

SAYS THIEF WAS IN JAIL DELIVERY

Bandits' Victim Recognizes Assailant as Escaped Prisoner.

That one of the two men who held up and robbed William Sandmann, 1931 Nowland avenue, last night, is one of the twenty-four prisoners who escaped from the Marion county jail two weeks ago, is the statement made by Sandmann, and the police are being investigated by the detective department today.

Sandmann, a nephew of Police Sgt. Sandmann, said he recognized one of the holdup men from having seen his picture in the newspapers.

The hold-up and robbery, which occurred at 8:30 o'clock at State avenue and the Pennsylvania tracks, but which the police did not learn of until after 11 o'clock, was one of the boldest in the history of the city.

Sandmann is a man of slight build and was unable to defend himself even had he wanted to take a chance against the two automatic pistols pressed against his body.

He was in his automobile and had slowed down at the railroad tracks, when two men came up on either side of his car.

Sandmann was covered with a revolver and forced to get into the rear seat of his automobile. The men then drove the car to a filling station, where they obtained fifteen gallons of gasoline.

The man in the rear seat remained seated by Sandmann and kept a weapon pressed against his side, threatening to kill him if he spoke.

The robbers drove the automobile to a lonely place in the east side of Ellington park, where Sandmann was taken from the car and led to a creek bottom.

There the men robbed him of $20 and a watch, and tied his hands to a willow tree.

They tied a handkerchief over Sandmann's mouth and drove away in the automobile.

The thieves just before they left Sandmann gave him a quarter and told him that it would pay his carfare home.

It required more than an hour and a half for Sandmann to work himself free and telephone the police.

Canoe Club to Issue Reorganization Stock

Reorganization of the Indianapolis Athletic and Canoe club under the Indianapolis Automobile Trade association was proposed at a meeting of the directors of the club last night.

The financial condition of the club is very precarious, according to E. W. Steinhart, who presided at the meeting. The proposal called for reissuing the stock of the old Canoe club to members of the Automobile Trade association. Wallace O. Lee and George Spiegel, who will have charge of calling in the stock, will make a report at the next meeting to be held some time next week at the Indianapolis Automobile Trade association.

According to the plans the membership will be divided into active and social membership.

Active membership will be issued to members of the trade association and social to the old members of the Canoe club and others who wish to join.

IT'S REALLY surprising.
THE MONEY you save.
BY ASKING questions.
I FOUND that the maker,
OF A hair restorer,
WAS BALD as a coot,
SO I passed that up.
AND A bird who came,
TO SELL oil stock,
HAD HIS own cash,
IN LIBERTY Bonds,
SO I ducked again.
AND I asked a clerk,
FOR THE best cigarettes,
AND HE reached around,
FOR A fancy box.
AND I knew I was in.
FOR THE same old line,
SO I asked him this.
"WOULD YOU smoke one of 'em."
IF I bought a box?
AND THEN he smiled,
LIKE A regular guy.
AND SAID "No thanks.
I'LL SMOKE my own."
AND I got wise.
AND ASKED him then.
WHAT BRAND he smoked.
AND HE showed me.
AND THEN he said.
"THEY SATISFY."
AND B'GOSH, he's right.

SURE they satisfy. Chesterfields have "body"—that's the reason. Body enough to satisfy a cigar smoker. And yet Chesterfields are mild. Impossible? That's it exactly—Chesterfields have accomplished the impossible. They satisfy and yet they're mild.
