Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Born announce the marriage of their son, Ferdinand, to Miss Muriel Gilbert, daughter of Mrs. Lillian Dolan of this city, which took place yesterday in Lafayette, in the presence of only the immediate families.

The bride wore her traveling suit of brown duvetyne, with accessories to match, and a corsage of sweetheart roses and orchids.

A dinner at the Fowler Hotel followed the service.

Mrs. Born is a graduate of Shortridge High School and attended St. Mary's of the Woods.

Mr. Born also is a graduate of Shortridge, and of the University of Illinois.

Mr. and Mrs. Born have gone on a motor trip through the Berkshires and will stop at various points of interest through the East.

They will be at home after Nov. 1, at 2940 North Pennsylvania street.

Indianapolis Alliance of Delta Delta Delta will hold the monthly luncheon Oct. 16 instead of tomorrow, as formerly announced.

Mr. and Mrs. Meredith Nicholson entertained with a bridal dinner last night in honor of their daughter, Miss Elizabeth Nicholson, and Benjamin F. Claycomb, whose marriage will take place tomorrow night.

Pink roses, delphinium and white lilies, combined with maidenhair fern effectively arranged around the centerpiece of valley lilies and bride roses, decorated the table.

The bridal party includes Miss Margaret Row, maid of honor; Mrs. Jack Gould, Miss Carolyn Coffin, Miss Ruth Hubbard, Miss Margaret Gardner and Mrs. Charles Pearce, bridesmaids; Dudley Taylor, best man; Frederick Holliday, Jack Gould, Dudley Pfeiffer, Charles R. Pearce and Meredith Nicholson, Jr., ushers.

Miss Nicholson's gifts to her attendants were platinum bar pins set with diamonds, and the gifts for the men were monogrammed black leather cigarette cases.

St. John's Evangelical Church was the scene of a pretty wedding last night when Miss Lillian Klinge was united in marriage to Val F. Schneider.

A playing fountain banked with palms, ferns and feathery greenery and flower baskets of autumn flowers, made an attractive setting for the service which was read by the Rev. W. E. Uhlman.

Miss Dorothy Rust sang "At Dawning" and "Because," preceding the ceremony, with Miss Louise Lensmann at the organ, who used the "Bridal Chorus" from "Lohengrin" for the procession.

Fred Schneider and Elmer Klinge acted as groomsmen, with Lewis Burck and Carl Hull as ushers.

Miss Mary Thielman, maid of honor, in orchid crepe meteor with lace overdrapes, carried a shower of Opheelia roses, and Miss Ruth Heineberger, bridesmaid, was in peach-color and carried a basket hat filled with vari-colored flowers.

Master William Fisher, in a black velvet suit, carried the ring on a velvet tray.

Little Miss Alberta Mack, in a dainty white frock, scattered rose-petals before the bride.

The bride wore a gown of ivory satin with an overdrapery of silver lace and a tulle veil arranged cap effect held in place by a spray of orange blossoms.

Her bouquet was a shower of orchids, bride roses and lilies of the valley.

Following the service a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest W. Klinge, 902 Sanders street.

Mr. and Mrs. Schneider left last night for a trip through the East.

Dr. and Mrs. William P. Best, 2012 Broadway, entertained with a dinner last night in honor of their son Claus Best, and Miss Vera Dean, whose marriage will take place tomorrow.

Miss Doris Hackler of Logansport, and Lowell Hofferbert of this city, were married Wednesday afternoon, in Roberts Park Church, the Rev. G. M. Smith officiating, in the presence of a few friends and relatives.

The Pauline Canon, organist, played a vocal chorus from "Lohengrin" for the procession.

The bride wore a midnight blue dress with hat of the same shade, and carried a bouquet of white roses.

Following the wedding a reception was held at the home of the bride's aunt, George Driesbach, 221 East Vermont street.

Mr. and Mrs. Hofferbert have gone on a wedding trip and will be at home in this city after Oct. 15.

Walter Rinker, formerly of this city, now of Dallas, Tex., is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Lehman, in the Knickerbocker apartments.

Mrs. A. D. Hitz, 2112 Park avenue, will be the hostess for the annual meeting of Kappa Alpha Theta, which will be held tomorrow afternoon.

Mrs. Myron R. Williams, 2331 Talbott avenue, will go to Detroit Monday, where she will be the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Judd Spray.

Members of the Alpha Omicron Pi Alumnae Club will be entertained tomorrow afternoon by Mrs. Walter H. Scates, 36 West Twenty-Seventh street.

Mrs. James W. Hamblen, 18 East Thirty-Seventh street, entertained her "bridge" club this afternoon.

Miss Clara Frommeyer, 2156 North Meridian street, entertained yesterday afternoon with a "bridge" and handkerchief shower in honor of Miss Adele Eckler.

LONG, SLIM LINES.

So says fall most emphatically. In reference to street frocks, there is the same glow of triumphing to relieve the somber tones of the warmer fabrics that was displayed last winter. Here beads of amber, vermillion and jade are used with stunning effect. The long, under arm of the tunic and the low set girdle are two special features of this frock. Material is blue serge.

whose marriage to Arthur Nugent will take place this month.

French baskets of roses, tied with tulle, place cards and lace, all carried out a color scheme of pink and white.

The gifts were presented by little Robert McManus, nephew of the hostess.

Mrs. Raymond McManus, Mrs. Henry Frommeyer and Mrs. Charles Eckler assisted Miss Frommeyer.

The guests included Mrs. William Rider of Waynetown, Mrs. W. C. Shanklin of Frankfort, Mrs. Donald Test, Mrs. Whitney Spiegel, Mrs. Oscar Cartelino, Mrs. Howard Ewell, Mrs. Albert Adair, Mrs. Frank Buschman, Miss Florabel Lynch, Mrs. Harry Dawson and Miss Carlotta Melinger.

FEDERATION OF STATE CLUBS TO MEET OCT. 26-28

Business and Social Programs Embrace Wide Range of Subjects.

Indiana Federation of Clubs will hold its annual convention at the Claypool Hotel Oct. 26, 27 and 28.

The program will open at 12 o'clock noon when the motion picture committee will give a luncheon, which may be attended by any women interested.

The council meeting will be held Tuesday afternoon, when the following subjects will be discussed:

"The Reorganization of the General Federation of Women's Clubs," and "Shall Indiana Have a Spring Convention?"

Wednesday noon a luncheon will be given for all acting and past district chairwomen, where district problems will be discussed.

The federation dinner will be held on Wednesday evening, and Thursday night the convention dinner will be given.

Mrs. O. C. Lukens, 1902 East Washington street, is in charge of reservations for luncheons and dinners.

A number of well known speakers will appear on the program, including Mrs. Edward R. Johnstone of Vincennes, N. J., who will talk on "Mental Hygiene," William Mather Lewis of Washington, D. C., who will speak on "Women and Finance," Miss Florence Ward, also of Washington, whose address will be on "Conservation of the Home."

Various topics of vital importance connected with the federation will be discussed and taken up by the committees during the sessions.

Wednesday there will be a committee hour from 4 to 5 o'clock, when every chairman is to meet her particular committee for business discussions.

Mrs. E. C. Rumpel, State president of the federation, will preside at the meetings.

Mrs. Housewife, Do You Know?

1. What is difference between an antiseptic and a disinfectant?
2. What makes bread sour?
3. How to tie a string to a broom handle to hang it up?
(These questions will be answered tomorrow by the Housewife.)

ANSWERS TO YESTERDAY'S QUESTIONS.

1. The difference between hard and soft water is that hard water contains magnesia and lime dissolved in it.
2. It is safe to serve ice cream at a children's party if before the ice cream wholesome sandwiches and milk or very weak cocoa are served. The children will satisfy their appetites on the first course and not be likely to gorge on the sweets.
3. To keep ironing boards clean have cotton slip covers to keep the dust from them when they are not in use.—Copyright, 1920.

MY HUSBAND'S FAVORITE RECIPE

BUTTERSCOTCH PIE.

Ingredients—Two and one-half cups of milk, one and one-half cups of brown sugar, two heaping tablespoons of flour, three eggs, and three tablespoons of butter.

Method—Heat two cups of the milk until warm. Then stir in the flour. Add the remainder of the milk and the yolks of the eggs, and cook until the desired thickness. Then add the butter, and lastly beat in the whites of the eggs which have been beaten stiff.

Place in pie crust which has been cooked. Sprinkle a little sugar over the butterscotch filling and put in the oven until brown.

Method—Roll out in two parts for the bottoms of two pies and bake in moderately hot oven about ten minutes.

This recipe will make enough for two pies.
