

COURT RELEASES
JOHN REINHARTSeymour Man Held on White Slave Charge.

John Reinhart, 31, of Seymour, and Mrs. Mabel Everett, 34, of Washington, defendant and witness, respectively, on a charge of violation of the Mann white slave act, were released on their own recognizance by Judge A. B. Anderson in federal court yesterday.

Both are to appear in federal court when ordered by the United States district attorney, the court said.

The bonds of Reinhart and Mrs. Everett were fixed at $2,000.

The two were arrested at Washington Sunday when the husband of Mrs. Everett, a Baltimore & Ohio railway engineer, is alleged to have assaulted Reinhart, a freight conductor on the same road, accusing him of taking Mrs. Reinhart to Cairo, Ill., about two years ago.

Reinhart said that Everett made an attack on him with a dagger and exhibited a four-inch gash on his neck in support of this.

His left hand was split between the second and third finger, due, he said, to a dagger thrust by Everett, and he also showed a cut across his chest.

His clothes were torn and slashed in several places, where Everett struck at him, he said, but did not touch the flesh.

Everett, it was said, gave himself up to the police at Washington.

It is said that he has filed suit for a divorce.

Mrs. Everett told the court that she has four children, the youngest 12 and the oldest 17.

She told the court that she thought they were old enough to care for themselves.

Reinhart said that he is married and that he has a wife and three children.

GRADUATE NURSE TELLS

OF CONVINCING RELIEF

TRUTONA HAS GIVEN HER

Highly Praises Perfect Tonic and Declares It Has No Equal Among Medicines Today As Wonderful System

Builder.

Never before in the history of propi-etary medicines has a preparation relieved such high praise from doctors, nurses and hundreds of prominent men and women as Trutona.

This striking feature of the scores of testimonials given daily in behalf of Trutona is an impressive tribute to the merit of the Perfect Tonic.

Mrs. Fred Zeigler, 563 West Main Street, Decatur, is a graduate trained nurse of the Samuel's Hospital, Columbia, O. This well-known Illinois woman, highly skilled in the science of medicine, declares Trutona is without an equal among medicines of today.

"My general system had been run down for more than a year," Mrs. Zeigler said. "I suffered considerably from indigestion; my liver was in terrible condition, being very torpid and slugish, and my kidneys were badly dis-ordered. I often had severe pains in my back, and was subject to dizzy spells at times. Everything I tried to eat had a bad taste to it. I was in such a weakened condition that I couldn't enjoy a night's sleep. Yes, I had tried other medicines, but got no relief."

"Of course, in my profession as a nurse, I have made a careful study of medicine and I know, after reading the testimonials and tasting Trutona that it contained just what would benefit me.

It's remarkable the change Trutona has made in me. My meals taste fine now.

I don't suffer the former dizzy spells at all, and I seem to have so much more life about me. I don't suffer from the kidney pains in my back, as before, and I sleep just fine at night. I want to highly praise Trutona as a wonderful system builder, and I can say to the people of Indiana that Trutona has no equal among medicines today."

Trutona is sold in Indianapolis at the Hook chain of drug stores, and at O. W.
