Wednesday's the Day—Again It Is Your Privilege to Profit by The Semi-Annual-One-Day-Only Remnant Sale

One day in January and one day in July we set apart for these Remnant Sales. They are bargain events pure and simple—a reciprocal exchange of merchandise, which we have ceased to prize, for currency which we know you could not expend more profitably.

Every department in the store participates. Some have much to offer, others little. But whatever of remnants or oddments has been discovered, in a careful survey of stocks, will be on sale—most enticingly priced. Quite as important, perhaps more so, are special groups of garments and fabrics which we have been able to secure most advantageously within the last few weeks. These are presented in more intimate detail which follows.

Manifestly, it Would Be Impossible to List All the Attractions. Nor Would it Be Politic to Mention Very Small Lots. What Follows Is More or Less a Synopsis, and Far From Complete in Detail

All Remnants, All Oddments, All Soiled or Shelf-Marred Goods of Every Description and Much That Has Been Specially Bought for the Occasion Are Price-Cut to a Point Insuring Your Instant Appreciation and Their Speedy Sale

Buy Collars and Guimpes Cheaply

Neckwear Oddments

At $1.25 net and lace vestees and guimpes, in cream and white. Very dainty, and most exceptional values.

At 39¢, Tuxedo collars of cream Venise lace; low price on a lovely, essential accessory. Splendid value.

At $1.85, real filet lace Tuxedo collars; they're exquisitely fine and as values, positively glittering!

Also, a lot of odd pieces at great reductions; all pretty, quality pieces of different descriptions.

Bag Remnant Prices

At $5.00 each (this is positively unbelievable), silk sample bags, no two alike. Fancy metal and jeweled frames, all silk lined; navy blue, black and taupe. They cost more, much more, than their Remnant price.

At $14.65 (including the government tax), imported bead bags from France. A large assortment of good, dark shades in conventional designs, lighter tones also. Celluloid frames in shell color. Just recall how much hand-made, imported bead bags have cost in the past, and hurry down to get a choice one. —Ayres—Street floor.

No Thought of Profit Here

Odds in Luggage

High-grade luggage is every piece offered in the Remnant Sale—it's the very best quality in stock, and fifty pieces. The mark-down has been more drastic than comparison can suggest.

Suit cases, bags for men and women, overnight kits and fitted bags. All best of leathers—walrus, seal, pigskin, oxford and cowhide, in all grays with linings of silk, linen and leather. Remnant prices range from $15.00 to $37.50.
