

'Y. W.' ORGANIZES
GIRL RESERVES*Movement Similar to 'Camp
Fire and Scouts.'

Five Girl Reserves Clubs of the Young Women's Christian Association have been organized in the seventh and eighth grades during the past two weeks by Miss Urith Daily, associate girls' work secretary.

These clubs, or corps, together with the three high school corps, five corps of younger girls in business and industry, a business college corps and several corps organized under the direction of the colored center, will form the Indianapolis division of the International Girl Reserves, a movement of the Young Women's Christian Association, similar to the Campfire and Girl Scouts.

The object of the movement is to give girls, through healthful, natural activities, the habits, insight and ideals which will make them capable, responsible women.

The program which will be carried out this year includes athletics, games, swimming, roller skating, bowling, hiking, contests of various kinds, informal discussions, vocational training, handicraft, reading, story-telling, dramatics, musicals, parties, suppers, exhibits, personal service, community service and national service.

The following clubs have been organized: School No. 9, twenty-one members; leader, Mrs. D. H. Smith; officers, Marie Mueller, Norma George and Clara Krentler. School No. 13, twenty-five members; leader, Miss Charlotte Lesh; officers, Ruth Emigsholz, Mildred Mohr and Viola Seltz. School No. 14, twenty-one members; leader, Mrs. Arthur Shultz; officers to be elected at the next meeting. School No. 16, twenty-five members; leader, Miss Isabel Downing; officers, Ruth Walton, Dorothy Hayden and Della Moore.

School No. 10 has just been organized with Miss Daly as temporary leader. The service program of these clubs for the next few weeks will consist of collecting, sorting and mending clothes for the American relief.

Y. W. C. A. NOTES.
Mrs. Edward Franklin White will take up the following subjects in her course in business law for women on Monday nights, 7 to 8: Contracts, partnerships, corporations, property rights, mortgages, employment, rental contracts, railroads as carriers, the marital contract, insurance, taxation.

The home sewing classes are proving popular. The schedule of these organized is as follows: Elementary sewing, Thursday, 7 to 9; dressmaking, Monday, 7 to 9 and Tuesday, 2 to 4. In the elementary sewing, Miss Hazel Barrows is the instructor. The making of lingerie, simple blouses and house dresses will be taken up. In the dressmaking classes the students will be taught how to use patterns, how to fit and make fashions and winter dresses. Miss Mary Dalton has charge of these classes.

Several girls are now enrolled at the association under private tutors in both grade and high school subjects. Miss Florence Conway is tutoring in grade subjects. Mrs. Paul Ragsdale and Mrs. W. E. Nethercut are tutoring in high school subjects. The educational director will gladly arrange hours for any one desiring this kind of study.

The members of the morning gymnasium class, which meets on Tuesdays and Fridays from 10:30 to 11:30, will have the privilege hereafter of taking a half-hour swim after the class. A half-hour swim is required of the reducing class which meets on Mondays and Thursdays from 9:30 to 10:30. Miss Anna Pope Riley, the new physical director, will teach certain strokes, which are particularly designed to reduce weight. The members of the class will also be provided with a carefully planned diet.

The Rev. Clarence Reidenbach, pastor of the Irvington Christian Church, will be the speaker at the vesper service on Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock. He will have as his subject "Soft Souls and Hard Souls."

Fifty-eight girls attended the first meeting of the Technical High School Girl Reserves Club last Friday. Unless the basketball game interferes, election of officers will take place at the next meeting, otherwise the girls will take a hike.

The next meeting of the Manual Training High School Girl Reserves Club will be held Tuesday at 3:30, when officers will be elected. Vivian Butler will preside and Ann Weaver will act as secretary pro tem. Eighteen girls have enrolled in this club.

The second of the series of open forum being given in the Y. W. C. A. lounge on Monday evenings from 6:30 to 7:30

Sorority Leaders*MISS HELEN GOODNOW AND MISS MARY CROSSLAND.

Directing the arrangements for the dancing party to be given by the Gamma Delta Epsilon Sorority, Friday night, in the ballroom of the Independent Athletic Club, are Miss Mary Crossland, president, and Miss Helen Goodnow, vice president.

Other officers of the organization include Miss Esther Fleming, corresponding secretary; Miss Hazel Van Aiken, recording secretary; Miss Alma Ayres, treasurer; Miss Grethyl Zaring, chaplain, and Miss Ruth Fisher, sergeant-at-arms. Chaperones for dance will include Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Ralston, Mr. and Mrs. John Downing Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. E. Brennan, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Blodgett, Mr. and Mrs. Harry LeBeau, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Zaring, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Payl, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Eaton and Mr. and Mrs. Allen T. Fleming.

will be held Monday, Oct. 11, with Ray S. Trent as speaker. Mr. Trent's subject is "Social and Economic Issues of Today." Opportunity for discussion will be given after the talk. A considerable number attended the discussion this week, and it is expected that an even larger number will attend Monday evening. No fee of any kind is required.

Ninety-two girls attended the fall rally of the Federation of Industrial Clubs on Wednesday, Oct. 6. Dinner was served at 6:15, followed by a short program, stunts and games.

An Italian class for beginners has been organized to meet on Thursday afternoon from 4 to 5 o'clock. The first meeting will be on Oct. 14. Signora Corinda Conte, who came to this country from Italy this last summer, will be the instructor.

Mrs. Housewife,
Do You Know?

1. How to test powdered sugar for adulterants?
2. Why candy is good to eat on a long and exhausting walk?
3. How to clean silver?
These questions will be answered Monday.

ANSWERS TO YESTERDAY'S QUESTIONS.

1. A disinfectant is a strong solution of a germ-killing compound; an antiseptic is a weaker solution, which retards but does not prevent the development of the germ.
2. Bread sours if the fermentation goes too far, when the sugar is converted into alcohol, and then into an acid which produces the sourness.
3. To fasten a cord to a broom to hang it up bore a hole in the handle with a hot skewer or stout wire.

MANY NEW BOOKS
PUT ON SHELVES*Miss Saylor and Miss Bause Attached at Irvington.

Miss Marion Saylor, formerly of the Hawthorne branch library, and Miss Esther Bause have been appointed as part-time attendants at the Irvington branch library.

The following new books have been added:
"Applied Indexing," by A. J. Amberg; "Psychology of the Normal and Subnormal," by H. H. Goddard; "Proceedings 1918 Annual Convention, International Association of Rotary Clubs"; "Cannery Directory," and "Printing Trades Blue Book, 1920."

New books at Central library include: "Hand-Made Fabrics," by George Arthur; "Sigmund, Our Golden Collie," by K. L. Bates; "Uttermost Star," by F. W. Bertram; "Constructive Anatomy," by G. B. Bridgman; "Poems of a Little Girl," by Hilda Conkling; "Schoolhouse," by E. C. Earl; "Moral Education in School and Home," by J. O. Engelman; "Technique of Oil Paintings," by H. E. Field; "Great Modern American Stories," by W. D. Howells; "Socialism, Feminism and Suffragism," by B. V. Hubbard; "Two Years of Pastry Taxation," by O. H. Kahn; "Herbert Hoover," by V. L. Kellogg; "Russian-American Relations, March 1917 to March 1920," by J. A. K. Smith; "Have You a Strong Will?" by C. G. Leland; "You Can, But Will You?" by O. S. Marden; "Roses, Their History, Development and Cultivation," by J. H. Pemberton; "Diplomatic Background of the War, 1870-1914," by Charles Seymour; "Rising Tide of Color Against White World Supremacy," by T. C. Stoddard; "Eminent Victorians," by Lytton Strachey; and "Small Country Houses of Today," by Lawrence Weaver.

New books in the children's room at Central library are: "Happy House," by J. D. Abbott; "Comrade Rosalie," by M. C. Du Bois; "Guardians," by Homer Greene; "Young People's History of the Pilgrims," by W. E. Griffis; "Thrift and Success," by B. B. Jackson; "Little Gateways to Science," by E. M. Patch; "New Corners," by E. W. Peattie; and "Yankee Toodles," by Myrtle Sproule.

Music Notes

Following the conclusion of the opening performance of the Blais opera "Carmen" at English's Opera House Monday night, Lorna Doone Jackson, who sings the title role, an Indianapolis girl, and a graduate of Shortridge High School, will hold a stage reception for Shortridge alumni.

She will be assisted in receiving by her husband, Ralph Dunbar, the producer and Walter Wheatley, Australian tenor, who sings the role of "Don Juan."

Miss Jackson studied voice in the Metropolitan School of Music under Edward Neil.

Mr. Neil will give a box party on the evening night in honor of his former pupil.

Miss Marion Louise Pratt, harpist, 1812 Central avenue, has gone to Chicago to join a group of young women who will travel in concert this winter on a circuit from New York to San Francisco.

Miss Pratt is well known among musical folk in the city, having appeared in concert here.

She is an active member of the Matinee Musicale.

A new department of English is to be added to the College of Music and Fine Arts, which will be in charge of Miss Helen Rost.

She is a graduate of Western College and of Columbia University.

In addition to the regular English course, she will conduct a special short-story class.

The musical program for Sunday night to be given in the Rainbow room of the Hotel Severin by the Orloff trio will include "Carmen" (Blais), "Chanson Louis XIII" and "Pavane" (Comperin-Kreisler), "Honor and Love," from "Monsieur Beaucaire," and selections from "Maid to Love."

Society

Floor baskets of asters and cosmos set against palms, ferns and masses of greenery made an attractive background for the marriage of Miss Vera Irving Dean, daughter of Mrs. Irving Monroe Dean, and Claus Howard Best, which took place this morning in the Central Christian church, the Rev. Allan B. Philpott officiating.

Cliplinger, organist, played a group of numbers preceding the ceremony including "Nuptial March" (Guilmant), "Introduction," third act of "Lohengrin," "Cantilene Nuptials" (Du Val), and Alpha Chi Omega airs, ushers, the "Bridal Chorus" from "Lohengrin" for the processional, the Mendelssohn wedding march for the recessional, and Schubert's "Ave Maria" during the service.

Miss Mary Ann Ogden, niece of the bride, the only attendant, wore a frock of old gold satin with duvety hat of the same shade, and carried a French bouquet.

The bride wore her traveling suit of French-blue velvet with nutria collar, a black panne velvet picture hat and a corsage of white roses and lilies of the valley.

Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. James Ogden, 3333 North Pennsylvania street.

Crystal vases of white roses tied with pale green tulle, green tapers set in silver holders attractively decorated the table.

Mr. and Mrs. Best have gone on a motor trip to White Sulphur Springs (Va.), and will be at home after Nov. 15 in the Northwood apartments.

The Woman's Rotary Club will hold its weekly luncheon meeting in the Flotation room of the Claypool Hotel Monday.

Miss Emma Colbert, chairman of the Rotary educational committee, will talk on educational work.

The members of the committee include Miss Anna Nicholas, Miss Margaret Donnan and Mrs. Walter R. Mayer.

Names read at the last meeting for membership in the club will be voted upon.

Miss Vera Dudley, 2343 North New Jersey street, has gone to Chicago to spend the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Omer J. Wiesbach, 3309 East Twenty-sixth street, were entertained last night by their friends, who gave a surprise farewell party in their honor, as Mr. and Mrs. Wiesbach are going next week to Florida for residence.

Miss Alma Fishman, 131 West Morris street, will be the hostess for the Gamma Sigma meeting to be held tomorrow afternoon.

John E. Jameson, of Winchester has been the guest of Mrs. Lorenzo Kirk, 3106 North Illinois street, for several days.

Mrs. Elmer Cope and son William are visiting friends in the city.

Charles Deming and Miss Margaret Perry of Wichita, Kan., who have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. Scott Deming, 8241 Kenwood avenue, have returned home.

Miss Irma Aufderheide and Miss Joyce Sherman were hostesses for the Delta Sigma "bunco" party, held this afternoon at the home of Miss Aufderheide, 3228 Broadway.

Decorations, favors and table appointments all carried out the Halloween decorating scheme.

St. Margaret's Hospital Guild will meet Tuesday with Mrs. William F. Mullin, 3271 Washington boulevard.

Mrs. Minnie M. Karas, 2932 Cornell avenue, announces the marriage of her daughter, Miss Emily Agnes Karas, to

'Thanks,' Says Man
Sentenced to Hang

WASHINGTON, Oct. 9.—"Thank you." This was the remark today of 21-year-old John McHenry when sentenced to be hanged Dec. 14 for killing Detective Sergeant James B. Armstrong.

Capt. Edwin H. Randle, which took place in San Antonio, Texas, last night. Miss Karas was in government service in Washington, D. C., for some time, then was transferred to Ft. Harrison Harrison in Government Red Cross work, and recently was appointed as secretary to the major general at Ft. Harrison.

Captain Randle was in service overseas, continuing in the army after the war, and was sent to Ft. Harrison last January, where he remained until his recent transfer to San Antonio.

Captain and Mrs. Randle have gone on a wedding trip to Cuba and on their return will be at home in San Antonio.

A pretty wedding was held in Grace M. E. church last night when Miss Virginia Harbold, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. U. Harbold, 1023 North Arsenal avenue, was united in marriage to R. C. Newlin.

The Rev. G. M. Smith of Roberts Park M. E. Church read the service before the altar banked with palms, ferns, and masses of feathery greenery and blossoms in pastel shades.

The Rev. Mr. Smith's first marriage service was that of the bride's parents. He was assisted by the Rev. C. E. Lane, pastor of Grace church.

A program of bridal airs was given by Miss Eva Newlin, violinist, and Miss Lela Newlin, pianist, preceding the ceremony.

Goldie Walker sang "O Promise Me" just before the ceremony, accompanied by Mrs. C. A. Barrett, organist, who also played the bridal chorus from "Lohengrin" for the processional.

Miss Grace Harbold, sister of the bride, maid of honor, wore a frock of lavender Georgette crepe, embroidered, and carried an arm bouquet of Ophelia roses.

The trio of bridesmaids, including Miss Ellen Short, Miss Gladie Searey of Elwood, Miss Florence Overman of Greensburg, wore dainty frocks of Georgette crepe in rainbow shades and carried arm bouquets of pink roses. Miss Short in peach color, Miss Searey in blue and Miss Overman in pink.

Horace Newlin, brother of the bridegroom, was best man and Eugene Newlin, Verne Turley and Ralph King acted as ushers.

The bride wore a gown of bridal satin with a tulle veil arranged Russian style, held in place by a satin band, and her bouquet was a shower of white roses. Among the out-of-town guests were Dr. and Mrs. M. H. Newlin, parents of the bridegroom; Mrs. Sophronia C. Harwood, grandmother of the bridegroom; Mr. and Mrs. Morris Haworth, all of New London, and C. E. Haworth of Kokomo.

Mr. and Mrs. Newlin have gone to Washington, D. C., where they will spend a few days, and from there will go to Florida to spend several weeks.

On their return they will be at home temporarily at 1023 North Arsenal avenue.

The marriage of Miss Juliet Robinson and John E. Shaw will take place tonight at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Robinson, 1505 Spann avenue.

Attendants for the wedding will include Mrs. Marie Bergman, matron of honor; Herbert Shaw, best man; Donald Kidwell and Pauline Ritter, ribbon bearers; Ruth Mae Scott, ring bearer.

Miss Lucille Rainey of Detroit, vocalist, and Clarence Carson, pianist, will give the program of bridal music.

Invitations have been issued for the marriage of Miss Adele Eckler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Eckler, 2444 North Meridian street, and William Arthur Nugent of Chicago, which will take place Oct. 23, in Broadway M. E. Church. Attendants for the wedding will include Mrs. William Rider of Waynetown, matron of honor; Mrs. Thomas C. Eley of Plymouth, bridesmaids, and Francis Nugent, brother of the bridegroom, best man.

Alumni Association of Massachusetts Technical University will hold its monthly dinner in the University Club Monday.

Prof. A. A. Potter, dean of the engineering schools of Purdue, a former "Tech" graduate, will be the speaker, and his topic will be "The Function of an Engineering College."

Club Index

Hey! Study Club—Tuesday afternoon, Y. W. C. A. The program will include introduction and chapter 1 of the book, "New Italy," read by Mrs. Albert Alexander, chapter 2 by Mrs. Fred Balz, and current events by Mrs. James L. Beatty.

Independent Social Club—Tuesday afternoon. Hostess, Mrs. H. W. Tevebaugh, 1329 East Market street. The regular business meeting will be held.

Indianapolis Women's Club—Friday afternoon. The Propylaeum. Miss Frances Morrison will talk on "Youth and the Poet," and Miss Margaret will lead the conversation on "Fresh Woods and Pastures New."

Irvington Tuesday Club—Tuesday. Hostess, Mrs. Bloomfield Moore, 239 Burgess avenue. President's day will be observed by a luncheon.

Monday Club—Monday afternoon. The Propylaeum. President's day will be observed.

New Century Club—Luncheon at the Hotel Lincoln. Hostess, Mrs. I. E. Rush; assistant, Mrs. Laura B. Hancock. A program will be given following the luncheon, which is to be given in observation of President's day.

Parlor Club—Monday. Mrs. David Ross. A luncheon will be given in honor of President's day to be followed by a program of Southern dialect stories by Mrs. W. D. Long.

Present-Day Club—Monday afternoon. Hostess, Mrs. C. F. Voyles, 4150 North Meridian street. The meeting will be in the nature of a "thrill day."

Thursday Lyceum Club—Thursday afternoon. Mrs. E. G. Holmes, 3046 North Delaware street. The program will include a paper on "Tea and Tea Culture," by Mrs. W. H. Benton and current events by various members.

Zetetha Club—Wednesday afternoon. Hostess, Mrs. H. E. Robertson, 5050 East New York street. The program will include "Clubs of Today and Yesterday," by Mrs. H. L. Brewer; "Federated Clubs of Women," by Mrs. L. E. Sellers; general discussion of current events and the responses, "Benefit of Clubs."

HOOSIER HIT BY MOTOR CAR.
NOBLESVILLE, Ind., Oct. 9.—James McKelvie was hurt when a large touring

K. A. T. OFFICERS
ARE INSTALLED*Mrs. A. D. Hitz Entertains Sorority at Home.

Mrs. A. D. Hitz, 2112 Park avenue, entertained members of the Kappa Alpha Theta Alumnae Club at her home this afternoon.

Installation of officers was held, with a brief introductory humorous pantomime written by Miss Jean Brown, during which the past officers handed over their office books and official implements to the incoming executive executives.

The new officers include Mrs. Joseph Mullane, president; Miss Virginia Claybaugh, vice president; Miss Laura Pantzer, corresponding secretary; Miss Jean Brown, recording secretary; Miss Lorene Jefferies, treasurer; Mrs. James L. Murray, pan-hellenic delegate; Mrs. Maxwell Bailey, chairman of the publicity committee; Miss Julia Tutewiler, chairman of the telephone committee; Mrs. Dwight Ritter and Mrs. James Sutherland, advisory committee.

During the afternoon Miss Ross M. R. Mikela gave a talk on "Little Pill-grimages Through Europe," illustrating her remarks with various articles brought from abroad.

Assisting the hostess was Miss Ruth O'Hair and the new officers.

MY HUSBAND'S FAVORITE RECIPE*MINCE MEAT.

Ingredients—Five pounds of tender beef and a lump of suet, three pounds of English currants, four pounds of seedless raisins, three cups of cider vinegar, three and one-half pounds of granulated sugar, one tablespoonful of cinnamon, one tablespoonful of ground nutmeg, one tablespoonful of salt, two gallons of apples chopped fine, and one quart of grape juice or any fruit juice.

Method—Wash the beef and run through a meat grinder. Then cook in a vessel with about four inches of juice above meat all the time. When tender add the currants, raisins, vinegar, sugar, spices, salt and juice. Put in a large vessel and cook thirty minutes. When done add the apples, stirring until thoroughly mixed, and then cook about twenty-five or thirty minutes until the apples are cooked through. Then put in jars and seal.

MRS. LUCY A. GREEN.
231 Columbia street, Michigan City, Ind. Mrs. Green says this is an excellent recipe for home-made mince meat.

"Many of my friends say it is the best they ever tasted," she said. The Times will be glad to print YOUR husband's favorite recipe. Address Recipe Editor, Daily Times.

NOBLESVILLE, Ind., Oct. 9.—James McKelvie was hurt when a large touring car hit him as he was crossing the road. One of his arms was broken in two places, his hips were hurt and a gash cut in his head that required eleven stitches. The driver of the machine did not stop.

MOTION PICTURES.*MISTER SMITH'S THEATER*Entire Week Starting Sunday*"A Man Wanted" Romance*She had cut in on romance and adventure on a busy wire before.*But now her heart wires were tangled. She had
'wrong number,' 'busy wire,' and 'call you later.'*Can You Imagine What Happened?*Al St. John Comedy
'The Window Trimmer'*"Three Melody Girls"*Playing—1:30, 4:30, 7, 10*MOTION PICTURES.