1 KILLED, 2 HURT
IN 3 ACCIDENTS
Seven-Year-Old Boy, Struck by Truck, Dies.

Investigations of a series of accidents Thursday afternoon in which one person was killed, two seriously injured and two slightly injured, were under way today.

Benjamin Gibson, 7, of 2408 East Washington street, died at the City hospital yesterday afternoon from injuries received when he was run over by a five-ton automobile truck owned by the Marion County Construction Company.

Maurice Johnson, 20, of 1000 South West street, was the driver of the truck. Witnesses told Coroner Robinson the Gibson boy jumped from the rear of an ice wagon and ran into the path of the truck.

Charles Mase, 13, is in a serious condition at the St. Francis hospital near Beech Grove.

The boy and his father were injured last night when a wagon on which they were riding was struck by an automobile at a cross roads a mile and a half south of Beech Grove.

The name of the driver of the automobile which struck Mase's wagon was not learned.

Helen Wynn, 7, of Logansport, was slightly hurt when struck by an automobile while crossing Washington street near Oriental street last night.

The little girl has been visiting her aunt, Mrs. Marie Lavelle, 19 North Oriental street, and was on her way to a drug store when she ran in front of one automobile into the path of a car driven by Elmer Carlson, 24, of 787 Buchanan street.

Carlson was driving slowly, witnesses said.

Dr. John F. McCool, 1410 East Washington street, gave first aid.

CONSTABLES BUSY
IN DOG TAX CASES

Irvington J. P. Courts Have a
Rush of Business.

Have you a dog?
If so, you had better buy a dog license or the constables will get you if you don't watch out.

Not only will constables get you, but the police might arrest you, for the city, as usual, needs the money.

Orders were issued today for the patrolmen to investigate and learn who owns dogs in their districts.

July 1 was the time that dog licenses were due, and since that time the police have made no arrests for failure to pay dog license fees, but the constables and the two justices of the peace courts in Irvington have been busy.

Reports from the classic suburb indicate that there have been numerous arrests.

Failure to have paid the license brings a fine and costs which amount to $10, providing the offender pleads guilty.

However, if when ordered into court the man who owns a dog asks that the case be continued he must furnish bond.

Should the defendant not have some friend who can immediately hurry to the courtroom and sign the bond, he must obtain his release on a bond signed by a professional bondsman, of which there are a number ready for the small fee of $5.

Then the defendant appears in court a few days later carrying a dog license and a smile, but it is said the smile soon fades when he is told for not having had the license at the time the arrest was made.

The operations of constables in Irvington, it is understood, has brought about a protest from citizens in the east part of the city who have called on Charles Adams, prosecutor of Marion county.

Adams, it is said, has promised "release," but the arrests and heavy fines continue.

An incident related by persons who paid their $10 at a justice of the peace court after being convicted of the "horrible crime" of not having a dog license tells of one of the few cases where the fine and costs were suspended.

A constable ordered an old woman, who is more than 80 years of age, into court.

She said she had no relatives and her only friend was the big dog on which she admitted she had been unable to pay the license because of the lack of money.

She is said to have been almost overcome when told that the fine and costs was $10.

Other persons recently fined in the court, forgetting their own expensive experience, became indignant, and what they said resulted in the squire suspending the judgment against the aged woman.

DePauw Enrollment
Breaks All Records

Special to The Times, July 22.—Announcement is made by Dr. George R. Grove, president of DePauw university, that the advance enrollment for the term beginning Sept. 20 has broken all previous records.

All the rooms in the men's dormitory have been engaged and an extension is now being made to the building to provide for the accommodation of fifty more.

The enrollment of women is equally as great in proportion, as men.

DePauw is planning to enlarge the curriculum and new courses in economics and industrial organization will be offered under the direction of Frank T. Carlton and Prof. Howes, and new courses in business administration and accounting will be given.

Hope Given Indiana
in Grain Car Supply

Hope that sufficient cars will be sent to Indiana to take care of grain shipments is contained in a telegram received from Clyde A. Atchison of the interstate commerce commission by the public service commission.

The telegram follows:

"This commission, keeping in close touch with car situation generally and giving first consideration to the movement of grain and other food crops. Leaving nothing undone which it is thought will improve the situation."

DOG HILL PARAGRAPHS

To be Moseley has found a person that actually grins while he is suffering. He says he went into the bank of Tickville last week and wanted to borrow some money without security, and the cashier with a broad grin said it pained him deeply to have to refuse.

The local baseball team played the Cal Rife nine at the Wild Onion school house Saturday afternoon. The visitors won by a majority of fifteen scores, the umpire being a resident of the Cal Rife neighborhood.

Washington Hicks, who swore off chewing tobacco for good last week, went around behind the house today and took a nibble off of his plug.

Their Pay.

"It costs real money to be a policeman," said a large patrolman in front of police headquarters today.

Then he remarked that a policeman's pay was $4.50 a day, and followed it up with a few remarks about what coal would cost and also touched on the price of new uniforms.

"The lowest bid on overcoats this year is $4.50, while we got them for $11.90 last year."

"The lowest bid on uniforms this year is $82.50 and last year they only cost $71.90."

He was interrupted by a brother officer who declared:

"I'm glad I only need new pants, the bid on pants is $25 this year."

"We wonder what the city council will do for us," exclaimed the group of policemen. "It sure costs to be a member of the police department this year."

SCHOOL GIRL TAKES LIFE.

Special to The Times.

KENDALLVILLE, Ind., July 23.—
