WILL CALL ON HIS TRADE BY PLANE

Business Man First Patron of Aviation Company.

Indianapolis at last has a permanent flying field.

The Indianapolis Aerial association has leased a twenty-two-acre field at Twelfth and Arlington avenue.

The association owns a three-passenger Aero, which will be used for pleasure and business.

The business of the new corporation will be aerial advertising, aerial photography, exhibition flying, passenger carrying and instruction.

Articles of incorporation were filed less than a month ago and the following officers were elected: J. P. Koehler, president; Dr. J. K. Kingsbury, vice president; Leslie Sanders, secretary-treasurer; and John L. Wamsley, general manager.

Harold C. Brooks, formerly a civilian flyer in the army aviation, is superintendent of flying.

Wamsley, the general manager, is a student at Butler college, who received his flying training in the army.

He is said to have been the youngest commissioned flyer in the army.

He was flight instructor at Rockwell field, near San Diego, Cal.

Sanders, secretary-treasurer of the company, was a junior lieutenant in the army during the war, and was in charge of a submarine chaser in European waters.

He is a student at Butler college, which he will attend next fall.

The most accessible route to the field is on East Washington street to Arlington avenue, and north to Twelfth street.

Another Aero will be added soon to the present equipment.

One of the first contracts of the company is to fly Mr. E. W. Steinhart, local business man, on a one-day trip to his different interests at Richmond, Ky; Wayne, South Bend, Lafayette and Terre Haute.

LEAGUE HEAD QUITS DUTIES

Women Voters' League President Needed at Home.

Mrs. Edward J. Hecker, president of the Indianapolis League of Women Voters, presented her resignation to the board of the league at the meeting held in the Chamber of Commerce yesterday afternoon.

The women accepted her resignation after she explained that owing to pressing home duties she did not have the time to devote to the office that it required.

Mrs. Wilmer Christian, first vice president, will preside until a new executive is chosen.

The nominating committee will be named early in the week by Mrs. Christian and ballots will be cast at the next meeting, which will be held in the league rooms the third Friday in August.

Plans for the franchise test and rummage sale to be given in the fall were discussed.

Bags will be placed in the rooms in the chamber of commerce where articles may be left by persons who have "rummage" to donate.

The citizenship school for women will be held at Bethany park, in connection with the general assembly, Aug. 4, 5 and 6. Mrs. E. C. Rumpel, president of the Indiana Federation of Clubs, is in charge of the school, and Mrs. Curtis Hodges, Mrs. Edward Franklin White, and Mrs. A. H. Boardley of Elkhart will appear on the program.

An informal discussion of the suffrage amendment situation and the results of the national conventions closed the session.

All Sons-in-Law and Sultan to Con Retort

PARIS, July 17.—The largest room in the Yikis Kiosk will be used by the Turkish crown council at its meeting in Constantinople today to consider the final reply of the allied supreme council to the protest against the terms of the peace treaty.

Selection of the most commodious room in the palace was decided on when the sultan decided to have all his sons-in-law present at the conference.

Turkish delegation has arrived at Constantinople from Paris and will present the allied ultimatum at the meeting.

Woman Says Mistake Made; She's Not Dead

STAMFORD, Conn., July 17.—Relative of Mrs. Ernest Farnum, who disappeared from Stamford in 1916, yesterday positively identified the body of a woman found near here as that of the missing woman.

But Mrs. Farnum said today they were mistaken.

Reading in a Boston paper that the body had been identified as hers, Mrs. Farnum took the first train here and went to the home of her sister, Mrs. Ernest Wood, who made the identification.

Attica Boy Drowned

ATTICA, Ind., July 17.—While bathing in Pine creek, at the old dam a few miles west of here, Charles Watkins, 19, Morocco, Ind., was drowned late Friday.

STOMACH TROUBLE

I suffered with stomach trouble for several years. Almost everything I ate caused distress. I had what is commonly called heartburn after each meal.

Medical doctors told me that my liver and kidneys were in bad condition.

A friend induced me to take chiropractic adjustments from Wm. Channing Ellery, D. C., 904 Odd Fellow Bldg., and I have received such fine results that I can now eat anything that anybody can and I want to say a good word for chiropractic, which did so much for me in such a short time. G. O. P. KILLS BILL TO GIVE WOMEN RIGHTS

Only Man on House Committee
Voting 'Yea' Is Representative
Baker, Democrat.

MEASURE IS SMOTHERED

Re publican members of the general assembly now in session have played true to the form displayed by their state convention, which refused to grant women places on the national delegation by killing a bill designed to make female voters eligible to public offices.

The measure, which was introduced in the house by Representative J. L. Axby, democrat, Lawrenceburg, and in the senate by Senator Edward P. Elmer, democrat, Seymour, has been apparently smothered to death by the republican majority, and it is doubtful if it will ever even be allowed to see the daylight of publicity by being brought on to the floor of the legislature.

The bill would make it possible that "any female voter . . . who possesses the other qualifications prescribed by law, shall be eligible to every public office or employment created by any law or statute of this state, or any ordinance, by any ordinance, bylaw or resolution of any municipality of this state, anything in such law, statute, bylaw, ordinance or resolution to the contrary notwithstanding."

It would make women eligible to fill election board and registration offices, and would grant them the right to serve on juries.

MAKE WOMEN EQUAL IN STATE AFFAIRS.

It was the idea of the framers of the measure to give women an equal participation in state, county and municipal affairs inasmuch as they have been granted the right to vote for presidential electors in this state.

Although it is confidently expected that the federal suffrage amendment will be ratified before November 2, there is a question in the minds of a great number of attorneys whether even then women would have the right under the present Indiana laws to hold office and to sit on juries.

Senator Elmer and Representative Axby said that while they had designed the bill for immediate conditions, it would also add an additional safeguard to the rights of women in case they are admitted to complete suffrage before the election.

DOESN'T FIT IN CURE-ALL PROGRAM.

The measure, however, was not looked upon kindly by the administration crowd that is rushing through Gov. Goodrich's "cut and dried" cure-all program.

The house bill was referred to the committee on elections, and when it came up there only the lone democratic member, Representative Roscoe U. Baker, Mt. Vernon, defended it.

The republican majority promptly recommended that it "be indefinitely postponed."

DOG HILL PARAGRAPHS

It is noticed by our close students of human nature that since Sidney Hocks got hold of enough money to dress himself up in the height of fashion from head to foot he always comes in late at every public gathering and goes clear down front.

Salem Barlow, our eccentric banjo-player, was noticed today entering the postoffice and was shadowed by Cricket Hicks, who didn't have a thing else to do anyhow. Salem stood around for a few minutes and then went away. It is believed he was on the verge of buying a stamp.—Copyright, 1920.

poned because of lack of merit at this time."

That was the end of the measure.

Although the democrat will attempt to get it on the floor of the house, there is little prospect of its passage because of the republican majority.

Scarcely as much courtesy was shown Senator Elmer's measure in the senate.

Although it had been referred to the committee on elections there, it was found after several days of waiting carelessly lying around on the clerk's desk.

The clerk insisted that it was a mistake, but there is a well-defined belief that the republicans do not care to have the measure come to the attention of the public.

WAR LOOMS AS FRENCH MOVE ON DAMASCUS

Arabs Reported to Face 80,000
Invaders With 100,000
Rifles.

ULTIMATUM IS FLOUTED

LONDON, July 17.—A new war that threatens to develop into a conflict of great magnitude, has broken out between the French and the Arabs in Syria, said a dispatch from Beirut to the Daily Express today.

The French sent an ultimatum to King Faisal of Syria, saying they are taking over all railways in Syria and will occupy Damascus because the Arab king contended the French mandate.

The ultimatum states further that the French henceforth will exercise full mandatory powers in Syria.

Accompanied by tanks and airplanes another French force is moving on Aleppo and has seized Rafak.

Gen. Gouraud, the French commander in Syria, has 80,000 troops at his disposal. The Arabs are said to have 100,000 rifles.

There are four Arab divisions concentrated near Damascus.

The French, according to the Daily Express, accuse King Faisal of stirring up trouble against the French forces of occupation at Tyre and Sidon.

The Daily Express also says the French intend to make French coinage and the French language obligatory in the districts covered by the French mandate.

HEAVY FIGHTING BREAKS IN THRACE

CONSTANTINOPLE, July 17.—Heavy fighting has broken out near Adrianople in Thrace, according to a report reaching British headquarters today.

Adrianople has been cut off from communication with the outside world since Thursday night.

It is probable that the battle mentioned in the foregoing cablegram is between Greek and Turkish nationalist troops.

The Greeks recently put an army of occupation in Thrace.

There have been persistent reports, however, that the Bulgarians were mobilizing and preparing to resist the advance of the Greek occupation in Thrace.

Part of Thrace was held by Bulgarians before the world war.

Yeggmen Leave Gas
Masks as Souvenirs

ANDERSON, Ind., July 17.—Further investigation of the robbery of the Commercial bank at Daleville, Thursday, when $8,000 in Liberty bonds were stolen from safety deposit boxes, disclosed the fact that the yeggmen used war gas helmets so they could work in the vault which was filled with formaldehyde when they broke the lock.

Two gas masks were left by the burglars as souvenirs of their visit.

Dentist Electrocut

SEYMOUR, Ind., July 17.—Dr. C. L. Cope, 29, a dentist, was instantly killed in his office here Friday, when he came in contact with a high voltage wire on an X-ray machine with which he was working.

Dr. Cope saw service with the medical corps of the United States army overseas and opened his office here last October.

He was unmarried.

His parents live at Rising Sun.

L. S. Ayres & Co.'s Half-Yearly Sale of Furniture

"Reports Progress"

During its five days' spirited start the Ayres half-yearly sale of furniture gained an impetus so great as to demonstrate beyond gainsay the public's appreciation of its extraordinary significance.

In preparing for this semi-annual event, which was thrown open two full weeks earlier than usual, many obstacles which seemed almost insurmountable were overcome.

Ayres resources were called upon—and Ayres perseverance succeeded in riding roughshod over conditions which were discouraging, to say the least.

Large stocks have been assembled. Everything in regular stock is included. Nothing is reserved. And prices in every instance are amazingly low.

Bank Search Is Made for Missing $100,000

RICHMOND, Ind., July 17.—Claude Kitterman, receiver for the Farmers' Banking Company of Milton, which was closed after Oscar M. Kirila, its cashier, committed suicide, said today no explanation of the disappearance of more than $100,000 of the bank's resources could be offered.

Kitterman denied a report that a shortage of $300,000 existed and said it was impossible to forecast the exact condition of the bank until the examination is completed.
