

Jones and Evans in Semi-Finals of the Western Golf Play

Famous Stars Are Matched—Indianapolis Entrant Loses to Wenzler.

MEMPHIS, July 16.—Bobby Jones, Atlanta; Chick Evans, Chicago; Henry Wenzler, Memphis, and Clarence Wolff, St. Louis, reached the semi-finals of the western amateur golf championship by victories here Thursday.

Jones and Evans were to meet in the semi-finals today, while Wolff tackled Wenzler.

Jones had the easiest victory of any of the four Thursday, defeating Clarence Hubby, Jr., of Dallas, 12 up and 11.

Burt Wilbur, the Indianapolis representative in the third round of play, was defeated by Henry Wenzler, former Memphis caddy, 6 and 5.

Evans ended the fight against Ward on the fourteenth green with a birdie three, while the 18th, 5 and 4.

Clarence Wolff had to hustle to cop his match from Pollock Boyd of Chattanooga, winning 2 and 1.

OTHER AMATEUR NOTES.

All Indianapolis Cubs are asked to report for practice at Willard park this evening.

The Keystone A. C's and Indianapolis Trojans will meet at Remy avenue and Shelby street, Sunday afternoon, the winners to meet the Indianapolis Tigers at a later date.
