CUSTODIAN OF 50 MILLION DRINKS

Federal Prohibition Officer
Holds Much Whisky.

WASHINGTON, July 31.—Federal Prohibition Commissioner John F. Kramer now is custodian of nearly 50,000,000 drinks of whisky, it was estimated here today.

This is enough to give one man-sized drink to nearly every male in the United States.

"The whisky we seized in raids," explained R. E. Hall, chief supervisor, "we will have to hold it until we get orders for its disposal."

"We have had no court cases in any directions because no important cases have been disposed of."

"Meanwhile we're having to guard the liquor."

"Some of it is stored in federal buildings and some in bonded warehouses and liquor warehouses."

"Most of the liquor was seized in Chicago and New York."

Measured by ordinary standards the seized whisky is reported to total more than 2,000,000 quarts.

This, however, is a mere drop in the total grand amount seized throughout the country, since national prohibition went into effect Jan. 18.

Police, sheriffs and other local officials who do not report to Kramer, have seized far more than Kramer's agents.

Customs officials also are busy separating contraband alcohol from Americans returning from Canada and Mexico.

All trains entering the United States from Canada and Mexico are searched by customs officials.

Whisky now in custody of the government is worth more than $10,000,000 at bootleg prices.

It is unlikely that federal officials were willing to lay themselves open to the charge of inconsistency by selling it to persons licensed to buy for non-beverage purposes.

This has been considered and practically rejected, it was said today.

A large quantity of confiscated whisky is of the moonshine variety and therefore good for nothing, according to prohibition officers.

Loses Fortune When His Fortune Is Told

HARTFORD CITY, Ind., July 31.—A company of sixty Gypsies have committed several thefts in Blackfoot county.

They were ordered to leave by Sheriff Sutton before the robberies were reported and none of them have been caught.

Three young men west of the city had $8 taken from the white van they were having their fortunes told.

At the village of Flat near here, one member of the band engaged the clerk in the village store in conversation, while others stole considerable merchandise.

Killed Man to Take Sweetheart Riding

Special to The Times.

HAMMOND, Ind., July 31.—Charles Cole, formerly of Marshalltown, Ia., is charged with the murder of a man who died in the Lake circuit court at Crown Point.

Cole was sentenced to life imprisonment for shooting Christopher Tasher, his employer, in cold blood.

He shot Tasher as he sat at a table because Tasher refused to let him take his automobile so that he could escort his sweetheart to the dance.

After killing Tasher, Cole took the automobile and attended the dance, declaring upon discovery that Tasher had committed suicide.

Trying Hard to Get First Division Here

Every possible influence is being brought to bear on the war department by the Indianapolis Chamber of Commerce to have the First division of the army moved from Camp Zachary Taylor at Louisville to Ft. Benjamin Harrison.

Gen. Charles Sumner, commander of the division, who was in Indianapolis today, stated that he has received formal orders to move the division to Camp Dix, in New Jersey.

Urgent telegrams were sent to New York, and Secretary of War, Woodrow Wilson, and Thomas Taggart, by John B. Reynolds, general secretary of the Chamber of Commerce.

Men, Women Rush to Kiss Prelate's Hand

NEW YORK, July 31.—A crowd which scores of policemen were unable to handle gathered at the White Star line today shortly before the battle ship sailed for Queensland, carrying Archbishop Mannix of Australia.

Men and women surrounded the prelate and despite the efforts of the policemen kept the crowd back by reaching forward, kissing the archbishop's ring and hand.

It was only with great difficulty that he was able to get through the mob around the gangplank and board the vessel.

2 Irish Cops Victims of Civilian Ambush

DUBLIN, July 31.—Two policemen were wounded and seriously when a small detachment was ambushed by civilians near Paddy Cross, in Tipperary, early today.

Arthur Griffith, active head of the Sinn Féin in the absence of E. DeValera, declared no peace overtures have been received by Dail Eireann (republican parliament), despite press reports to that effect.

"If the British government makes overtures for peace they will be dealt with in proper manner," said Griffith.

Circle Entertains Fourth Estate Men

More than fifty Indianapolis newspaper men were entertained at the Athenaeum last night by the management of the Circle theater.

Ralph Lieber, the new manager of the Circle, was introduced by Robert Lieber.

Let Lee expressed the appreciation of the guests.

Following a dinner "Go and Get It," a newspaper film drama full of thrills, was shown.

Flivver Turns a Flip

Clarence G. Orvitt, living at the Capitol hotel, is a taxi driver who knows how to make a flivver turn a flip.

Orvitt and his taxi turned a flip at Delaware and Michigan streets last night.

The driver was not hurt and the automobile was only slightly damaged by turning over.

Orvitt said he was dodging another car when his automobile turned over.

WATSON ASSAILS WILSON

By HORACE M. COATS,
Times Staff Correspondent.

TURKEY RUN STATE PARK, July 31.—Conspicuous by the absence of any reference to the Goodrich administration in the affairs of the state of Indiana, with the exception of a slight hint that the policies of James P. Goodrich could not be accepted by the republican party with the expectation of victory for Warren T. McCray in November, the forty-second annual summer outing of the Indiana Republican Editorial association came to a close late Friday afternoon after speeches by several prominent party leaders.

Despite the hot weather the shining lights of many of the state's foremost newspapers were here to attend the gathering.

ONLY ONE SURVIVING
CHAPTER MEMBERS.

One of the most enthusiastic and most interested of the members of the association who was present was M. W. Pershing, former publisher of the Tippecanoe, and now employed in the office of secretary of state in the automobile department.

Mr. Pershing is the only surviving chapter member of the association, and has never missed a meeting since the founding of the organization in 1878.

In his short address, Mr. Hancock, president of the association, said that the republican editors had pledged themselves to aid in a subscription campaign for the National Republican.

He also said that any paper that was having difficulty in obtaining print paper could obtain assistance by writing the president of the organization.

NATIONAL CHAIRMAN
ADDRESSES EDITORS.

Will H. Hays, republican national chairman, who made a flying trip from New York to attend the meeting, spoke a few words, in which he declared emphatically that the entire country is republican, and is "rarin' to go."

DOG HILL PARAGRAPHS

The Rye Straw storekeeper misplaced one of his customers the other day. The customer had started into the store, but at the same time the manager was sweeping and when the dust cleared away the customer was nowhere to be found. At first it was feared the stranger had been swept out.

Clab Hancock says he finds the best way for a person to get along good and to be of easy mind is to agree with everything everybody says about him, if it is so.

The editor of the Tickville Tidings says very few persons use enough periods nor use them soon enough in their talking.

New Julietta Head to Be Named Monday

The Marion county commissioners announced today that they would select on next Monday a successor to Dr. Loren S. Hyde, superintendent of Julietta Hospital for the insane.

Dr. Hyde, who, following a nervous breakdown, resigned as head of the institution, has been "under fire" since a report submitted by a former Marion county grand jury recommended his dismissal.

Detroit Murder Clew Regarded of No Value

The Indianapolis police for a time last night thought they had a hot clew to the Detroit murder mystery.

Chief Kinney received a telegram from Edward H. Fox, chief of detectives of the Detroit police department, saying that a man giving his name as Warren E. Burks, 1214 North Alabama street, declared that he had solved the trunk mystery and could show the place where the woman was killed.

On investigation the police found that Burks sold newspapers and that he is believed to be seeking notoriety.

Colored K. of P. Lodge Meets Here in 1921

Special to The Times.

MARION, Ind., July 31.—Ernest G. Tidlington, Evansville, was elected grand chancellor of the colored Knights of Pythias lodges of Indiana in the closing session here yesterday afternoon of the twenty-third annual state convention of the order.

Other officers elected were: Sanford Jackson, French Lick, vice grand chancellor; Campbell Upham, Terre Haute, grand keeper of records and seals; Rev. R. Kelley, Mt. Vernon, grand prelate; Joseph Rafter, Gary, grand lecturer; Dr. W. T. Canell, Terre Haute, grand medical registrar; J. H. Lott, Indianapolis, grand attorney; Arthur Smith, Marion, grand master at arms; George Young, Franklin, grand outer guard; George Tucker, Connersville, grand inner guard.

Mrs. Julia Reed of Indianapolis was elected grand worthy councillor of the Calanthe court of Indiana.

Indianapolis was selected for the 1921 meeting place.

An invitation has been extended to Frank A. Vanderlip, New York City, known internationally as a banker and social worker, to address both the Indianapolis Chamber of Commerce and the Junior Chamber of Commerce with speech in Indianapolis at the annual meeting of the National Municipal league, which will be held in November.

Mr. Vanderlip is treasurer of the National Municipal league, which will bring between 300 and 400 public-spirited men and women from over the entire country, including many of international note.
