FEW MEASURES FOUND INCORRECT

City Inspector Says Merchants Are Fair.

Only one-half of 1 per cent of all the packages of food and other merchandise tested for weight and length in Indianapolis stores during the fiscal year ending Sept. 30 by the city department of weights and measures were found incorrect, according to the annual report of the department. The report also lists measures to the State department of weights and measures, completed today.

Other facts contained in the report show Indianapolis merchants to be unusually fair in the matter of weights and measures, Mr. McGuff declared.

A total of 5,000 visits were made during the fiscal year, a total of 69,510 during inspections.

Two hundred and forty-six spring scales, eighteen dry measures, twenty-four liquid measures, nine yard measures and four weights were confiscated.

It was necessary to make three prosecutions during the fiscal year, Mr. McGuff said.

Particular attention is being paid at the present time to the inspection of loads of coal.

So far the department has found, the inspector said, that there was overweight on practically every load inspected.

Mexican Exposition to Be Held in 1922

MEXICO CITY, Mexico, Oct. 6.—Plans for Mexico's International Exposition are assuming definite shape.

It has been decided to hold the exposition in 1922 instead of 1921, so as to give more time for the erection of the buildings and the preparatory work.

The year 1922 also gives opportunity for the 100th anniversary of an event in Mexican history.

It was in 1822 that Spain first recognized the independence of Mexico.

Mexico's great year was 1810, when the fight for independence was begun, but as 1910 is a thing of the past, the exposition must accept the next best thing for centennial use.

It is believed that there will be exhibits from all over the world and especially from the United States.

A number of "expositions universales" are in the field for the job of telling how great expositions should be managed.

riding, and the two men are charged with operating a blind tiger.

Diele gave his address as 1122 Fourth Street, but the police say he lives at Michigan street and Jefferson avenue.

When the driver of a roadster bearing automobile license 221984 attempted to pass the police at a high rate of speed Sergeant Russell opened fire and the bullets hit two tires of the speeding car.

CRIPPLED CAR CAUGHT.

The car careened from side to side and ended in a ditch.

The driver jumped out, leaped over the fence and disappeared in a corn field.

In the car was twenty gallons of "white mule" whisky and twelve quarts of beer. The automobile was brought to police headquarters and the records of the secretary of state show that the license plate of the car was issued to G. C. Griffith, care of the Columbia Club, for a Ford car, but the license was on an Overland automobile, and no G. C. Griffith is a member of the Columbia Club.

TIP FOR ARREST COMES TO ORBISON.

Information which led to the arrest of the "white mule" runners was received at the office of C. J. Orbison, Federal prohibition enforcement agent, late yesterday afternoon.

In a recent special delivery, signed by a citizen of Hendricks County, it was revealed that a load of "white mule" whisky was about to be sent from Clinton to Indianapolis.

The letter stated that the contraband liquor would be shipped by automobile over the Indianapolis road, sometimes twice a day, 5 o'clock last night and 7 o'clock this morning.

The writer of the letter declared that the occupants of the automobile would be three men and two women, and described the auto as "either a Dodge or a Maxwell touring car," the license plate of which could not be ascertained, according to the informer.

Mr. Orbison immediately turned the letter over to the police.

NEW LIQUOR BAN HITS THREE STATES that the order was to become effective immediately.

The commission's order fixes a margin of $2.25 a ton for retailers and 15 cents a ton for jobbers.

WHAT NEW PRICE SHOULD BE.

The retailer's margin is exclusive of freight charges, which would average about $1.20 a ton in Indianapolis, bringing the commission's price to consumers in Indianapolis from $6.60 to $7.45 for mine coal and to $9.20 for Brazil block.

These prices are far above the prices retailers have been and are asking.

The question is, will they will insist on the order being applied as far as retailers and jobbers are concerned to coal mined outside the State and sold in Indiana.

This ruling, together with others of the commission, even if they are carried out, will result in a wide range of prices, due to differences in freight rates and in the cost of coal at which coal is to be sold at the mines both inside and outside of the State.

The fight against the commission order is expected to be taken immediately to the courts by the dealers.

ONLY ABOUT 400 TONS ON HAND.

Coal dealers of the city have approximately only 400 tons of Indiana coal for sale, the inquiry revealed.

The wholesalers have contracted for their Indiana coal at prices at the mouth of the mine which they claim forces them to sell the coal at prices ranging from $9 to $15 a ton, depending on the kind of coal.

Some companies said they had Indiana coal on the way, but explained they had paid as much as $8 a ton for lump coal at the mine and consequently would sell it at their present price of $11.75, which includes delivery to the dealers.

Some dealers are in a position to provide as much as 20 tons of lump coal at $10.75 a ton, while others are without Indiana coal and expect to be for some weeks.

Orders were issued to State directors several weeks ago to lay the ban, Kramer disclosed.

He declared that the effects have already been noticeable, particularly in New York City, where illicit liquor traffic is reported on the decline.

ASKS U. S. INQUIRY ON WHEAT SLUMP

Kansan Governor Says Brokers Forced Prices Down.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 7.—President Wilson is expected to refer the request of Governor Allen of Kansas for an investigation of alleged manipulation of the wheat market, to Secretary of Agriculture Meredith. It was learned at the White House today.

Governor Allen, in a telegram to the commission, asked that there be an investigation of present reduction in wheat prices, which he charged was forced.

He charged that Chicago dealers are bringing Canadian grain into this country at low prices because of the exchange situation, and by this manipulation are forcing wheat prices downward.
