couns or records of this board which may touch upon such matters, and that all such matters and conclusions of the board or any member or members thereof, shall be incorporated in a full report of such proceedings, which after being reported to this board shall be submitted to and filed with the said State Board of Accounts at and during a hearing thereon, which this board shall request said State Board to hold within thirty days of such time as the exhibit now being conducted by the supervising architect shall have been completed and reported to said State Board of Accounts. Be it further resolved, that all hearings, meetings and proceedings held with reference to the matters herein shall be held in public and shall be open to the citizens and taxpayers of the city of Indianapolis, Indiana, and that a copy of this resolution shall be sent to the State Board of Accounts so that said board shall be assured of the earnest cooperation of the board of school commissioners.

DAVIS DEMANDS
BE COLLECTED

City Court on Oct. 17, 1919, and on Oct. 17, 1920, he was paid $50 of the $500 which he collected for the State, and his last official act in connection with the matter is his receipt for this money, which you will find written in the entry docket of the Circuit Court in the two cases, numbered 32114 and 32115.

"If he can muster sufficient strength to sign his name in the precinct book in the office of the county clerk ordering an execution on these judgments, which constitute a valid, collectible lien, this is the way to collect these judgments."

"This is the way to get the money for the public, and it takes no more effort on the part of the prosecuting attorney to do this than it took to receipt the docket for his fees of $50 in these cases."

"The Republican prosecuting attorney is chargeable with the knowledge of these facts, and he is chargeable with the knowledge of the law."

"He is supposed to know that he has no authority to compromise these judgments, and that no one has this authority except the Governor of Indiana, but if he doesn't know it, I am telling him now, and this is the second time that I have given him the specific section and article of our constitution, the specific section of our statutes and the citation to the decision of our Supreme Court, which declares that he has no such authority."

"If he doesn't know that these judgments constitute a valid, collectible lien against this Harding street real estate, the legal description of which I have stated previously, but with which I will be glad to furnish the Republican prosecutor, then I am telling him."

"The public may be willing to excuse this blunder. It may be willing to overlook the fact that he has unlawfully attempted to exempt a man convicted of operating a blind tiger from the payment of $1,500, but will it now excuse him for his failure to proceed to collect these judgments after it is pointed out that they unquestionably can be collected and that his attempted release and satisfaction of them is an absolute nullity."

"I now publicly call on him to order execution on these judgments and to collect the $1,500 due on them."

"The Republican candidate for prosecutor, in a public statement, said: 'The insinuation that some one in the prosecutor's office profited financially is an insult, and I do not think that any one who knows Mr. Adams or myself would give it credence for a moment.'"

"I have never charged that the Republican prosecuting attorney or the Republican candidate for prosecutor or attorney or any one who helps in the office of the prosecutor profited financially in this transaction, but why should the Republican candidate be so outraged at such a verdict in the Leppert case?"

"Leppert, it must be remembered, was sued on forfeited bonds which he gave for the defendants, Dave Crenshaw and Garrett Osborne, in two blind tiger cases."

"Leppert was convicted of operating a blind tiger in the City Court on Oct. 17, 1918, and on Oct. 21, 1918, and he was convicted of the same charge on appeal in the Marion Criminal Court on Dec. 28, 1918."

"Why should the Republican candidate for prosecuting attorney place himself on such a high pedestal and assume that he and the office of the prosecuting attorney are free from attack when the plain uncontradicted fact about the matter is that, regardless of why the judgments were compromised, and regardless of why they were attempted to be satisfied legally of record their attempted of the chief executive and his far-famed pardon system.

In Muncie Chasney Madskey, Republican candidate for mayor in the 1908 campaign, presided over the meeting, and in strong terms denounced the entire Goodrich system of government.

Democratic organizations in each county of the Eighth district are declared to be better this year than ever before.

WELLS COUNTY HAS STRONG ORGANIZATION.

In Wells county, where Mr. Taggart addressed the largest meeting Tuesday, is said to be the strongest organization of Democrats in the district.

Morris Sawyer, county chairman, aided by such Democrats as W. A. Kunkel, who acted as host to the party today and yesterday; George Saunders, editor of the Bluffton Banner; Fred Bell; W. H. Blechorn, who gained fame as assistant counsel for the Government in the prosecution of the Newberry vote fraud cases in Michigan; Mrs. Frank Ashbaugh, women's county chairman, and scores of others have built-up an organization that promises to outclass that of any other county in the State.

gation that promises to outclass that of any other county in the State.

George H. Newbauer, Hartford City, Blackfoot County chairman, has also built-up a strong organization; as has George Beebe, county chairman of Madison County, who promises a big majority for the Democratic ticket in his bailiwick, and to top it all off Dale Crittendon, Eighth district chairman, is strong in his declaration that the Eighth district will do nothing short of sending out a big vote for the entire ticket from Jim Cox down to constable.

Tomorrow Huntington and Huntington County, the home of Edmund M. Vasmuth, Republican State chairman, and long a Republican stronghold, will be swayed by the Taggart party and the big guns let loose. Today the party was to visit Portland, Geneva and Windup, with a night meeting in Decatur.

All the speakers in the party were to be turned loose today, which meant Fred Van Nuy, Charles Hughes of Peru, candidate for auditor of State; Mrs. Alice Foster McCullough, Ft. Wayne.

women's State chairman, besides a number of local speakers will aid Mr. Taggart in carrying the doctrine of Democracy to the voters in this district. At Bluffton last evening the Taggart party, in addition to a number of Wells County Democrats, were guests of Mr. Kunkel at a banquet at the Bliss Hotel.

Mr. Vannoy, as well as other members of the party, are delighted with the results obtained at the various cities visited on the tour.

"I am sure," said Mr. Vannoy, "that the people are heart and soul in favor of the League of Nations and want to see an end of the Goodrich administration in Indiana."

Mr. Eichhorn, who was a candidate for representative in Congress from the Eighth district in 1918, declared that from opinions expressed in this community by Democrats and Republicans alike, no doubt exists but that Mr. Taggart will be successful at the November election and the opinion expressed by Mr. Eichhorn receives the acquiescence of nearly every one who has the interest and welfare of the United States at heart in this section of the State.

Why Are Skin Diseases
So Difficult to Overcome?

When your skin breaks out with itching eruptions, tetter, rash, eczema, psoriasis, or other terrifying disorders, very often the pain becomes so intense, and the discomfort so thoroughly unbearable that you are willing to try almost any remedy that you think will give some measure of relief from the torture.

But temporary relief will do you but little good, for soon all the itching and irritation breaks out afresh with renewed fury, and you soon realize that local remedies such as ointments, salves and similar treatment will never rid you of your trouble.

It will not be so difficult to rid yourself of skin diseases if you will but realize that these troubles originate in the blood, and if you expect real substantial relief you must treat them through the blood.

The best remedy for this purpose is S.S.S., the fine old blood remedy that purifies the blood of disease germs, and thus restores the skin to a normal and healthy condition.

Begin taking S.S.S. today, and write a complete history of your case, and our medical director will give you expert advice without charge. Address Chief Medical Adviser, S.S.S. Laboratory, Atlanta, Ga.—Advertisement.
