A jolly party of fraternity folk, armed with plenty of rice and an old shoe or two, went en masse over to Anderson last night to attend the wedding of Miss Winifred Schuler and Frank Stanley Selick, which took place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Schuler.

The bride is a member of the Butler chapter of Delta Delta Delta, and Mr. Selick is affiliated with the Delta Tau Delta fraternity.

The group of "Deltas" and "Tri Deltas" who attended included Miss Helen Barry, Miss Elizabeth Cooper, Miss Miriam Weir, Miss Dorothy White, Miss Josephine Latham, Miss Elizabeth Harris, Miss Marian Bredhoff, Miss Dorothy Bowser, Miss Elizabeth Frost and Miss Margaret Yeagley. Layman Schell, James Simms Price, Mullane, George Smith and William Koeber.

An interesting feature of the wedding was the fact that the Rev. Cary McCallum of Australia, who read the service, was a fraternity brother and classmate of the bride's parents.

Miss Helen McDonald, a sorority sister of the bride, was her only attendant, an Hon. Schuler, brother of the bride, acted as best man.

Branches of pine, an emblem of Delta Delta Delta, combined with flowers of yellow and blue, carried out the sorority idea.

Miss McDonald wore a white veil and a pink dress.

The bride's gown was of white georgette crepe combined with French lace. She carried a shower of Mrs. Aar Ward roses.

Mr. and Mrs. Selick left last night for Cleveland and the Great Lakes.

On their return they will be at home at the Spink apartments on East Washington street.

An attractive wedding of last night was that of Miss Teko Roberts and Clarence J. Catt, which took place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Grant Roberts, 324 East New York street, Rev. F. Davidson of the Englewood Christian church officiating.

Baskets of pink and white blossoms combined with sunflowers and masses of greenery were used through the rooms. Mrs. Herbert Hiner, vocalist, and Mrs. Claude Kinder, pianist, gave the program of bridal music.

Harold Hiner acted as best man, with Miss Edith Cunningham as maid of honor and Miss Elizabeth Cunningham as ring-bearer.

Miss Cunningham wore pink Georgette crepe over pink satin and carried a shower of pink roses.

The little ring bearer was dressed in a dainty frock of white ruffled net and carried the ring in a white lily.

The bride's gown was of white crepe georgette, fashioned with an overdress of French lace.

Her veil was arranged cap effect with French lace and held in place with lace hair pins and a shower of white bouquet of valley lilies and bride roses.

Among the out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Foy Weaver of Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Roberts of Napoleon and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Catt of Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. Catt have gone on a lake trip and will be home after Sept. 1 at 510 North Alabama street.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl L. Rost, 2015 Central avenue, will motor to Columbus, Ind., to join their daughter, Helen, who has been visiting relatives there.

White hydrangeas were effectively used in the table decorations for the luncheon given in honor of Mrs. Lake Ross in the dining room of the Merchants' Light and Heat Company yesterday.

Christ church was the scene of a pretty wedding last night when Miss Anna Heisel, daughter of Mrs. Edna Heisel, 2716 Shriver avenue, was united in marriage to Walker Montague of Detroit.

A program of bridal music was played by the church organist, including the bridal chorus from Lohengrin for the processional.

Miss Frieda Heisel, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and Stanton Montague, brother of the bridegroom, acted as best man.

Miss Heisel wore a shell pink frock of embroidered crepe de chine with a transparent hat of pink georgette crepe, and carried an arm bouquet of pink roses.

The bride wore a handsome gown of white Barone satin combined with georgette crepe, fashioned with embroidered panels, caught in with a silk cord, and a veil of lace held in place by a wreath of lilies of the valley.

Her bouquet was a shower of bride roses and valley lilies.

A reception followed the ceremony, held at the home of the bride's mother, where hydrangeas and asters carried out the color scheme of pink and white.

Assisting in the dining room were the members of the Alpha Chi Psi sorority, of which the bride is president.

Among the out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Studebaker of Cambr, Mrs. Daniel Howes of Jacksonville, Fla., and Mr. and Mrs. James Heisel of Plainfield.

Mrs. Housewife, Can You Answer?

DO YOU KNOW—X.

1. What common vegetable was first grown in South America, but was not used in North America for many years after it had been cultivated in Europe?

2. The best way to freshen salt fish?

3. A good way to peel onions without shedding tears?

(These questions will be answered tomorrow by the Housekeeper.)

ANSWERS TO YESTERDAY'S QUESTIONS.

1. Spinach was first cultivated and eaten in Asia and was brought to Europe by the Arabs by way of Spain.

2. If you want to have corn on the cob tender, never salt the water in which it is cooked. The water should be actively boiling and the corn should not be cooked more than twenty minutes.

3. To make china dishes and earthenware so that they will withstand hot liquids without cracking, place in a pan of cold water and fill with cold water. Bring gradually to the boil. Cool gradually.

Beautiful Curly, Wavy Hair—In Three Hours

Girls, have you tried the silmerine method of curling your hair? It's simply grand! Gives you the most beautiful, natural-looking curls and waves within three hours—keeps the hair soft, silky and glossy—and nothing harmful or messy about it. The curls will last the longest time—in spite of heat, wind or dampness. You won't have to be continually fixing and fussing with loose, drying hair. It's foolish to sludge and bluster and deaden your tresses with a hot curling iron—and altogether unnecessary now.

Liquid silmerine is pleasant to use, being neither sticky nor greasy. Get a bottle from your druggist today, follow the simple directions—the first trial will make it your steadfast friend.—Advertisement.

COST PENDULUM SWINGING BACK

Further Declines Due, Says Chicago Distributor.

CHICAGO, Aug. 26.—The food price pendulum has started the return swing and before the resting point is reached further living cost declines will be measured, food dealers here declared today.

"Prices will reach still lower levels," said Westerfield, chairman of the executive committee of retail food distributors here, declared today.

"Possibly there will be exceptions, but foodstuffs in general will go down," he said, predicting the downward tendency would be felt in grain, leather goods and clothing materials.

Green corn, carrots, beets and other fresh vegetables are from 25 per cent to 50 per cent below the peak price, he said. "This should be reflected in grains."

Calf skins which were 95 cents a pound now sell at 30 and 21 cents, and this should influence leather products.

"Meat prices have not been lowered, but they should soon feel the lower grain prices prevailing."

"Reported closing down of clothing factories and other industries should affect prices considerably within a short time."

The downward way of the food pendulum was forced by curtailment of credit by the federal reserve board; seasonal conditions making the supply greater than the demand and propaganda conducted against high costs, Westerfield said.

"However, it remains to be seen whether lower prices are to act as a benefit as a whole," Westerfield warned, pointing out "lower prices necessarily make less production and thus less employment."

"This has not been felt, at least only to a minor degree, but the influx of workers and a tendency to glut the employment market because of closing factories is not a healthy condition."

Ask Board Why They Dismissed Teachers

A letter to the city school board asking that the board give to the teachers who have been dismissed and put on half year contracts a satisfactory explanation for such action, has been framed and sent by the education committee of the League of Women Voters.

The teachers themselves have asked the board for reasons, but their letters have been ignored, and the league women feel that there is an unfortunate misunderstanding between the school officials and the instructors which should be cleared away.

A number of additional registrations have been named by Miss Alma Sickler, including Mrs. Felix T. McWhirter, Mrs. H. G. Blume, Mrs. W. D. Bobbitt, Mrs. A. E. Evans, Mrs. W. T. Brown, Mrs. George Buck, Mrs. Joseph Byrkit and Mrs. George Patterson.

Library Notes

Reports from the West Indianapolis branch library show twice as many adult readers this summer as there were last.

The cool weather, causing folks to stay at home, and the large number of new books received at the branch, may be factors in the reading increase.

VETERAN ACTOR SEEKS FRIEND

Former Indianapolis Man Revives Memories by Visit.

William L. Richmond, veteran actor, who made his stage debut forty years ago at the old Academy of Music in this city as a "call boy" with F. G. White, well remembered by older citizens of Indianapolis, is a guest at the Hotel Severin.

He comes to live over again some of his former theatrical triumphs.

Mr. Richmond has been trying to locate the old home haunt of F. G. White who, back in the seventies and early eighties, ranked with the late Joe Jefferson as a character actor.

As a student under Mr. White, Richmond attained variable success in the old plays of "Rip Van Winkle," "Josh Whitcomb," and as Col. Mulberry Sellers in Mark Twain's dramatized story, "The Glided Age."

The F. G. White home formerly stood on old Huron street, now Lexington avenue, near Virginia avenue, as Mr. Richmond recalls it.

The veteran theatrical man is here from his ranch near Stevenson, Wash., after many years' absence.

He is spending the summer at his old home at Crawfordville, and expects to go east with a view to interesting theatrical promoters in a revival of "Rip Van Winkle" and "Josh Whitcomb."

Mr. Richmond was with the veteran actor White when he was stricken with apoplexy at Deatur, Mich., back in the eighties, while White was playing the Col. Sellers in Mark Twain's noted story.

Richmond believes the time is ripe for a revival of the old-time comedy dramas which made the fame of Joseph Jefferson and John T. Raymond.

"I've been looking the old town over," said Mr. Richmond, "and can find few of the old landmarks."

"I wonder if the next forty years will bring improvements as fast as the last forty years have brought them."

Formerly even costly, as summer frocks go, and embracing all remaining of the very loveliest things in organdie, voile, Swiss, and the like. Distinctive stylings and correct embellishment.

Novelties in Jewelry

The array of novelty jewelry is vast and bewildering, yet always certain objects stand out pleasingly as better-than-usual and prettier-than-usual attractions.

Also conspicuous amidst novelty jewelry just now are the cunning Floradora bracelets. These are of a small black silk cord, having pendant ends bearing whimsical little good luck emblems. Truly novel and undoubtedly charming are these silken bracelets. Priced at from 75¢ to $1.65.
