

Society

June and October are generally considered to be the months favored by the bride, but this season August seems to be coming in for a goodly share of bridal festivities.

An interesting wedding was that of Miss Mary Vera Crosby, daughter of Mrs. Katherine Crosby, and Thomas Edward Clark, which occurred this morning at 9 o'clock in Holy Cross church.

The altar was banked with palms, baskets of pink blossoms and masses of ferns and greenery, and lighted by tapers set in the cathedral candelabra.

A program of bridal music was given by the church organist preceding the service, changing to the bridal chorus from "Lovingly" for the processional.

Miss Margaret Ball, maid of honor, wore an embroidered frock of pink crepe de chine combined with oriental lace, and a picture hat of black velvet. She carried an arm bouquet of pink roses.

Little Rosemary Clark, niece of the groom, in a dainty dress of white net over pink, carried a basket of pink rosebuds.

John Clark, brother of the groom, was best man; Jean Deiner and John William Crosby acted as ushers.

The bride's gown was of white crepe de chine, heavily embroidered, combined with tulle.

She wore a white panne velvet hat, trimmed with ostrich and carried a shower bouquet of bride roses and valley lilies.

Among the out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Smith of Chicago, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Smith of Lafayette, Mr. and Mrs. Berner of Chicago, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hall of Cincinnati.

Mr. and Mrs. Clark have gone on a motor trip to the lakes, the bride traveling in a French blue velvet suit with hat to match.

They will be at home after Sept. 15 at 123 Highland avenue.

An attractive wedding of last night was that of Miss Edith Ridgeway and Dr. Karl S. Gilchrist, which took place at the home of the bride's parents, Dr. and Mrs. O. W. Ridgeway, 1642 Park avenue.

French baskets of summer blossoms in blue and yellow shades combined with feathery fern and sunflowers were used through the parlor and were arranged to form an altar, before which Dr. T. W. Grafton, of the Third Christian church, read the service.

A program of bridal music was given by Miss Louise Kirtley.

Mrs. Arthur J. Perry, matron of honor, wore her wedding gown of white tulle, embroidered in pearls, and carried an arm bouquet of Mrs. Aaron Ward roses and delphinium.

Miss Eleanor Thoms, in blue tulle, and Miss Ethel Swartz, in yellow tulle, carried arm bouquets of Mrs. Aaron Ward roses, the bridesmaids.

Little Janet Eberhardt and Betty Ridgeway, as the flower girls, wore white organdie and carried French baskets of roses.

Master Arthur Gordon Perry, in a suit of black velvet, carried the ring in a lily.

Dr. Harry Jones, a Psi Omega fraternity brother of the bridegroom, acted as best man.

The bride wore a gown of white tulle, combined with silver and gold, and carried a shower bouquet of bride roses and lilies of the valley.

Dr. and Mrs. Krier left yesterday for a trip on the Great Lakes and will be at home after Oct. 1 in the Peter Pan apartments.

The marriage of Miss Tillie Kroeger and Paul E. Krier was solemnized yesterday in St. Patrick's church, Rev. A. E. Fisher, officiating.

The ceremony was banked with ferns and masses of flowers in soft pastel shades.

Miss Hermandine Kroeger, sister of the bride, as maid of honor, wore pink chiffon trimmed with silver lace, and carried an arm bouquet of pink rose buds.

George L. Krier, brother of the bridegroom, was best man, with Leo X. Smith and Carl Schulteis as ushers.

The bride wore a frock of white Georgette crepe, combined with lace and pears and a veil of lace, and she carried a shower bouquet of bride roses.

A wedding breakfast was served after the ceremony at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herman H. Kroeger.

Dr. George L. MacIntosh, president of Wabash college, read the service.

A program of wedding music was given by Mrs. Harold Antrim, vocalist, and Mrs. F. B. Lambert, pianist.

Nathan C. Redding, brother of the bridegroom, acted as best man.

Mrs. H. L. Welch, sister of the bride, as matron of honor, wore her wedding gown of beaded Georgette crepe, and carried sunburst roses.

Miss Virginia Kingsbury, bridesmaid.

Dr. and Mrs. Krier left yesterday for a trip to Chicago and northern Michigan and will be at home in Indianapolis on their return.

Masses of aster and garden flowers in pastel shades set against a background of ferns, combined with ropes of smilax, made an attractive setting for the wedding of Miss Helen Lambert and Herbert E. Redding, which took place last night at the home of the bride's parents, Dr. and Mrs. J. A. Lambert, 2822 North New Jersey street.

Dr. George L. MacIntosh, president of Wabash college, read the service.

A program of wedding music was given by Mrs. Harold Antrim, vocalist, and Mrs. F. B. Lambert, pianist.

Nathan C. Redding, brother of the bridegroom, acted as best man.

NEGLIGEE FOR THE MOTORIST.

To slip into after the long ride when one is at last allowed the luxury of "freshening up"—comes this dainty negligee that takes so small a part in the motorist's bag, but plays so great a one in her comfort!

A dounce of lace in fillet pattern, ecru colored, is gathered over the shoulders and caught together at the front where it fastens.

A camisole of the same lace makes a foundation for the jacket.

Thin rosebuds and pink ribbon give the finishing touches.

was in turquoise blue satin with tulle overdress and her flowers were Russell roses.

Miss Dorothy Lambert, little sister of the bride, flower maid, wore a frock of ruffled net, and carried the ring in a basket of pink roses.

The bride's gown was of white lace fashioned with a bodice of white tulle, heavily embroidered, and she carried a shower bouquet of bride roses and lilies of the valley.

Among the out-of-town guests were Wyatt Wood of Chicago, Mrs. Donald Riddle of Denver, Mrs. V. S. Braun and Mrs. Maggie Barber of Greenwood, Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Lambert and son Jack of Clarkburg, W. Va., and Mrs. H. H. Brewer and Mrs. Hattie Brewer of Whitehall, Miss Hazel Burke of Rockville and Dr. and Mrs. W. S. Wood of Greencastle.

Mr. and Mrs. Redding have gone on a trip and will be at home after Oct. 1 at 2209 Broadway.

Girls of Kappa Kappa Gamma entertained last night with a house boat party at Broad Ripple.

Mr. and Mrs. Carlin Shank and family, Shadeland avenue and Thirtieth street, have returned from a motor trip through the east, where they stopped at Niagara Falls, Atlantic City and New York.

Mr. and Mrs. K. D. Henderson and daughter, Dorothy, 2309 Hazel street, who have been on a trip, through Virginia, have returned home.

Miss Agnes Hodgkin, 3645 College avenue, who has been studying in the New

Cut Spuds Price; Now in Hospital

CHICAGO, Aug. 25.—Morris Turf, grocer, lowered potato prices 10 cents a peck and yesterday he directed business from the hospital.

His physically active competitors, felt he should have consulted them.

England Conservatory of Music in Boston, for several months, has returned home.

She will leave the first of October for a concert tour through the west.

Miss Esther Knox of Lafayette is spending several days with friends in the city.

Miss Myra Allison, 2823 Sutherland avenue, has returned from Terre Haute, where she attended a house party.

Mrs. Myron C. Green and son, Harold, are spending the summer months in Denver.

Miss Mary Hillman of Vincennes is the guest of Mrs. B. W. Heaton, Carrollton avenue and Forty-fourth street.

Miss Helen Deirdre and Miss May Helmar of Terre Haute, and Mrs. E. A. Gould of Peru were visitors at the League of Women Voters headquarters yesterday.

Mrs. C. D. Fellows, 2246 Kenwood avenue, will be the hostess for the meeting of the Mother Correspondence club tomorrow afternoon.

Mrs. E. F. Ellis of Norfolk, Va., founder of the organization, will talk on her work in the naval Y. M. C. A.

M. A. Jacobs, 705 Orange street, will leave Monday for New York city, where he will be the guest of his brother, John Jacobs.

Service Star Legion Discusses Convention

Hamilton Berry chapter of the Service Star Legion held a meeting yesterday in the green parlors of the Y. W. C. A.

The main topic of the afternoon was the national convention, which will be held in Des Moines Sept. 14 to 17.

Mrs. Frank Kessler, Mrs. Julia Henderson and Mrs. Ralph Kennington will attend the convention as official delegates of the chapter, together with Mrs. Bruce Maxwell, as chairman of the marketing committee, and Mrs. M. A. Hutchinson, as chairman of sisters of the national executive board.

Reports of the work in the City and Methodist hospitals was given by Mrs. Charles Allison and Mrs. L. G. Swan.

Visits among former service men have been made twice a week by the women and the work has been progressing satisfactorily, they stated.

Pythian Sisters Meet

Irrington Needle club, Pythian Sisters No. 411, will meet with Mrs. J. A. Moore, 3217 East Washington street, Friday.

The club meetings have been changed from the first and third Friday in the months to the first and third Tuesday.

MY HUSBAND'S FAVORITE RECIPE

CREAM PIE
Ingredients for crust—Two cups of flour, one-half cup of shortening and enough water to make a soft dough.

Roll out very thin on a floured board, and place in an ungreased pie pan.

Ingredients for filling—Two eggs, two tablespoonfuls of flour, one-half cup of sugar and two cups of milk.

Mix the yolks of the eggs, the flour, the sugar and the milk, and place in the crust.

Then beat the whites of the eggs very stiff, and beat in two tablespoonfuls of sugar and spread over the pie filling.

Bake pie in moderately hot oven until brown.

The crust for the recipe makes enough for two pies, and the filling for one.

MRS. E. O. THOMPSON, 2203 North Capitol avenue, Indianapolis.

"Mrs. Thompson says this recipe makes a very fine pie, and her family considers it the best kind she has ever had."

"It certainly is delicious," she declares. The Times will be glad to print YOUR husband's favorite recipe. Address Recipe Editor, Daily Times.

Mrs. Housewife, Can You Answer?

DO YOU KNOW—X.
1. How long first came to eat spinach?
2. The secret of cooking green corn on the cob?
3. To make china dishes and earthenware so that they will withstand hot liquids without cracking?

(These questions will be answered tomorrow by the Housekeeper.)

ANSWERS TO YESTERDAY'S QUESTIONS.
1. The apple is not a native of North America, but was introduced in 1620 to

SAY "DIAMOND DYES"

Don't streak or ruin your material in a poor dye. Insist on "Diamond Dyes." Easy directions in every package.

GIRLS! LEMONS BLEACH; WHITEN

Make Lemon Lotion to Double Beauty of Your Skin

Squeeze the juice of two lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of Orchard White which can be had at any drug store, shake well and you have a quarter pint of harmless and delightful lemon bleach for few cents.

Massage this sweetly fragrant lotion into the face, neck, arms and hands each day, then shortly note the beauty of your skin.

Famous stage beauties use lemon juice to bleach and bring that soft, clear, fair-white complexion. Lemons have always been used as a freckle, sunburn and tan remover. Make this up and try it.—Advertisement.

Massachusetts by the governor of that colony from England. The so-called wild crab apples of this country are an escape from cultivation. No apples of any sort were growing here when the white man first landed.

2. The best way to prepare hard boiled eggs for slicing or garnishing is to boil for twenty minutes or more and dash in cold water. When thoroughly cooled roll on the table with a pressure of the hand, cracking the shell all over the egg. It can now be peeled off with the underskin without marring the egg itself.

3. An easy way to mend a hole in a muslin curtain is to cut a piece of muslin slightly larger than the hole, wring it out of cold water starch, and while damp lay it over the hole. Cover with a cloth and press with a hot iron. When dry remove the cloth carefully and press again. Repeat when the curtain is washed.

Hostesses Named for Registration

Hostesses for the registration booths have been appointed by the organization committee of the League of Women Voters.

They will include Mrs. Allan T. Fleming, Miss Olga Schellhammer, Miss Minnie E. Mason, Miss Adele Stork, Mrs. W. E. Jeffery, Mrs. Alta Delaney, Mrs. Ella Groninger, Mrs. David Ross, Mrs. O. C. Lukens, Mrs. E. E. Kuhns.

Mrs. B. S. Gadd will be chairman of the south side hostesses and Mrs. Ira Holmes has been named to direct the activities of the north side hostesses.

Drop into our store for your copy. Full of pithy descriptions and beautiful illustrations of Edison Phonograph Cabinets.

Seventeen models—every one a "furniture aristocrat." Prices no higher than you pay for nondescript cabinets!

The EDISON SHOP
Adapt Music Co.,
122 N. Penn. St.,
Opposite
Reit's.

Yours for the asking

The Girls' Shop

All-Wool Regulation Suits

At Prices Difficult to Duplicate

The costume most correct for the schoolgirl is happily that which is staple and at once delightfully youthful—the regulation middle suit. We have a number of such suits, like those pictured, at remarkable valuations; such prices will be yours, however, only while this supply lasts, for new shipments can not duplicate the present markings.

In the well made Simpson suits the following models are shown:

A two-piece middie suit of navy blue, possesses a smartly plaited skirt, while the blouse is neatly finished with white braid and red regulation embroidery. The material is all wool. Sizes 8, 10 and 12 are priced at $22.50, while those 14 and 16 are marked $25.00.

A very trim model is the straightline regulation dress with generous plaits and a belt of self material. The effect is girlish and tailored. Navy blue and a few black and white checks. Sizes 7 to 12 marked $19.50; size 14, $21.50. The checks are included in the first pricing.

A pleasing suit is shown in the two-piece model with the rolled cuff at the bottom of the blouse; the collar is white braid trimmed and embroidered. The skirt is plaited both in back and front, the plain sides affording convenient pockets where pencils and erasers and such necessary equipment may be stored. Sizes 8 to 14, priced, $19.75.

The straightline model in the Jack Tar style is of good quality men's wear serge. It's every bit regulation—to embroidery and braid. Sizes 7 to 14, priced $19.75.

Prices Especially Appealing

The Palmer regulation suits, in cadet blue, are priced from $5.95 to $8.95.

One special straightline, all-wool, regulation serge suit, in sizes 7 to 14, is priced $13.75.

—Ayres—Fifth floor.

Jack Tar Models

A pleasing suit is shown in the two-piece model with the rolled cuff at the bottom of the blouse; the collar is white braid trimmed and embroidered. The skirt is plaited both in back and front, the plain sides affording convenient pockets where pencils and erasers and such necessary equipment may be stored. Sizes 8 to 14, priced, $19.75.

The straightline model in the Jack Tar style is of good quality men's wear serge. It's every bit regulation—to embroidery and braid. Sizes 7 to 14, priced $19.75.

Prices Especially Appealing

The Palmer regulation suits, in cadet blue, are priced from $5.95 to $8.95.

One special straightline, all-wool, regulation serge suit, in sizes 7 to 14, is priced $13.75.

—Ayres—Fifth floor.

Jack Tar Models

A pleasing suit is shown in the two-piece model with the rolled cuff at the bottom of the blouse; the collar is white braid trimmed and embroidered. The skirt is plaited both in back and front, the plain sides affording convenient pockets where pencils and erasers and such necessary equipment may be stored. Sizes 8 to 14, priced, $19.75.

The straightline model in the Jack Tar style is of good quality men's wear serge. It's every bit regulation—to embroidery and braid. Sizes 7 to 14, priced $19.75.

Prices Especially Appealing

The Palmer regulation suits, in cadet blue, are priced from $5.95 to $8.95.

One special straightline, all-wool, regulation serge suit, in sizes 7 to 14, is priced $13.75.

—Ayres—Fifth floor.

Jack Tar Models

A pleasing suit is shown in the two-piece model with the rolled cuff at the bottom of the blouse; the collar is white braid trimmed and embroidered. The skirt is plaited both in back and front, the plain sides affording convenient pockets where pencils and erasers and such necessary equipment may be stored. Sizes 8 to 14, priced, $19.75.

Open At 8:30

L. S. AYRES & Co.

Close At 5:00

Among the Necessary School Accessories

The Girls' Shop

All-Wool Regulation Suits

At Prices Difficult to Duplicate

The costume most correct for the schoolgirl is happily that which is staple and at once delightfully youthful—the regulation middle suit. We have a number of such suits, like those pictured, at remarkable valuations; such prices will be yours, however, only while this supply lasts, for new shipments can not duplicate the present markings.

In the well made Simpson suits the following models are shown:

A two-piece middie suit of navy blue, possesses a smartly plaited skirt, while the blouse is neatly finished with white braid and red regulation embroidery. The material is all wool. Sizes 8, 10 and 12 are priced at $22.50, while those 14 and 16 are marked $25.00.

A very trim model is the straightline regulation dress with generous plaits and a belt of self material. The effect is girlish and tailored. Navy blue and a few black and white checks. Sizes 7 to 12 marked $19.50; size 14, $21.50. The checks are included in the first pricing.

A pleasing suit is shown in the two-piece model with the rolled cuff at the bottom of the blouse; the collar is white braid trimmed and embroidered. The skirt is plaited both in back and front, the plain sides affording convenient pockets where pencils and erasers and such necessary equipment may be stored. Sizes 8 to 14, priced, $19.75.

The straightline model in the Jack Tar style is of good quality men's wear serge. It's every bit regulation—to embroidery and braid. Sizes 7 to 14, priced $19.75.

Prices Especially Appealing

The Palmer regulation suits, in cadet blue, are priced from $5.95 to $8.95.

One special straightline, all-wool, regulation serge suit, in sizes 7 to 14, is priced $13.75.

—Ayres—Fifth floor.

Jack Tar Models

A pleasing suit is shown in the two-piece model with the rolled cuff at the bottom of the blouse; the collar is white braid trimmed and embroidered. The skirt is plaited both in back and front, the plain sides affording convenient pockets where pencils and erasers and such necessary equipment may be stored. Sizes 8 to 14, priced, $19.75.

The straightline model in the Jack Tar style is of good quality men's wear serge. It's every bit regulation—to embroidery and braid. Sizes 7 to 14, priced $19.75.

Prices Especially Appealing

The Palmer regulation suits, in cadet blue, are priced from $5.95 to $8.95.

One special straightline, all-wool, regulation serge suit, in sizes 7 to 14, is priced $13.75.

—Ayres—Fifth floor.

Jack Tar Models

A pleasing suit is shown in the two-piece model with the rolled cuff at the bottom of the blouse; the collar is white braid trimmed and embroidered. The skirt is plaited both in back and front, the plain sides affording convenient pockets where pencils and erasers and such necessary equipment may be stored. Sizes 8 to 14, priced, $19.75.

The straightline model in the Jack Tar style is of good quality men's wear serge. It's every bit regulation—to embroidery and braid. Sizes 7 to 14, priced $19.75.

Prices Especially Appealing

The Palmer regulation suits, in cadet blue, are priced from $5.95 to $8.95.

One special straightline, all-wool, regulation serge suit, in sizes 7 to 14, is priced $13.75.

—Ayres—Fifth floor.

Jack Tar Models

A pleasing suit is shown in the two-piece model with the rolled cuff at the bottom of the blouse; the collar is white braid trimmed and embroidered. The skirt is plaited both in back and front, the plain sides affording convenient pockets where pencils and erasers and such necessary equipment may be stored. Sizes 8 to 14, priced, $19.75.

The straightline model in the Jack Tar style is of good quality men's wear serge. It's every bit regulation—to embroidery and braid. Sizes 7 to 14, priced $19.75.

Charming Desk Sets

The college girl's at home life centers around her desk, though it may be she keeps her chafing dish there, too, and a pretty desk set is consequently brim full of importance.

The stationery department is displaying a most attractive assortment of desk sets. Rose, light blue and gold are combined daintily with ivory celluloid, thus allowing the proud owner to keep her desk set invitingly clean. Each set consists of a pad, ink well, letter rack, blotter, pen wiper and calendar. The two sizes are priced most reasonably at $6.00 and $7.50.

The much needed fountain pens and Eversharp pencils may also be purchased here, and, oh, we're not speaking of the all-important stationery the away-at-school girl will certainly desire.

—Ayres—Street floor.

Action, Comfort and Corsets

From a pink tea to a tennis game, such is the varied life of the college and schoolgirl, and for such extremes she must prepare. It is essential that the corset fit the occasion, admit action and afford comfort. Such is the capacity of the Gossard junior model and the elastic girle.

Of pink and white batiste are the front lace Gossard corsets demanded for the schoolgirl. The misses' sizes are also popularly worn. Priced from $3.50 up.

Elastic girdles are wonderfully flexible and durable, just the thing for the vigorous hockey match. The answer to the action query is found here. Priced from $3.75 upward.

Dainty lace and satin bandeaux, both back and front fastening are shown for the go-away lady. At $1.50 and higher.

—Ayres—Third floor.

Jack Tar Models

A pleasing suit is shown in the two-piece model with the rolled cuff at the bottom of the blouse; the collar is white braid trimmed and embroidered. The skirt is plaited both in back and front, the plain sides affording convenient pockets where pencils and erasers and such necessary equipment may be stored. Sizes 8 to 14, priced, $19.75.

The straightline model in the Jack Tar style is of good quality men's wear serge. It's every bit regulation—to embroidery and braid. Sizes 7 to 14, priced $19.75.

Prices Especially Appealing

The Palmer regulation suits, in cadet blue, are priced from $5.95 to $8.95.

One special straightline, all-wool, regulation serge suit, in sizes 7 to 14, is priced $13.75.