

TAGGART OPENS TOUR WITH DEFI TO 'PARTY' JABS

By HORACE M. COATS.
Times Staff Correspondent.
MUNCIE, Ind., Sept. 28.—With a plea for the adoption of the covenant of the League of Nations and for business methods in governmental affairs, both State and national, Thomas Taggart, Democratic nominee for United States Senator, opened his campaign tour with addresses here and at Anderson yesterday.

No unusual methods were necessary in attracting crowds to Mr. Taggart's meetings and many of the voters in his audience were women.
Following his speech here, Mr. Taggart departed for Hartford City and Bluffton by automobile.

Delaware County Democrats are more optimistic now than in any other presidential campaign regarding the outlook for success at the polls in November.

Included in the Taggart party are Dale Brittenberger, Anderson, Eighth district chairman; W. A. Kunkel, Bluffton, former Eighth district chairman and host to the Taggart party, and several State candidates.

Mr. Taggart will speak at Hartford City following the Muncie address, closing the first day's tour tonight with a speech at Bluffton.

"The Democrats are handicapped by the negro and German vote, which has allied to the Republicans, but we expect to pick up a big vote for Taggart," said a prominent Democrat.

"Fortunately, the Democrats have a big registration, and they will all turn out to vote."

J. Cooper Props, Delaware County chairman, is as optimistic about success in November as he is enthusiastic about Taggart.

"It is no use to talk anything else," he said, "Tom Taggart will be our next Senator."

Prominent manufacturers and business men are active in their support of Taggart here.

They say the election of Taggart would guarantee a business administration.

One of the business men who was instrumental in the success of the Muncie meeting is Milt Retherford of the Retherford Manufacturing Company.

According to reports, others are fast becoming affiliated with the Democratic organization and all are working for the same ultimate end to send Tom Taggart, business man for a business job, to the United States Senate.

Accompanying Mr. Taggart and speaking at the meetings with him are Frederick Van Nys, United States district attorney for Indiana, and Mrs. Alice Foster McCulloch, chairman of the Democratic women in Indiana.

"The running of the Government is nothing but a big business proposition," Taggart told his audience.

"If I am elected Senator I shall regard myself as a director in a corporation with the responsibilities of aid and management in the interest of the stockholders, the people."

Taggart admitted he is a distinct man in his political life, but that anybody to point out anything as an official by him during his term as auditor of Marion County or as a representative in the Indiana legislature would be the people whom Taggart would administer.

Dr. Carlisle's administration did come in for its share of criticism.

He declared Governor in order to be declared was to be a conservative of public funds under Van Nys, in a short address, attacked the critics of the national administration and denounced those men who have been finding fault with the administration by making a purely personal assault on the record of President Wilson.

"It is impossible to have war and en-

Swedish Painter to Visit America

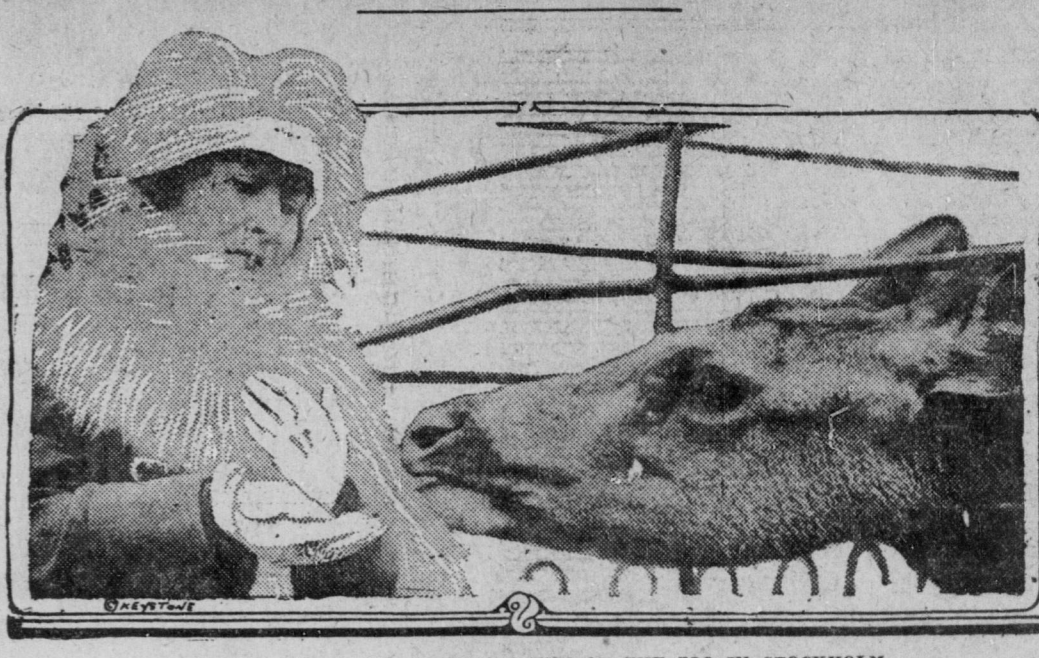

PHOTO OF MME. EBBA EBBESEN TAKEN AT THE ZOO IN STOCKHOLM.

gave in it successfully unless we spend money," he said.

"But the money spent in the war was amply repaid by the return alive and in good health of our soldiers and sailors."

Democrats in this community are confident that Nov. 2 will see the return to power of the Democratic party.

"There is nothing to it but Tom," "Tom Taggart is a safe, sound business man," said Willis S. Ellis, judge of the Madison County Superior Court, who attended the Taggart meeting at Anderson.

"James E. Watson is a reactionary and is a member of the notorious senatorial oligarchy."

"The people have been waiting for a chance to put a business man in the Senate from Indiana and I don't think they are going to overlook their opportunity."

George T. Beebe of Anderson and Mrs. F. E. Dehority of Elwood, men's and women's chairmen, respectively, of the Madison County Democratic organization, were alike in their declarations that Mr. Taggart's four-square statement on the liquor question and his attitude favoring the adoption of the League of Nations will make him the winner in the Senatorial contest.

The men and women of this section are for prohibition and for the League of Nations, and will vote for Taggart, they said.

Mr. Taggart's Anderson speech follows, in part:

"If I am elected Senator I shall regard myself as a director in a corporation, charged with the responsibility of aiding its management for the interest of the stockholders—the people."

"I will endeavor to aid in administering in a manner that would make you good dividends by not taking out of your pockets money unnecessarily for the management of the corporations interest."

"I shall, my friends, if elected, be vigilant in my support of the great objects of the Government, namely, to safeguard the rights of the people to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness at as little cost to them as it would be possible to do in justice to the public welfare."

"I shall, my friends, if elected, be vigilant in my support of the great objects of the Government, namely, to safeguard the rights of the people to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness at as little cost to them as it would be possible to do in justice to the public welfare."

"I shall, my friends, if elected, be vigilant in my support of the great objects of the Government, namely, to safeguard the rights of the people to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness at as little cost to them as it would be possible to do in justice to the public welfare."

"I shall, my friends, if elected, be vigilant in my support of the great objects of the Government, namely, to safeguard the rights of the people to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness at as little cost to them as it would be possible to do in justice to the public welfare."

"I shall, my friends, if elected, be vigilant in my support of the great objects of the Government, namely, to safeguard the rights of the people to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness at as little cost to them as it would be possible to do in justice to the public welfare."

"I shall, my friends, if elected, be vigilant in my support of the great objects of the Government, namely, to safeguard the rights of the people to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness at as little cost to them as it would be possible to do in justice to the public welfare."

"I shall, my friends, if elected, be vigilant in my support of the great objects of the Government, namely, to safeguard the rights of the people to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness at as little cost to them as it would be possible to do in justice to the public welfare."

"I shall, my friends, if elected, be vigilant in my support of the great objects of the Government, namely, to safeguard the rights of the people to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness at as little cost to them as it would be possible to do in justice to the public welfare."

"I shall, my friends, if elected, be vigilant in my support of the great objects of the Government, namely, to safeguard the rights of the people to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness at as little cost to them as it would be possible to do in justice to the public welfare."

"I shall, my friends, if elected, be vigilant in my support of the great objects of the Government, namely, to safeguard the rights of the people to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness at as little cost to them as it would be possible to do in justice to the public welfare."

"I shall, my friends, if elected, be vigilant in my support of the great objects of the Government, namely, to safeguard the rights of the people to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness at as little cost to them as it would be possible to do in justice to the public welfare."

"I shall, my friends, if elected, be vigilant in my support of the great objects of the Government, namely, to safeguard the rights of the people to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness at as little cost to them as it would be possible to do in justice to the public welfare."

"I shall, my friends, if elected, be vigilant in my support of the great objects of the Government, namely, to safeguard the rights of the people to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness at as little cost to them as it would be possible to do in justice to the public welfare."

"I shall, my friends, if elected, be vigilant in my support of the great objects of the Government, namely, to safeguard the rights of the people to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness at as little cost to them as it would be possible to do in justice to the public welfare."

"I shall, my friends, if elected, be vigilant in my support of the great objects of the Government, namely, to safeguard the rights of the people to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness at as little cost to them as it would be possible to do in justice to the public welfare."

"I shall, my friends, if elected, be vigilant in my support of the great objects of the Government, namely, to safeguard the rights of the people to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness at as little cost to them as it would be possible to do in justice to the public welfare."

"I shall, my friends, if elected, be vigilant in my support of the great objects of the Government, namely, to safeguard the rights of the people to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness at as little cost to them as it would be possible to do in justice to the public welfare."

"I shall, my friends, if elected, be vigilant in my support of the great objects of the Government, namely, to safeguard the rights of the people to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness at as little cost to them as it would be possible to do in justice to the public welfare."

"I shall, my friends, if elected, be vigilant in my support of the great objects of the Government, namely, to safeguard the rights of the people to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness at as little cost to them as it would be possible to do in justice to the public welfare."

"I shall, my friends, if elected, be vigilant in my support of the great objects of the Government, namely, to safeguard the rights of the people to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness at as little cost to them as it would be possible to do in justice to the public welfare."

"I shall, my friends, if elected, be vigilant in my support of the great objects of the Government, namely, to safeguard the rights of the people to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness at as little cost to them as it would be possible to do in justice to the public welfare."

"I shall, my friends, if elected, be vigilant in my support of the great objects of the Government, namely, to safeguard the rights of the people to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness at as little cost to them as it would be possible to do in justice to the public welfare."

"I shall, my friends, if elected, be vigilant in my support of the great objects of the Government, namely, to safeguard the rights of the people to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness at as little cost to them as it would be possible to do in justice to the public welfare."

"I shall, my friends, if elected, be vigilant in my support of the great objects of the Government, namely, to safeguard the rights of the people to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness at as little cost to them as it would be possible to do in justice to the public welfare."

"I shall, my friends, if elected, be vigilant in my support of the great objects of the Government, namely, to safeguard the rights of the people to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness at as little cost to them as it would be possible to do in justice to the public welfare."

"I shall, my friends, if elected, be vigilant in my support of the great objects of the Government, namely, to safeguard the rights of the people to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness at as little cost to them as it would be possible to do in justice to the public welfare."

"I shall, my friends, if elected, be vigilant in my support of the great objects of the Government, namely, to safeguard the rights of the people to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness at as little cost to them as it would be possible to do in justice to the public welfare."

"I shall, my friends, if elected, be vigilant in my support of the great objects of the Government, namely, to safeguard the rights of the people to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness at as little cost to them as it would be possible to do in justice to the public welfare."

"I shall, my friends, if elected, be vigilant in my support of the great objects of the Government, namely, to safeguard the rights of the people to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness at as little cost to them as it would be possible to do in justice to the public welfare."

"I shall, my friends, if elected, be vigilant in my support of the great objects of the Government, namely, to safeguard the rights of the people to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness at as little cost to them as it would be possible to do in justice to the public welfare."

"I shall, my friends, if elected, be vigilant in my support of the great objects of the Government, namely, to safeguard the rights of the people to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness at as little cost to them as it would be possible to do in justice to the public welfare."

EMPLOYERS MEET TO TALK SCHOOLS

Survey to Learn Interest in Industrial Education.

Plans for making a survey to find out what sort of industrial education is wanted by the men in Indianapolis factories were made at a meeting at the Chamber of Commerce of a subcommittee, which is working under the direction of a committee composed of representatives of the National Metal Trades Association, Employers' Association, Scientech Club and the manufacturers' committee of the Indianapolis Chamber of Commerce.

This is another step in the movement which was inaugurated by the manufacturers' committee of the Indianapolis Chamber of Commerce to get Purdue University to institute similar extension work for factory workers over the State that they are now doing for the farmers.

A number of new interests were drawn into the conference.

Simon P. Roach, educational director of the Knights of Columbus; C. H. Molten of the Metal Trades Association; J. G. Collicott, State director of vocational education; F. E. Field of the Y. M. C. A.; and Prof. George Shepard of Purdue University attended the committee meeting.

The committee is composed of Stanley Zweifel, Roy Adams and Joseph Minor.

"We are endeavoring to have our courses and plans completed by Oct. 12, at which time we expect to hold a big dinner meeting of Indianapolis manufacturers."

"Meantime we wish that any employer or employer with ideas on the courses would write at once to Stanley Zweifel of Nordyke & Macdonald," said W. D. Oakes, chairman of the manufacturers' committee of the Chamber of Commerce.

Citizenship Classes Open at Church Here

Three classes in citizenship will be conducted by the Irvington Citizenship School at the gymnasium of the Downey Avenue Christian Church.

"The Democratic Principles" will be the subject of Dick Miller in an address before the school next Friday night.

Mrs. F. B. Davis will preside over the meeting.

On Oct. 8, Charles Adams will speak on "The Republican Principles" at which meeting Mrs. Curtis Hodges will preside.

The last school will be held on Oct. 15, when Mrs. E. F. White will address the school on "The Business of Voting."

Mrs. E. C. Rumpel will preside at the meeting.

A voting machine will be installed in the gymnasium and at each school the women voters will receive instruction in operating the machine.

Council Chief Is Sought by Mexico

MEXICO CITY, Sept. 28.—On the charges that his accounts were irregular and that he is implicated with a revolutionary junta, steps are now being taken to extradite Saldana Galvan, former president of the municipal council, who is now in San Antonio, Tex.

It was announced by government officials that Galvan left Mexico City when Venustiano Carranza fell. He is accused of failing to account for $14,000 city money.

It is alleged that Galvan is active in a Carapazista junta, which is accused of plotting a new counter revolution in Mexico.

Women's Political Meeting

Mrs. Nancy Schoonmaker of New York and Mrs. Cora Wilson Stewart of Kentucky will speak to the women of Indianapolis and the public in general.

Thursday Night at 8 o'Clock at TOMLINSON HALL

All women, regardless of politics, are invited to hear the League of Nations discussed from a woman's viewpoint. Both speakers are widely known and thoroughly conversant with the political issues of the campaign.

No reserved seats. Come early and get a seat.

You'll be well repaid.

Women's Department, Democratic State Central Committee

JUST A FEW REASONS WHY YOU SHOULD READ The Indiana Daily Times EVERY DAY

INTERNATIONAL NEWS SERVICE and UNITED PRESS DISPATCHES
ALL THE NEWS OF THE DAY

MARKETS
Published in complete, yet compact form.

EDDIE ASH
Edits The Times' sporting page.

FOR WOMEN
Special features, including hints to housewives, recipes and a serial story in daily installments.

KIDDIES' BEDTIME STORIES
"Puss in Boots, Jr." by David Cory.

WHATEVER YOU WISH TO KNOW
Questions and answers on all subjects in a daily department.

'BRINGING UP FATHER'
Greatest comic of them all, will give you a daily laugh.

SERVICE TO READERS
The Daily Times information bureau at Washington, D. C., sends you any books, pamphlets or documents published by the United States government on any subject in which you are interested.

THE HOROSCOPE
Another interesting feature appearing daily.

THE HASKIN LETTER
Gives wider information on topics than can be furnished by ordinary news dispatches.

YOU WILL FIND ALL THIS AND MORE IN THE DAILY TIMES
Delivered Everywhere

Restores Health

REOLO is a scientific formula which has been prescribed by Dr. A. L. Reusing for nearly twenty years in his private practice. It has restored thousands of men and women to health and strength.

Make This Test

Order a box of REOLO today from your druggist. Deposit with him the regular price $1 a box, as evidence of good faith. Then take REOLO regularly for two weeks, and if you are not absolutely satisfied that REOLO has benefited you, he will refund your money on request without argument. REOLO is a wonderful tonic, stimulant and health restorer. Test it at our risk. REOLO, Inc., Cleveland, Ohio.

Henry J. Huder, Washington and Pennsylvania streets, southeast corner Market and Illinois streets, Indianapolis, Ind., and all leading druggists.

The Greatest Comic of Them All
"Bringing Up Father"

In The

Indiana Daily Times

Goodrich and Portage Tires

At Less Than Dealer's Cost
Guaranteed 6,000 Miles

Name and Serial Numbers Intact.

FORD SIZES 7.500

GOODRICH.		PORTAGE.
List Price.	Size.	List Price.	Size.
$21.05	30x3 1/2	$19.95	28x3
$26.25	32x3 1/2	$20.40	30x3
$33.65	32x4	$21.60	30x3
$35.35	33x4	$26.15	30x3 1/2
$38.60	33x4	$35.80	31x4
$49.90	32x4 1/2	$40.85	32x4
$53.15	34x4 1/2	$43.05	33x4

Other sizes not listed sold in proportion.

Running Board Luggage Carriers in Stock

Parcel Post Paid on all Mail Orders. No War Tax Charged on Any Goods Sold In This Store.

Special Prices on All Auto Supplies. Large Assortment of Spot Lights, Jacks, Pumps, Wrenches and Spark Plugs.

"Quality Considered, We Sell It For Less"

OPEN SATURDAY EVENING TILL 9 O'CLOCK

CITIZENS AUTO SUPPLY

WHOLESALE CO. RETAIL

Pearl C. Barnes, Mgr. Homer E. Enlow, Asst. Mgr.

MASS. AVE. at Delaware and New York Sts.

BOTH PHONES AUTO. 27-564.

SIXTY MORE INDIANAPOLIS PEOPLE RELIEVED BY PEPGEN; REMARKABLE CASES REPORTED

The Following Local Citizens Tell How They Have Been Aided—Stomach, Kidney and Liver Ills Vanish—Henry J. Huder and Other Leading Druggists Recommend Pepgen.

C. R. Day, 1141 Park avenue, Indianapolis, says: "Pepgen relieved my kidney trouble and backache. I sleep more soundly and feel better in every way."

C. Alvarado, 412 E. Court street, Indianapolis, says: "Pepgen did me a wonderful lot of good. It relieved my kidney trouble."

Mrs. Carrie Heger, 2315 E. New York street, Indianapolis, says: "Pepgen helped my three girls. It increased their appetites and the change in their conditions is wonderful. I am glad to recommend the medicine."

Mrs. Charles Delvaux, 1962 Cornell avenue, Indianapolis, says: "Since taking Pepgen I feel better than I have for a long time. I eat heartily and sleep soundly. I am glad to endorse the medicine to all my friends and acquaintances."

Mrs. Ray Kittenhouse, 1206 Sturm street, Indianapolis, says: "Pepgen relieved my mother of a severe case of stomach trouble. We are very thankful for what the medicine has done for her and it certainly gives me pleasure to tell our experience."

Mrs. Lillian Garrett, 262 North Eastern avenue, Indianapolis, says: "I have not been using Pepgen. I sleep good and feel better all over."

Omer N. Ellis, Winston apartments, 217 1/2 North Illinois street, Indianapolis, says: "Pepgen went right to the seat of my trouble and gave me relief from rheumatism."

Carl McCoy, 428 North Illinois street, Indianapolis, says: "Pepgen is an exceptionally fine medicine for the stomach. It makes you feel good all over. It is a pleasure for me to give this endorsement."

Mrs. Charles Crosby, 1412 Churchman avenue, Indianapolis, says: "Pepgen relieved my husband of stomach trouble and nervousness. It is a splendid tonic and we both recommend it."

Mrs. Minnie Urey, 526 West Vermont street, Indianapolis, says: "Pepgen acted as it were especially made for my case. My general health is better in every way since taking it."

Mrs. Edward Schneider, 1530 Singleton street, Indianapolis, says: "I think Pepgen is a great tonic and system builder and my husband tells me in recommending it. It relieved him of pains in his back and stomach."

J. W. Wals, 1342 Union street, Indianapolis, says: "Pepgen helped my son. His stomach doesn't bother him in the least and we feel that we owe a big debt of gratitude to Pepgen."

Mrs. C. A. Nelsor, 36 W. Vermont street, Indianapolis, says: "I am glad to tell about the benefits I received from Pepgen, and I feel sure that any woman who feels as I did will get equally good results."

Tom Sheehan, Big Four switchman, 1018 Bates street, Indianapolis, says: "I know from experience that Pepgen is far better than other medicines. It relieved my indigestion and increased my appetite."

Mrs. J. A. Brown, 727 West Twenty-seventh street, Indianapolis, says: "Pepgen is a wonderful medicine. It made me stronger and built up my nervous system."

Mrs. Kate Mullen, 221 West South street, Indianapolis, says: "Since taking Pepgen my food doesn't sour in my stomach and distress me. I am not nervous and I know Pepgen benefited me."

Mrs. Thomas Scott, 551 South Delaware street, Indianapolis, says: "I fear that my words do not do Pepgen justice, for the medicine is even better than I am able to describe."

Mrs. Julia Adams, 705 Ft. Wayne avenue, Indianapolis, says: "Pepgen relieved my stomach trouble and indigestion and I think it both just and right for me to recommend the medicine to others. It is fine."

Mrs. S. C. Freeman, 945 English avenue, Indianapolis, says: "Since taking Pepgen I feel like a different woman. I sleep fine at night. I am a great deal stronger, too. I sure do recommend Pepgen."

Mrs. Ella Ayers, 934 Chadwick street, Indianapolis, says: "I am glad to in-dorse Pepgen. It is a great strength maker. It relieved stomach trouble and built me up generally."

Mrs. Clara C. Badgley, 920 Bates street, Indianapolis, says: "Pepgen gave my daughter quick relief from stomach trouble. She has a better appetite and can eat anything she desires. I am glad to recommend the medicine."

Mrs. W. T. Wheatley, 602 East Morris street, Indianapolis, says: "Pepgen relieved my son of stomach trouble and he can conscientiously recommend it to other mothers."

James A. Kirk, 715 Roache avenue, Indianapolis, says: "Pepgen eliminated my stomach distress. It also relieved rheumatism, made me sleep more soundly and I feel better than I have in years."

Mrs. Faye Austin, 60 East LeGrande avenue, Indianapolis, says: "Pepgen helped my husband, my daughter and myself. After our experience, I can recommend Pepgen as being a first-class, reliable medicine."

Ernest Craig, 1612 Fletcher avenue, Indianapolis, says: "I am glad to recommend Pepgen. It relieved me of a case of stomach trouble, and I believe any one who suffers from this ailment should try Pepgen."

C. C. Cash, 1514 Market street, Indianapolis, says: "To all my friends who suffer from stomach trouble, I want to say that Pepgen is a far better medicine than you can realize until you try it."

Mrs. A. G. Hiel, 1622 West Morris street, Indianapolis, says: "My father gained several pounds in weight while taking Pepgen. It built up his run-down condition and relieved him of stomach trouble."

Mrs. John Carlin, 2830 Walker street, Indianapolis, says: "To all women who feel nervous, have indigestion, headaches, backaches, who can't sleep soundly and who have not sufficient strength, I say by all means take Pepgen."

Mrs. W. Shinn, 310 Pine street, Indianapolis, says: "Since taking Pepgen my husband feels much better. His appetite is splendid and there is no doubt that Pepgen has been a great help to

Mrs. Mary Eaton, 239 West Morris street, Indianapolis, says: "Pepgen has been a wonderful relief to me. It is the only thing that ever helped me after I had influenza."

H. L. Crook, 1008 Ashland avenue, Indianapolis, says: "As a tonic Pepgen sure can not be beaten, and any person who feels that they need more strength will make a big mistake if they don't try it."

Mrs. Jessie Arnold, 1461 Olive street, Indianapolis, says: "Pepgen built up my father's system after he had influenza. He is now a strong, healthy head-ache, has a good appetite and feels better in every way