

TEMPORARY HITTING SLUMP HANDICAPS INDIANS AS THEY STRIVE TO STOP THE BREW

TRIBE FIGHTS TO COAX BACK TIMELY BLOWS

Hoosiers Feel All They Need Is Fresh Start and They'll Speed Again.

CAVET HAS OFF-DAY

The Indians were in a scrappy mood today and were set to fight like wild men in an effort to get back on their batting stride.

In the two games since returning home from their successful road trip the Hoosiers have found it impossible to get their hitting stride back, but today they felt that they were due and hence the fans were expecting to see the Tribesmen throw the books into Jack Egan's Brewers in the third game of the series.

Paul Jones was slated to face Jake Northrup on the mound and, as the Hoosiers have whaled Jake's offerings before, they saw no reason why they shouldn't come through this afternoon.

Both teams were in belligerent attitude today as a result of some wordy warfare yesterday and a contest of thrills was promised.

The Brewers walked off with the honors yesterday and today the Hoosiers found Cavet's offerings while the Indians failed to do much with McWhenny's stuff. But today the Hoosiers' batter struck out ten Hoosiers and gave up only six hits.

McWhenny was in unusually good form all the way and it is not likely that any club in the association could have beaten him.

The Hoosiers scored in the second when Hap Huhn got around on his double, an out and a sacrifice fly. In the seventh they scored two more runs, one again in the eighth and three in the ninth.

The Tribe got its lone run in the eighth when Shinnars made the circuit on his single, an error, an out and an infield play.

Rehg was the only Hoosier to do much with the Brewer pitcher's offerings. Walter getting two hits out of four trips.

Hap Huhn was the same old dangerous Hap with the bat and, though he was passed twice, he managed to whang out two doubles. On the two occasions Huhn was walked Cavet chose that means to bring about change of double plays and the tactics worked perfectly both times, with Gearing the victim.

The Hoosiers were somewhat depressed by the second defeat in two days, but they felt today that all they need is a start and they will again be on their way.

Two or more runs in one rally will just about swing the team back into its stride and the Tribesmen were out to clean up this afternoon.

Big League Stuff

Cleto allowed the Athletics only three hits yesterday. Result: White Sox won hands down.

One of Babe Ruth's home runs would have helped a lot at St. Louis, but it was not forthcoming and the Browns won 1 to 0. Babe was passed when danger threatened.

Jimmy Ring lives in Brooklyn in the winter, but that didn't keep the Dodgers from handing him a terrific lambasting, the champions finishing on a small end of a 9-to-0 score.

After being driven from the box in the first game, which the Cubs lost, big Jim Vaughn came back and trimmed the Braves in the second.

Jim Bagby was in the box for Cleveland, which was routed for the league leaders winning another game.

Burns poked only one hit, but he got that one in the fourteenth inning and sent in the run that enabled the Giants to beat St. Louis.

The Pirates and the Phillies divided a twin bill, each team making a desperate rally in the ninth in the game they lost apiece.

With Cobb out of the line-up, the Tigers still had enough punch to beat the Nationals.

The St. Louis Americans has purchased John Heaving, a catcher, from the Battle Creek club of the Michigan-Ontario league.

AN INNING WITH THE AMATEURS

MARMONS GET ANOTHER CHANCE

The battle that probably will decide the Indianapolis amateur championship will be staged at Premier diamond Saturday afternoon, when the Premier Motors and the Marmons club will break their tie for the Motor League leadership.

These two clubs are conceded as the best in the local sandlot ranks, with one of two possible exceptions, and a record crowd is expected to watch their title scrap.

This will be the last game between the Marmons and Premier, as the Motor League schedule closes Aug. 7.

On two different occasions these clubs have met in scrap for the league leadership and the Premier were victorious both times. However, these two games were the only ones lost by the Marmons and the Premier have lost to the Midwest Engines and G. J. Tires.

The Premier, boasting of their previous wins, are confident of a victory and will be out to make it a decisive one this time. Elmer Brown, veteran big leaguer, who has twice fooled the Marmons, will be on mound duty for the Premier.

While Johnny Noonan, one of the best sandlot hurlers ever turned out in Indianapolis, will throw the shots for the Liberty Motor club.

A special meeting of the Turner nine voted at Premier diamond Friday night and the following players are requested to attend: Rafferty, Goet, Grund, Lester, Reckard, Neitker, Decker, Hoffman, Plummer, Robertson, Dolan, McElfresh, Noonan, Buase and Kluger.

The North Side Vets, formerly the Debonairs, will meet Friday night at the clubroom, Thirteenth and Clifton streets, and all members are requested to attend.

Oliver A. C.'s will travel to Greendale next Sunday and will have a chance of coming home with another victory added to their long string.

The Indianapolis Specials will play at Brownsburg Sunday and all players are requested to attend the meeting at the clubroom, Belmont street, or call Belmont 2162 and ask for Ralph.

The Debonair baseball club has reorganized to play under the colors of the north side club, an organization composed of former ex-soldiers and sailors, and from now on will be known as the North Side Vets. This team, having been strengthened by the addition of several players, is ready to book games.
