

WOMAN'S PARTY TO BELAUNCHED, SAYS LEADER

Organization to Follow Ratification of Suffrage Amendment.

NO MAN TO HAVE VOICE

NEW YORK, July 30.—A woman's political party will be launched as soon as the campaign for the ratification of the suffrage amendment is ended, Mrs. O. H. Belmont, society woman and militant suffrage leader, announced here today.

Plans for calling a convention to organize it are now under way.

If there is not sufficient time to get into action for the November election, a woman's strike against voting will be urged.

The new feminist party will enter the political field with its own candidates.

No man will have a voice in it; no "boss" will dictate its policies, said Mrs. Belmont.

NEW POLITICAL PROGRAM PLAN.

The purpose of forming a separate party for women, she said, is "to put before the voters a new political program with the fresh touch and serious point of view of women."

No money will be lacking to carry out its aims, according to Mrs. Belmont, who is one of the wealthiest women in America, and has been one of the largest contributors to the suffrage cause.

She said many of the women of independent fortunes who have financially supported the fight for suffrage will contribute generously to the new party.

There is a nation-wide demand among the women for a party of their own, she declared.

Her recent appeal to the woman voters to stay out of the old parties and refrain from voting until they are free from man domination in politics, has brought hundreds of letters from all parts of the country pledging support to her movement.

WOMEN COUNT ON TENNESSEE

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., July 30.—The confident prediction that Tennessee will be the thirty-sixth state to ratify the federal equal suffrage amendment was made here today by suffragists, who are forming their own lines for the battle which will begin on Aug. 8 when the Tennessee legislature meets in special session.

Tennessee at this time is the mecca for suffragists from everywhere.

Some arrive on every train.

The latest arrival is Miss Anna Pollitzer, legislative secretary of the national women's party.

She came fresh from interviews with Senator Warren G. Harding and Gov. James M. Cox.

"The foundation here is more secure than it is in Delaware," she said today.

"If Republicans who control one-fourth the legislature are true to their party platform and if Gov. Cox does all he has assured us he will do, Tennessee will be the thirty-sixth state without doubt."

"It is the acid test of their sincerity."

Every member of the legislature will be polled and interviewed by the young army of suffragists here between now and Aug. 8.

Appointed Head of Women's Finances

The appointment of Mrs. Adelbert P. Flynn of Logansport as head of the women's finance committee of the democratic women's state organization, was announced today by Mrs. Alice Foster McCullough, head of the organization.

Mrs. Flynn was the only woman member of the resolutions committee of the democratic state convention.

A meeting will be held by the Business Women's club at Terre Haute, Monday night, at which a democratic woman and a republican woman will speak.

Miss Julia Landers, head of the democratic women's speakers' bureau, said Mrs. Bernice Pike of Cleveland, who was a delegate to the San Francisco convention, will represent the democrats.

Mrs. Lucien Sprague speaks for the republicans.

Say Clearing House for Nations Is Plea

LONDON, July 30.—A new idea for the maintenance of world peace has come out of America and is being worked out tentatively in Europe.

It is the idea of certain members of the American Chamber of Commerce that inasmuch as world wars of the past have been based largely upon commercial rivalries and commercial misunderstandings, much can be done toward keeping the world at peace by increasing international commercial knowledge.

It is urged that if a clearing house of commercial information can be formed, which will keep the manufacturers and business men of the world posted on world opportunities and world needs, mutual understanding will be increased and the dangers of trade misunderstandings which may lead to war will be minimized.

Such an international clearing house, moreover, would be expected to deal with information regarding shortages of this or that product or machinery in any given country. It would bring international markets "closer" to their base of supply and thereby be an instrument which would at least tend to prevent the shortage of supplies and consequent unemployment which leads to unrest and consequently, frequently, to wars.

The scheme is entirely in a tentative stage as yet. But it is being discussed and methods putting it into operation are being considered.

Next Time He'll Be Careful Who He Hits

If you speed, be careful not to hit a policeman.

That is the advice that Vernon Jones, 511 North Senate avenue, is giving his friends today.

Vernon was driving an automobile north on Senate avenue last night and sideswiped a police officer and Rhodes were riding.

Both cars were slightly damaged and the police say that Jones was traveling so fast that his car went twenty-seven yards before he could stop it after hitting the police car.

Jones is under arrest on the charge of speeding.

FACTS ON THREE MURDERS DUG UP

French Bluebeard Now May Face Trial for Life.

PARIS, July 30.—The chain of evidence which the state is forging against Henri Landru, the modern French "Bluebeard," was strengthened today when medical experts reported to the French courts that they had found proof that three persons, probably women, had been cut up and burned in Landru's villa at Cambay.

Landru originally was accused of murdering from eleven to thirteen "wives" or "lovers" for their property.

He was arrested more than a year ago, but despite the vigorous and ceaseless investigation of the police they were unable to gather evidence sufficiently strong to put him on trial for his life.

The prisoner has maintained a cool and cynical air as a result of a dove and I would not hurt the hair of a woman's head," was his favorite reply to questions regarding the whereabouts of missing women with whom he was friendly.

Landru maintained a villa at Gambais, situated near the shore of a lake.

The original theory was that he poisoned his victims, then cut up and burned the bodies and dumped the charred remains in the lake at night.

The lake had been dragged seven times and debris resembling charred bones were brought to the surface, but the medical experts and the police were unable to connect them with Landru's supposed crime.

Neighbors of Landru said frequently he returned late at night and started a roaring fire in the furnace of the villa.

The whole house would be lighted up with the glow and black, greasy smoke would pour from the chimney.

Landru's real wife recently obtained a divorce from him after remaining loyal for months after his arrest.

Letters seized in Landru's effects showed he had seventy-four "sweethearts."

BIG ADS WILL BOOM HARDING

12-Word Slogan Approved by Nominee.

MARION, O., July 30.—A mammoth modern advertising campaign designed to "sell" Harding and Coolidge to the country" will be launched soon by republican national headquarters.

Details of the plan were discussed by Senator Harding this morning with Scott C. Bone, publicity director for the national committee; William Wrigley, Jr. of Chicago, and A. D. Leaker, head of Lord & Thomas, a Chicago advertising agency.

Both Lasker and Wrigley were ardent supporters of Biran Johnson's pre-convention campaign.

The former presided at the Johnson-Rorah mass meeting in the Chicago auditorium just before the opening of the national convention, while Mr. Wrigley was the "angel" who helped finance the establishment of Senator Johnson's convention headquarters and is one of the largest advertisers in the country.

The campaign will utilize all mediums of modern advertising, including billboards, posters, newspaper and magazine advertisements and motion pictures.

Today's conference was to obtain Senator Harding's approval of the plan.

It is understood the senator's approval was not given until he, a newspaper and advertising man himself, had placed his O. K. on the preliminary copy.

One feature of the campaign, it is said, will be a billboard poster with a twelve-word slogan, epitomizing Senator Harding's political beliefs.

"That's the secret," Mr. Bone and his associates replied when questioned as to the mysterious twelve words, but they said the wording had been changed slightly by Senator Harding, who had given a "punch" to the slogan that the original phrase had not carried.

LONDON, July 30.—The Vatican has announced its disapproval of the Irish political utterances of Archbishop Mannix of Melbourne and considers the archbishop's action "blameworthy," said an exchange telegraph dispatch from Rome today.

Archbishop Mannix, who is in New York City, brought down the wrath of the British government on his head by public declarations favoring the Sinn Féin movement.

Would Administer Will From Memory

Special to The Times.

NEWCASTLE, Ind., July 30.—The hoarding of a number of safety deposit boxes several months ago at the Speelman bank and the disappearance of the will of William L. Cory of Dunreith, who was killed by a train at Dunreith, March 12, has complicated the administration of his estate.

The widow, Mrs. Virginia Cory, will attempt to carry out the provisions of the will from memory and has applied for letters of administration for this purpose.

The estate is valued at $75,000.

Johnson Threatened by Big Wheat Tieup

Special to The Times.

FRANKLIN, Ind., July 30.—A general tie-up in the wheat handling situation is threatened in Johnson county today because of the shortage of grain cars and the continued stream of grain pouring into the elevators in all parts of the county.

Although the acreage is below normal, the wheat harvest in this county is so large there is no place left to store it.

A total of 50,000 bushels is being thrashed each day in this county, which would require fifty cars to transport, while the grain dealers are getting only twenty-five or thirty daily.

The storage question has become so acute that many farmers are storing their grain at their homes.

HARDING HOLDS TO PORCH DRIVE

Makes Two More Dates to Receive Delegations.

MARION, O., July 30.—Senator Warren G. Harding, republican nominee for president, and his advisers were going ahead today with their plans for a continuation of his front porch campaign here irrespective of any speaking arrangements elsewhere which he may decide to fill later on.

Two more dates on which the senator will receive delegations at his picturesque Marion home were announced.

The first is Aug. 12, when he is to further explain industry to about 600 pottery workers of East Liverpool and Columbiana counties, Ohio.

The second is Sept. 25, when 1,000 members of the American Defense society, a patriotic, preparedness organization with headquarters at New York, of which the late Theodore Roosevelt was the "first honorary president, will journey here to listen to a speech on Americanism."

Senator Harding indicated it was his first purpose to receive and address groups interested in special subjects rather than to have large state delegations come here by a close personal appeal than by merely making set speeches to larger gatherings representing diverse interests.

The senator's campaign is, however, only in the making.

Predictions as to addresses to be made by him in the east, west or middle west are sheer guess work.

Unforeseen exigencies may arise to upset the tentative plans he has made.

At present the senator is waiting to see what issues Gov. Cox will raise in his speech of acceptance, Aug. 7.

When the governor has had his say at Dayton, the senator expects to speak more freely than he is doing just now.

had been considered for the position. He will go to Beaver Falls next week for a conference with the trustees of the school.
