

WILL ROUND UP
DRAFT EVADERSWar Department to Publish Deserter List.

WASHINGTON, July 22.—A nationwide round up of more than 1,000,000 draft deserters will be made soon by the war department as a final effort to bring to justice men who failed to answer the call to America's draft army during the war, Gen. Harris said today.

The war department has been preparing a mammoth list of names of men who can be classed as actual draft deserters.

This list, expected to be completed soon, was estimated to contain the names of 100,000 "slackers."

Operation of the detection agencies of the federal, state and municipal governments are to be called on to assist in the roundup, it was said.

The final list of draft deserters will be published as the first step in the roundup.

Fifty dollars reward was offered for delivery of a deserter.

Every man of the war department's "slackers list" will be subject to military court-martial, Gen. Harris said.

They will be in the same category as Erwin R. Bergdol, brother of the most notorious deserter, Grover Cleveland Bergdol, and who surrendered himself yesterday after being a fugitive since 1918.

The men on the list nearing completion are those shown by war department records to have disregarded draft calls after they had registered.

The so-called draft evaders are those who failed to register.

25 Pairs of Shoes
Found in Oats Field

Thirty-five pairs of shoes were found hidden in an oats field on Twenty-first street, a half mile east of Brightwood boy, late yesterday afternoon by two boys, returning from a swimming hole.

Ed Beckley, 12, of 2108 Station street; Carl McMicken, 14, of 2108 Station street; the boys who found the shoes, telephoned the police.

It is believed the shoes were stolen from freight cars in the Big Four railroad yards.

Births Lead Deaths
During June in State

There were nearly twice as many births as deaths in Indiana during June, according to a report of the state board of health.

The report showed there were 2,614 deaths and 1,563 births, giving the state a death rate of 10.6 a 1,000 and a birth rate of 21 a 1,000.

Starke county had the highest birth rate, 20.3 a 1,000, and Ohio county the lowest, with 2.8 a 1,000.

Asks $15,000 Damages

MARIETTA, July 22.—Fifteen thousand dollars damages for injuries alleged to have been received when she fell from a trolley car here Aug. 19, 1919, are demanded by Della McGuigan, wife of a painter, in a suit filed in the circuit court against the Union Traction Company of Indiana.

What's What
In Indianapolis*"Know Your Own Home Town"(By the Reference Department, Indianapolis
Public Library, C. E. Rush, Librarian)

When did the Indianapolis public school system begin to develop?

Public schools opened in 1833 with 340 pupils. There are now seventy-two grade schools and three high schools. The school board employs 1,804 teachers.

Along what vocational lines does the city provide evening schools?

There are classes in general office practice, automobile construction, cooking, sewing, lamp shade making, cabinet making, mechanical drawing, agricultural drawing, machine shop practice, sheet metal work, electrical construction, industrial chemistry, industrial physics, trade mathematics, foundry practice, pattern making and several trade extension subjects. This year 2,063 have attended the evening classes, and ninety-eight teachers were employed.

Who are the Little Sisters of the Poor?

They conduct a home at 200 East Vermont street, where the aged and infirm are cared for. It is nonsectarian in that persons of any creed are taken in. At present they are caring for 170 persons.

(Series Number Forty-five.)

BLIND WORKERS
MEET JULY 27Many Association Officials
Will Speak."Our Aim, What We Expect and What
Is Expected of Us" will be the keynote address by F. H. Reese, president of the Indiana Workers for the Blind, at the fifth biennial convention of the Blind, at the Hotel Indiana, on the 27th.

"The Need of Individuals in Education" will be the subject of an address by Dr. H. D. Kitson, professor of psychology of Indiana University, Wednesday evening.

J. H. Hooper, superintendent of the school for the blind at Janesville, Wis., will speak on "How Wisconsin Is Preparing Her Blind to Become Useful Citizens."

A musical selection will be given by C. F. Hansen.

The closing session of the conference Thursday morning will be devoted to unfinished business and the election of new officers.

blind of the Cleveland board of education and Miss Frances Reed, executive secretary, will address the afternoon session on "The Need of the Blind and How the Ohio Commission Is Serving the Interests of the Blind," respectively.

A round table talk will follow on "Business Opportunities," under the direction of S. E. Halsley, and "Employment of Women," led by Miss Roberta Griffith.

"The Need of Individuals in Education" will be the subject of an address by Dr. H. D. Kitson, professor of psychology of Indiana University, Wednesday evening.

Early in the spring he is alleged to have absconded with more than $100 of government money derived from the sale of products from the farm.

He was recaptured at Des Arc, Mo., and returned to trial before the court-martial.

Feb. 2, Johnson's wife attempted to commit suicide by jumping into a lagoon at Garfield park while in a fit of despondency.

The squad found her here and placed him under arrest.

While they were taking him to jail, the prisoner started to run.

He disregarded commands to halt and two of the soldiers fired at him, both shots hitting the ground.

Johnson was a member of Company F, Twentieth Infantry, and served overseas during the war with the rank of second lieutenant.

Early in the spring he is alleged to have absconded with more than $100 of government money derived from the sale of products from the farm.

He was recaptured at Des Arc, Mo., and returned to trial before the court-martial.

J. H. Hooper, superintendent of the school for the blind at Janesville, Wis., will speak on "How Wisconsin Is Preparing Her Blind to Become Useful Citizens."

A musical selection will be given by C. F. Hansen.

The closing session of the conference Thursday morning will be devoted to unfinished business and the election of new officers.

JULIA VORNHEAN, 20, 1445 West Ohio street, who, the police say, escaped from Detective Hynes, who shot at him on North Capitol avenue yesterday, is under arrest today, charged with vehicle taking.

Hynes arrested George Woodson, 19, 1424 Everett street, on the charge of vehicle taking, but, as no gun was found, the police opened fire.

Russell Coffin, 29, 5101 Burgess avenue, was arrested, charged with mail-stealing manufacturers' numbers on automobiles, the police saying he changed motor numbers on automobiles which they say Woodson and Vornhean stole.

Mrs. Simms fears he has been killed.

Special to The Times.

LAFAYETTE, Ind., July 22.—Warren W. Simms, an employee of a local creamery, who has been missing from his home since last Saturday, has not been located.

His family is greatly alarmed over his disappearance.

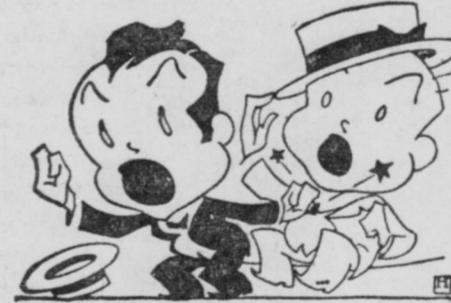

He left his home at the usual time to the bus line to go to work, but failed to show up at his place of employment.

Simms is a brother of Dan W. Simms, special attorney for the department of justice; Charles Simms, internal revenue agent, and S. U. Simms, local attorney.

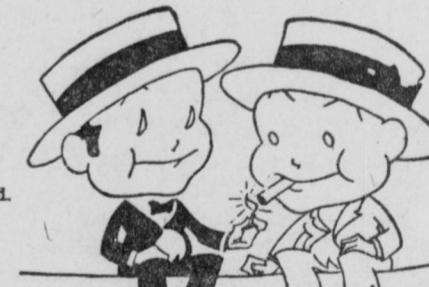

He has a wife and three children and his home life is said to have been pleasant.

Mrs. Simms fears he has been killed.

With acknowledgments to K. C. B.

One sacrifice,
one assist, no errors!

EVERY WILD-EYED man
WAS ON his feet.
OR SOMEONE else's.
AND THEIR soft remarks
REACHED THE next county.
AND WHILE I'm not EASILY EXCITED.
I GUESS I was helping.
THE PITCHER bean.
THAT CLEAN-UP hitter.
AND MY good south paw.
HIT A fat fan.
RIGHT IN the vestibule.
AND HE said "Phoo."
A FOUL tip.
RIGHT ON my last cigar."
AND I was sorry.
AND GAVE him one.
OF MY cigarettes.
AND HE saw the package.
THAT I took it from.
AND SMILED and said.
THEY SATISFY!
AND THAT smoke you smashed.
WAS ONE my wife.
BOUGHT AT a bargain.
SO THAT makes it.
A SATISFY.
DOUBLE HEADER."
AND AFTER that.
I EVEN saw him.
ROOTING FOR the umpire.

TWENTY hits—twenty chances with
I never a goose-egg—that's Chesterfield's average on every package. Trust the fans to pick them out. An unusual blend of Turkish and Domestic—it can't be copied. These cigarettes are there—they satisfy!

Chesterfield
CIGARETTES

They Satisfy

Liquorally and Tobacco Co.

FLEEING SOLDIER KILLED BY SQUAD

Ft. Harrison Fugitive Shot at Noblesville.

Special to The Times.

NOBLESVILLE, Ind., July 22.—Robert C. Johnson, formerly a second lieutenant, who escaped from a guard at Ft. Harrison yesterday afternoon, was shot and mortally wounded by a squad of military police, who tried to recapture him on the public square of Noblesville last night.

Johnson was shot twice, both bullets penetrating his chest.

He was given emergency treatment at the Hamilton county hospital, but died within two hours.

Johnson made his escape from the agricultural farm at Ft. Harrison, following a trial two weeks ago for larceny and desertion and was being held a prisoner awaiting the decision of the commanding general in Chicago.

When it was learned that he had escaped from the farm Osten Carr and Sergeant Wolfenbarger were detailed to track the fugitive.

They pursued Johnson in an army truck to Fisher's Station, and, coming up with them, he drew a revolver and threatened to kill them, according to the report of Wolfenbarger.

Carr and Wolfenbarger then returned to the fort for reinforcements and were joined by three other soldiers and started again on the trail for the fugitive.

The squad found him here and placed him under arrest.

While they were taking him to jail, the prisoner started to run.

He disregarded commands to halt and two of the soldiers fired at him, both shots hitting the ground.

Johnson was a member of Company F, Twentieth Infantry, and served overseas during the war with the rank of second lieutenant.

Early in the spring he is alleged to have absconded with more than $100 of government money derived from the sale of products from the farm.

He was recaptured at Des Arc, Mo., and returned to trial before the court-martial.

J. H. Hooper, superintendent of the school for the blind at Janesville, Wis., will speak on "How Wisconsin Is Preparing Her Blind to Become Useful Citizens."

A musical selection will be given by C. F. Hansen.

The closing session of the conference Thursday morning will be devoted to unfinished business and the election of new officers.

JULIA VORNHEAN, 20, 1445 West Ohio street, who, the police say, escaped from Detective Hynes, who shot at him on North Capitol avenue yesterday, is under arrest today, charged with vehicle taking.

Hynes arrested George Woodson, 19, 1424 Everett street, on the charge of vehicle taking, but, as no gun was found, the police opened fire.

Russell Coffin, 29, 5101 Burgess avenue, was arrested, charged with mail-stealing manufacturers' numbers on automobiles, the police saying he changed motor numbers on automobiles which they say

Woodson and Vornhean stole.

Mrs. Simms fears he has been killed.

Special to The Times.

He left his home at the usual time to the bus line to go to work, but failed to show up at his place of employment.

Simms is a brother of Dan W. Simms, special attorney for the department of justice; Charles Simms, internal revenue agent, and S. U. Simms, local attorney.

He has a wife and three children and his home life is said to have been pleasant.

Mrs. Simms fears he has been killed.

Special to The Times.

LAFAYETTE, Ind., July 22.—Warren W. Simms, an employee of a local creamery, who has been missing from his home since last Saturday, has not been located.

His family is greatly alarmed over his disappearance.

He left his home at the usual time to the bus line to go to work, but failed to show up at his place of employment.

Simms is a brother of Dan W. Simms, special attorney for the department of justice; Charles Simms, internal revenue agent, and S. U. Simms, local attorney.

He has a wife and three children and his home life is said to have been pleasant.

Mrs. Simms fears he has been killed.

Special to The Times.

LAFAYETTE, Ind., July 22.—Warren W. Simms, an employee of a local creamery, who has been missing from his home since last Saturday, has not been located.

His family is greatly alarmed over his disappearance.

He left his home at the usual time to the bus line to go to work, but failed to show up at his place of employment.

Simms is a brother of Dan W. Simms, special attorney for the department of justice; Charles Simms, internal revenue agent, and S. U. Simms, local attorney.

He has a wife and three children and his home life is said to have been pleasant.

Mrs. Simms fears he has been killed.

Special to The Times.

LAFAYETTE, Ind., July 22.—Warren W. Simms, an employee of a local creamery, who has been missing from his home since last Saturday, has not been located.

His family is greatly alarmed over his disappearance.

He left his home at the usual time to the bus line to go to work, but failed to show up at his place of employment.

Simms is a brother of Dan W. Simms, special attorney for the department of justice; Charles Simms, internal revenue agent, and S. U. Simms, local attorney.

He has a wife and three children and his home life is said to have been pleasant.

Mrs. Simms fears he has been killed.

Special to The Times.

LAFAYETTE, Ind., July 22.—Warren W. Simms, an employee of a local creamery, who has been missing from his home since last Saturday, has not been located.

His family is greatly alarmed over his disappearance.

He left his home at the usual time to the bus line to go to work, but failed to show up at his place of employment.

Simms is a brother of Dan W. Simms, special attorney for the department of justice; Charles Simms, internal revenue agent, and S. U. Simms, local attorney.

He has a wife and three children and his home life is said to have been pleasant.

Mrs. Simms fears he has been killed.

Special to The Times.

LAFAYETTE, Ind., July 22.—Warren W. Simms, an employee of a local creamery, who has been missing from his home since last Saturday, has not been located.

His family is greatly alarmed over his disappearance.

He left his home at the usual time to the bus line to go to work, but failed to show up at his place of employment.

Simms is a brother of Dan W. Simms, special attorney for the department of justice; Charles Simms, internal revenue agent, and S. U. Simms, local attorney.

He has a wife and three children and his home life is said to have been pleasant.