

LITTLE THEATER PLAY READINGS TO OPEN OCT 12

Cropsey Auditorium Sessions to Be at Direction of Mrs. Isaac Born.

SCHEDULE NEW EFFORTS

The first of the bi-monthly play-reading meetings of the Little Theater Society of Indiana will take place on Tuesday evening, Oct. 12, in the Cropsey auditorium of the public library at 8:15 o'clock.

This year these meetings will be in charge of Mrs. Isaac Born, who will be assisted by Miss Estelle Kipp and Mrs. William Allen Moore.

Tuesday evening will be a "get-together" meeting for the year.

Robert E. Tracy, president of the society, will speak and will make a general discussion on the purposes of the meetings and the ideal that should be maintained.

In the workings of the organization it is hoped to give this branch a closer knit relation with the producing organization that has been maintained heretofore, using the meetings for the trying out of new people for the productions and also for the testing of plays on an audience.

Reports of all meetings will be kept and the quality of each reader carefully recorded at the workshop office. This branch of the work will really constitute a junior Little Theater.

At this first meeting there will also be one play read, "A Short Way With Authors," by Gilbert Cannan, the author of "Everybody's Husband," which he performed so successfully last year by this organization.

The reading of Mr. Cannan's play will be under the direction of Miss Estelle Kipp and it will be interpreted by Mr. and Mrs. Russell Stewart, Otto Walther Lieber, Fritz Schaefer and Kurt Vonnegut.

The next meeting will take place on Oct. 26, under the charge of Mr. Moore. The program given will be George Calderon's "The Little Stone House" and Lord Dunsany's most recent farce, "If Shakespeare Lived Today."

Society

The birthday anniversary of the beloved Hoosier poet, James Whitcomb Riley, is being celebrated today by various organizations over the city, with special exercises and programs.

Among the clubs whose meetings come today is the Aftermath Club, which observed president's day with a luncheon at the home of Mrs. C. W. Field, 3440 Washington boulevard, followed by a Riley program of songs and responses.

Mrs. J. H. Brill, the retiring president, and Mrs. Field made brief talks and the other retiring and incoming officers made informal addresses.

Responses from Riley's verses were given by the members of the club and Mrs. O. T. Behrmer, vocalist, gave a group of songs, including "There, Little Girl, Don't Cry," and "Out to Old Aunt Mary's."

The luncheon table was decorated with French baskets of lily and white asters, tied with lavender tulle, and lavender tapers set in crystal holders carrying out the club colors.

Miss Lillian H. Klinge, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest W. Klinge, and Val F. Schneider will be married tonight in St. John's Evangelical Church.

The attendants will include Ruth Heinemann, bridesmaid; Mary Thielman, maid of honor; Fred Schneider, best man; Elmer Klinge, usher; William Fisher, ringbearer; Albert Mack, flower maid.

Mrs. Lee Templeton of Minneapolis is the guest of her mother, Mrs. Charles C. Binkley, 402 North Delaware street.

A pretty wedding of last night was that of Miss Helen Resener, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward H. Resener, 1631 Park avenue, and Edwin C. Matthius, which took place in the Trinity Lutheran Church.

The Rev. J. D. Matthius, father of the bridegroom, read the service, and acted as best man.

Baskets of chrysanthemums in various tints against background of palms and ferns, banked the altar.

Miss Elsie Neider sang "I Love You Truly," and "At Dawning," preceding the ceremony.

Paul Elbert, organist, used the Bridal chorus from "Lohengrin" for the professional, Mendelssohn's Wedding March for the recessional and "To a Wild Rose" during the service.

Miss Myra Fischer, maid of honor, wore a frock of orchid charmeuse with an arm bouquet of orchids and roses.

Miss Ada Matthius, in peach-colored satin, with an arm bouquet of white chrysanthemums, and Miss Irene Kurian, in green satin, carrying yellow chrysanthemums, were the bridesmaids.

Master Carl Resener, Jr., in a white tuxedo suit carried the ring in a lily. The bride wore a gown of ivory charmeuse, appliqued in pearls velvet with tulle veil arranged in effect held in place with a shower of lilies of the valley and chrysanthemums.

Following the service, a wedding supper was served at the home of the bride's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Matthius have gone to New York, the bride traveling in a dark green pebble-suit, with collar and cuffs of marten, and hat to match.

After Nov. 1, they will be at home at 1631 Park avenue.

Phi Delta Psi of the North American Gymnastic Union entertained last night with a dinner at the Claypool Hotel, followed by a dancing party at the home of the present, Miss Charles Sargent, 2020 North Delaware street.

French baskets of Mrs. Aaron Ward roses, tied with tulle in shades of gold and blue, the sorority colors, gold candles set in crystal holders tied with tulle.

MOTOR FASHION.
The skirt of this dress is slit at the sides which is a feature much to its credit from the motorist's point of view for one may turn the lining at the back to protect the fur from undue wear. The coat is of Hudson seal and beaver. It is lined with taupe satin.

In the same line, made attractive decorations for the dinner.

The dance was in the nature of an Oriental party, the rooms being dimly lighted by tapers, and hazy with the smoke from burning incense.

Miss Edna Leroy, 3031 College avenue, will entertain tonight with a "bridge" and buffet supper in honor of Miss Margaret Horanbrook and Robert G. Winslow, whose marriage will be solemnized Oct. 16.

The Alfrida Club will hold its luncheon meeting Saturday in the tearoom of L. S. Ayres & Co.

Mme. Olga Petrova, who will be a guest of honor, will give an informal talk.

Miss De Wayne T. Payne, secretary of the Aetna Trust Company, will be introduced as a new member.

Miss Elizabeth Nicholson and Benjamin T. Chayrol, whose marriage will take place Saturday night in St. Paul's Episcopal Church, were the guests of honor at a buffet dinner given last night by Miss Margaret Row, at her home, 2027 North Delaware street.

French baskets of garden flowers in various hues were used throughout the rooms.

The guests included the members of the bridal party.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Koenig announce the marriage of their daughter, Victoria Brenneke, to J. Arthur Bentsch, which was solemnized this morning by the Rev. Joseph Chartrand, in St. Peter and Paul Cathedral.

Mr. and Mrs. Bentsch have gone on a motor trip to Detroit, and will be at home at 2026 Central avenue, after Nov. 1.

INDIANAPOLIS PLEASED BY QUICK RESULTS
Every one is pleased with the quick results of simple witchazel, camphor, hydrastis, etc., as mixed in Lavoipix eye wash. One man's eyes were so badly strained he could not read without pain. Two applications relieved him. A lady with weak, inflamed eyes was greatly helped by ONE bottle. We guarantee a small bottle of Lavoipix to help ANY CASE weak, strained or inflamed eyes. Henry J. MY HUSBAND'S FAVORITE RECIPE

CHOCOLATE CAKE.
Ingredients—One-half cup of butter, one cup of sugar, two cups of flour, three level teaspoons of baking powder, the whites of three eggs, one-half cup of milk and one-half teaspoonful of vanilla extract.

Method—Cream butter and sugar together, adding sugar to butter gradually, creaming the two thoroughly. Sift flour with baking powder several times. Then add alternately with milk to the butter and sugar mixture. Add flavoring and lastly fold in the whites of the eggs, which have been beaten until stiff. Bake in three layers in moderate oven. Frost cake with chocolate icing.

Mrs. Housewife, Do You Know?

1. What makes the difference between hard and soft water?
2. Is it injurious to serve ice cream at a children's party?
3. How to keep ironing boards clean?

These questions will be answered tomorrow by the Housewife.

ANSWERS TO YESTERDAY'S QUESTIONS.
1. The burning of kerosene oil lamps is not injurious if good ventilation from open windows is supplied.
2. Cocoa is 50 per cent fat, and it is this fat that makes it difficult for some persons to digest it.
3. Most laundry tubs are too low. The top of the tub should be about three feet from the floor for a woman of average height.—Copyright, 1920.

Asked to Aid in Hunt for Missing Veteran

Frank Green, ballist of Superior Court, room 2, today received word from relatives at St. Louis asking Green to aid in a search for John Little, 701 Civil War veteran, Fairbury, Neb., who attended the G. A. R. encampment in Indianapolis. Little was scheduled to go to St. Louis after the G. A. R. encampment.

SOPRANO HEARD IN RECITAL HERE

Mrs. Shealor Presented by Matinee Musicals.

Mrs. Estelle Krippner Shealor, soprano, was presented in recital yesterday afternoon by the Matinee Musicals in its first program of the season, given in Sculpture court of the John Herron Art Institute.

Following the program an informal tea was held in the south wing, where Mrs. Henry Schurmann, former president of the organization, and Mrs. C. F. Vorhees presided.

The tentable was attractive with pink roses and tapers set in silver holders. Mrs. Charles Pfafflin, the president for this year, spoke a few words of greeting to the club, mentioning briefly some of the plans for the season.

Mrs. Shealor's program included four groups of songs of varied character. Her opening numbers were "Care Selva," and "Oh, Had I Jubal's Lyre" (Handel).

A group of French numbers were particularly pleasing, seeming peculiarly fitted to her voice.

It included "Si J'étais Dieu" (Fontenailles), "L'Heure Esquise" (Reynaldo Hahn) and "Elegie du Soir" (Fourdrain). "Lullaby" (Gretchenov) and "A Sylvan Roundelay" (Rinsky-Korsakov) were among her Russian numbers.

The remainder of her program included "Idyll" (McDowell), "Mamma's Song" (Harriet Ware), "In a Fairy Boat" (Cyril Scott), "Fairy Pipers" (Brewer), "Thank God for a Garden" (Liza Lehman) and two negro dialect songs.

Mrs. S. K. Ruick was the accompanist and Mrs. Edwin Sheppard was in charge of the program.
