

BROOKLYN ANNEXES VICTORY IN SECOND BIG SERIES GAME

GRIMES HOLDS TRIBE AT BAY WITH SPITTER

By HENRY FARRELL,
United Press Sports Editor.
ERBERTS FIELD, Brooklyn, N. Y., Oct. 6.—Cleveland's Indians succumbed today to the same poison that laid out the Dodgers yesterday.

Spitball pitching par excellence, which Clevelander got into the potion of the National League champions in the opening game, was served back to them today and Brooklyn evened the count by winning the second game of the big series, 3 to 0.

Grimes scored a shutout for Brooklyn, holding the American Leaguers to seven hits. In only one inning were the Clevelanders able to drive out more than one, safety.

Just as Clevelander made the Brooklyn bats almost useless yesterday, Grimes used the same spitball slants to baffle the Indians today. He was invincible and breezed through the entire game without facing danger except in the sixth, when he was hit in the eye and seized him. He walked three batters, but pitched himself out of the hole courageously with the dangerous "Doc" Johnston at bat. He was backed brilliantly by the entire Dodger team.

While Cleveland was making a valiant effort, Grimes was having no trouble with Big Jim Bagby.

The Cleveland right hander was decidedly of the form that won him thirty-one games this year. He was not only ineffective in the box, but made the only out of the game, a wild throw to second base that made possible the second run of the game.

Bagby was relieved in the seventh inning in favor of a pinch hitter, Jack Graney, who fanned.

George Uhler then took up the burden and performed most acceptably, driving out the Indians who faced him.

Brooklyn's first run came in the opening frame. After Olson had flied out, Jimmy Johnston singled and went to second on Grimes' field out. He romped home when Zach Wheat rapped viciously to center and by good base running, stretched his single into a double.

Grimes himself started the machinery that won Brooklyn's second run in the third inning. He singled and took second on Bagby's wild throw. Tommy Griffith came through with a timely double and scored him. Bagby was in a tight place. He purposely passed Wheat and filled the bases. Further scoring was prevented, however, when W. Johnson to O'Neill and Griffith was cut down at the plate.

Bagby jumped into the limelight again in the fifth inning when he singled and scored Olson, who had previously rapped to center.

Cleveland had only two real chances to score. In the second inning Gardner led off with a double, but Grimes, by quick thinking, caught him off second when he flied out. Johnston fanned.

The eighth was a panic in the Brooklyn fans. But Grimes, after walking three batters, recovered his poise and the danger was over. With the exception of the eighth inning not a Cleveland player reached third base.

Erberts Field was filled to capacity again today, though the fans were slow in finding their places. The attendance was about equally as good. With the game count even, both managers probably will do a lot of pondering tonight over their pitching selections tomorrow. Indications were that the third game will be a southpaw battle with Sherrill Smith on the hill for the Dodgers and Walter Malls officiating for the Indians.

Health Board Orders Thorntown Clean-up

Special to The Times.

WABASH, Ind., Oct. 6.—The quarterly session of the State board of health in the State capital took action on the Thorntown survey, which it has had under consideration for some time.

Hugh A. Colding, president of the board, and a committee of five investigators employed showed the health and social conditions of Thorntown to be at a very low standard.

Dr. J. N. Hurty, secretary of the board, was instructed to write to the mayor and town board saying that a general cleanup is necessary.

Conditions in the Jeffersonville Reformatory have been very unsanitary, Dr. Hurty reported, and an order was issued to improve conditions there.

Orders were also issued to will force Indianapolis officials to put Pleasant Run and Bean Creek in sanitary condition.
