

CITY SANDLOT TITLE HOLDERS GET SET FOR BIG CONTEST WITH STAR NINE FROM KENTUCKY

AMATEUR BALL LEADERS MEET HERE SATURDAY

Louisville Champs Coming for National Play With Premiers at Tribe Park.

LOCAL OUTFIT STRONG

For the first time in the history of the National baseball federation a national amateur championship game will be played on an Indianapolis diamond Saturday afternoon, when the Premier Motors, champions of the I. A. B. A. meet the Kentucky city champs, at Washington park in the first round of the 1920 series.

The terminals were also the 1919 champions of Louisville. The club is composed of veteran ball tossers and they are determined to make the Indianapolis title holders step some to pass them in the Washington park battle.

They have played through the season in the Falls City division of the Louisville Industrial loop with a record of fourteen victories and no defeats, and lost their only game of the season in the playoff for the championship of the city with the Southern Lights. They capped the last game of this series, 1 to 0, in fifteen innings.

SCHEDULE FOR ARRIVE FRIDAY

The Louisville team will arrive in Indianapolis Friday noon and will hold a light practice on the Indian ball ground during the afternoon, so as to acquaint themselves with the lay of the land. The Premier will also have a light practice on the Washington street lot one afternoon this week.

The Premier have a record for the season that is every bit as attractive as that of the Louisville champions. They have played through the season with a record of but two defeats, and easily defeated the Morris Street Methodists in the final game of the title series.

As far as individual stars are concerned, it is doubtful if the southerners have anything on the Indianapolis club, which is composed of players who have been listed with the best in Indiana for the past few years. The Louisville team, former Brooklyn hurler, probably will be on the ball for the Premier, with Earl Schaefer behind the plate, and the combination will be the following lineup: Harry Hansen, first base; "Red" Steinmetz, second base; Harry Barnhart, short; Charlie Schaefer, third base; George Broughton, left field; Capt. Johnny Galen, center field; and Nedman, right field. Adams and Nedman will be ready to relieve Brown of his mound duties if he shows the least signs of weakness.

The Premier are heavy clubbers, the weakest hitter for the season being Steinmetz, who averages .248, and the strongest being Gray, who clouted the pill for a .437 average.

W. Walter Jarvis, president of the I. A. B. A., is preparing a grand welcome for the visitors. Before the game Saturday afternoon both teams and the officers of the Indianapolis, Louisville and National Amateur associations will parade through the downtown district.

Tickets for the game have been placed on sale at all local sporting goods stores. The price of admission will be 50 cents, and it is believed that every fan who has followed the amateur games during the season will be willing enough to "kick through" for the big game.

Beam's Bowling League
Organized; Harkenrider
Is in Charge of Alleys

The final organization meeting of Beam's bowling league No. 1 and 2 was held last night. Both leagues are to be entered in the Indianapolis association and the officers are being chosen as two of the strongest outfits in the city.

Harkenrider, former manager of the Central alleys, has been placed in charge of Beam's establishment for the bowling season.

League No. 1 includes the following teams: Times, Ooltich, Storer, South Side, Williamson, Candler, One Hinder, Wadley Company, Kreis Transfers, Coca-Cola, Brunswick, Thompsons and the W. L. E. T. The officers are: Harry Kreis, president; Albert Evans, vice-president; and Harry Schaefer, secretary-treasurer.

League No. 2 is formed of the following teams: Brunswick, Times, South Side, Coca-Cola, No. 2, Franklin Motors, Jones Five, Pennington, Little, Clara, Jackson, Manning, and the W. L. E. T. The officers are: Harry Kreis, president; Albert Evans, vice-president; and Harry Schaefer, secretary-treasurer.

Dempsey Is Liberal
RENTON HARBOR, Mich., Sept. 8.—When Jack Dempsey and his party arrived to the train yesterday and piled aboard, Mrs. Fitzsimmons, wife of the promoter of the Dempsey-Dillon match, got the surprise of her life.

"What are you going to do with your car?" she inquired of the champion.

"Drive it home; it's yours," chirped Jack.

And Mrs. Fitzsimmons piled into a valuable car—a beautiful gift from the champion.

SEWELL TO CLEVELAND.
NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 8.—After extensive negotiations, Joe Sewell, a shortstop obtained by the New Orleans Southern association club from the University of Alabama, left here Tuesday to join the Cleveland club, to which he has been sold.

Bloomers Cop Three-1
Flag Two Times in Row

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., Sept. 8.—For the second consecutive time since the reorganization of the Three-1 league Bloomington won the pennant by defeating Moline in the final game of the season.

Manager Joe Dunn's team has played consistent ball all season.

Other teams finished in the following order: Evansville, Rockford, Cedar Rapids, Moline, Peoria, Terre Haute, Rock Island.

One Foreign Player Only Stays in Golf Tourney at Roslyn

Excellent Matches Promised in Second Round of Amateur Title Event.

ROSLYN, L. I., Sept. 8.—With the field reduced to sixteen stars, play was resumed today on the Engineers' club course in the second round for the national amateur golf championship. Weather conditions were ideal and some fine matches were looked for.

J. Wood Platt of Philadelphia and S. Davidson of Scotland, the present champion, shared the gallery with Tommie Armour of Scotland and Philip Carr of Armagh, the only foreigner remaining in the competition, is giving the Americans plenty to worry over. Other matches on today's schedule were:

Chick Evans vs. Richard Lewis, Robert Gardner vs. W. C. Fowkes, E. P. Allis vs. Oswald Kirby, Francis Oulmet vs. M. M. Jack, Bobby Jones vs. Frank Dyer and Jess E. Sweetser vs. Fred J. Wright.

Thrower of Death Ball
Not Going to Cleveland

NEW YORK, Sept. 8.—Col. Hamilton, part owner of the Yankees, announced Tuesday that Carl Mays, the pitcher who caused the death of Ray Chapman, Cleveland shortstop, by a throw ball, would not be taken to Cleveland with his club this week.

Huston explained that the series which opens Thursday is sure to be hotly contested and to forestall any possible outbreak of ill feeling it was deemed advisable not to take the star pitcher.

The Indiana state tennis singles championship tournament field today had narrowed down to twenty Indiana and Illinois racket swingers and the players were so sorely matched that no feature events were on the program.

Johnny Hennessey and Fritz Bastian, the Indianapolis court leaders, were expected to have easy sailing again today. Hennessey was matched with Al Kipp, an Indianapolis veteran, and Bastian was to meet Coons of Lebanon. "Minnie" Kohn, another flashy Indianapolis player, faced his hardest match, being scheduled to meet O'Brien of Chicago.

Four of the Chicago men entered in the tournament were chased to the side line yesterday. Fritz Bastian defeated E. D. Wilson, Johnny Hennessey defeated Harry Knox, and the other two who were eliminated, VanArsdale and Leven, failed to appear for their matches, and were defaulted.

Hennessey had no trouble in finishing ahead of Knox and the snappy manner with which he took the two sets by 6-2, 7-5 scores pleased the large crowd on deck for the event. Bastian also had an easy time with his Chicago opponent, winning 6-1, 6-1.

Koehler and Dorey finished their match started Monday afternoon and "Cotton" was returned the victor in the deciding set after a stiff fight. The scores were 9-7, 3-6, 8-6.

Bennett and O'Brien, the surviving Chicago players, were forced to go three sets to win their matches from Payne and Al Kipp, who were both of Indianapolis.

Charles E. Weber, Indiana representative of the National Cycling association, and director of the state fair, was in the city today. He also took second money in the second division of the 2:23 pace with Ruth Patch, the 2:14 trot with Beagle and the 2:15 trot with Van He. Bastian, who also took second money in the second division of the 2:23 pace with Hedgewood Star.

Harry Clark, Missouri trainer, showed the crowd a classy pacer in the bay gelding, Nicholas, with which he won the second and third heats of the 2:23 pace. This is the seventh straight victory for Nicholas and the first heat in this race was the first he has dropped this season.

Big League Stuff
Carl Mays made it eighteen innings without a run for the Athletics, when he blanked the Connie Mackes yesterday, 2 to 0, for the Yanks.

The White Sox had an introduction to Hub Leonard and all the pitcher's wiles, whereupon he won, 5 to 0, for the Tigers.

By winning the second game of a double header, the Red Sox managed to escape from Washington with one victory. The Nationals took the first game, 5 to 1.

Jim Vaughn had nothing in particular to amaze the Pirates. They patted him on the back and whipped the Cubs, 7 to 4.

The Phillies saw the tables turned on them when the Dodgers took a pair of victories, 5 to 0, and 9 to 5.

Abattoir Bowlers Ready
The Indianapolis Abattoir bowling loop will open the season on Central alleys this evening and the usual "win and wigor" is expected among the knights from the packing houses.

A slab of bacon will be one of the many prizes offered for the weekly high score. The loop is composed of the following members: Fred Pettit, 4 and 3 runs in 7 innings; off Gaw, 1 and 2 runs in 2 innings. Struck out by Pettit, 3; by Gaw, 1. Hits—Off Pettit, 4 and 3 runs in 7 innings; off Gaw, 1 and 2 runs in 2 innings. Struck out by Pettit, 3; by Gaw, 1. Wins—Pettit, 1. Losses—Gaw, 1. Umpires—Finerman and Freeman. Time—1:30.
