides that if the state tax commissioners or board of equalization shall have added to the aggregate assessed value of lands, town and city lots, improvements thereon, or personal property in any township in a county such aggregate value as will raise such aggregate value above the valuation fixed by any county or township assessment, then any owner may institute a civil action in a superior or circuit court against the state tax board, the county auditor and treasurer.

The English bill sets out that the principal issue shall be "the fair cash valuation of the property involved in taxation."

TRUE VALUE SHALL STAND.
The English bill also provides that if the true value is less than the aggregate amount of the assessed valuation, together with the percentage increases made by the board of tax commissioners or the board of equalization, then the true value shall be certified to the county auditor and county treasurer and shall stand as the assessed value of such property for taxation.

On the other hand, the bill of Senator English provides that if the property is found not to be assessed in the aggregate above the true cash value, then the judgment shall be rendered for costs against the person bringing the action.

The act also provides that, in case excessive taxes have been paid on the basis of the aggregate valuation, together with a percentage increase, the judgment should order the county treasurer to refund the excess.

FACTORY SITE FOR TIRE FIRM BOUGHT

Parker Fabric Mills to Produce by Jan. 1.

Announcement was made today by F. L. Smith, secretary-treasurer of the Parker Cord Fabric Mills, Inc., that the company has bought a factory site, one block south of Garfield park, bordered on the north by the factories and property of the Parker Tire and Rubber Company, and that complete machinery and equipment for spinning and weaving cord tire fabric from raw cotton has been bought for delivery within ninety days.

The entire plant is expected to be completed and machinery installed, producing the finest grade of cord tire fabric before the first of next year.

The capacity of the first unit of Parker Cord Fabric Mills for the first year already has been sold for cash delivery to Parker Tire and Rubber Company.

The plans are that as additional units are completed they will accept orders from other cord tire manufacturers.

The company, capitalized for $2,000,000, officials say, will import the finest grade of long staple set island cotton into Indianapolis, from which this cord tire fabric will be made.

"This mill," Mr. Smith said, "will be complete in every respect, taking the cotton in the bales as it comes from the cotton gin, cleaning, carding, spinning and weaving the yarn into cord fabric."

CONSIDER STAND ON IRISH STRIKE

British Trades Union Congress Under Way in London.

LONDON, July 13.—A special trades union congress, representing practically all of the organized workers of the United Kingdom, assembled here today to define labor's attitude toward the strike of Irish railway men.

It was reported that the conference would extend its original program for the meeting and discuss the allies' attitude toward the Russo-Polish war.

The Irish railway employees went on strike rather than handle munitions consigned to British troops.

Leaders of the extremist faction of the coal miners expressed themselves in favor of direct and emphatic action.

They proposed a resolution calling for a general strike unless the British government withdraws all its troops from Ireland and ceases the production of munitions destined for Ireland.

MARINES LANDED AT TAKU, CHINA

Unarmed Soldiers Sent to Protect American Interests.

WASHINGTON, July 13.—One hundred and fifty American marines have been landed from the battleship Huron at Taku, the nearest seaport to Peking, and will proceed immediately to Peking, the navy department announced today.

Rear Admiral Graves, commanding the Asiatic squadron, is on his way to Peking to confer with the American minister there regarding the recent outbreak and to take steps for the protection of Americans there, the department stated.

Besides the Huron there are three American destroyers laying off Taku.

Admiral Coontz, acting secretary of the navy, stated the marines landed at Taku were unarmed.

DRECO DID HIM SO MUCH GOOD HE GOT IT FOR HIS BOSS

Stomach was bloated by sour gas; kidneys were so active that he could get very little sleep; had night sweats, followed by chills and was so nervous he could hardly lie in bed.

Had taken two bottles of Dreco and it did him a world of good. His ailments are now past history.

Mr. W. W. Walls, living in West Terre Haute, Ind., says: "My stomach was in a very bad condition; bloated way up with sour gas, caused by my food not digesting right and everything I ate set up such pains and discomfort that many times I didn't make any attempt to eat. The gas pressed against my heart and lungs, making me so short of breath and giving me pains around my heart. My left side got so sensitive I could hardly bear the weight of my clothes against me and I had a strange, queer feeling all the time."

"Many a night I have laid awake all night long, counting the hours as they struck and I would get so nervous that it would affect my bladder and I had to keep getting up every little while. I had night sweats followed by chills. After a night like this I would get up feeling like I had done a hard day's work. My bowels were continually constipated and it took very strong medicine to move them."

"Since taking two bottles of Dreco I feel entirely well. My stomach is in good condition, my bowels move regularly and easily and I eat my meals with a real relish, knowing that I am not going to feel any bad effects. My nights are far different now, for I sleep peacefully all night and awake in the morning very much refreshed and ready for the day's work."

"I told my boss what it was that made me well and he got me to buy him some Dreco. I just hope it does him as much good as it did me."

All druggists now sell Dreco and it is being especially introduced in Indianapolis by Clark & Cade's Kaypool Hotel Drug Store.—Advertisement.
