

Our Foreign Department

started as an offshoot of our Certificate of Deposit and Exchange Department, has grown so fast that it is already cramped for room. This condition will be remedied after August 1, on completion of the alterations now being made in our Banking Room—alterations which will allow for expansion in every department on the first floor.

It is not necessary, however, to wait until August 1 to test the quality of our Foreign Department's service. Newcomers from foreign lands and prospective travelers will at all times find it helpful in the transaction of any business having to do with the sending or use of money abroad.

FARMER-LABOR TICKET NAMED

Third Party Movement in State Launched.

J. M. Zion, a farmer of Clark's Hill, Tippecanoe county, was named for governor, and Francis J. Dillon of Indianapolis for United States senator, at the convention of the farmer-labor party. Dillon was the only opponent of Zion and after he moved to make the Tippecanoe man's nomination unanimous, the convention named him as the senatorial nominee.

Carl Mullin of Lake county was nominated for lieutenant governor over Mrs. Margaret Doebber of Indianapolis; Percy R. Bell, Allen county, was nominated for secretary of state; treasurer, John Fogg, Vigo county; attorney general, Charles R. Rogers, Indianapolis; auditor, Ray Verne Maples, Indianapolis; judge of the supreme court, Thomas Kinney, Blackwell; clerk of the supreme court, Leroy Schwartz, Allen county; superintendent of public instruction, Mrs. Margaret F. Doebber, Indianapolis.

TICKET LEFT OPEN. Nominations for judges of the appellate court were left open, to be filled by the state executive committee.

No nomination was made for the office of state geologist. A platform was adopted endorsing completely the platform of the committee of forty-eight. Non-partisan league, labor party and the World's War Veterans, as well as in the Chicago convention.

There were a number of other planks adopted, which included free text books for the public schools, no universal military training, repeal of the present short-term loan law, public ownership of public utilities and a guarantee price for farmers, insuring them a fair profit for their products.

Compulsory arbitration was roundly denounced, as was the state constabulary and the right to employ strike breakers. CODEDIN GOODRICH.

Gov. Goodrich was condemned in a resolution adopted by the convention, for calling a special session of the legislature "to pass his political hobbles and his political buncombe," and asking that a war memorial be built to serve the purpose of the American legion, which the resolution referred to as a "special class of soldiers."

Another resolution called for the release from the penitentiary of Eugene V. Debs and the release of all military prisoners.

A resolution condemned the democratic and republican parties for "taking away lawful privileges of the people without their consent," this resolution referring to the recent adoption of the eighteenth amendment.

A resolution condemning all the newspapers for supporting either of the old parties was adopted.

Before the convention adjourned talks were made by several of the nominees, including Mr. Zion, who advocated the return of the railroads to federal control.

He appealed for "industrial democracy" and for support to the farmer-labor ticket.

Ministers Put Ban on Sunday Funerals

CORNING, N. Y., July 26.—Protestant ministers of this city, members of the Corning Ministerial association, are on a strike today against Sunday funerals.

By formal resolution, the divines have gone on record as refusing to accept Sunday funeral engagements in the future except in case of extreme necessity.

Adoption of the strike resolution follows a request made a year ago, and not generally heeded, that the public discourage the practice of holding funerals on Sundays.

Corning undertakers will back up the dominies in their stand.

Negro Is Knife Victim in Craps Post-Mortem

Detectives are searching today for Harry Henderson, negro, 712 Hadley street, reported assailant of Gild Davis, negro, 135 West Fourteenth street.

Davis is in the city hospital and physicians say he is about to recover from the knife wound which pierced a lung.

The stabbing occurred in front of 605 Douglas street, following a craps game in the rear of 746 West North street, the police were told.

Can't See How 'Farmer-Labor' Ever Got in Front of 'Party'

Woman Writer at Indiana Convention Says Delegates Fall Short of Name.

By KATHLEEN M'KEE.

Having been possessed always of an unaccountable desire to become acquainted with the much talked of third party I seized on the occasion of attending the state convention of the farmer-labor party.

On entering the hall my attention was centered on a gentleman frantically talking to a group of admiring fellow delegates.

I assumed from the enormous crowd surrounding him that he was the future governor of Indiana.

The popularity of the credential stand was something perfectly wonderful, and I judged that the farmer-labor party must be a very exclusive organization.

A large number of the delegates wore black and white striped shirts, apparently having a hankering after the real thing which they could not procure for the occasion.

I noticed also that black ties were in vogue, supposing that the delegates were in mourning for some brother, presumably Eugene Debs.

The hungry, lean appearance of the delegates caused me much worry for fear that they could not earn enough money to get anything to eat.

Flags, which constitute the most conservative fashion to advertise patriotism, adorned the platform; however, the remainder of the hall was barren.

LOVELY VARIETY OF WHISKERS.

The most lovely variety of whiskers were exhibited by the delegates, especially the kind that curl up at the tails.

Disappointment overwhelmed me, however, since none needed a hair cut.

The general removal of coats on entry into the hall convinced me that the ladies are admitted to the convention on equal terms with the men.

I haven't been able to figure out yet how it is a farmer-labor organization, because I didn't see any farmers, and mostly all looked like loafers instead of laborers.

Violent handshakes extending from three to five minutes were noteworthy examples of brotherly love.

I jammed-down hats proclaim sleuths, all the third party's members must be second editions of Sherlock Holmes.

The convention must have been an epoch-making session judging from the voluminous packages of papers peeking from the pockets of the delegates.

Supper was the most popular article of clothing in the entire assembly.

One gentleman delegate of color entered the hall blissfully licking a strawberry ice cream cone.

A youthful "laborer" in a blue and white jumper attended the proceedings with his papa.

Newspapers were tremendously popular among the delegates, and they all read industriously.

Badges also were in fashion, although some more pretentious than others.

One gorgeous creation was made of scarlet with beautiful black lettering.

"Brother" and "so glad to meet you" were the two most popular expressions among the delegates, both of which usually were followed by an affectionate embrace.

COLOR EFFECTS APPEAR POPULAR.

One budding statesman arrayed in a linen colored suit, brilliant orange shirt and a black and white striped tie, attracted my attention.

Another gentleman was dressed artistically in a dark green suit with a delightful color scheme of a pale green tie that resembled his kid sister's Sunday hair ribbon, and grass green socks.

A delightful address was made by the temporary chairman, in which the words "welcome" and "friendship" figured prominently.

He did a lot of talking about the grand purpose that the delegates were assembled for, but never did tell what it was.

He was followed by a prosperous-looking gentleman with an important air whose oration gave me the assurance that this country is lost totally until Russia gets in on the game.

He must have been a great orator, judging from the rapt expressions of the delegates during the speech.

Although I couldn't see why, the republicans and the democrats drew down his wrath, and he got so excited that I was afraid he would have a stroke.

I gained the impression that there wasn't anything that he couldn't do, even including paying off the courthouse debt.

I couldn't understand why the speakers always told all about what they were

BELFAST HAS APPEARANCE OF AN ARMED CAMP

British Soldiers Patrol Streets and Guard Public Buildings.

ONE KILLED IN CLASH

BELFAST, July 26.—Although several clashes occurred during the night, resulting in the death of one constable and wounding of three Sinn Feiners, this city was comparatively quiet today.

The constable was shot by a sniper. The Sinn Feiners were wounded in street fighting with unionists.

Belfast today presented the appearance of an armed camp.

Thousands of British soldiers patrolled the streets and guarded public buildings, while motor lorries and tanks were stationed at many points.

A civilian ignored the challenge of a British sentry who ordered him to halt. He was shot.

POLICE SERGEANT SHOT AT CHURCH ENTRANCE.

Sunday passed quietly except for the police sergeant, Matheson, who was shot by several masked men as he genuflected at the entrance to a Catholic church.

Disorders occurred in several neighboring towns during the night.

At Bangor and Newtownards a number of saloons were looted.

Similar incidents occurred at Lisburn. So far as Belfast and the rest of Ulster is concerned, civil war has developed, in which the British troops are unwanted and unthanked.

Police dispersed a large mob which attempted to set fire to a convent on Newtownards road.

An armored car and machine guns were used.

The lord mayor of Belfast issued a proclamation calling upon all citizens to cease fighting and aid in restoring order.

At Queensdown, police and military raided Sinn Fein headquarters in the town hall, seizing all documents.

TWO DUBLIN COAST GUARDS KILLED

DUBLIN, July 26.—Two coast guard officers were killed in a raid on the coast guard station by Sinn Feiners here early today.

A brilliant epigram was made by the permanent chairman about all the bad men in the United States being at large and all the good ones being in prison, although he did not say where he ought to be himself.

Although I found out that the no mean city of Indianapolis in all its glory was the most misgoverned city in the world, I could not find out what would have to be done to correct the error.

A literary secretary with his glasses fastened by a long black ribbon added materially to the appearance of the stage.

Front seats were not at all popular, which was a mystery to me, since I have always had to pay an awful price for the privilege of sitting on the front row at a show.

Dreams Sons Down; Find Bodies in River

BURLINGTON, Vt., July 26.—A dream was responsible for the finding of the bodies of George Raymond, Jr., 14, son of George Raymond, and his uncle, Winford Raymond, 17, son of Xavier Raymond, in the Lamolite river, at Fletcher.

According to Winford's father, the vision of the boy's mother appeared before him in a dream and directed him to look for the boys in the river.

They had been absent from home since Sunday.

The dream was so vivid that the father awakened and at 2 o'clock went to the river bank, where he found the boys' clothing. At daybreak the bodies were recovered.

This Is Better Than Laxatives

One NR Tablet Each Night For A Week Will Correct Your Constipation and Make Constant Dosing Unnecessary. Try It.

Poor digestion and assimilation mean a poorly nourished body and low vitality. Poor elimination means clogged bowels, fermentation, putrefaction and the formation of poisonous gases which are carried by the blood and carried through the body.

The result is weakness, headaches, dizziness, coated tongue, inactive liver, bilious attacks, loss of energy, nervousness, poor appetite, impoverished blood, skin eruptions, pimples, skin diseases, and often times serious illness.

Ordinary laxatives, purges and cathartics—sals, oils, calomel and the like—may relieve for a few hours, but real, lasting benefit can only come through use of medicine that tones up and strengthens the digestive as well as the eliminative organs.

Get a 25c box of Nature's Remedy (NR Tablets) and take one tablet each night for a week. Relief will follow the very first dose, but a few days will elapse before you feel and realize the full benefit. When you get straightened out and feel just right again you need not take medicine every day—an occasional NR Tablet will then keep your system in good condition and you will always feel your best. Remember, keeping well is easier and cheaper than getting well.

Nature's Remedy (NR Tablets) are sold, guaranteed and recommended by your druggist.
