The notable weddings of October were that of Miss Katharine Tanner and John Battie Ford, which took place last night at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. George Gordon Tanner, 1431 North Delaware street.

Dr. Lewis Brown of St. Paul's Episcopal Church read the service before an altar formed of floor baskets of snowy chrysanthemums, set against a background of tall palm and feathery greenery, under the soft light of tapers set in cathedral candelabra.

A program of bridal airs was played by a harp, violin and cello trio, preceding the ceremony and the "Bridal Chorus" from "Lohengrin" was used for the processional, with Grieg's "Melody" during the service.

The bridal party approached the altar through an aisle formed of white pedestals topped by French baskets overflowing with white blossoms combined with showers of smiles.

Miss Elizabeth Nicholson, the bride's only attendant, wore an effective frock of jade chiffon over cloth-of-silver with trimming of sequin and her bouquet was of sunburst roses.

Frederick S. Pohl, brother of the bridegroom, acted as best man.

The bride wore a handsome gown of bridal satin combined with Belgian lace, fastened with a court train caught on each shoulder with pearls, over which fell her tulle veil embroidered in silver thread and pearls, and she carried a shower bouquet of orchids, white heather and lilies of the valley.

She wore the bridegroom's gift, a platinum bar pin set with diamonds and sapphires.

Mrs. Tanner, mother of the bride, wore gray satin trimmed in point lace with a corsage of orchids.

Mrs. J. R. Ford, mother of the bridegroom, was in a gown of white velvet heavily beaded and she wore a corsage of orchids.

Mrs. Gordon B. Tanner wore orchid and silver brocade.

A buffet supper followed the service, with dancing later in the evening.

Assisting Mrs. Tanner were Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Lilly, Mr. and Mrs. Meredith Nicholson, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lane Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Coleman, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Murphy, Mrs. Charles F. Searles, Mrs. Charles S. Vorhees, Mr. and Mrs. William Pirtle Herod and Mrs. Gordon B. Tanner.

Mrs. Housewife, Do You Know?

1. Which consumes the most air in burning—candles, kerosene lamps or gas?
2. What is the best way to be sure of getting unadulterated coffee?
3. How to remove grease spots from leather?

(These questions will be answered tomorrow by the Housewife.)

ANSWERS TO YESTERDAY'S QUESTIONS.

The Petite Shop

Winsome Little "Dress" Frocks For the Miss of 14 to 20 Years

Every girl needs a frock of party persuasion that is yet in simple enough style to be far from "fussy." These belong to that type, and, best of all, they were bought so advantageously that we are enabled to sell them at only $30.75.

The satin frocks are trimmed with beads, some having over tunics and others having plaits forming panels at the hips.

Georgette crepe models are fashioned in various plaited styles, and are the very sort of things girls are wearing to informal dances.

The world's largest user of the purest and best maple sugar offers you the new Karo Maple

A rare and delicious syrup at a moderate price. Don't worry about the high price of maple syrup. Of special interest to every mother

When you wonder how the new Karo Maple gets its delicious tang of rich maple syrup remember—

The makers of Karo Maple use annually over a thousand tons of the purest and best flavored maple sugar from the finest maple groves in Vermont and Canada.

This is one reason why over five million cans of Karo Maple were purchased by American housewives last year.

This is a greater sale, by far, than any kind of maple syrup offered.

The moderate price of Karo Maple is also an attraction—it costs less than any other syrup of approaching quality and flavor.

Go to your grocer today and get a can of Karo Maple, in the Green Can. Try it just once—on biscuits, waffles or pancakes—or as a spread for buttered bread or toast.

Compare it for price and flavor with other maple syrups. If you are not satisfied return the balance of the can to your grocer, and get your money back.
