

MY HUSBAND'S FAVORITE RECIPE

COFFEE CAKE.
Two tablespoonsfuls of butter, one-half cup of sugar, one cup of milk, two scant cups of flour, two scant teaspoons of baking powder.

Melted—cream butter and sugar and add milk. Then sift in flour in which the baking powder has been mixed. There should be enough flour to make a soft dough.

An icing composed of one tablespoonful of butter and two tablespoonsfuls of sugar may be spread on the cake before baking, and a sprinkling of cinnamon shaken on it.

The cake should be baked in a moderately hot oven about twenty-five minutes.

MRS. WILLIAM H. HART.

631 East Drive, Woodruff Place, Indianapolis.

Mrs. Hart says the coffee cake is best served hot.

"It makes a delightful cake for luncheons and I have always found it a lovely cake," she said.
