

BERIBBONED AND BANNED TO GREET HEROES

user of the Indiana division, is arranging to receive the Rev. E. S. Shumaker, division commander, who is now in Washington, D. C.

Dr. John M. Adams of Cincinnati, Ohio, commander of the Department of Ohio, G. A. R., arrived yesterday in company with T. R. Shinn, past commander of the Ohio department, who is also a delegate from that State.

Many of the Ohio veterans are expected to arrive today.

Not a single soldier was reported to the physicians in charge of the first aid station at the Union Station, and nurses in attendance yesterday say that only six patients required medical assistance for minor illness.

All things considered, the reception and lodgings committed at the Union Station functioned to almost a degree of perfection.

ASSIGNMENT OF ROOMS LASTS FAR INTO NIGHT.

The assignment of rooms to guests was carried out without a break throughout the day and far into the night.

During the day the veterans were carried to the assigned lodgings by volunteer citizens in automobiles.

More than a hundred white-haired veterans arose to attention when the Wisconsin Drum Corps sounded its first notes of "The Star-Spangled Banner" in the number of a short entertainment in the lobby of the Claypool Hotel last evening.

Among the selections played were many of the old-time favorites, including "Silver Threads Among the Gold," and military songs made famous during the Civil War.

TUESDAY TO BE REUNION DAY.

A. N. Grant will preside at the campfire, which will be held after the parade.

Post Master Sime John B. Cockrum will deliver the welcome address.

Corporal James Tanner, Washington, D. C., will respond. Judge Samuel M. Hinch, Ft. Wayne, past department commander; Samuel Ryan, past department commander; Mrs. Daniel Waugh, Tipton, past president of the Women's Relief Corps, will speak.

Tuesday several hundred reunions will be held by the various companies, brigades and the like.

It is at these reunions of the small groups that the veterans have their most enjoyment.

The G. A. R. Navy Recruiting band gave a three-hour concert this morning at the Union Depot under the direction of Bandmaster A. Maravec.

At 7:30 p. m. the Indianapolis Military Band will give a concert.

The Indiana band concert schedule is as follows:

9 a. m., Union station, two-hour concert by the Central Division Navy Recruiting band; 2 p. m., Monument, south side, Sist Field Artillery band; 2 p. m., Monument, north side, Central Division Navy Recruiting band; 7 p. m., Monument, north side, Indianapolis Military band; 7:30, Lincoln Hotel, Indiana Soldiers' and Sailors' Orphans' Orphans' Home band; 8:30, Statehouse, Indiana Soldiers' and Sailors' Orphans' Home band; 9 p. m., Union Depot, Indiana Soldiers' and Sailors' Orphans' Home band.

PARADE ORDERS FOR WEDNESDAY.

The following parade orders have been issued:

Wednesday, parade, 10 a. m., Altoona, Pa., band; Indiana Soldiers' and Sailors' Orphans' Home band, Central Division Navy Recruiting band; 10 a. m., Indianapolis' band; 4:30 p. m., Indianapolis' band; 4:30 p. m., Indianapolis' band; 7 p. m., Monument, north side, Sist Field Artillery band; 7 p. m., Monument, south side, Indianapolis' band.

Thursday, 9:30 a. m., Monument, south side, Altoona, Pa. band; 2 p. m., Monument, north side, Central Division Navy Recruiting band; 2 p. m., Monument, south side, Indianapolis' band; 7 p. m., Monument, north side, Sist Field Artillery band; 7 p. m., Monument, south side, Indianapolis' band.

Medical staffs have been announced by Dr. John R. Newcomb, medical personnel officer of the encampment, as follows, for Monday:

Officer in Charge—Lieut. Col. John W. Smith, M. C. U. S. A.

Staff—Drs. A. M. Fitch, Robert McClure, C. O. Lukens, Nathaniel Stern, James Egbert, A. S. Ayres, Harry Jacobs, B. V. Canfield, E. C. Thomas, John A. Pfaff, Luther Williams.

SONS OF VETERANS SWING INTO ACTION.

Activities about the Hotel Severin were stimulated with the arrival of many of the national officers of the Commandery in Chief of the Sons of Veterans, the National Sons of Veterans Auxiliary, the National Alliance Daughters of Veterans, the Ohio Department, G. A. R., and the Indiana Division of the Sons of Veterans and the Indiana Division Sons of Veterans Auxiliary, all of which organizations opened their headquarters at that hotel.

Officials of the Sons of Veterans were first to arrive, several of them coming to the city Saturday.

H. D. Sisson, Pittsfield, Mass., commander-in-chief; H. H. Hammer, Lt. Col. in command, national secretary; William Adams, New Haven, Conn., national commander are here awaiting the first session.

Congressman Clifford Ireland, Peoria, Ill., past commander of the Division of Illinois, Sons of Veterans, is also a guest.

SPECIAL CHURCH SERVICES HELD.

Hundreds of veterans attended special services in their temples at the Indianapolis meeting yesterday.

Many of the veterans occupied the pulpits and the services were impressive as the aged men lead the divine worship.

One of the most important addresses was delivered at the Second Presbyterian Church by Joseph E. Ewell, department commander of New York G. A. R.

He said in part:

The present conditions are, that what is practically civil war, is raging in all parts of the country, and many good citizens are in doubt as to whether peace is possible.

That was the exact situation in 1861.

The whole nation was in despair and the President in a message to Congress declared that the country was in imminent peril.

But a new president, Abraham Lincoln, with a clearer vision than any other, came to the executive office and proposed a policy which, although obvious, seemed to have been overlooked by all others, and that was "law enforcement, not of new laws, but of old laws—old as the constitution itself and part of it."

It required four years of supreme effort and sacrifice to get the nation to its sacrifices to reach the goal to Appomattox; but the goal was reached at last, thanks to two million comrades in that mighty cause, the patriotic salvation of the country.

The present disturbance is a gentle summer breeze compared with the fierce tornado preceding the Civil war.

The present disturbance is now, as in the earlier contest—law enforcement, not of new laws, only, but the old laws of the country, the law of right, liberty, equality and protection.

It will not require a four-year war to accomplish this result—a mere stroke of the pen from the executive office and firmly in legislative halls will be all sufficient.

VETERANS' DAUGHTERS TO FORM LOCAL HERE.

The formation of an Indianapolis tent of the Daughters of Veterans tonight from 6:30 to 7:30 at the Statehouse will

Documents Show G. O. P. Slogan Is 'Get the Money, Boys'

This bulletin is official.
One something like it will reach you often enough until further notice.

No body is going to have anything to do with this bulletin who has not had actual experience in digging up money in the Field.

Your name is on the mailing list because this bulletin is to be an official medium of transmitting to you information, suggestions, and instructions from the National Treasurer and his immediate assistants.

NO CHILD'S PLAY.

It is no "child's play" that the Ways and Means organization is attending to today must come in to Headquarters to enable us to finish our work by September 1st.

Let each man in the field resolve each day that by fitness, by industry, and by his own inherent force in diplomacy, he will make his results an important part of that $25,000.

STEP ON IT.

There are two comforting thoughts that come to all of us representing the Treasurer's Office, in connection with the special election for the Presidential election. Mr. Franklin D. Roosevelt, delivered in Chicago, Wednesday evening, in which he makes the ridiculous computation that the Republican campaign budget will reach $80,000,000. This is not something like $80,000,000 to elect Harding and Coolidge.

Second, Treasurer Upsham has "let us off easier" on our money raising than he did. Now we do not need a reasonable campaign fund and we need it now; and my advice to the men in the field is something like this:

Harding and Coolidge have the confidence of the people.

The platform is sound enough to hold the weight of the Nation; BUT, Boys, get the money.

Take time to organize, BUT, Boys, we haven't any money.

The weather is hot, the men are on vacation, meetings are hard to get; BUT, Boys, get the money.

There are hills to climb, but if you want to make a hill at the same speed you've been running where the road was level, you've got to use more power. Give her the gas. Step on it.

Harry M. Blair.

We cannot too strongly stress the importance of striking immediately for the major portion of our campaign funds. Better to do it now than to wait into the summer, thus encountering the many difficulties which are always met in work of this sort.

At that time we will be in the money again, and with a definite platform under us, and two strong candidates behind us, we should take up our responsibilities with a positive vigor, translating the words of the slogan into which we are associated, and to the business interests of their communities, all the enthusiasm of a patriotic in-spiration.

Very sincerely yours,
Harry M. Blair

No. 3
TO TREASURER'S REPRESENTATIVES IN THE FIELD.

"This one thing." There are just twenty-eight days left in which to finish. The month of August is the month of completions.

On the first of September, all fund raising for the Republican National Committee along lines so far laid down must be completed. Nothing else but completion will be regarded as success on the part of Treasurer's representatives in the field.

At Headquarters, though we all have had experience in raising funds (every one of us), it is not possible for us to do this with the men in the field how to secure results, other than by repeating to them this thought: "Republican voters must render a service of money and time to their party, to bring our government back to normal." Our Treasurer's representatives have been selected by us.

Results are absolutely necessary, Fund for 1920.

The fund, as a whole, is very small - not so much as five cents per capita, yet by means of it we shall approach the mind of the United States through various forms of printing, publicity and personal solicitation.

Through the fine work of your organization, we are nearing that form of national patriotism which expresses itself in support from every county in every State. The great body of voters are being shown by your organization that "the restoration of representative popular government" affects every one's relation to his own, as well as the Nation's affairs.

It is not a stretch of imagination to declare that good government by our great historic party means a return to normal conditions, a gradual reduction of excessive taxation, and a sound basis for less expensive living.

Therefore, I want all members of your organization to feel that their efforts are essential to our success in planning for national enlightenment - and are all deeply appreciated by me.

WARREN G. HARDING.

SCOPE OF BULLETIN.

All field men and the various volunteers who constitute the Ways and Means force in the field are asked to read this bulletin. The Official Bulletin is not a paper prepared for general circulation.

It is prepared more particularly for those who are interested in raising funds from others, and contains much information which will be helpful and suggestive to those who want to approach the public mind for money.

Our readers are requested not to make this publication public, it is in a sense confidential and exclusive.
