

PAGEANT TO TAKE FORM OF FANTASY

Seasons Will Be Featured in Children's Play.

By KATHLEEN M'KEE.
Dream flowers from fairyland will come to life in the musical fantasy of "The Four Seasons," which will be presented by the school children of Indianapolis at Brookside park on the evening of Aug. 13.

Myriads of brilliantly colored flowers, impersonated by the children, will sit before the eyes of the audience, weaving in and out in airy dances.

Langorous spring breezes, sparkling summer visions, blazing autumn colors and chill winter figures will be represented in turn by the performers.

Miss Alice C. Mesall, who is both author and director of this year's open air pageant, was very successful in staging a similar production last year.

CHORUS OF OVER ONE HUNDRED.
Over 400 children, who will participate in the spectacular scenic effect, are now practicing and drilling in sectional groups.

Stage scenery for the occasion has been designed by Barrett McCormick, formerly manager of the Circle theater.

The central effect in the background will be a huge hour glass thirty feet high, representing the passage of time.

The chorus of one hundred voices, under the direction of Mrs. Muriel Carr, which will introduce each of the seasons with an appropriate song, is one of the big features of the pageant.

The opening number on the program will be a drill by the chorus winding up in the formation of the word "Seasons" and the figures "1920" below in smaller type.

Following the introduction of summer by the chorus song, a group of flower dances, depicting the different features of summer time, will be given by children costumed to represent the varieties of flowers.

At the close of the number the different groups will form a huge flower; each variety constituting one separate portion of the composite flower.

The light, playful winds of the fall will be characterized in the dances of "Autumn."

A ballet dance by Miss Jane Skiles and Miss Gertrude Hacker, students of Mme. Theo Hewes, will be one of the most artistic numbers on the program.

PART OF "SPRING."
"Ye oldtime" May day dances will form an interesting part of the "Spring" presentation.

Throughout all the numbers Miss Dorothy Springer will impersonate the spirit of the springtime.

The May queen, who will be Miss Annette Moncrief, will hold her court with her lovely attendants.

A grand march of all the characters in the entire production will be the final number.

The May queen will hold the central position in the final tableau.

In discussing the pageant, R. Walter Jarvis, director of the recreation department, said that there is a splendid spirit of co-operation among the playground instructors.

"The children are working fine, and are progressing very rapidly," he said. Mr. Jarvis declared that the pageant this year would surpass that of last year.

Miss Mesall is very enthusiastic over the outcome of the pageant.

"The children are just crazy about practicing, and are never late at rehearsals," she said.

"I have every reason to believe that it will turn out splendidly."

PARTIES GIVEN FOR MRS. ARTMAN

Leaves Soon for International Women's Council.

A number of farewell parties are being given in honor of Mrs. S. R. Artman, who will leave Aug. 2, for New York, prior to sailing for Christiania, Norway, where she will attend the international council of women in September.

Tomorrow night, the young women workers of the Central Christian church will give a dinner at the home of Miss Flora Thiemann, 1209 Sterling street.

Thursday afternoon, Mrs. Alice French, 901 North Middle drive, Woodruff Place, will entertain the members of the pioneer mothers' memorial committee, in Mrs. Artman's honor.

Yesterday, the board of directors of the local council of women gave a luncheon at Ayres' tea room. Mrs. Artman is president of the council.

Mrs. Allan T. Fleming, vice president, acted as toastmistress.

Humorous responses in the nature of advice on such subjects as sea sickness, souvenirs, foreign tongues and baggage were given by various members.

As a parting gift, Mrs. Artman was presented with an umbrella, and a "make-believe" traveling bag, packed with steamer letters written by the council members.

Baskets of pale gold snap-dragons and siesta daisies, with a miniature steamer for the center piece, made an attractive luncheon table.

Covers were laid for eighteen, including Mrs. Artman, Mrs. Fleming, Mrs. A. E. Butler, Mrs. A. J. Clarke, Mrs. Eva Baker, Mrs. David R. Ross, Mrs. C. L. McVaine, Mrs. E. A. Williams, Mrs. B. S. Gadd, Mrs. John Downing Johnson, Mrs. E. G. Ritchie, Mrs. E. P. Brennan, Mrs. Philip Zorcher, Mrs. W. S. Norris, Mrs. C. L. Stubbs, Mrs. Alice French, Mrs. Everett A. Hunt and Mrs. W. H. Blodgett.

The announcement of the engagement of Mrs. Daisy Noe and Joseph Wesleyan Capron of New York was made at a luncheon given by Mrs. John Oxenford, 2222 North Illinois street, yesterday. Baskets of daisies were used through the room and the dining room appointments carried out the daisy design. The guests included the members of the Aftermath club.

Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Vonnegut, 4011 North Pennsylvania street, and Mrs. Charles Krause, 733 North Pennsylvania street, have gone on a motor trip to Hamilton and Toledo, O.

Miss Marie Ballman, 822 North New Jersey, will leave Saturday for Mackinac Island and Petoskey, where she will remain a month.

Mrs. Walter S. Grow and daughter, Bernadine, 4241 Park avenue, will leave Saturday for Chicago, where they will spend several days. They will take a boat trip and visit various lakes before returning home.

Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Henderson, 3555 Washington boulevard, who have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Small at Atlantic City, have returned.

Miss Amelia Sandborn of the Buckingham apartments will entertain tonight with a dancing party at the Woodstock club in honor of Miss Dorothy Holland of Danville, Va., and Miss Minerva

Fred Scanning and son William of Atlanta, Ga., are spending a few days with Mrs. W. A. Valodin in the Harrison apartments.

George C. Veach of Philadelphia is the guest of his uncle, Rev. E. H. Wood, 2330 North Delaware street.

Flour Facts

The goodness of your bread depends upon the right amount and quality of gluten in the flour you use.

Wheat crops, from year to year, differ in the amount and quality of gluten.

The only way to overcome this natural difference is to scientifically blend different wheats, insuring the proper amount of gluten.

If you want a flour that is always good, always uniform, with the same amount of gluten, regardless of seasonal differences in the wheat—
