

LABOR MAN SAYS RATES WILL NOT HIT CONSUMERS

Brotherhoods' Economist Attempts Defense of Big Wage Increases.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.—Any appreciable increase in the cost of living following the rise in railroad rates will be due to deliberate profiteering and not a legitimate consequence of the rate boost, W. Jewett Lauck, economist representing railroad labor organizations, declared here.

Lauck asserted that the public need not fear food and clothing will go up in price unless the freight rate increases are multiplied by four or five when passed on to the consumer.

"The great industries of this country," said Lauck, "could well afford to deduct from the price of their products this freight rate increase."

"Including all of the transportation costs entering into wholesale and retail prices, the maximum effect of the advance would be one cent a pound."

"On flour the increased cost at Philadelphia would be about 33 cents a barrel."

"On a suit of clothes made in the east and sold on the Pacific coast the added freight would be about 9 cents."

On coal, Lauck forecasted an increase of from 75 cents to $1.35 a ton.

Present indications, according to A. P. Thomas, counsel for the railroad executives, are that the new passenger and Pullman rates will become effective about Aug. 20, while freight, excess baggage and milk rates will take effect Aug. 25.

Railroad experts here today estimated the revenue to be raised under the new rates at approximately $1,283,000,000, of which $1,300,000,000 would come from freight, excess baggage and $253,000,000 from passenger fares.

OFFICIAL SPEAKS FOR OLD-TIME COMPETITION.

While preparations for making the rates effective are being completed, Harrison, president of the Southern, issued a statement declaring the time has now come for the railroads to cut rates through old-time private competition.

"The tremendous increase of railroad rates authorized by the I. C. C. seems to complete the cycle of government management of the railroad industry," said Harrison.

"It now remains for private management to resume the practice of competitive efficiency and self-reliant initiative to justify the preference of the American people for the free enterprise system by making possible not only the success of individual companies and the prosperity of their local employers, but a prosperous and progressive run of the nation."

Reliance on the co-operation and support of the public in the management of the Southern railway will make the effort.

INCREASES MAY MEAN 'REVELRY OF PRICES'

CHICAGO, Aug. 3.—The freight rate increase granted the railroads by the Interstate Commerce commission, may precipitate a revelry of high prices and high wages, according to Clifford Thorne, prominent attorney and transportation authority.

In an interview today Thorne commended the commission for its wiping out all "retentive capitalization" and tentatively fixing the value of the railroads, but declared that in the matter of rate adjustments the "commission has not been as candid as the public and interests of shippers as was the railroad administration."

"One very far reaching result of the decision may be economic," Thorne said.

"It will probably stop the movement recently inaugurated for reducing the prices of the necessities of life."

"It is possible the decision may precipitate a revelry of high prices and high wages," he said.

"Shippers should co-operate to the limit in the heavy loading and prompt release of cars."

"It is now up to the railroads to make good."

Thorne explained how the commission had gone about determining the value of the railroads.

"The commission has reduced the value of the railroads by more than $100,000,000 annually," he said.

MAKES OWN APPRAISAL.

"It has reduced this sum by more than $100,000,000."

"A reduction of $100,000,000 may seem small, but it is twice as great as the total amount involved in the advance rate case of 1910, twice as great as that involved in the celebrated '5 per cent case' of 1913, and sixteen times as great as that in the 'western advance rate case' of 1915."

"On the other hand, the commission has been very liberal to the carriers, granting 30 per cent of their claims."

"If one were to take the value of the property in the United States at the present market prices of their securities and add them to the government at the value fixed by the commission, he would make more than five billion dollars."

"At a time when railway securities are not worth more than 75 cents on the dollar, the commission has deliberately wiped out all retentive capitalization, and adopted as a value of our railroads a sum equivalent or equal to the par value plus more than one billion dollars."

Mrs. Cox Operating Own Motion Picture Camera Gift From Mrs. John R. McLean Will Be Used in Taking Views at Home.

DAYTON, Aug. 3.—Mrs. Cox, wife of Gov. James M. Cox, democratic presidential nominee, is going into the movies.

Today a professional camera man gave Mrs. Cox her first lesson in the operation of a moving picture camera.

It was a regular, honest to goodness movie camera, of the type used in many studios throughout the United States and it is the property of Mrs. Cox.

Mrs. John R. McLean, wife of the publisher of the Cincinnati Enquirer, gave it to Mrs. Cox not long ago when she and the governor were visiting in Cincinnati.

Mrs. Cox plans to make a number of pictures showing scenes at Trill's End, the Cox country place near Dayton, and Anne, her 8-month-old daughter, in to be the "leading lady" in most of them.

Gov. Cox will pass the greater part of the day at Trill's End, clearing up his correspondence.

No conferences are scheduled and the only relaxation the governor anticipates is possibly a horseback ride this evening and a plunge in the swimming pool afterward.

Letters and telegrams continue to pour in on the governor, many of them, he says, from independent republicans, "who are thoroughly dissatisfied with Senator Harding's speech of acceptance and his stand on the league of nations."

Preparations for handling a record-breaking crowd at Montgomery county fair grounds Saturday are going forward.

On at least three occasions crowds estimated at 75,000 have found their way into the big inclosure, namely, when William J. Bryan spoke there, during his first presidential campaign; when S. E. Goddard, secretary of the state executive committee, was there against his own record; when Dayton united in a monster celebration for the Wright brothers on their return from a successful flying demonstration in Europe.

This time, however, Daytonians expect all previous gatherings to be thrown into the shade, and the committee in charge of the notification ceremonies won't talk in figures of less than 100,000.

S. E. Goddard, secretary of the state executive committee, has announced that delegations from all over the state are sending in advance notices of their coming.

Many, he says, are from the Harding camp.

A delegation of 300 railroad men employed in the vicinity of Marion, Godden states, have sent word they plan to come to Dayton and march in the big parade in overall.

GOV. COX ACCEPTS SPEAKING BID.

DAYTON, Aug. 3.—Gov. Cox today accepted an invitation from Judge C. R. Latham of the Chicago Chamber of Commerce, to speak before that organization early in October.

AMUSEMENT CO. TO SPEND MORE

All Improvements at Own Risk, Says City.

Despite the announcement by the board of park commissioners that it intended to condemn and take over for public park purposes the tract of land now occupied by the Riverside Exhibition Company, just north of the east present section of Riverside park, officials of the company said today they planned to make extensive improvements.

The company increased its capital stock from $5,000 to $150,000 and announced the money would be spent upon improvements, including new buildings, a swimming pool, and in beautifying the grounds, of which there are twenty-five acres, leased by the company for twenty-five years last April.

Samuel E. Rath, member of the board of park commissioners, said the Riverside Amusement Company was notified that the park board intends to take over the land and that the company make improvements at its own risk.

Lewis A. Coleman, president of the amusement company, said he had no reason to believe that the park board would act immediately.

Prize Fighter Taken After Street Brawl

A little "affair" which occurred in the vicinity of the Union depot at 10 o'clock this morning resulted in the arrest of three persons, one of whom is Stewart Donnelly, 28, well-known local boxer.

"Stew" Donnelly is charged with assault and battery and disorderly conduct.

He gave his address as the Claypool hotel.

William Carswell, 40, of New York, who is a guest at the Hotel Edward, is charged with drunkenness.

Minnie Stewart, 25, of the Spencer House, is also charged with drunkenness.

vice president, and Chairman George White of the national committee are desired.

A spacious balcony or promenade with massive stone pillars and a beautiful cut stone railing extends along the side of the building, outside of headquarters.

Together with the skyline of the city it provides a splendid background for pictures.

Chairman White showed the balcony to Secretary Roosevelt and both posed for pictures.

For with it was nicknamed the "Studio," and three pictures of all the democratic big guns will be taken as they visit headquarters during the campaign.

CITY COUNCIL DECLINES TO BE SALARY GOAT

poked off on us about as long as we're going to stand for it."

"We want to make the south side 'no more'."

President Schmidt suggested that the members meet with Mr. Brown's committee and the Shelby street barn at a later date and go over the final details necessary to give the council information looking to action establishing the market.

This meeting will be held at 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon.

THE REQUEST AGAINST BROWN'S PROPOSAL.

After the delegation had departed Mr. Brown asked if the council thought it would not be the proper thing to invite the boards of public works and of public safety to send representatives to the meeting, since the boards would be charged with the administration of the market after it is established.

The request struck fire from President Schmidt immediately.

"If I were chairman of that committee I wouldn't ask the advice or help of any city department," said the president.

"The council has the power to establish that market without asking anybody."

Councilman William B. Peake suggested that it was proper to invite the boards of works, since that body would have to find some place else to house the city mules and equipment now stored in the Shelby street barn.

Peake said the board of works sent us word that if we'd vote them $100,000 they'd do that for us," snapped Mr. Schmidt.

Mr. Brown was not instructed to call for the presence of representatives of the two departments.

TRAFFIC DISCUSSION.

Following the discussion of the slipshod methods of increasing salaries Councilman Wilson spoke of the traffic situation, action by the council upon which he compared with the action on salaries.

"The city is in the midst of a boom and nothing will hold it back more or make it go forward steeper than unwise or wise action upon traffic problems, respectively," Mr. Wilson said.

He suggested that the chair appoint a permanent committee of three members to consider all traffic matters and to meet with the head of the traffic bureau of the police department at regular intervals.

The matter was not acted upon, individual members desiring time to think it over.

Action on the ordinance providing for one-way traffic on Meridian street was indefinitely postponed.

DESIRING CARS TO MAKE MORE STOPS.

Another traffic matter arose in the presentation by Councilman O. B. Pettiford of an ordinance which would provide that all street cars stop on both sides of street intersections at Pennsylvania and Washington streets, Washington and Illinois streets, Illinois and Georgia streets, Pennsylvania and Ohio streets, Ohio and Madison streets, College and Madison streets, Madison and Virginia streets, and Maryland street, upon signal from passengers, provided that the board of public works may order cars to stop on one side only at any of the above places if a sign so announcing is placed in a conspicuous position at the point.

Following brief speeches by Charles A. Bookwiler, William A. Kotchub, Robert W. McBride, commander of the Indiana department of the G. A. R., and Albert J. Ball, assistant adjutant of the Indiana department, the council suspended the rules and unanimously passed an ordinance appropriating $30,000 to help defray the expenses of the national encampment of the G. A. R.

ATTEMPTED THEFT OF A CAR.

An ordinance backed by persons interested in the prevention of automobile thefts was introduced.

This measure attacks the knotty problem by providing that all public garages, automobile repair and paint shops shall be licensed, and shall be required to report to the chief of police within twenty-four hours after receipt a complete description of every car stored or worked upon.

MANY GRIEVE AT HANLY'S DEATH

Nominee Harding Sends Condolences to Widow.

Expressions of condolence continued today to reach the family of J. Frank Hanly, former governor of Indiana and former candidate for president on the prohibition ticket, who was killed in an automobile accident in Ohio Sunday.

Mrs. Hanly received the following telegram from Warren G. Harding, republican nominee for the presidency:

"I have learned with unspeakable distress of the fatal accident to your husband, whom I highly esteemed."

"Please know how deeply I sympathize with you in your great sorrow."

"Family, with a nation have suffered a distinct loss."

Warren T. McCray, republican nominee for governor, sent the following message:

"I was both shocked and grieved to read of the tragic accident that has taken from life your beloved husband and my dear friend."

"His death removes one of the most vital and effective moral forces the state and nation has ever known, and a loss that can hardly be filled."

"In your great sorrow it must be comforting to know that he is spared long enough to enjoy his triumph over society's worst foe, toward which his wonderful energy and ability contributed so much."

"Please accept my sincere sympathy."

Mrs. Hanly received the following telegram from Frances P. Parks, secretary of the National Woman's Christian Temperance union:

"Officially of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union sorrow with you."

"God alone understands and will send comfort and help. Frances P. Parks."

Other messages were received from many city departments, said the president.

Mr. Dithmer will probably introduce the speaker. The July prize for good attendance will be awarded tomorrow.

Bailiff of Superior Court Better Report

Charles Dawson, bailiff of the superior court, room 5, today was reported much improved in health in Oklahoma City, where he suddenly became ill recently.

"Patients who were suffering from physical weakness, who foolishly thought they needed only a blood tonic to enrich the blood, have come for treatment from Birmingham, and in many cases the blood has been enriched and the patient has produced seemingly magical results."

"People who feel the heat of Summer, who are often tired and irritable and depressed and find Bittor-Phosphate an inexpensive and helpful friend."

Dr. Dawson explains that the wonderful increase in the demand from men and women who are anxious to renew old-time ambition, who are making the most of their lives, become vigorous and keen-minded with a power of endurance that denotes almost perfect health."

They ask for Bittor-Phosphate because they know they need an inexpensive organic phosphate.—Advertisement.

MOTHERHOOD WOMAN'S RIGHT

How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Helps to Make Women Normal.

Washington, Ind.—"I was in such a condition that I never expected to have children, and my aunt advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It improved my health and restored a normal condition to my system so that I now have a fine baby. Until she was about a year old I was very nervous, and all the time thinking something terrible was going to happen. If I tried any other coming, my heart would beat fast and I wanted to run. So I took the Vegetable Compound again and it helped me wonderfully. You may publish my letter, as the medicine is surely great."
