

SEEK 500,000 IN RED CROSS DRIVERoll Call Plans Up at Conference Tomorrow.

Plans for enrolling 500,000 Indians in the Red Cross during the fourth roll call, Nov. 11 to 25, will be perfected tomorrow at a conference of roll call directors from ninety-two chapters at Hotel Claypool.

The Indianapolis gathering will be the first of three to be held in the States constituting the lake division of the Red Cross—Indiana, Ohio and Kentucky.

The division quota in the roll call is 1,500,000.

The chief address at the meeting here will be made by H. B. Dickson, division roll call director.

He will outline working methods for the membership drive and invite suggestions as to modes of procedure to fit various conditions to be met by the Indiana chapter.

Dr. S. E. Brewster of lake division headquarters will speak on "The Relation of the Fourth Roll Call to the Peace-Time Program of the Red Cross."

Mrs. Harrison Ewing, head of the Junior Red Cross department in the lake division, will discuss "The Relation of the Junior Red Cross to the Fourth Roll Call," and Mrs. Ruth Mougay Worrell, author of "The Red Cross of Peace," the pageant to be produced all over the country during the membership enrollment period, will explain "The Relation of the Pageant, 'The Red Cross of Peace,' to the Fourth Roll Call."

Retail Tea and Coffee
Merchants Meet Here

The National Retail Tea and Coffee Merchants' Association will hold its annual convention in Indianapolis Oct. 22 to 25. It was announced by Fred Mills, director of promotion of the Indianapolis Chamber of Commerce.

Reynolds M. Helzer of Easton, Pa., executive secretary of the organization, is in Indianapolis this week cooperating with the local committee in charge of the convention.

The local committee on arrangements is composed of William M. Bartlett, W. R. Clayton, Lucian King, Everett Irish and W. H. Holmes of Richmond.

"We are bringing this convention to Indianapolis," said Mr. Helzer, "because of the central location."

"We found that our members could get to Indianapolis with a shorter average train ride than to any other city in the United States."

The convention will bring about five or six hundred tea and coffee retailers to the city.

Revamping Building
Code Being Planned

A revision of the building code will be worked out by Walter B. Stern, building commissioner, and J. H. Hilkene, director of fire prevention, in cooperation with the bureau of municipal research of the Indianapolis Chamber of Commerce.

John R. Welch, chairman of the municipal research committee, has appointed Merritt Harrison, Henry E. Ostrum and Earl Conder, a subcommittee to work with Mr. Hilkene and Mr. Stern in making an investigation.

WHEN A GIRL MARRIES

A New Serial of Young Married Life

By Ann Lisle

CHAPTER LXXX.

"By crickets! You're a regular butter-finger, Barbara Anne—don't you think you better let me cut that string?" asked Father Andrew.

"Go on! Hurry up, dear—I'm anxious to see what Virginia is sending you," urged Jim in actual excitement.

"I'm getting the knot—wait a minute!" I insisted.

We three had come on from our evening at the theater, and after tossing my coat across a chair, I was standing at the refectory table struggling with the wrappings of the little box from Virginia. At last I got it open—and there it lay—what I had feared all along I would find.

Without a word, I laid it in the palm of my hand and held it up for Jim and father to see.

"By jove—that's a pretty thing!" Jim exclaimed. "Mighty nice of Jennie—but what's the occasion?"

His voice trailed off suddenly and he stared a bit uneasily from father to me. Father Andrew's big, gnarled fingers were holding my wrist and his steady hands were fixed on the clasp of diamonds Phoebe had worn the night before—the ring Neal had given her.

"Open the letter, Barbara Anne," said dear Father Andrew, very gently.

"What is it Anne?" asked Jim. "What is it, dear?"

Somehow I couldn't speak. Father Andrew closed my hand over the ring and held my strained little fist against his heart for a second. Then he turned to answer Jim.

"It's the ring I gave her dear mother when she plighted her vows to me," he began in a voice that was mixed with feeling. Then he went on heartily, "By crickets, my Neal gave it to your Phoebe, saw it on her little hand last night! Must be something wrong. Read us the letter, Barbara Anne, so we'll know what this means."

So I gave the ring to father, turned my eyes resolutely away from his face and read Virginia's letter aloud:

"Dear Anne—Last night your father and I both noticed this ring on Phoebe's hand. I think he was fully as anxious as I to know what it meant. And I feel that he will agree with me that what it meant—won't do. Little Phoebe fancy she is engaged to Neal. They are both young—ridiculously young. That in itself would make an engagement between them quite absurd. But the waiting and uncertainty will mean real suffering for Phoebe. Marriage at best isn't easy, and I mean to use my own experience to save Phoebe pain. So I am sending Neal's ring to you—this way we will save the boy the hurt of having Phoebe return it to him. I think it best that the children should just forget each other for the time."—Copy-right, 1920.

EAT LESS MEAT
IF BACK HURTSTake a glass of Salts to Flush Kidneys if bladder bothers you.

Eating meat regularly eventually produces kidney trouble in some form or other, says a well-known authority, because the uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked; get sluggish; clog up and cause all sorts of distress, particularly backache and misery in the kidney region; rheumatic twinges, severe headaches, acid stomach, constipation, torpid liver, sleeplessness, bladder and urinary irritation.

The moment your back hurts or kidneys aren't acting right, or if bladder bothers you, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity; also to neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts cannot injure any one; makes a delightful effervescent lithia water drink which millions of men and women take now and then to keep the kidneys and urinary organs clear, thus avoiding serious kidney disease.—Advertisement.
